The jury went out at 1 o'clock, one of them taking with him the overcoat and hat worn by Patrick Mahar on the night of the murder. O'Rourke saw them leave the court room with unchanged face. After an hour's absence the jury returned. The foreman, John Peacock, handed in a written verdict, but was told that the verdict must be announced. The verdict was spoken by the foreman, and was "Guilty." The prisoner heard the verdict with stolid indifference, and was unmoved when Mr. Justice Cameron, in feeling tones, sentenced him to be hanged at Milton on the 9th day of June next. The court was crowded, and all present seemed to think the verdict a just one. There is no probability of the sentence being commuted. O'Rourke's countenance never changed as he was taken back to his cell.

COOLNESS OF O'ROURKE.

The coolness and self possession of O'Rourke during the nine weary hours of Tuesday's sitting of the court were remarkable. He seemed the most unconcerned man in the court room. Not even when Pat Mahar put on the overcoat and hat he wore on the night of January 20th, showing the cuts made by the axe and telling the story of the murders in terrible and painful detail, did he show any sign of feeling. The keen-edged axes with bloody stains still remaining on them were handed up to the witness stand close by O'Rourke's seat, for identification, but he sat there with so unmoved a countenance that if the evidence had been less clear against him few of the spectators would have considered him guilty, as everyone did before a word of evidence was taken. He did not seem even to appreciate the strenuous efforts his counsel were making for his life. His attention when not fixed on any one, was devoted to the reporters who sat a few feet in front of him.

THE DOCTOR'S SECRET.—Probably no new development will more surprise the public, than to learn the secret of success of certain leading physicians. When they have a difficult case of throat or lung disease that baffles their scientific skill, they prescribe Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, having it disguised in a prescription bottle, with their own directions and name attached. The patient is cured and they get the credit.—Tribune. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.—2

A SAW fish recently captured near Jacksonville, Fla., is one of the strangest looking inhabitants of the sea, and is over eighteen feet in length, the saw being about four feet long, and armed on either side with a row of savage-looking teeth, twenty-six in number, or fifty-two in all. His skin and posterior parts are like the shark, while his fore fins, measuring across the back, while extended, are over six feet across, and resemble those of the devil fish.

EX-LIEUTENANT Governor Norman J. In my neighborhood, at Cabanne station, there has been considerable rheumatism and complaints of a similar, nature, owing to the severe changes of the weather. Many of my neighbors have tried St. Jacobs Oil and spoke of it in terms of the highest praise. A special instance you can note is that of a young man employed in my office."

A WORD OF CAUTION.—As is usually the case where an article of true merit has attained a world-wide reputation by its wonderful results, as the celebrated Electric Bitters have done, certain unprincipled parties have endeavored to imitate them, and expect to induce an unsuspecting public to purchase their fraudulent wares. Ask your druggist for the genuine Electric Bitters, that are guaranteed to cure, and take no others. Sold by Taylor & McDonold at 50c.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, MARCH 27, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Railway Notes.

A schedule of regulations pertaining to baggage has been issued by the Midland combination.

Farmers in the vicinity of Moberly are busily engaged in cutting and hauling ties to be used in the construction of the Ontario and Quebec line. The contracts for clearing the right of way west of Moberly have been awarded at prices ranging from $40 to $50 per acre.

At the Belleville assizes on Saturday, the case of Couch vs. the Midland Railway was disposed of. The action was brought by plaintiff for damages for the loss of her son, killed upon the defendant's railroad in August last, at the village of Hastings. George H. Couch, plaintiff's son, was employed as brakesman and engaged at the time in loading square timber, and going between cars to couple them was killed, and brings this action for damages. Defence—Plaintiff's son having engaged as brakesman knew the dangerous nature of the employment, and accepted the position with its attendant risks. He was warned by the conductor to be careful going between the cars, and was killed through his own neglect. The Judge submitted several questions to the Jury, which were answered. The Judge non-suited the plaintiff, being of the opinion that plaintiff had no right to recover damages, having no right legally to her son's support. Burdette and Clute for plaintiff, Bethune and Biggar for defendant.

The Weather.

Yesterday morning the weather was fine and the snow that fell during the previous night, soon disappeared. During the afternoon rain fell and continued to fall heavily all night. To-day is clearer, but the sky looks threatening, and more rain is coming. The weather probilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Winds shifting to the west and north, and increasing to high or gales. Cloudy mild weather, with occasional rain to-day, followed by colder weather to-night.

Market Fees.

The Market Committee had two meetings last week for the purpose of deciding what to do regarding the abolition of market tolls. The committee decided to submit a by-law to the Council. As we understand it, the town will not lose much money by the change, as by passing the by-law required by the statute the first six or seven clauses of the Act become of no practical use. The farmers can sell on the streets, but Peterborough has a market place, and that is where our people purchase their supplies, and not from street peddlars.

Spring.

There is every indication that spring is about to open up. All the sure signs have been seen and the traditional straw hat and barefooted boy have made their appearance on the streets. All the feathered songsters, even to the crow, that frequents this part of the country have been seen, the river is open, the roads are bad, the streets muddy, the air mild, and in fact the general appearance of every thing and every body betokens that spring is here.

Gaseous.

In consequence of the heavy rain last night the moon did not show up as she should have done, and the gas lamps not being lit, the streets were in a state of total darkness. Even as it was, there was something wrong with the gas, especially in some of the churches, in one of which we understand, lamps had to be lit, in order to carry on the devotional exercises.

Newspaper Postage.

A deputation from the Ontario Press Association, consisting of Messrs. Pense, of Kingston Whig; Trayes of Port Hope Times, and Hough, of Cobourg World, waited on the Ministers on Friday to urge the propriety of abolishing postage on newspapers. It is sincerely to be hoped that their mission will be successful.

The Townsends Coming Again.

After several years' tour in Europe and the United States, this company will appear in Bradburn's opera house, for one night only, on Thursday evening 30th instant. We clip the following from the Columbus, Ohio, Journal;—"On Monday night Shakespeare's tragedy of Richard III. was produced in magnificent style, and in the role of the hunchback tyrant Mr. Harry Townsend proved himself a great actor. . . . Mr. Townsend's mastery of the difficult character was perfect. To the eye and ear of the competent critic it left nothing to be desired. The crafty, ambitious, bloody and remorseless Richard that Shakespeare drew becomes, through Mr. Townsend's skillful personation, a living entity. Every scene is produced with vivid and startling effect, and the murder of King Henry, the wooing of Queen Elizabeth, the weird bivouac on Bosworth Field, and the final scene, in which Richard is slain after the terrible combat with Richmond, were faithfully represented. All the company sustained their several characters, and the unanimous verdict of the audience was that the great drama was grandly played. Miss Carol, in the interlude, sang a charming song so charmingly that she was loudly encored, and ravished the "gods" with a delightful comic ditty. A laughable farce concluded a superb entertainment."

Number One Company.

The following are the squads selected for the match for Col. Rogers' cup on Good Friday:—

COL.-SERGT. COCKS,

C. L. Huffman,	George Shaw,
Eastwood,	Dunsford,

SERGEANT LECH,

Morgan,	Peck,
C. S. Shaw,	Orde.

Any other members of the Company wishing to compete are requested to give their names to the Captain, and they will be added to the several squads. The winners will afterwards shoot off for the possession of the cup.

Railway Time Table.

The following gives the time of arrival and departure of the Midland and Grand Junction trains at Peterborough station:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.20 a.m., and 4.30 and 6.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.35 and 11.50 a.m., and 6.15 and 9.55 p.m.

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART, at 7 a.m. and 3 p.m.

ARRIVE at 11 a.m. and 6.10 p.m.

A New J. P.

We learn that Mr. Thomas Menzies has been appointed a Justice of the Peace for the County of Peterborough. We have no doubt that Ald. Menzies, J. P., will discharge the duties of the office without fear, favor or affection. He will now have a chance to impose a fine on any of his fellow Councillors if they should ever get fractious around the Board.

Enterprising.

The office of our excellent co-temporary the Brantford Evening Telegram having been scorched by fire, the type etc. got rather mixed, but like the fabled Phoenix of old, the paper has arisen not exactly from its ashes, and for a few days it will appear as an eighth sheet until matters are arranged. Such enterprise is commendable.

The Assault Case.

The McGhee-Murphy case will probably come before the Police Magistrate to-morrow morning, information having been laid against two of Murphy's companions, for obstructing a police officer in the discharge of his duty. Both of the men were served by Chief Johnston on Saturday, without any difficulty.

Giving up Business.

As Mr. Ruston is about to give up business, all parties owing him are requested to call and settle immediately, and persons having claims against him will please send them in.

THE CAR WORKS.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—The carworks by-law is at present being discussed by the ratepayers from various points of view. At the public meeting the other evening it was partially ventilated, and most of the speakers who took opposite sides kept pretty near the truth in their remarks. Since then, however, I find that misrepresentations on many points are being made by those opposed to the by-law. And I find in Saturday's Times many gross perversions of what are given as facts, I therefore ask your space to point out what I conceive to be reasons in favor of the by-law being passed by the ratepayers.

The by-law provides Sec. 3, Sub., Sec. A. that no portion of the money shall be paid to the said Company until stock to the amount of $50,000 is bona fide subscribed, fifty per cent. thereof, that is $25,000 is paid in, and not less than $20,000 expended in the land and buildings thereon, and evidence thereof given to the council, and a mortgage thereon to the amount of the advance of $20,000 given to the town; on this being done, the town is to pay over $10,000. Surely the town or any individual would consider this a good security for $10,000. Then no further sum can be called for until the remaining fifty per cent. $25,000, of the capital is paid in and the further sum of $20,000 expended upon the equipment of the works and satisfactory evidence thereof given to the Council. When this is done, that is when $50,000 of the stockholders' money is paid in and $40,000 expended in land, buildings and equipment, the town will be called upon to pay the remaining $10,000, the by-law provides may be paid to Company. Now, when the town has paid the $20,000, the paid up capital of the Company will be $70,000, which, being expended in land and buildings upon which the town has a first mortgage for the $20,000 advanced, together with interest, at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, which payment of interest must be made within three months after the 31st day of December in each year. So far, as to the security the town will have, for the bona fide construction of the works.

Then comes the question of the right of the town to take stock. If the necessary legislation is obtained to enable the town to take stock to the amount of the $20,000, our town will have such representation on the Board of Directors as will enable the Council for the time being to see that the affairs of the Company are honestly managed. If any dishonesty or crookedness is attempted, by which the town would be likely to suffer, the law provides a speedy remedy, and the Directors are liable personally, notwithstanding the limited liability of shareholders, but I submit it is too much to ask sensible men to vote down a scheme on the ground that responsible men, who have characters as well as money to lose should band together to defraud their fellow citizens. The by-law makes ample provision for investigating the affairs of the Company, and the courts are open to any one who can show that fraud is practised or attempted. Therefore I have confidence that the stock of the town will receive the same dividends as the stock of the individuals who are promoting the Company, and I believe both the private stock holders and the town will reap a fair return for the amount of stock which they may pay in.

The same arguments that are used now against this By-law were used in 1856 against the proposal to take stock in the Millbrook branch. And the writer, with others who were promoting that scheme, were stigmatized as being about to sell the town to Port Hope and the railway company. The result has shown that the enterprise was worthy of the citizens' support. We have all these years been enjoying the benefits of the railway, and are now receiving the interest on all the money we were ever called upon to pay, or become liable for.

But it is said Government will not grant you the power to subscribe for stock, and then you will only have the Company's mortgage as a security for the $20,000, and the works will be in all probability worthless, as those at Port Hope became. Now, in answer to this, I say that the mortgage of the Company on the property will be good security for the $20,000; as there will be the land and buildings, which, should the car-works prove unremunerative, can be turned to some other use. The times are different now to what they have ever been in Canada. Money is cheaper than it ever has been. At the time the Port Hope Company was started money could not be borrowed at a less rate than eight to nine per cent.—now it can be got for six; and I have no doubt the debentures to pay the bonus asked for now can be sold at less than this rate. Then there is the enlarged territory within which there will always be a market for manufactured goods, either railway cars, or other goods which the proposed Company will have power under their letters of incorporation to manufacture. The great difficulty with us in Canada hitherto has been a too restricted market. Now and from henceforth this will not be a trouble. Ontario must become to the Dominion what Massachusetts, Connecticut and the Eastern States are to the Western States of the Union. It is by manufacturing for the Dominion the people of Ontario will mainly have to live. This is admitted by all, and every industry started on an honest basis ought to succeed. All the speakers at the meeting the other night said they "would like to see the car works started;" but what are they doing to start them? Throwing cold water on the efforts of the men who are doing what they conceive best to forward the industry. Mr. Cox said, very fairly, "I want the monied men of the town, like Mr. Cluxton, Mr. Burnham, Mr. Lech and others, who have large properties in and about the town, to take stock. I want all men who are able to take some stock, so that they may be identified with the works, take a part in their management, and so become interested in them that they will not doubt those who have taken stock, and and fault with them, 'picking holes in their coats,' as it were."

I have said nothing about the increase in population and in the value of property that will naturally follow the establishment of this or any other large industry—that is admitted. We cannot be too cautious, and we can be too sanguine and extravagant. Taking this matter as it is proposed, so far as I am able to judge of it, I firmly believe it will be a thing much to be regretted hereafter if the views of those who oppose the Car Works By-law are allowed to prevail.

I may further add, in conclusion, that Mr. Hazlitt's fear, as expressed at the meeting, that there is no security that the works will go on is unfounded. The By-law provides that unless the Company shall within one year from the final passing of the By-law have fulfilled the conditions necessary to entitle it to the payment of the first sum of $10,000, the By-law shall be void, and no debentures shall be issued, and no sum paid thereunder.

I am yours truly,

Peterborough, March 27, 1882. H.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

NAPANEE.

Special to the Review March 28.

A MOST HORRIBLE MURDER was committed in the Tichborne House barn here this morning. Maggie Howie, of Morven, Ernestown Township, while milking, was struck on the top of the head with an axe, killing her instantly. The murderer is supposed to be Michael Lee, of Perth, who has been hoster at the Tichborne House, all winter. The deceased was kitchen girl and it is rumored was engaged to Lee but they had some difficulty, and it is supposed Lee in a fit of jealousy or anger struck her on the head with the axe while she was milking. The deceased not returning as usual, the cook became anxious, and went in search of her, finding her on the floor quite dead but still warm. Lee was nowhere to be found, and is supposed to have took to the woods. A number of rigs have gone out in search of him, and it is supposed will soon be successful in finding and arrestin him.

LATER.—Lee, the murderer of Maggie Howie, was captured about two and a half miles from here. He was making his way towards Kingston, along the railroad track, through the woods. He offered very little resistance when he was captured, but tried to commit suicide by falling on the ground and striking his head against large stones, but was prevented from carrying out his intentions. His forehead is badly cut and bleeding. He is now lodged in the police station. An inquest will be held this afternoon.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Newspaper Postage.

The Ottawa Free Press of Saturday evening says that the deputation from the Ontario Press Association, consisting of Mr. Pense of the Kingston Whig, Mr. Trayes, of the Port Hope Times, and Mr. Hough, of the Cobourg World, had an interview yesterday with Hon. Mr. O'Connor, Sir L. Tilley, Sir A. Campbell, and Hon. Mr. Bowell, and urged upon them the propriety of abolishing the postage on newspapers within the counties where they are published. The ministers admitted the reasonableness of the request, and the deputation are satisfied that their representations have not been without effect. The revenue collected from the newspapers is only $47,000 in the whole Dominion—an amount that hardly pays the cost and trouble of collection, while it is a vexatious burden to the press, already heavily tazed in other ways.

Personal.

Miss Morris, who for years was a member of Carswell Lodge, I.O.G.T., having entered into the holy bonds of matrimony, we are requested by the Secretary, Mr. A. Galt, on behalf of the members of the lodge, to tender to her their sincere thanks for the great interest she manifested in their progress, and to extend to her their good wishes for her future welfare and prosperity.

Dr. Alexander, who has so ably attended to Dr. Kincaid's practice during the last four months, is about to return to Ottawa. Dr. Kincaid's parliamentary duties being finished, he will be in a position to attend to his patients as usual hereafter. It is but fair to say that Dr. Alexander has been a most successful practitioner, and leaves Peterborough with a good record, and the many friends he has made during his short stay here will join with us in wishing him success in the future.

A Strike Feared.

We understand that all the shoemakers in town have asked their employers for an increase of wages, and informed them that unless the desired increase was granted, they would strike in a body on the First of April. Although timely warning was given, up to the time of writing only Messrs. J. Carey and Holmes & Co. have granted the demands made, but as to whether the others will consent or not we are unable to say.

Complimentary.

A recent Winnipeg exchange contains an account of a complimentary supper tendered to a young gentleman about leaving for the east. Among the names of those present we notice Messrs. A. Elliott, F. Winch, Wm. Hughson and several others from Peterborough. The exchange says that the singing of Mr. Alex. Elliott was a feature of the evening, and was appreciated by every person.

The Weather.

The weather probilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Winds gradually shifting to the south-east and south-west and increasing in force. Fine, comparatively cool weather to-day, followed by milder weather to-morrow, and showers in some localities.

The "Golden Lion."

Workmen have been engaged all morning in taking in the "Golden Lion" sign. We are informed that the is to be thoroughly repaired, regilded and the platform on which it sits fixed, so that it can be placed in position again and come within the eighteen inches' space allowed by law.

Smelting Works.

We learn that there is a probability that large smelting works for silver lead ore, will be put up in this or some neighboring town, to smelt silver-bearing lead ores from Lake Superior and other mines. The promoters are now negotiating for a site for the works and other facilities.

Lamented Death.

We regret to have to report the unexpected death of Mr. Theodore B. Clementi, P. L. S., who died last night after a short illness. Mr. Clementi had been making preparations to proceed to the North-West on a survey for the Government.

Accident.

We regre to learn that Mrs. R. A. Brennan, well known to many of our readers, met with an accident in Madoc last week, and has had to remain there since, not being able to join her husband's opera company.

The Assault Cases.

We were in error yesterday when we stated that the McGhee-Murphy cases were to come up to-day. We should have said to-morrow.

THE CZAR'S CORONATIOF.

Moscow, March 27.—The object of fixing the coronation of the Czar for a late date is to permit the exhibition at Moscow to be closed before the occurrence of the ceremony. A scheme is under consideration for enrolling a number of the inhabitants to act as constables during the ceremony.

DR. LAMSON'S CASE.

The authorities stopped the exhibition. Five thousand attended the funeral yesterday.

AFFAIRS IN IRELAND.

LONDON, March 27.—The O'Donoghue, M.P. for Tralee, replying to Mr. Justin McCarthy's circular to the Home Rulers urging them to vote against the cloture, says the defeat of Mr. Gladstone's Ministry would be fatal to the best interest of Ireland. It would hand over the Land Act to those who would do their best to defeat its working. The O'Donoghue considers that if wise counsels had prevailed Ireland would already be contented, and that the cloture is a legitimate and necessary assertion of power. A desperate affray occurred at Cloghan, Ireland, between soldiers and emergency men. The latter discharged their revolvers. Several arrests have been made. An attempt was made yesterday to blow up the house of the agent of Lord Clonbeck's estate with dynamite. The inmates were uninjured, but the house was party demolished. No arrests have been made. Despatches from Ireland report that a disguised band cut off the nose of a man because in a poor law guardian contest he canvassed in opposition to the candidate of the Land League. An explosive shell was thrown into a house near Letterkenny, county Donegal, to-day, and two rooms were completely destroyed.

THE CAR WORKS.

THERE appears to be some doubt as to the actual rate of taxation which will be required to meet the Sinking Fund and interest necessary to repay the sum of $20,000, proposed to be granted to the car works. That the ratepayers may not be misled, we have had a calculation made and the following figures which we give are guaranteed to be correct.

Assuming that that the money raised by the town for the purpose of paying the interest and creating the Sinking Fund can be invested at the rate of five per cent. per annum, (and this is a low rate in view of the fact that the funds in hand can always be used to redeem debentures maturing from time to time, most of which bear six per cent.), and that the whole debt is to be paid off by direct taxation in 20 years the amount required to be raised every year for this purpose is $1604.85. The total assessed value of the town according to the last revised assessment roll is $2,557,045, upon which a rate of only sixty-two one hundredths (62-100) of a mill per annum will give $1585.66. The taxes therefore will be as follows :—

On an assessment of	$100	6¼	cents per annum
" "	200	12½	" "
" "	300	18¾	" "
" "	400	25	" "
" "	500	31¼	" "
" "	600	37½	" "
" "	700	43¾	" "
" "	800	50	" "
" "	900	56¼	" "
" "	1000	62½	" "
" "	2000	1.25	" "

that is for every $100 of assessment the small sum of six and one quarter cents will be sufficient to pay off the whole debt in the time named, in the event of the enterprise proving an absolute failure and the town failing to receive a dividend on its stock.

If, however, the shareholders of the Company receive even five per cent. per annum on their investment, the town will only have to raise $604.85 per annum for twenty years, after which it will be the owner in perpetuity of this $20,000 of stock, and the income derived therefrom will be so much clear gain to the ratepayers.

It will be observed that the above calculation is based upon the assumption that the whole sum of twenty thousand dollars is to be repaid in 20 years. The Act consolidating the debt of the town only requires one per cent. Sinking Fund to be raised in each year, that is $1,200 per annum instead of $1,604, so that in reality the taxes will be only three-fourth of the amounts above stated.

THE DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

Prince Leopold's Grant.

LONDON, March 25.—A lively discussion ensued over the proposed additional yearly allowance of $10,000 to Prince Leopold and Princess Helena. Mr. Labouchere, in leading the Opposition, was seconded by the fiery Mr. Healy, who said that he did not know what a prince was like, as he had never seen one. Mr. Gladstone protested against the violence of the speeches, and when he asserted that the grant to Princess Louise was made without opposition he drew down confusion on the heads of his colleagues. The senior member for Leicester, Mr. Peter Taylor, contradicted the Prime Minister, stating that he had voted against the grant in the respectable company of Messrs. Chamberlain and Fawcett, who now, as Cabinet Ministers, occupied the Government bench beside the Prime Minister. The sting of this observation was that they were now compelled either to vote for the grant, or to walk out of the House without voting.

A STORM ON THE SUN.

Extraordinary Commotion Indicated by Sun-Spots.

After a time of comparative quiet another storm has burst upon the sun. Two or three weeks ago the great disk of the luminary shown in the telescope with hardly a spot or a variation anywhere in brilliancy, except the ordinary mottling, which sometimes appears strikingly suggestive of a mass of tremendous flames, on the tops of which the spectator is looking down. Then a spot of small size appeared and moved slowly across the disk. Presently a congeries of little spots broke forth like an eruption, surrounded by faculæ in glowing waves and tortuous banks.

Cloudy days intervening interrupted the sight, but with every return of sunshiny weather the telescope revealed new spots and new groups, until now the sun is spotted like a leopard. The sight with a magnifying power low enough to show the whole disk at once is wonderful. The spots are of all sizes, from great caverns in whose dark purple depth the eye fancies it can detect strange forms, mysterious creations of the sun, to little specks that but for their congregating in the neighborhood of the larger spots would hardly be noticed. It is a beautiful spectacle, and only systematic observations and measurements can convince the beholder that he is witnessing such a battle of elemental forces as this earth has never beheld since it hardened from a rotund mass of firey gases into a firm and habitable globe. A little careful watching and calculation soon show the real meaning of what the telescope reveals. It is the heaving and lashing and swirling of a storm, not a storm in any sense in which we understand the word from our experience here on the earth, but a storm born, probably, in the interior of the sun itself, and exercising its fearul energy upon a ball of glowing gases. But those gases are in the most unheard-of and marvellous condition. Among them are many whose names are familiar to students of chemistry, and which in our laboratories are airy things that reveal themselves only by their effects. In the sun they are heated up to such a degree that no earthly chemist would recognize them, at least not by their conduct, for in that unparalleled furnace they are freed from many of the laws which chemistry inposes upon them here. And more wonderful yet, men of science tell us so tremendous is the pressure to which they are subjected in that heart and centre of gravitation that, though they are gases still, they must resemble in their mechanical behavior rather tar or honey than the airy substances which we know under their names. These gases, continually ascending or moving away from the centre, become partially cooled at what appears to us as the surface of the sun, and fall back in showers of hot, metallic rain. It is amid such surroundings that the sun storms rage, and from such that they are born.

Here is the most splendid field for discovery that is open to men in the physical universe. Science has learned a great deal about the sun since the first Herschel taught that it might be a habitable globe, but yet it has hardly reached the threshold of knowledge in this direction. It has learned that the existence of life upon our globe depends upon the sun, and that any considerable change, one way or the other, in the amount of heat and light with which the sun supplies us would extinguish the little torch of human existence and end the history of our race. It has learned that the sun is not the clear, calm, unspotted and undisturbed luminary that it was supposed to be before the telescope and the spectorscope were invented, but that it is, on the contrary, the scene of the most tremendous commotion, the sport of forces mighty enough to dissipate the earth in a puff of fiery vapor.—New York Sun.

ILL-USED EXCURSIONISTS.

Indignation Meeting of Passengers Bound for the North-West—A Serious Hitch.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 24.—An indignation meeting of the passengers via the excursion train from Ontario to Winnipeg was held at 10 o'clock this p. m. Mr. Nunn was called to the chair, and Mr. Stitt acted as secretary.

The Chairman opened the meeting by briefly stating its object, and calling upon the secretary to read the following resolutions, viz:—

"That whereas we, the ladies, gentlemen, and children present, of the province of Ontario, to the number of upwards of five hundred, were induced by the representatives of the Great Western railway to engage passage to Winnipeg via the Great Western railway, Chicago and North-Western railway, and St. Paul and Manitoba railway; and whereas, on our arrival at St. Paul on Friday, the 24th inst., at 12 o'clock noon, it appears and was so stated by the superintendant of the St. Paul and Manitoba railway that they had no cars for the transport of the said passengers by their road to Manitoba; and further, that the North-Western railway was urged to allow their cars to go on through to our destination, which they refused, thereby compelling the said passengers to remain at the depot during the following night without sleeping accommodations, and also thereby causing the colonists, particularly those who had large families, a great amount of unnecessary expense that they were ill able to afford; and further, that from the statements of the superintendant of the St. Paul and Manitoba railway it is very uncertain as to when they would be able to convey us through;

"Therefore, we consider all the said railways are deserving of the censure of the assembly, particularly the St. Paul and Manitoba railway, in not providing cars for the immediate transportation of the passengers to their destination; and that inasmuch as the Chicago and North-Western railway refused to allow their cars to go through when urged to do so, we advise all person contemplating going to the North-West to avoid going via the Chicago and North-Western railway."

Mr. T. N. Rogers then moved that the resolutions be adopted and sent for publication, that others might take warning by this disgraceful treatment, caused by a flagrant violation of agreement on the part of said railways. He hoped that the proper interpretation might be placed upon the object of this meeting.

This motion readily found a seconder, and was warmly supported by all present.

It was also stated Mr. Swain, agent for the Michigan Central railway, was exonerated from all blame, as he had done all in his power to accommodate the passengers on their trip and to render it as pleasant as possible.

SUSPICIOUS OCCURRENCE.

Horrible Death of a Man near Dundas—Murder or accident?—The Details.

HAMILTON, March 26.—Early this (Sunday) morning a shocking accident or murder occurred on the track of the Great Western Railway, whereby a man named Joseph Poole, tollgate keeper near Dundas, came to his death. The man had evidently been run over by both the New York and limited fast express trains, which pass through to the east, about two and five a.m. respectively. The accident or murder took place about three miles west of this city, near Dundas, and was first reported by Manuel Lyons, who lives in that vicinity, and had occasion to go on the railway track about eight o'clock this morning. He found the body of the man lying on the track between the rails terribly mangled, with head and one leg severed from the body. The clothing also was nearly all torn off. Mr. Lyons, on looking around, found the head at some distance on the side of the bank. Other pieces of the body were found scattered along the track. One leg with a boot on was picked up fully half a mile distant from where the body was found. Lyons proceeded to this city, when a train was sent with a box and the remains brought here and placed in the dead-house. Subsequently they were taken to Dundas by the order of Coroner Walker, of that place, who will impanel a jury and hold an inquest to-morrow. Robert Lyons, another of the party who found the body, states that about midnight he heard two shots fired in the direction where the accident occurred. Hence there is a suspicion of the man having met with foul play first, and of having afterwards been thrown on the track. In fact, the general feeling in the vicinity is that Poole was murdered about thirty feet distant from where the body was found, and on the side of the bank there is a pool of blood, near which was found a sling-shot, or rather a heavy piece of lead tied in a handkerchief with wire attached, also a dark lantern. It is supposed that the body was placed on the track to be crushed by the train. It is also stated that a club has been found on the edge of the woods near the scene. Poole leaves a wife and small family. It is reported that for some time Poole and his wife have not lived agreeably together. On Saturday a stranger was observed with Poole almost all day, and it is believed they went away together after having a few drinks. From the suspicious aspect of the case Chief Stewart and Detective McKenzie with Chief Fitzgerald, of Dundas, are out looking into the matter to see if they can get any clue. The body is so bruised and cut that nothing short of a close examination would disclose a wound from a bullet. The excitement in the neighbourhood is intense.

What will make a man or woman more cross or illnatured than a severe attack of rheumatism? What will effect a cure as promptly as the Great German Remedy St. Jacobs Oil? Mr. William Davidge, related the following significant facts bearing upon the above query, to a representative of a prominent Philadelphia Daily. "My father, the old comedian, now with Hill's Troupe, has been very enthusiastic about the powerful effects of St. Jacobs Oil in rheumatic cases for some time past. He had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for years, and no treatment he received appeared to do him any good. I heard him sometime since praising St. Jacobs Oil, and he appeared to be delighted with the way the Oil acted in his case. Not long after that I had a bad rheumatic attack myself, caused, I think, by exposure while traveling, and remembering what my father had said about St. Jacobs Oil was strictly true, for before I had used much of the remedy my rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have not been bothered in that way since. That Oil is certainly a wonderful discovery, and does a vast amount of good." We should say that Mr. Davidge is the well-known and popular actor

N. H. DOWNS' ELIXIR

Vegetable Balsamic

ELIXIR!

This valuable medicine is purely vegetable, the discovery of which was the result of many years' close study, in order to discover the cause, the symptoms and the cure—viz.:

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Influenza, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis,

and every species of oppression of the Chest and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir has been duly administered its efficacy has been invariably manifested, convincing the most incredulous that

CONSUMPTION

Is not incurable, if properly attended to.—Consumption, at its commencement, is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is more observable, but rather dry—then becomes local fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration,

IT HEALS THE ULCERATED SURFACES

and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are often drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, generally destroys the hectic before the cough is entirely gone. Consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions for cure of pulmonary diseases. Price 25cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold everywhere.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

AN UNFAIR REPORT.

THE MAYOR said that Mr. Geo. A. Cox was present and would like to be heard regarding the report that had been sent to Ottawa regarding the high rates charged on the Midland Railway.

MR. GEO. A. COX said that he had cause to feel hurt and injured regarding the report that had been sent to Ottawa in answer to the questions asked by the Dominion Government, regarding the freight rates, etc., of the Midland Railway, with which he had the honor to be connected. He had tried to advance Peterborough's interests for years in every manner he could, and, all would admit, he had accomplished something. He had, during his connection with the road, received a cordial support from the citizens at large, but this time he had received "a blow below the belt," when he least expected it. He held in his hand a copy of the answers sent to Ottawa from Peterborough, in response to the questions asked regarding Mr. McCarthy's Bill. The answers were untrue and would do both the town and railway harm. It was very discouraging for him to be thwarted at the present time, in such a manner. The report was said to be from the Council, but if it had come from an obscure sheet, that the railway quite correctly would not consent to subsidize every week, he would not have found so much fault with it. He then read the report, which is a very one-sided one, calculated to do the Midland Railway a grievous wrong. He left it the members of the Council to say whether the statements made were correct, and whether they would endorse them or not. He submitted that as a large ratepayer, and one who had taken a great interest in municipal affairs, as the Committee had power to add to their numbers, they should have, through common courtesy, called in some of the large shippers and himself to make explanations, before the answers were sent. In other places this course had been followed, but here such was not the case. The charges cited are strictly and positively untrue, and some of them are so glaringly false that they are not worthy of notice. He then quoted figures to show how the difference arose. The longer lines always allow the shorter lines a larger percentage of the figures. For instance, a Belleville merchant, from Montreal to Belleville, would have to pay far more than the Midland would for the same distance, and if some Belleville bills were procured it would be seen that the difference paid by the Peterborough merchant would not be very great. In order to show that the rates on the Midland are as low as it is possible to make them, he stated that the gross earnings last year between Peterborough and Port Hope were $2370 per mile per year. Deducting the working expenses, there was left a net earning of $995.40 per mile. The bonded debt is $25,000, and requires, at 5 per cent., $1250 per year to pay the interest, leaving a deficiency of $7650 for the 31 miles. So that, for the first time in years, the owners had been paid five per cent. on their bonds. It will thus be seen that were it not for the larger earnings from the heavy freight and through grain from the Georgian Bay, it would be impossible to keep the line open even with the present rates. He asked if it was fair to misrepresent and injure the railway and town as had been done by the report? He felt that the report did not embody the sentiments of the citizens or the councillors. It has been represented that our millers and merchants are suffering from high rates, but all must remember that it was impossible for a short line to carry as cheaply as a long one. To show that Peterborough is not placed at any disadvantage, he instanced Guelph. The rate on flour from that place to Montreal is the same as from Peterborough. Of course the distance is greater, but Guelph is on a main line, and that made a difference. He would like to know if our millers and farmers can't grind and grow wheat as cheap as those at Guelph, and thus meet at Montreal or Liverpool on even terms? The report was calculated to drive away manufacturers, who would never locate here in the face of such statements as were made therein. The Midland Railway is now spending $10,000 a month or $120,000 a year in Peterborough, giving better train accommodation than ever the town had before, and doing all they could to build up our town. He returned thanks for the manner in which he had been received, and resumed his seat amid applause.

Councillor DENNE said that he answered the questions in accordance with the wishes of the ratepayers. All the statements can be proven, and if necessary he will produce the documents at Ottawa. The ratepayers knew their own interests. He gave Mr. Cox credit for working for the town. He went to Montreal to see Mr. Porteous to make rates, but received no satisfaction. Since then, however, flour had been reduced ten cents, but the crops were all moved. There are 100 similar cases to those mentioned. He asked how much bar iron cost from Montreal to Peterborough?

Mr. A. WHITE, General Traffic Agent, stated that iron cost from 22 to 30 cts. from Montreal, 15 cts. in car loads, and 20 cts. in small quantities, from Belleville here.

Councillor DENNE said that he saw a bill charging 26 cents from Montreal.

Mr. W. CLUXTON said that he was not conversant with the matter under discussion. The Midland Railway did not discriminate but the Grand Trunk did. He was sorry that the report was so hurriedly sent down, before the views of the leading ratepayers, and shippers had been consulted. The freights to-day are the same as they were when the road from here to Port Hope was first built. He complimented Mr. Cox for his energy and endeavors, to accommodate Peterborough shippers, and thought the present rates were fair and equitable. The Midland has no competitor, and the rates never change summer or winter. Taking the whole aspect of the Midland Railway, he was in favor of aiding Mr. Cox in every manner they could, and not tie his hands. The Grand Trunk did not discriminate this side of Toronto, but the line did in favor of large shippers, and had done so for years. At present it is almost impossible to ship freight in winter, the charges were so excessive. The present policy was to favor Chicago against Canada. A competing line was wanted, and if we had one, Peterborough would soon be a large city. He referred to a conservation with Mr. Porteous of the Grand Trunk, and said he was a fine business man and always acted honorable with him. Mr. A White of the Midland, was brought up under Grand Trunk care and could do more business in one day than an ordinary man could in three, and do it better. He instanced several cases of unfair treatment at the hands of the Grand Trunk. In summer when there was competition by water he could ship for a very small sum, 5 cents per bushel for wheat. He was always ready to cry down an unjust thing, and opposed the answers that had been given to the questions. If anything more was to be done regarding the questions he would like to appear before the committee and give his views. The G. T. R. rates were changing almost every day. He shipped clover seed to Liverpool to-day for 48 cents.

Councillor RUTHERFORD asked Mr. Cluxton if he was satisfied with the present freight rates?

Mr. CLUXTON said that it cost 4 cents for wheat from Peterborough to Port Hope, and he did not think that the Midland could carry it any cheaper, and he would not find any fault whatever with the charges.

Councillor DENNE said he had asked Mr. Cluxton to appear befor the Committee.

Mr. CLUXTON did not remember it.

Councillor CAHILL asked Councillor Menzies if he agreed with the report?

Councillor MENZIES said he had nothing to do with preparing the report. As a merchant he had no fault to find, as he thought the rates were fair. In the matter of tickets, the Grand Trunk discriminated in favor of Peterborough and perhaps they did the same in the freights. The town's and railway's interests are identical and we should aid one another all we could.

Councillor DENNE said that Councillor Menzies said he would assist him all he could, but that as he was connected with the Grand Trunk he could not interfere.

Councillor CAHILL eulogized Mr. Cox's management of the Midland, and said he was building up the town greatly. The other places complained that Mr. Cox was doing too much for Peterborough. He favored repudiating the report altogether. As Councillor Denne's men did not support him, and if that gentleman had "a crow to pick" with the Midland, let him do it himself and let the Council not interfere.

Councillor DENNE said he had no "crow to pick."

Councillor RICHARDSON said that Mr. Geo. Hilliard was a large shipper, and he had never heard him say a word against the Midland. He was always well supplied with cars and given every accommodation, as did all other shippers. He believed that every road should have a fair living profit. He felt confident that large shippers could not say a single word against the freight rates of the Midland, and from the figures given by Mr. Cox, he knew that the statements made were fair and uncolored.

Mr. JAMES STEVENSON could not add anything that Mr. Cluxton had said. He did not hear anything about the report until he heard it read here. He regretted that such a document had been sent as the town and Midland are identical. The management had been slurred. Sometimes freight came through here very cheap, and in other cases for a short distance a larger price was charged, but if the charges were exhorbitant, they were soon remedied. He had never had any trouble in shipping under the present management. The charge of four cents for grain was a fair one and he had paid 4½ for years. He was the heaviest importer in town and this year he had got lower freights than ever before. He had seen cases in which charges appeared high, but when fully examined they were fair. Last year he brought a car of fire brick from Montreal to Port Hope for $20 and from Port Hope to Peterborough for $18, that seemed high, but a month afterwards the Grand Trunk charged him $34 for the same, but the Midland charge was the same.

Mr. Cox explained that the first case mentioned on the Grand Trunk was a mistake, it should have been $40 instead of $20, but as the G.T.R. had made the mistake they kept to their bargain but made things all right on the second occasion.

Mr. STEVENSON brought freight from Port Hope to Peterborough cheaper than from Montreal to Port Hope. He had heard complaints regarding high freights, particularly regarding iron. He thought that if the bills were examined they would be found to be the same as his had been. On Saturdays large numbers came to town and outside places complained that the Midland by issuing one fare tickets took business away from the surrounding places. He thought it was a pity that such a report had been sent as Peterborough was well used by the Midland.

Mr. MACDONALD, of Lindsay, a large shipper was sorry to hear so much of discrimination in favor of Peterborough, as he was a citizen of another town. The Midland rates were fair and all the officials had always met him half way, and even further sometimes. He spoke strongly against the Grand Trunk unfairness. The Midland officials do all they can to accommodate their patrons. He thought it unfortunate that the report had been sent and would like to see it amended.

Mr. Cox while much obliged for the kindly words of the large shippers, as to the Midland feel confident that if Mr. Hickson was present here this evening he could explain and defend the policy of his Company to the entire satisfaction of any reasonable man. It must be remembered that the local business of the Grand Trunk was not sufficient to maintain the road in its present state of efficiency, and it was only since that Company had been able to compete for a portion of the through grain trade from Chicago and other western points, that it had taken its present highly satisfactory position amongst the principal railways of the American continent. It is true that the through rate from Chicago to the sea board is lower in proportion to the distance than from local points, but that was not saying that the local rates were too high. In the American market they were obliged to compete with American railways, and we should be proud that we have a Canadian railway able to compete for and carry American grain through Canadian territory to the Canadian sea ports, instead of letting it all go through American territory to American sea ports, and when we add to that the fact that the money thus earned has enabled the management to raise the road from a state of unsafety, and bankruptcy to its present state of high efficiency, we should eulogize and support the management rather than find fault with it. It must be remembered that a large amount of English capital invested in Canadian railways was not receiving even the five per cent. interest to which it was entitled, and while that was the case it was unfair to characterize the rates as too high or to blame the management for maintaining the efficiency of the road by carrying through freight without which the railway could not be kept in safe running order; a different policy on the part of the G. T. R. with reference to through freights would also mean annihilation to our Canadion steamboat lines, plying between Canada and Europe, all of which depend to a large extent upon the through trade handed them by the Grand Trunk Railway for their very existence in conclusion he would say that the Midland was giving the same rates on grain flour to Montreal and Liverpool, from Peterborough as there was charged from Guelph and other western points. The was not a statement made in the memorial that could not be flatly contradicted. All the towns on the line were just as well served regarding rates and accommodation as Peterborough. The policy of the road is to build up the line and the places on it. To-day the company is expending more money here than they earn from Peterborough to Port Hope. When he first assumed his present position, Lindsay had a ½ cent cheaper rate than Peterborough, but he made the two rates equal. He was satisfied that the Grand Trunk was acting fairly, and would at a future date meet all the requirments of their patrons.

Moved by Councillor KELLY, seconded by Councillor RUTHERFORD,—That this council having considered the questions referred to it by the special committee of the House of Commons having charge of Mr. McCarthy's bill for the constitution of a railway Commission, respectfully submit that there is not at present any necessity or demand for such a court. The town of Peterborough served as it is by the Midland Railway of Canada, by its two divisions terminating at Port Hope and Belleville respectively, has no ground for complaint as to freights charged to its shippers and importers, but on the contrary, that company has fairly met the reasonable demands and requirements of its customers, who, with one or two exceptions, are satisfied with the existing state of things, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the said special committee.

Councillor RUTHERFORD said that the report was a "one man" one, and should have been submitted to some other persons before being sent down. He thought in view of the speeches he had heard that the statements made were not correct. The interests of the town and railway were closely bound together, especially as the railway owed over $70,000 to the town, in fact we owned a good portion of the line. Large shippers said the rates were fair, and the report should be rescinded. If that was not done he felt confident that the town was standing in its own light.

Councillor POUSSETTE thought Peterborough had no cause for complaint against the Midland. From the remarks made one would infer that Peterborough had an advantage over the other towns regarding the Saturday market tickets, but such was not the case, as all the other towns were treated the same. He had always regarded the Grand Trunk as a good institution, and it had a great interest in the Midland. The Midland, as all would allow, was doing all it could to promote the interests of its patrons, and as the two roads are so closely connected, the Grand Trunk will soon follow suit and help us. He was in favour of conciliating the Grand Trunk to gain our end of getting cheaper freights. We are now in the same position as Guelph, and he did not see that we could grumble. As long as Mr. Cox had any control over the railway, he felt confident that we would be well served.

Councillor MENZIES said that over $300,000,000 was invested in Canadian railways and less than one fifth of that amount paid dividends. He gave figures to show that the same was the case across the line. We should encourage railways and pay fair rates in order to keep on good terms with them in order that if we required a favour we could get it.

Mr. CLUXTON said that the firm represented by Mr. Macdonald was one of the largest in Canada. Matthews & Co., Mr. Dundas and himself, were the three largest shippers between Toronto and Montreal. He did not ship by the Grand Trunk on account of the high rates, and competition was required to keep down charges.

Mr. Cox said that the local freight was not sufficient to keep the road going and the lines had to take through freight in competition with the American through lines, to assist in keeping the road open, and they had to carry it at a cheap rate. We were placed at no disadvantage.

Councillor DENNE was glad that the discussion had taken place as the report could now go to the Government with both sides of the question fully ventilated.

The motion was then carried, Councillor Denne alone voting against it.

FINANCE REPORT.

Councillor CAHILL read and submitted the following report of the Finance Committee:—

The Finance Committee beg leave to report as follows:—

1—That the account of John Hennessy, $4.00, be paid.

2—That the application of Messrs. Gemmell & McKee be granted on the same conditions as Mr. A. W. Brodie's.

3—That the town's share, $299.53, for conveying lunatics and prisoners to gaol, be paid.

4—That S. Johnston's application be referred to the Charity Committee.

5—In reference to the communication from E. B. Osler, President of the Ontario and Quebec Railway, your Committee recommend that the Commissioners be requested to grant said railway the two acres of land used as a circus ground for 21 years at a rental of $1.00 per annum; or Spaulding's Bay for 99 years at a rental of 20 cents per annum, provided the Bay be filled in.

6—That the sum of 70 cents be refunded to Mrs. Uin on account of Water Rate for 1881.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Sd.) THOS. CAHILL, Chairman pro tem.

The report was received and adopted.

THE MARKET COMMITTEE.

Councillor POUSSETTE read and submitted the following report:—

The Market Committee beg leave to report:—

1—We recommend that a by-law be passed in accordance with the Statute to empower the town to collect tolls.

2—In view of the bad year we recommend that the sum of $1,150 be accepted in full payment of Mr. John Doherty's tender for the tolls for the current year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Sd.) A. P. POUSSETTE, Chairman.

—Received and adopted.

THE MARKET BY-LAW.

A by-law to regulate the market and fix the fees to be charged for weighing, etc., was read a first time.

The Council then went into Committee of the Whole on the second reading of the by-law, Councillor Wilson in the chair.

The by-law was read a third time, passed, signed and sealed.

ASKING FOR TENDERS.

Moved by Councillor POUSSETTE, seconded by Councillor WILSON,—That the Clerk advertise for tenders for the purchase of the market tolls for one year, to be received up to 12 o'clock, noon, on Thursday, the 30th of March, the tenders to be opened and awarded by the Market Committee.—Carried.

THE CARWORKS BY-LAW.

Moved by Councillor RUTHERORD, seconded by Councillor DENNE,—That in view of the adverse expression of opinion, given by leading stockholders and citizens, regarding the carworks by-law, that the by-law be withdrawn.—Lost.

Councillor RUTHERFORD spoke in favor of the motion and Councillor MCNAUGHTON against it.

Yeas—Councillor Denne, Menzies and Rutherford.—3.

Nays—Cahill, McNaughton, Kelly, Poussette, Wilson, Douglas and Richardson.—7.

Councillor CAHILL was glad to have an opportunity of correcting a couple of mistakes made by Councillor Rutherford at the public meeting the other night. The one regarding the Cobourg Carworks was promptly denied by Mr. Cox, but the one regarding the one mill taxation, went unchallenged. $12,000 would be required to pay the sinking fund and interest, per annum on the $20,000, and less than ½ a mill on the dollar would provide the necessary amount.

Councillor DENNE wanted to see the works, but would like to see the promoters pay for them.

Councillor RICHARDSON also spoke in favor of the works.

Councillor POUSSETTE said that the rate required to pay the interest on the $20,000 loan, even if the money was lost, would be 46-100 of a mill on the dollar.

Councillor DOUGLAS thought the resolution should be withdrawn.

Councillor RUTHERFORD replied to Councillor Cahill. He was not very wrong when he gave his figures the other evening, as the payment would run over 20 or 30 years. Regarding the other statement about Crossen's Cobourg car works, he read it in a Toronto daily paper.

PRINTING.

Moved by Councillor MENZIES, seconded by Councillor RUTHERFORD,—That the Printing Committee take steps to obtain the cheapest rates for printing and advertising for the coming year.—Carried.

CHARITY.

Moved by Councillor POUSSETTE, seconded by Councillor KELLY,—That the weekly allowance granted to Mrs. John Dugan be continued until further notice.—Carried.

SIDEWALKS.

Moved by Councillor CAHILL, seconded by Councillor MCNAUGHTON,—That the Street Inspector ascertain the number of miles of streets and sidewalks in town.—Carried.

STREETS AND BRIDGES.

Councillor POUSSETTE said that the sidewalk on the north side of Hunter street was in a dangerous state.

The INSPECTOR said he would repair it at once.

Councillor RUTHERFORD pointed out several other bad places.

Councillor DENNE said that the mud off the streets should be used to fill up the "goose pond."

The Council then adjourned for two weeks.

Railway Time Table.

RICHMOND ON THE JAMES.

Visited by a Terrible Conflagration—Railway Bridges and Factories Burned.

RICHMOND, Va., March 26.—A conflagration second only to that which destroyed the business portion of the city on its evacuation by the Confederate army occurred here to-day, the result being, besides great destruction of property, the loss of one life and several minor casualties. A number of our people are deprived of homes and household goods, and the travelling public is inconvenienced by the loss of the Richmond and Petersburg railroad bridge connecting the northern and southern railroad systems crossing the James river. A small blaze was discovered about noon near the southern end of the bridge, but by the time the fire brigade got to the scene the flames, aided by a gale from the southwest, had enveloped the structure and in less than half hour the whole bridge fell a mass of ruins into the river. When the flames reached the Richmond end they seized upon the four-storey brick tobacco factory of T. M. Rutherford & Co., the whole of which was quickly destroyed. The fire continued to spread with frightful rapidity and soon laid in ashes the large brick tobacco factories of R. A. Patterson & Co., and T. C. Williams & Co, the three tobacco stemmeries of I. A. Hutchison, the two stemmeries of C. R. and F. D. Barksdale, the stemmery of Aborn & Edwards, the Vulcan iron works, operated by Bruce and Archer; 20 tenement houses occupied by poor people, 300 feet of the trestle-work connecting the Tredegar iron works with the Richmond and Perersburg railroad, ten new freight cars, the property of the Tredegar company, T. P. Smith's grist mill, a number of other minor buildings, a quantity of coal and lumber at the Manchester end; the bridge of the Virginia mining and manufacturing kaoline works was also burned. The loss is now estimated at from $500,000 to $600,000, about half being insured. The heaviest losers are Williams & Co. $100,000, Paterson & Co. $60,000, Rutherford & Co. $25.000, the Richmond and Petersburg railway $16,000, Barksdales $20,000, the Vulcan iron worke $25,000, the Virginia mining company $30,000. Several of the large buildings occupied as factories and stemmeries were owned by James Thomas, who loses $60,000; no insurance.

The mayor telegraphed to Washington for assistance, but the fire was got under control and the order countermanded. Large cinders were blown a long distance, in some cases setting fire to the roofs and necessitating constant watch on the house tops.

LATER.—Charles Betts, aged 15, was killed by a falling wall. Two unknown men are reported burned in the ruins.

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS.

OTTAWA.

Special to the Review, March 29.

YESTERDAY afternoon a serious accident occurred in a phosphates mine in the township of Watlefield. A man named William Prevoust was engaged in blasting and met his death through a premature discharge.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, March 29.

THE FIRE AT THE PLANING MILL is still burning. Among the numerous lumber piles two sections of the Brigade are at work. The safe has not yet been removed, so the total insurance cannot be ascertained.

MRS. MAW whose husband was killed on the country roads, gained a verdict of $3,000, against the townshsp of King.

THE JOURNEYMEN PAINTERS have decided that their demand of a 25 per cent increase per day be adhered to, and unless they get it they will cease work.

ALTON.

Special to the Review, March 29.

THE WATER in the Caledori lake has been increased to such a volume by the the recent thaw and rains that the dams on the streams leading from them were all in imminent danger of being washed away for some time. All went well till the evening, when the first dam, occupied by Leeson was swept away. The water rushed with increased force, and washed out McLellan's sawmill dam, after which a considerable hole was made on the dam of Ward's mill, but the main part was saved by great exertion. Wilkin's flour mill dam went, McKinnon's flower mill also stood intact, the waters having reached Hammond's saw mill, the dam in connection was entirely destroyed, and from it was swept some five hundred sawlogs, and great masses of drift wood and whole trees floating erect in the water, by which time Churchfall was reached, and considerable damage was done.

THE CAUSES OF COLDS are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to lighter wrappings, cold and damp feet. No matter what is the cause Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the cure for all throat and lung disease that induce consumption.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

THE IMPRISONED M. P.'S.

LONDON, March 28.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Gladstone ridiculed the idea of allowing the imprisoned Irish memberf to come to London to vote on the cloture. The Government, he said, is bound to be consistent in administering the Coercion Act.

STRONGER MEASURES.

LONDON, March 28.—Mr. Forster admitted that the Protection Act had not done a great deal, but it had prevented many outrages and murders by enabling the authorities to lock up those who otherwise might have committed acts of violence. The outrages must be stopped. If they were not, it would become his duty, and the duty of the House, to have stronger measures still. His speech was frequently cheered.

CREATION OF CARDINALS.

ROME, March 28.—The Bishops of Ottawa and Three Rivers, Canada, and the rector of the American College in Rome were present yesterday at the cermony of creating Archbishop McCabe and other Cardinals. It is stated that another Consistory will be held in May, when the Archbishop of Boulogne and the Papal Nuncio to Spain will be created Cardinals.

THE DUBLIN MURDER.

DUBLIN, March 28.—Four additional arrests have been made in connection with the shooting of McMahon, including the father and the two brothers of the aggressors. Documents supposed to be connected with the Fenian movement have been discovered in the father's house.

THE KHEDIVE TO RESIGN.

They have also ordered all Jewish domestics, unless authorized to reside in Kieff, to relinquish their situations and leave town. The Jews are required to dismiss all Christian servants.

GUARDING THE DOCKS.

LONDON, March 28.—It is stated that the police around the docks in London now number 600 every night. It is believed that previous to the recent fire at the Royal Albert docks, the authorities had anonymous information that the Fenians intended to blow up the tunnel to North Woolwich, which passes under the docks.

THE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, March 28.—It is stated that France and the United States have formally notified the powers that the re-assembling of the monetary conference must be indefinitely postponed. It is said that the object of the postponement is to allow public opinion in England time to ripen.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The Times' Albany despatch says that as near as can be learned 15 Republicans will vote with 59 Democrats against giving the abpointment of the Railroad Commissioner to the Governor.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

NEW YORK, March 28.— The Herald's Washington despatch says that it is generally believed that the President will veto the anti-Chinese bill. The Attorney General is to consider whether it does not violate the treaty with China in the spirit of, if not in the letter. It is said, though on no good authority, that most of the Cabinet regards the twenty years, clause, as violating the treaty, and some members think that the general provisions of the bill are needlessly harsh and unfriendly. It is however said that by general agreement it would be well to suspend the immigration of the Chinese for a time.

NOBODY WILLING.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Mr. Scoville says he can neither get Gen. Butler nor any other to argue Guiteauss Bill of exceptions. Guiteau wants Mr. Reed to do it alone.

AN INDIAN CEREMONY.

BOSTON, March 28.—The Zuni Indians to-day performed the long contemplated religious rites at the sea shore. The chiefs walked into the water and sprinkled the sea with "sacred meal" Returning, they squatted in a semi-circle, the wash of the waves wetting their limbs, and smoked consecrated cigarettes, after which they chanted invocations to the "Father and Mother of water," "God under the waters," "God above the earth," "God underneath," and "God above the water." They take to New Mexico a number of large vessels filled with water. It will be consecrated and used in religious ceremonies.

NUMBER THREE.

DUBLIN, March 28.—A third Fenian assassination within the month has intensified the consternation of official circles in Dublin. Dorset street where the murder occurred, is a notorious Fenian neighbourhood. Three men, McMahon, Martin, and Brophy entered a tavern and retired to a private room behind the bar. Shortly afterward a shot was heard and Brophy rushed out, but was caught in the street. McMahon lay on the floor shot through the heart. There were two loaded revolvers on the the floor, one with the barrel discharged. On the table there were eight cartridges. Brophy exclaimed, "It served him right, he had done the same to others." Martin, sobbing hysterially, said that the whole affair was an accident. In the house of Martin's father the police found rifles and ammunition. They are believed to be on the trail of a Fenian band which has long boldly conducted revolutionary movements in this city.

A CANADIAN OFFICIAL ABROAD.

NEW YORK, March 28.—John Cunningham Stewart, Superintendent of the Saving Bank and Money Order branches of the Canadian Postal Service, recently spent two days in the examination of the working of the New York Postoffice. He expressed himself highly pleased with the efficiency and good discipline manifested, and especially praised the arrangements for the economical transaction of public business.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY are perhaps the most common of our every day ills, and every person nearly has some special cure of their own. Ours is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, and having used it for many years we can confidently recommend it.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

CABLE.

POLITICAL CRISIS.

MADRID, March 29.—Another political crisis appears to be threatening. Sagasta's position is much weakened by the growing unpopularity of several of his colleagues. The Cabinet is losing ground, both at Court and in public opinion.

COLOURED CONGRESSMEN.

RICHMOND, Va., March 29.—Prominent colored men in the Pittsburg district say that it is the determination of their race to run a colored man for Congress.

A GOVERNOR'S VETO.

TRENTON N.J. March 29.—A mass meeting was held in the assembly chamber yesterday to protest against the passage over the Governor's Veto of the bill granting the river front at Jersey City to Railroads. One speaker said:—"Any legislature that would do the bidding of any Railway corporation, may G—d d—m it." The audience was so impressed that not a whisper was heard for some seconds, when suddenly it burst forth into loud and prolonged cheers. It is believed that the house will sustain the veto.

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Hundreds of telegrams have been received by the President urging him not to sign the Chinese Bill. They come from all parts of the country except the Pacific coast.

IT OFTEN HAPPENS.

THE DETROIT GAOL DELIVERY.

DETROIT, Mich., March 29.—Of the thirteen prisoners who escaped from the county gaol on Saturday night nine are at large. August Richards returned to gaol and surrendered himself. He charged George Aikens, the coloured thief, with being the instigator of the delivery. Adolph Ziesse, charged with murder, was recaptured by Hermann Dupka, the young man who first discovered the escape. Dupka was detailed to arrest him. He saw Ziesse emerging from a saloon on the corner of Gratiot avenue and Baubien street. Ziesse was returned to gaol. The Sheriff received information that Geo. Aikens, Geo. Ellis, Thos. Fox, and Minnie Marx, four missing prisoners, were in Windsor. Detectives McDonnell and Manning went over and located Ellis and Fox, whom they caused to be arrested. They were taken on the ferry, and came across without difficulty. During the administration of Turnkey Edmunds the Sheriff has lost 18 prisoners. Edmunds was yesterday summarily dismissed. A search through the ward from which the prisoners escaped revealed the fact that they were well supplied with tools for cutting their way out.

CHANGING POSITIONS.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—General Beale has been seclected for secretary of the navy. Hunt has accepted the Russian mission. It is proposed to lend minister Adams from Bolivia to Ecuador.

A Mistake.

Among the passengers on No. 1 express going east on the Grand Trunk on Saturday was a gentleman named John Wagger, of Cornwall. At Cobourg he with many others alighted from the train for lunch, and when he returned he accused two passengers with stealing his pocketbook, containing $150. He was mistaken however, as the missing wallet was picked up by John Chambers, one of the brakesmen, and returned to him. The gentleman apparently appreciated the honesty of the railroad employee, for he bestowed the munificient reward of $2 upon him.

THROUGH the months of March and April be careful not to use Purgatives containing Calomel or other injurious substances. The proper and safe Purgative is the Great Vegetable Preparation Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the purest and best Blood Purifier known. J. D. Tully, agent.

No article ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Burdock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins it work at once, and leaves no disirable effect unattained.

DESERVING OF PRAISE.—Too much cannot be expressed in favor of that unsurpassed remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, croup, sore throat, and all lung complaints. If you suffer from neglected cold, try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. The cost is trifling, only 25 cents.

FOR weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, consumption, night sweats and all lingering cough, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a soverign remedy. Superior to cod liver oil. By druggists.

CANCERS AND OTHER TUMORS are treated with unusual success by World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. Send stamps for pamphlet.

List, maiden, though you'er keen of wit,
And though of many charms possessed,
You'll never, never, make a hit
Unless with pearly teeth you're blest,
Unless upon your toilet stand,
Your Sozodont's kept close to hand.

MARY—Who had a little lamb
Had teeth as white as snow;
She always brushed them twice a day

THE WATER in the Caledori lake has been increased to such a volume by the the recent thaw and rains that the dams on the streams leading from them were all in imminent danger of being washed away for some time. All went well till the evening, when the first dam, occupied by Leeson was swept away. The water rushed with increased force, and washed out McLellan's sawmill dam, after which a considerable hole was made on the dam of Ward's mill, but the main part was saved by great exertion. Wilkin's flour mill dam went, McKinnon's flower mill also stood intact, the waters having reached Hammond's saw mill, the dam in connection was entirely destroyed, and from it was swept some five hundred sawlogs, and great masses of drift wood and whole trees floating erect in the water, by which time Churchfall was reached, and considerable damage was done.

NUMBER THREE.

DUBLIN, March 28.—A third Fenian assassination within the month has intensified the consternation of official circles in Dublin. Dorset street where the murder occurred, is a notorious Fenian neighbourhood. Three men, McMahon, Martin, and Brophy entered a tavern and retired to a private room behind the bar. Shortly afterward a shot was heard and Brophy rushed out, but was caught in the street. McMahon lay on the floor shot through the heart. There were two loaded revolvers on the the floor, one with the barrel discharged. On the table there were eight cartridges. Brophy exclaimed, "It served him right, he had done the same to others." Martin, sobbing hysterially, said that the whole affair was an accident. In the house of Martin's father the police found rifles and ammunition. They are believed to be on the trail of a Fenian band which has long boldly conducted revolutionary movements in this city.

He saw Ziesse emerging from a saloon on the corner of Gratiot avenue and Baubien street. Ziesse was returned to gaol. The Sheriff received information that Geo. Aikens, Geo. Ellis, Thos. They were taken on the ferry, and came across without difficulty. During the administration of Turnkey Edmunds the Sheriff has lost 18 prisoners. Edmunds was yesterday summarily dismissed. He was mistaken however, as the missing wallet was picked up by John Chambers, one of the brakesmen, and returned to him. The gentleman apparently appreciated the honesty of the railroad employee, for he bestowed the munificent reward of $2 upon him.

IMMIGRATION.

We make the following extracts from the report of the Department of Immigration for the Province of Ontario.

Mr. W. J. Wills, the agent at Ottawa says:—

"It was entirely impossible for me to ascertain accurately the relative amounts brought out in this year, both in effects and money, by immigrants arriving. On the whole they were possessed of more means than are usually found with this class, and I think I am quite safe in stating that the approximate value may be cited at about $35,000."

Mr. R. Macpherson, agent at Kingston says:—

"There will be a large number of labourers wanted in my district during the coming season for the construction of railways and in developing mines, as also a largely increased number of farm labourers and female domestic servants."

Mr. J. A. Donaldson, agent at Toronto says:—

"The amount of capital brought into the country during the past year has been some $600,000. The value of personal effects belonging to immigrants, as far as could be ascertained amount to about $100,000."

Mr. John Smith, agent at Hamilton says:—

"Immgrants settling in Canada during the past year were a very desirable class, comprising all kinds of labourers, mechanics and operatives; being superior to the general arrivals during the time that I have had charge of this office, extending over a period of seven years. There has been a large increase in the number arriving possessed of small sums averaging from one hundred to five hundred dollars, and from five hundred to five thousand; others of more extended means having brought out amounts varying from five to ten thousand, in addition to large remittances that have been received for investment."

"The demand for all kinds of immigrants, including common and agricultural labourers, mechanics, female servants and operatives, has been largely in excess of the supply, it being impossible to supply one-half of the applications made upon the Agency, although frequent requisitions were made upon the depot in Quebec, and the Agency in Toronto."

"Mechanics of all classes have been sought after; so much so, that repeated applications were made upon Toronto and Quebec to assist in meeting the demand. In all branches of the iron trade, including railway shops, there has been great difficulty in securing desirable hands, the same difficulty being experienced both by cotton and woollen millowners in obtaining skilled operatives, and the time is fast approaching when this class of labour will have to be imported."

"I look forward to a large demand for immigrants during the coming season, owing to the increased prosperity of our agriculturists, and the rapidity with which our manufacturing industries are being developed. All kinds of labour, both skilled and unskilled, will be required, especially agricultural labourers and mill operatives."

Mr. A. G. Smyth, agent at London, Ontario says:—

"The class of immigrants the past season were of a superior order, many bringing money, and a good quantity of effects, the value of which, at a low computation, would be fully $20,000. The information on this point is difficult to collect, as many think they may lose some particular advantages if we fancy they are too well off."

The Daily Evening Review is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

SOME OMISSIONS SUPPLIED.

The following letter appears in Monday's Mail, and fully bears out the assertion of the unfairness of the Globe Commissioner's researches:—

Sir,—The Globe's commissioner has been visiting the Manchester of Canada in his search after that rara avis a dissatisfied manufacturer.

The result as set forth in Saturday's edition, is not calculated to afford much consolation to the vexed soul of the editor, as the four manufacturers who were interviewed all reported business in a flourishing condition, and wages advanced 20 per cent. So far there is no reason for complaint, but there is something singular in the fact only four visits are recorded, and some explanation is required on that score. The commissioner, who is well acquainted with our good town, has not done his full duty, and I venture to supply a few of the places he did not call at. After leaving the yarn factory he should have dropped into the Edge Tool works, where they would have reported that in consequence of the N. P. 85 men are employed on full time, instead of in 1878, 45 men on half time, and wages advanced 25 per cent. Next, he might have crossed the road to McDougall's foundry, and ascertained that the number of hands had been doubled and wages 25 per cent, higher than in 1878; the proprietor of this place might casually have dropped a remark to the effect that although he was a good Reformer in 1878 his ideas had undergone some modification since then. After this depressing blow, he should have visited Mr. Cowan, who would have been delighted to place on record in the columns of the Globe his ideas of the tariff. He would report that thirty men did all his work in 1878, and now 60 were required, and that wages had advanced 20 per cent. The next visit would be to the Robinson factory, which was closed for some years before the change of tariff, and is now giving employment to 85 hands. Then, crossing the river, the extensive foundry of Messrs. Goldie & McCulloch would be able to show some 60 new faces since 1879, and a large increase in wages also. And to finish up, he should have casually dropped into the saw works, the proprietors of which had some hard pushing to keep 24 men at work in 1878, but are now, thanks to the change of tariff, employing 60 men at an advance of 25 per cent. in wages. These are a few of the omissions and it is difficult to see how the commissioner can pretend to give the opinions of Galt manufacturers by seeing four who give employment to 140 hands, and leaving out of sight altogether six others who employ 530 people. And yet, on Saturday, in its editorial columns, the Globe has the sublime audacity to say that they are giving both sides of the question. It would be a pity to have the public form an idea that the commissioner had visited all the factories in Galt worth seeing, as an injustice would thereby be done to a town which has more manufactures within its borders than any other place of its size in Canada, and it may be said in conclusion that not many places have derived more benefit from the change of policy.

Yours, &c.,
GALT.

THE CAR WORKS.

To the Editor of the Review:

Dear Sir,—The writer of the letter in the Daily Review over the signature of H. on the car works, has gone in full into an explanation of the by-law, with which I or any one can find no fault, as I believe, and have never doubted that all the provisions of the by-law are honestly meant, and my opposition to it is only on principle, but whether it is in the company's power and control to carry them out successfully as they are honestly meant, is quite another question. Remarks have often passed in discussing projects for promoting the town's interest, that men with means lack spirit of enterprise, and hence the accusation of throw cold water on schemes and the like, and I question much that this is the case. I believe without a shadow of doubt, setting aside the question of bonus, that Peterborough could and would subscribe $100,000, which to my view is the necessary amount required to carry on with success such an undertaking, and I say candidly and with good reason it is not the want of enterprise, but other causes which make men hesitate in sacrificing means which some hardly can spare, being as in my case the hard earnings of a life time of a whole family; but would make that exertion if confidence could inspire them to support such an undertaking. Every town has a history of such undertakings being failures and Peterborough is no exception to the rule. And what is the cause of all this? Canada has so far not been a manufacturing country, and is at present in the first stage of experimenting. It may not strike the born Canadian as it does a European, the way business changes are going on here, how persons give up one business to rush into another without the least knowledge, sometimes out of pure jealousy, seeing his neighbour successful, who has made his trade a study of a life time, and what else can be the results of such but failure? There is too much lack of all trade performance in our midst, look around you and you find plenty of evidences without my going into detail. I am far from the idea as the writer "H." expresses himself of throwing cold water on a scheme or enterprise, as I wish the carworks to be built, and turn out a grand success, but to make it so requires not only the necessary capital, but a manager who not only understands the business in all its details, but would be able also to take stock in the concern, so that not only wages would be the only point of consideration, but the Company's success the main aim. If such would be the case I have no doubt the undertaking would be a success, even without the $20,000 bonus. Thanking you, Mr. Editor,

I am, yours,
W. LECH.

Peterborough, March 28th.

RAILWAYS AND CANALS.

To the Editor of The Review.

Dear Sir,—Being at the Council meeting last night, and hearing the railway discussion, allow me to say I fully agree with Mr. Cox's remarks, except where he says "Peterborough has railways enough," and having heard him on other occasions making similar remarks, I beg he will excuse me if I try to show the contrary. I am one who believes in railways, and will be happy to welcome every railway possible into our town, as I believe the great popularity of any large city or town is owing greatly to its centrality of railways and waterways. I have also heard Mr. Cox remark, upon other occasions, that he might not always be at the head of the Midland Railway; therefore he will see the force of my argument.

There are other subjects at present that lead to considerable bitter discussion, such as amalgamation and combinations of railways, which in my mind is a matter of business; and I believe our patriotic Review newspaper from time to time, through its valuable columns, has advocated the best possible remedy, and that is the Trent Valley Canal.

Hoping all M. P.s, all newspapers, and all who object to combinations of railways along the line of the Trent Valley Canal will take a leaf out of the book of our Peterborough Review and use their best endeavors for the construction of the Trent Valley Canal,

I am yours, &c.,

THE DUNDAS HORROR.

Identification of the Remains of the Victim —Foul Play Suspected.

Hamilton, March 27.—The excitement that was aroused in this city by the discovery yesterday of the mangled remains of Joseph H. Poole, the Sydenham road toll-gate keeper, on the Great Western Railway track, near Dundas, still continues unabated, and the wildest theories have been set afloat as to the manner in which he came to his death. There seems to be good reason for believing, however, that the unfortunate man was foully murdered, and his body placed on the railway track by his assassin or assassins. The body of the deceased was today fully identified by his father and their relatives.

The circumstances connected with the horrible tragedy, so far as can be gathered, are as follows:—

On Saturday night Poole, after drinking a few glasses of beer in a Dundas saloon, went home to tea as usual. He appeared quite sober. About half past nine o'clock in the evening he changed clothes, and entrusted his watch and chain to the care of his wife. He then put his dark lantern in one pocket and a pistol in the other, and told his wife he was going out to see a man. Mrs. Poole, being somewhat alarmed at his curious conduct, pressed him for an explanation, but he replied simply, "I'm going out to see a man, and I may be pretty late," and then went out in the direction of the railway track. About eight o'clock on Sunday morning Mr. Manuel Lyons, of the third concession West Flamboro', while returning to his home from his father's place on the old York road, observed while crossing the railway track what he took to be the carcase of a hog. On approaching the spot confronted him, and made him sick with horror. Before him lay the mutilated fragments of a man who had been run down by a passing train. The head was severed from the body, and had fallen near the fence, the right leg and both arms had been dismembered, and the trunk was fearfully mangled, and stripped of every particle of clothing. The spot where the remains were found is about three miles west of the city, near that part of the mountain known as "the Hump."

Mr. Lyons immediately procured assistance, and the remains were collected and taken to Hamilton. The right leg was found nearly a mile away from the body, and it is supposed must have been dragged that distance by the cowcatcher of the engine. A subsequent search led to the discovery of a dark lantern. On the bank above, and about two hundred and fifty yards away from where the body was found, was a LARGE POOL OF BLOOD.

This in itself is a suspicious circumstance, but when joined to the facts that there were tracks in the snow near the lantern, that the forehead of the deceased was crushed in by a blow such as would be inflicted by a blunt instrument, and that some boys, while assisting Chief Constable Fitzgerald, of Dundas, in his search, near the scene found a stone tied up in a handkerchief with a piece of wire attached, the conclusion seems inevitable that the deceased was

FOULLY MURDERED.

Mr. Robert Lyons, the brother of the man who first discovered the body, states that he heard two pistol shots in the direction of the railway track on Saturday night.

Chief Stewart and Detective Mackenzie, of this city, have been at Dundas assisting Constable Fitzgerald in making enquiries, but whatever is the result of their investigation, they keep it secret, fearing that premature publicity might defeat the ends of justice.

It is supposed by some that Poole left home on Saturday night to meet some associates for the purpose of engaging in that his confederates, believing he had money about him, murdered him, and then put the body across the track to cover up the traces of their crime. The police, however, scout the idea that Poole was murdered by a gang, and seem to hint that the bloody deed was the work of but one man.

A Coroner's inquest is called for to-night at Dundas, but it is understood that after the jury have been sworn in the enquiry will be adjourned for a few days. The deceased was rather a good looking young man, well-developed, and 27 years of age. It is a curious circumstance that a few years ago his grandfather was killed on the track not far off the same spot.

Escape of Convicts.

Detroit, March 27.—Saturday evening there was a wholesale delivery at the county gaol, thirteen prisoners having gained liberty by sawing a bar in the first window of Ward No. 1. The prisoners occupying this ward who escaped were as follows:—

Minnie Marx, charged with robbing the First National Bank, who had been been in gaol for nearly a year; Adolph Ziesse, awaiting trial in the Recorder's Court for the murder of Henry Kammon on New Year's Eve; John Proctor, a notorious ex-convict, who was arrested a few nights since for breaking into Hammel's saloon and stealing cigars; Harry Floyd, a desperado, who shot at Patrolman Whipple on Sunday morning last in front of the Board of Trade cafe; George Ellis, convicted of larceny; James Manion, ex-convict, again convicted in the Wayne Circuit Court last week of safe blowing at Wayne; Wm. Daily, charged with the robbery of Milton H. Butler at the Woodward avenue railway crossing last fall, and awaiting trial in the Recorder's Court; Louis Gagnon, charged with robbery; August Richards, convicted of attempted rape; Frank Reynolds, charged with forgery, awaiting sentence; Geo. Aikins, (coloured), convicted of larceny, awaiting sentence; Thos. Fox, coloured, convicted of larceny and awaiting sentence. A few minutes before seven turnkey Edmunds and night watchman Renton went upstairs to lock the prisoners in the wards on the upper floors in their cells for the night. While the locking up was being done upstairs, Herman Dupka, a young man who is employed as an assistant watchman, and the Engineer were downstairs in the office. Edmunds and Renton had been upstairs only a few minutes when Dupka heard the heavy gaol gate shut. He went to the door to see who had passed out of the yard. He tried to open the door leading into the yard on the street side but found it fastened. He ran back to the office to get a revolver, and at the same time raising an alarm. Sheriff Clipart had just learned that the birds had flown. In the first window was an opening, and only two prisoners remained. The opening made was eleven inches high and fourteen inches wide There was found a piece of broom handle which had been coloured with stove blacking and put in place of the bar that had been cut in order to avoid detection. There have now been two gaol deliveries within the past eight months, the previous one being in August last. Four or five persons escaped at that time, and only one of the number was recaptured.

HANDS ALL ROUND.

Mr. Tennyson's new patriotic ballad, to which our cable despatches yesterday made allusion, runs as follows:—

First pledge our Queen, my friends, and then
A health to England every guest;
He best will serve the race of men
Who loves his native country best.
May freedom's oak forever last
With larger life from day to day;
He loves the present and the past
Who lops the moulder'd branch away.
Hands all round! God the traitor's hope confound!
To the great hope of freedom drink, my friends,
And the great name of England round and round.

To all the loyal hearts who long
To keep our English Empire whole!
To all our noble sons, the strong
New England of the Southern Pole!
To England under Indian skies,
To those dark millions of her realm!
To Canada, whom we love and prize,
Whatever statesman nolds the helm.
Hands all round! God the traitor's hope confound!
To the great cause of freedom drink, my friends,
And the great name of England round and round.

To all our statesmen so they be
True leaders of the land's desire!
To both our Houses, may they see
Beyond the borough and the shire.
We sailed wherever ship could sail;
We found many a mighty state,
Pray God our greatness may not fail
Through craven fears of being great!
Hands all round! God the traitor's hope confound!
To the great cause of freedom drink, my friends,
And the great name of England round and round.

THE SAGE MURDER.

Did Woods Strike Him Down with a Billiard Cue? This May Solve the Mystery.

It is quite possible that the bloody mystery of Brantford is on the point of being solved. Laboring under every difficulty for a year and a quarter, Chief of Police Griffith, of Brantford, has been tracing up clue after clue, which seemed to lead to the murderer, only to find some of them lead to nothing, while others could not be traced to the end. One man is now in jail at Brantford, charged with complicity in the murder; but he may go free at any time if he is able to furnish bail for his appearance when wanted. He is unable so far to find this bail, and the case seems to have been taking a rest recently. The following letter may possibly clear up the whole mystery, and lead to the evidence which will at once settle the question, who killed John B. Sage?

BROOKLYN, N.Y., March 22, 1882.

DEAR SIR,—In reading your paper, dated March 15, I happened to read an item in regard to the Sage murder in Brantford. I happened to read about the murder in the Spectator some months ago, but thought nothing more about it until the death of a young man here by the name of Woods, who died here of smallpox. I happened to be boarding in the same boarding house as himself, and know him to be from Brantford, as I am a little acquainted there myself. He didn't seem to care to talk about Canada, and whenever I would mention about Canada he would always turn the subject. In talking to the boarding Mrs. the other day she happened to speak about his death. She told me that while on his dying bed he said he struck a young man in the back of the head with a billiard cue, which caused his death. As the billiard cue was used in the Sage murder, I believe that the same Woods who died here to be the one who committed the crime. There are two or three witnesses here to prove to his dying words. Believing it my duty to inform you, as there is a young man named Butler arrested for the crime, and as this letter may be of some use to the man arrested,

I remain yours, etc.,
WILLIAM BARR.

A HORRIBLE CHASE.

A Fiend in Human Shape Pursues his Wife Through the Streets.

DEDHAM, Mass., March 25.—To-night John Sullivan, an operative in one of the mills, went home slightly under the influence of liquor, and after a few words with his wife, seized a razor and cut her throat, severing the jugular vein and carotid artery. The woman, despite the fatal wounds, rushed into the street, followed by her husband brandishing the razor, and inflicting at every step ghastly cuts with the weapon about her head and shoulders. She got away from him for a short distance and ran to the house of a neighbor, and while endeavoring to gain an entrance was overtaken and seized by the hair by her husband, who renewed his attack. The woman then started and ran again, the husband following, still clutching her hair and slashing at her with the razor. The horrible chase was then re-enacted until the woman reached her own doorway, where she fell dead. Sullivan was arrested.

Thrilling Scene.

While Wilson's circus and menagerie was encamped on the Wharf Reserve at Albury, near Melbourne, Australia, as there was considerable delay, and the weather was very hot, the outer shutters of the lions' cage were removed, in order to give the animals as much air as possible. The lions being thus exposed, a large crowd assembled to enjoy a cheap view of them, but as a precautionary measure two men attached to the circus were told of to watch the cage; but in spite of the warnings given John McPherson, a labourer, aged 40 years, residing at Albury, incautiously approached the cage, and before the men could pull him back coolly put his right hand through the bars, apparently with the intention of patting one of the lions. A circus attendant, named Barrow, who instantly saw the danger, called out to McPherson, and sprang forward to seize him and pull him back. Barrow, however, was too late,, for the lion had with the quickness of lightning pounced upon McPherson's arm, and with such force that it was pulled off at the elbow, a large portion of the muscle above the elbow adhering to the lower joint, which was taken into the cage by the animal. The severed portion of the arm was then dropped by the lion, and the lioness at once picked it up and proceeded to devour it. Djerling, the Lion King, however, was on the spot and boldly entered the cage with a crowbar, with which he freely belaboured the beasts into a sullen subjection, and caused the lioness to give up the portion of the limb which was at once recovered and thrown out of the cage. Djerling's conduct was considered most courageous, for both the lion and lioness were in a state of great excitement when he entered the cage. In the meantime McPherson had without a moment's delay been removed to the Albury Hospital, where the stump of the arm was properly amputated at the shoulder, but the shock was of such a terrible nature that at first the recovery of the patient was regarded as almost impossible. The next day, however, he had to a considerable extent recovered from the shock to the system, and was doing as well as could be expected. Being a man of fair constitution, hopes of his recovery were entertained.

CANADIAN CANALS.

A New York View of the Dominion's Liberal Policy—Canada a Pattern.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 27.—The News, speaking of the free canal resolution, to-day says:—

"The time was when commerce naturally, as it were, flowed to New York, but such is not the case to-day, for on one side we have Canada as a competitor and on the other we find Baltimore, Philadelpia, and New Orleans bidding for business. Our neighbours across the borders, who willingly took upon their shoulders a debt of quite $8,000,000 to construct a new canal from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario, are not idle and disheartened simply because they have received no return from their immense outlay, but rather are quite active and sanguine of conquering success. In the House of Commons at Ottawa last Friday night a resolution wa adopted providing for the issuance of bonds in the sum of $250,006 for deepening and dredging the channel between Montreal and Quebec to 25 feet. If anything were needed to satisfy the people of New York State that Canada is determined if possible to wrest commerce from this country this contemplated expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars ought to supply it. No complaint is heard in the Dominion because Parliament appropriates large sums of money to benefit Montreal, for the people realize that if the principal seaport city of Canada is benefitted the whole country must of necessity profit thereby."

ASSAILING THE N. P.

The stupidity which characterizes the Globe's assaults on the tariff have made that journal the laughing-stock of every-body who has intelligence enough to understand the subject. A few days ago it published, with a great flourish of trumpets, an interview with Mr. Noxon, of Ingersoll, a manufacturer of agricultural implements, and followed this up with a double-leaded editorial,—under a flaming captian, repeating and commenting upon Mr. Noxon's statements, the effect of which was that the farmer was being robbed by the all-evil N. P. Mr. Noxon is, it may be stated, a leading light of the Grit party in the county in which he resides, and of course might be relied upon to forward the purpose of the interview as fully as he was able. Well, the worst he was able to state was that, in his opinion, the N. P. had injured his business. It had, he said, increased the price of some of the materials which he uses, and had also increased the wages paid to his employees, whilst it had not increased the prices of the articles which he makes. Thus it seems that this partizan authority is about as good a one as could be cited on behalf of the Government's policy. He confesses that home competition has kept prices down and raised wages, which is all exactly what was desired. Therefore to say that the farmers are being ruined by machinery having been rendered cheaper, and that workingmen are suffering when their wages have been increased, is the self-evident height of absurdity. By all means, let the Globe keep on in its endeavors to procure evidence of a similar character.—Belleville Intelligencer.

Kidnapped.

A little girl eight years of age was kidnapped from the residence of Mr. John Dingle, Oshawa, on the 20th instant, by a Mrs. Cooper. The Reformer gives the following particulars:—At the time of the death of Mrs. Dingle, the little girl, being then an infant, was placed with this Mrs. Cooper to take care of, where she remained until recently. About two weeks ago Mr. Dingle received a letter from Mr. Cooper from Hamilton, stating that his wife had left him, taking with her the little girl, and was living with another man in Buffalo, and advised him to take his girl home. Mr. Dingle immediately left for Buffalo, the husband going with him, where he procured the child and brought her home, the woman returning to Oshawa with him. On Saturday evening last Mr. Cooper arrived in town; he, it seems, had previously made up all differences between himself and his wife. Up to this time nothing unusual had transpired as to the child, and both man and wife were guests of Mr. Dingle. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Cooper asked permission of Mr. Dingle to allow the the little girl to go with her for a few hours to see some friends. The father at first refused, but finally yielded to the pleading of the woman. Mrs. Cooper left the house to visit her friends early in the afternoon with the girl, it being arranged that Mr. Dingle was to call for the child on his return from Cedar Dale, to which place he had been requested to go by Mr. Cooper, who pretended that he wished to visit the factory there. On the father returning he went after his child but neither woman nor child was to be found.

Hastings Assizes.

BELLEVILLE, March 27.—Louisa Minor was put on her trial to-day charged with having taken away from her mother, and with detaining from her, a girl eleven years of age, named Rhetta White. The prisoner and the prosecutor are sisters, and the little girl is an illegitimate child of the latter, and bears her mother's maiden name. The girl was in Court in company with her grandmother, who evidently took the part of the prisoner in the dispute. Rhetta herself said that she did not want to live with her mother any longer, but preferred living with her aunt. On the occasion of her leaving her mother, she went to church with her aunt contrary to her mother's wish, expressed to both herself and to the aunt, and on her return home found the door locked against her. In the course of her testimony the girl spoke of her mother as Lizzie, and her grandmother as her mamma. She said that she spoke of the latter in that way because she had heard the other so addressing her, and she thought the grandmother was her mama too. His Lordship said the evidence showed that the girl remained away from her mother of her own free will, and was not prevented from returning. The jury, by his direction, accordingly found the prisoner not guilty.

John Martin was charged with stealing $15 from the pocket of Thomas Elmer when they were both on a spree. The defence was that the prisoner had taken it for safe keeping, and afterwards lost or spent it. Verdict, not guilty.

KEEP THE FEET DRY.—This is the season of sloppy weather so productive of colds, and lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

HARRY MCCARTHY was arrested at Niagara Falls yesterday morning by T. R. Wynn, of the Ontario Police, as he was skipping through to the States from Toronto, a telegram from a detective of the G. T. LOUIS BOSCH, aged 13, rose in a Taunton, Massachusetts, court while George Whitwell was on trial for assault on a woman, and, with tears streaming down his cheeks, declared himself the real criminal. He had been hired to knock the woman down in the dark, and did it brutally; but his conscience would not let him see an innocent man convicted.

FROM ROSWELL M. KENNY, M. D., OF MANNSVILLE N. I have used it with great success for Dyspepsia and Epilepsy. Sold by dealers generally.

MR. COSTIGAN'S Irish resolutions are held to be irregular, because they are in the form of an address to Her Majesty. They should be moved in the form of an address, on the adoption of which resolution by the House, the procedure would be to refer it to a Special Committee to report the draft of an address to the Queen. It is held that the motions can be thrown out for their irregularity.

THE new treatment for rapidly conditioning horses, Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture. Each package contains a good Purging Ball which is given to the animal previous to using the strong tonic powders. This is the common sense treatment and will accomplish more in one week than the old system of Spices, Feeds and Condition Powders would do in a month. Ask your druggist about it. J. D. Tully, agent.

THE London Telegraph says that a school of fine arts is about to be established at Constantinople, that lectures are to be given there on æsthetics, and that the professorship is to be tendered to Oscar Wilde on his return from America. He would help, it is believed, to kindle some intensity in the dull souls of the Mussulmans by teaching them to be utterly utter.

A WORD OF CAUTION.—As is usually the case where an article of true merit has attained a world-wide reputation by its wonderful results, as the celebrated Electric Bitters have done, certain unprincipled parties have endeavored to imitate them, and expect to induce an unsuspecting public to purchase their fraudulent wares. Ask your druggist for the genuine Electric Bitters, that are guaranteed to cure, and take no others. Sold by Taylor & McDonold at 50c.

THE architectural arrangements of the London theatres appear to have been affected by the æsthetic movement. Mr. Irving has given an æsthetic front to the Lyceum, and the Vaudeville has a stained-glass entrance. Even the theatre, where Mr. Toole delighted the cockneys, rejoices in some of the latest developments of decorative art. After this it must be admitted that Oscar Wilde's efforts have not been in vain.

THERE is a great deal of talk in Columbus, Ohio, over a recent marriage. The bridegroom was William D. Pugh, son of a judge, nephew of a member of Congress, heir to $250,000, and of very respectable social connections. The bride was Ella Boggs, a dancer in a low concert garden. Pugh knew that he would be ostracized, and so started for New Mexico with his wife, after closing his business affairs, intending never to return.

THE DOCTOR'S SECRET.—Probably no new development will more surprise the public, than to learn the secret of success of certain leading physicians. When they have a difficult case of throat or lung disease that baffles their scientific skill, they prescribe Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, having it disguised in a prescription bottle, with their own directions and name attached. The patient is cured and they get the credit.—Tribune. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.—2

DUMMER.

FOR THE WEST.—On Tuesday last about a dozen of our young men from Dummer and vicinity, left for the great "Lone Land." They joined the Collins party at Millbrook, and thence will be guided by a special agent of the Grand Trunk to Brandon. Each of the following have taken oxen and other farming implements, John Wilson, Geo. Kidd and Wm. Hendren. David and Duncan Rose took a fine yoke of oxen, two of which are for Dr. Dewart, of Toronto, who is sending them to friends in Manitoba. These oxen are all of the finest quality and have been purchased at prices varying from $110 to $150. We wish these young men every success in the bright future that is before them.

SOLD.—Mr. Jacob White sold his farm stock and implements on Tuesday of last week. Satisfactory prices were realized, especially for farm stock. Mr. White, who has retired from farming, disposed of his farm also to Mr. Jory, for the handsome sum of $5,500.

SUGAR MAKING.—As Dummer is noted for its extensive sugar makers, it probably would not be amiss to mention that a considerable quantity has already been made, although so early in the season.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

North-West Colonization.

We find the following paragraph in the Ottawa correspondence of the Globe :—

"Rev. Edward Stobo, Baptist clergyman of Peterborough, is here in connection with a proposed colonization scheme. His object is to secure a tract of land under one of the colonization plans, on which to locate a large number of persons from his vicinity who have determined to leave for the Western Prairies of Canada or the United States. He had to-day an interview with the officers of the Department of the Interior on the question. He has the names of two hundred persons who would go at once to become members of his colony. Some of these have already procured passage tickets to take them to the Western States. Mr. Stobo proposes that all the profits and rebates shall be divided among the actual settlers of the colony.

The Weather.

At present it is almost impossible to keep track of the weather, on acccount of the many changes that occur. Last night was very fine. and to-day is the same, the sun shining brightly, but one cannot depend on it lasting any time. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes —Fresh to strong southerly to south-westerly winds. Fair mild weather with light rains in some localities to-night.

Where the Fire Was.

On Sunday night considerable excitement was caused at one of our leading hotels by the discovery that dense volumes of smoke were issuing from the bar room. The door was at once opened, and although the closest scrutiny was made, no trace of fire could be discovered. Such being the case, a watchman remained in the room all night to see if the fire broke out, but it did not. In the morning it was found that the smoke came from a pail under the counter, into which a number of paper match boxes and other refuse had been thrown, and thus the mystery was solved.

Serious Accident.

This morning Mr. James Swanson, of Ashburnham, while cutting lumber at a "buzz saw" in Forsyth's Agricultural Implement factory, met with a very serious accident. From what we learn, it appears that the young man was ripping a board, when a long sliver flew back, striking him in the face, close to one of his eyes. He was at once taken to a physician's surgery and the wound properly dressed. It is thought that his sight will not be permanently injured. He had a very narrow escape from losing one of his eyes.

Saddlery Business Bought Out.

We understand that Mr. B. Shortly has purchased the saddlery and harness business of Charles LeFranc, who is going to the North-west. This addition to Mr. Shortly's own large stock of staple and general saddlery and harness, equips his store with the largest and best assortment of goods carried by any shop store in the Midland district. The old customers of Mr. LeFranc will find in Mr. Shortly's store anything required, and their orders will receive careful and prompt attention.

An Eloquent Lecturer.

The lecture given in St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Monday, by the Rev. Mr. Milligan of Toronto, was one of the most eloquent and interesting ever given in Peterborough. The attendance was good, the large edifice being fully three parts filled. The subject "The contented man. Who is he?" was handled in a masterly manner and drew forth loud applause from the audience.

A Vicious Dog.

On Tuesday a young son of Dr. Fife was bitten by a vicious dog at the north end of the town. As the case is to come before the Police Magistrate, we refrain from any further mention at present.

Giving up Business.

As Mr. Ruston is about to give up business, all parties owing him are requested to call and settle immediately, and persons having claims against him will please send them in.

POLICE COURT.

INSULTING LANGUAGE.

WEDNESDAY, March 29.—T. Darcy was charged with the above offence by William Job.

The case was a very trivial one, Job having broken a small velocipede by carelessly driving over it, Darcy remonstrated with him.

Fine $1 and costs.

INTERFERING WITH AN OFFICER.

Patrick Sullivan, of Ennismore, was charged by P. C. McGhee, with interfering with a peace officer on the 18th day of March, instant, while the officer was in discharge of his duty as a police officer.

DEFENDANT pleaded not guilty.

P. C. McGHEE, sworn, — He was in discharge of his duty as a police officer on the 18th day of March, and while he had charge of James Murphy, who was drunk and disorderly, the defendant and others interfered with him and rescued the prisoner.

At this stage the Magistrate told defendant that the law did not compel him to dispose of the case unless the defendant consented. If he so desired he might be tried before him, before the County Judge, or wait until the assizes.

The defendant stated that he was perfectly willing to let the Magistrate dispose of the case, as he was confident that he had done nothing out of the way. He desired a few days to get witnesses.

The MAGISTRATE asked when defendant was served with the summons?

CHIEF JOHNSTON replied that he had served the paper on Saturday last.

The MAGISTRATE said that defendant had plenty of time to procure his witnesses.

DEFENDANT said that he did not think that anything would be sworn against him and therefore he did not think it necessary.

The prosecution being willing, the case was enlarged until Monday next at 10 a.m., when the Magistrate stated that it would go on whether the witnesses for the defence were present or not.

The defendant was bound over to appear, himself in the sum of $200 and one surety in the sum of $100.

A SIMILAR CASE.

Michael Cahill, also of the Township of Ennismore, was charged with the same offence, alleged to be committed on the same occasion as Sullivan's.

He pleaded not guilty and asked for summary trial.

His case was also enlarged until Monday next and he was bound over to in $200 himself, and one surety of $100 to appear.

MURPHY'S CASES.

The case of P. C. McGhee against James Murphy, charging him with being drunk and disorderly on the public streets on the 18th of March was called.

The DEFENDANT, who was represented by Mr. R. E. Wood, pleaded not guilty.

The MAGISTRATE remarked that Murphy's bondsmen had forfeited the amounts they had gone bail for, on account of Murphy's non-appearance on the day set for trial.

The DEFENDANT said he had been sick and was not able to appear.

After some further talk the case was enlarged until Monday next, Messrs. L. Toomey and T. Cahill going bail for his appearance.

Railway Notes.

In the Belleville Ontario's account of a special council meeting on Monday night we find the following :—

"Mr. W. C. Nunn appeared on behalf of the Midland Railway, urging that the elevator which they purposed erecting here, be exempted from taxation for a period of ten years. He urged that Belleville grant this request, as Port Hope is already pulling "the strings" for this proposed elevator, and if it is located here, there can be no doubt of its benefit to our city.

Ald. Frost heartily favored the petition from the Midland Railway. In his opinion the building of this structure would be the proper thing for us to favor if we expect to receive any benefit from this railway.

Ald. Tickell was opposed to granting the prayer of the petition.

As this discussion was not properly in order (this being a special meeting) the matter was left in abeyance until the next meeting."

Mr. Haggas, the inventor of the system of water supply for locomotives, bearing his name, and now Mechanical Superintenden of the Midland, passed through here on Tuesday night, on a tour of inspection over the line.

Four or five officials of the Midland and other railways were in town yesterday on business.

About one hundred men are now at work between Peterborough and Omemee, and seven or eight openings have been made. As soon as the frost leaves the ground operations will commence in earnest, and the staff of employees be largely increased. The shanties for the accommodation of the men are proving a success, and all appear satisfied with their treatment.

The Townsends.

We clip the following from the Champaigne, Ill., Daily Union :—

"A GOOD ENTERTAINMENT.—The Townsend Theatrical Company, which gives its final performance at the Opera House to-night, is one of the most deserving that has ever visited this city. Its members are not only excellent artists, but ladies and gentlemen in the highest sense of these terms, and they furnish a most excellent entertainment. Mr. Harry Townsend takes high rank as a tragedian, and he is very ably supported, especially by the ladies of his company, each of whom is a careful and accomplished actress. The repertoire of the Company embraces the best Shaksperean and other standard dramas, which are presented with a conscientious regard to the unities, a careful attention to details, and an artistic skill in the rendering of difficult characters, which would extract praise from the most fastidious of metropolitan dramatic critics. A good orchestra and elegant and extensive wardrobes are valuable auxiliaries in the proper presentation of the finest plays, and this company possesses both, besides a large supply of scenery and properties."

Railway Time Table.

The following gives the time of arrival and departure of the Midland and Grand Junction trains at Peterborough station :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.20 a.m., and 4.30 and 6.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.35 and 11.50 a.m., and 6.15 and 9.55 p.m.

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 7 a.m. and 3 p.m.

ARRIVE at 11 a.m. and 6.10 p.m.

THE NAPANEE MURDER.

The Prisoner and His Victim—The Coroner's Jury return a Verdict of Guilty.

Special to the Review.

NAPANEE, Mar. 29.—The murder being the first ever committed in town has caused a profound sensation. When the prisoner was brought to town about 11 o'clock yesterday fully a thousand persons were on the streets, and so great was the feeling against him that threats were made of lynching. Wiser counsels, however, prevailed. The father of the unfortunate girl arrived shortly afterwards, having driven at full speed from his farm near Odessa. He was in a high state of excitement, and vowed speedy punishment to the murderer. Lee is a native of the Township of Drummond, near Perth. He has a brother here named James Lee, a blacksmith, who is much respected, and has another brother who is a turnkey in the Perth gaol. The brother said the affair was no doubt the result of unreciprocated affection working on a mind morbidly predisposed to jealousy and distrust.

THE VICTIM.

The young girl, Maggie Howie, who was only 17 years and 7 months old, was rather prepossessing, and in her own sphere was looked upon as quite a beauty and something of a flirt. The prisoner was madly in love with her, and finding that he could not win her was determined that no one else should. The prisoner has a sister here in the employ of Mr. J. B. McGuinn, Clerk of the County Court. The girl's mother was some years ago confined in the Rockwood Asylum for the Insane, but having recovered her reason was removed by her husband, and has since been quite rational. It is feared this shock will again consign her to the asylum.

THE PRISONER.

Michael Lee is a young man twenty-four years of age, five feet ten inches in height, medium-build, dark hair, black moustache and side whiskers. He has a pleasant face and bright blue eyes, and presents anything but the appearance of a man who would be guilty of such a crime. In answer to a question from the coroner as to whether he had any statement to make, he answered "nothing."

THE VERDICT.

During the afternoon an inquest was opened and after hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses the jury retired and after an absence of half an hour brought in the following verdict :—

We, the jurors of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, empanelled this 28th day of March, A. D. 1882, to enquire into the cause of the death of Margaret Howie, now lying dead at the town of Napanee, having viewed the body and listened to the evidence adduced, find that the same Margaret Howie came to her death from a blaw delivered upon her head by an axe or other instrument in the hands of Michael Lee, as we believe with murderous intent.

The prisoner during the entire proceeding appeared quite self-possessed and did not show any emotion when the verdict was read. He was committed for trial and conveyed to gaol. As the Court of Assizes will open Monday, before Chief Justice Wilson, he will have a summary trial.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

FEIGNING PARALYSIS.

Curious deception Practiced for three Months by a Convict.

Thomas F. Jones, a horse thief from Quincy, put up a queer job on himself while in gaol at Quincy. The day after he had been sentenced by the Court to a three years' term at Joliet, he managed to take a fall from one of the gaol corridors to the stone floor ten feet below, and was picked up by his fellow prisoners and placed in bed. A physician was sent for and pronounced him afflicted with paralysis of the spine, caused by the fall. Jones pretended he could not move any part of his body but his arms and head. He lay in this condition for two weeks. The Sheriff, being compelled by law to deliver his prisoner to the Warden at Joliet within a certain number of days after sentence had been passed, had to carry Jones in a chair all the way to Joliet, where the sick man was placed in the prison hospital. The Sheriff brought a letter with him from the authorities at Quincy setting forth the man's case, and stating that he was paralyzed. The prison physician at Joliet, taking it for granted that it was so, did not give the convict as close an examination as he otherwise would have done. Jones remained in his bed in the prison hospital for over three months, except for a short period of each day, when he was lifted into a chair while an attendant made up his bed. One morning as the physician was passing through the hospital he saw a movement made by Jones which caused him some surprise. A person afflicted with spinal paralysis could not possibly move his body in the manner Jones had just done. A close examination failed to show anything further to excite the doctor's suspicions. The man appeared to be perfectly helpless. To test the matter more satisfactorily the doctor procured a sponge saturated with ether, which he applied to the patient's nose, under the influence of which Jones began to draw up his legs and stretch himself. As soon as the effects of the ether began to disappear the doctor began shoving a small needle into the various parts of Jones' body. The man stood the pain a moment only, then sprang from the bed clear across the room. He confessed to the deception he had so successfully carried out for three months, and said he was ready to go to work. His object in claiming to be paralyzed was for the purpose of getting rid of work, and work on the sympathies of the prison authorities in order to obtain a pardon. He told the doctor that if he had known what torture it was to lay on his back, week after week, he would never have tried the dodge, but having commenced it he had to carry out the deception, until he was finally discovered.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY are perhaps the most common of our every day ills, and every person nearly has some special cure of their own. Ours is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, and having used it for many years we can confidently recommend it.

NOT SLANDERED.

BERLIN, March 29.—Herr von Bunsen has been acquitted on the charge of slandering Bismarck in a speech to his constituents in which he described Bismarck's economic scheme as "highly immoral."

SKOBELEOFF AGAIN.

ST. PETERSBURG, Mareh 29.—Gen. Skobeleoff has been nominated to the commission for the re-organization of Turkestan. The appointment is considered as a kind of honourable exile.

TERRORIST PLACARDS.

BERLIN, March 30.—Terrorist placards are again appearing on the walls of St. Petersburg, one of which is of a most violent character. It declares that Alexander III is now condemned to death definitely and without appeal as he is the incarnation of all the horrors of autocratic government and of all the vices of his ancesters. These threats have made a very painful impression at Gatzchina.

EX-KING OF HANOVER.

BERLIN, March 29.—In the Prussian Diet today Herr von Bennivgsen gave notice that he would oppose the motion of the Progressists to prohibit the further use by the Government of the interest of the Guelph funds for the purpose of combatting any undertaking of ex-King George of Hanover against Prussia, as there was reason to hope that the Government would soon be able to revoke the act by which the fortune of the ex-King was sequestrated. The Diet to-night rejected the Progressionist motion and Herr von Bennigsen's amendment, leaving the matter to the Government. A motion by the Conservatives to shelve the question was adopted.

HIGH-HANDED PROCEEDING.

ALEXANDRIA, March 29.—A party of soldiers by order of the governor has taken possession of the works and warehouses of the English railway running from Alexandria to Ramleh, and ordered their immediate demolition on the ground that they interfere with the fortifications. The railway company has appealed to the British consul-general.

FOR CANADA.

LONDON, March 29.—Some 300 English farmers, who bring with them about $500,000 to invest in lands, leave Liverpool for Winnipeg to-day. Their families will follow in the autumn. On the same steamer Rev. Mr. Brydger, emigrants' chaplain at Liverpool, who is to be the pioneer of the Church of England colonist movement, is bringing out a large number of domestic servants for Canada.

NOTHING TO SAY.

LONDON, March 29,—To an American deputation which waited on him yesterday with a memorial to the Home Secretary in favour of of Dr. Lamson, Mr. Lowell announced that his capacity as United States Minister precluded him from accompanying the memorial with any expression of opinion which might bias the action of the Home Secretary.

AMERICAN.

THE FLOOD.

TROY, La., March 29.—The water here is 3ft. 10 in. above the flood of 1874. In many cases the eaves of the houses are just above water. The gin houses, filled with refugees, are tottering, and ready to crumble to pieces. The water is so deep over the land that a steamer passed over several plantations. The boat chartered by Commissioner York is supposed to have gone down on Catahoula Lake with 100 cattle. Between here and Vidalia a house was washed away with a family, and nothing has been heard of them.

NO SUNDAY WORK.

PITTSBURG, March 29.—In the International Sabbath School Conference yesterday, the chief engineer of the Cambria Iron Company read a paper showing that iron works could be run at less expence and greater profit by stopping on Sundays. President Jeffers, of Westminster College, advocated the abolition of the Sunday mail service.

MICHIGAN'S GAOL.

DETROIT, March 29.—Sheriff Cleppirt and Officer Crandell are giving the various wards of the gaol a rough overhauling. Yesterday they searched the first ward and found a singular condition of affairs. Bottles by the gross were found hidden away in the various cells of the ward, showing that large quantities of liquor had been smuggled in to the prisoners by their friends outside. In the cell of George Ellis were found two knives, which had been fitted with teeth, and were undoubtedly used by the escaped men in sawing the caps of the window. Ellis, who was convicted of larcency in the Recorder's Court yesterday, says he dare not give any information as to what was going on. Further developments are looked for as the investigation progresses. Discipline has once more been restored among the prisoners, and more rigid rules governing them are enforced. No more of the escaped men have been re-captured. Plans, however, are being matured which before many hours may again place some of them behind the bars. Two or three of them were in Detroit on Monday evening, and it may be fairly presumed last evening. Several telegrams were received yesterday as to the alleged whereabouts of the prisoners, but were subsequently found to be only suppositions. George Aikens, the coloured thief, is reported to be in the city. A reward will be paid by the sheriff to the Windsor officer who arrested Ellis and Fox.

120 LIVES LOST.

NATCHEZ, Miss., March 29.—Information has reached this city of the destruction of the Ralston gin near Lake St. John, Tensas parish, La., by which one hundred and twenty refugees lost their lives. The gin was one of the largest in Louisiana, and was packed to overflowing with negroes from an adjoining plantation. This city is crowded with coloured refugees. Many have been offered work at fair wages, but refused it, preferring to remain idle while the Government feeds and provides for them.

SMUGGLED RAGS.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The jury in the Cleveland case of the United States against Joseph Koblitz returned a verdict of $14,880 for for the Government. This amount was recovered for duties on rags claimed to be smuggled into the country from Canada at Port Huron, Mich., last spring.

GARFIELD'S WIDOW.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—In the House yesterday the amendment to the bill granting a pension of $5,000 to Mrs. Garfield was concurred in. The amendment includes Mrs. Polk and Mrs. Tyler.

MRS. MASON'S FUND.

VICTORIA, B.C., March 30.—Two large steam ships loaded with Chinese have sailed from Hong Kong for Victoria. Four thousand more are coming; all are wanted on the railway works.

THE OCEAN'S PERILS.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The steamship Titania which sailed from Newcastle on the 24th of January, and the steamship America which sailed from Hamburg on February 1st are so long over due that little hope is now entertained for either.

FRIGHTENED MORMONS.

SALT LAKE, March 30.—The Mormon leaders fear trouble from Edmunds' bill when it goes into operation. Jno. Taylor, apostle, Joseph Smith and others, have quietly removed their wives to avoid arrest under the clause which makes co-habitation with more than one woman a misdemeanor. No polygamous marriages have been celebrated since the bill has passed.

A DEADLY BLIZZARD.

ST PAUL, March 30.—The recent blizzard along the line of the Winona & St. Peter Railway in Dakota is severe, and many deaths have occured on the bleak prairies. The facts have been suppressed. The deaths in Redfield and Hardway, must have numbered 30 or 40, a Lieutenant from Fort Sisselton and one Howard going to Watertown, were overcome by the cold and both perished. Mrs. Long and her son, near Reuxburg on their way to visit a sick neighbor died. On Monday 12 land explorers left Aberdeen for Watertown on ponies, and have not been heard from. Two of their ponies were found wandering about the prairie.

BILL DEFEATED.

BOSTON, March 30.—The liquor bill was defeated in the House to-day. The vote to pass it to its third reading was a tie, and the speaker declined to vote.

LAMSON'S CASE.

NEW YORK, March 30.—It is learned that Freylinghuysen has instructed Lowell to apply to the British Government in re Dr. Lamsom's case, praying for a new trial.

BURNED TO DEATH.

MEMPHIS, Mareh 30.—The Cincinnati and New Orleans packet Golden City, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, was burned at her wharf this morning at 4.30 o'clock. Between 30 and 50 lives were lost, principally women and children.

LATER.—A second despatch says that the Golden City when approaching her wharf was discovered to be on fire by the second engineer who notified the men of the pilot boats. The bow was at once headed for shore. Four men were on the wharf where the coal fleet were moored. A line was made fast to a coal barge but the current being so fast soon parted and the steamer floated down the river in a mass of flames with many passengers and a large crew. The steamer left New Orleans en rotue for Cincinnatti. She carried a crew of about sixty and had forty cabin passengers. Her cargo consisted of 1,000 tons, among which was a lot of jute. It is said the fire originated in that commodity. All the officers escaped except the second engineer, Robt. Kelly, who first discovered the fire and remained at his post until cut off by the flames. The officers as soon as the alarm sounded rushed through the cabin, bursting in state room doors, and awakening the passengers. Within five minutes after discovering the fire, which broke out amidship aft, that part of the steamer was all ablaze. The people saved had to flee in their night clothes. When the steamer touched the wharf the fire communicated to a coal fleet and the tug Oriole, which was also burned. As near as can be ascertained, there were 23 ladies on board, and only two are saved as far as is known.

TELEGRAPH AMALGAMATION.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Jay Gould has purchased $33,500,000 worth of shares of the Mutual Union Telegraph Stock, and Geo. F. Baker and George Scott own enough more to make a total of $52,000,000. The entire capital stock of the company is ten million, so that three men own an absolute majority, and they have united in an arrangement by which the Mutual Union will be operated in the interest of the Western Union. The agreement was signed last night. No attempt to unite the companies more closely will be made at present. The bulk of the stock that secured the interest in the Western Union was obtained from the estate of the late O. Evans, the original President of the Mutual Union. The price paid for the stock was less than ten dollars a share. The purchasers also secured nearly two million of the Mutual Company's bonds.

PETTICOATS AGAIN.

LAMONTE, Va., March 30.—Gilly Bondick, one of most notorious disperadoes ever known in this State was killed on Tuesday night by Ben Young in a quarrel regarding a woman. Young was arrested. Bondick was a son of the famous desperado who terrorized the counties of the northern neck during the war. He was killed by federal soldiers after a desperate fight, during which the killed one, and wounded several.

Daily Evening Review

THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1882.

THE "GLOBE" INTERVIEWER.

The Examiner hastens to quote a paragraph from the Globe which charges us with garbling the reports of interviews with manufacturers, and making the persons interviewed appear as favorable to the tariff when in fact they are hostile to it.

Both the Globe and its satellite know that they are publishing a falsehood, but being unable to answer our arguments or to controvert our facts in relation to the N. P., they abuse us, hoping to be believed by those who have not read our articles.

So far from making the persons interviewed appear as favorable to the tariff, we expressly stated, over and over again that they were hostile to it, but that in spite of this hostility they admitted various facts, which, in our opinion, were the best possible evidence in favor of the N. P.

The assertion of the Globe that it publishes both sides of the controversy is simply preposterous. The commissioner carefully selects those manufacturers who will best suit his purpose. According to the Hamilton Spectator, for instance, he spent four or five days in that city without finding a manufacturer whose views he dared to publish. And when these carefully selected witnesses admit that business has increased, that payments are prompter, that more men are employed, that wages are higher, and that prices are not increased or are lowered, we must say that this evidence as to facts is all the stronger because the speakers are bitterly hostile to the N. P. and say that these improvements are in spite of it.

THE MARKET BY-LAW.

UNDER the recent statute the Town Council has had to pass a new market by-law, which they did at their last meeting.

Under the clause of the act applying to towns providing fit market accommodations, the tolls are fixed by the by-law at the same figures as before, as the town has not previously imposed tolls upon the articles now made free by the law, except dressed hogs and cheese which are now also free.

A new clause provides that all meat, vegetables, fish, hay, straw, fodder and farm produce of every description, (except grain) small wares and all other articles exposed for sale within the town, shall be weighed upon the public scales of the town and that tickets shall be given to the purchaser.

The charges for weighing are unaltered except that 1 cent, 2 cents and 3 cents are charged respectively for drafts up to 5lbs. 10lbs. and 20lbs.

The clause of the by-law as to forestalling, remains unchanged.

Farmers are not compelled to go to the market to sell, but if they avail themselves of the market they will be charged as we have stated.

It will be seen that after all the flourish of trumpets about the new Market Act, there is very little change, things remaining almost as they were.

The farmers it is true, have the liberty of selling from house to house if they prefer to do so, but they cannot make a market place of the public streets and thus obstruct traffic. We fancy that comparatively few will avail themselves of this provision, but that the great majority will resort as usual to the market, where they will find customers assembled and where they can better learn the current value of their goods.

We trust that under the new act Peterborough will maintain its reputation of being an exceptionally good market, and will continue to attract farmers even from a considerable distance. Unless the farmers are satisfied with the town as a market and are induced to bring their produce hither, the townspeople will find a falling off in their business, and a decrease of the facilities for obtaining supplies. The interests of the town and county are bound up together in the matter, and we must suffer or prosper together.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

SIR L. TILLEY closed the debate on the budget which had lasted for four weeks, with an able speech in which he refuted many of the fallacies and sophistries of the Opposition. He announced a few minor changes of the tariff, carrying out the principal of protection for home industries.

The bill to reduce the capital stock of the Ontario Bank was read a third time and passed.

The resolution in regard to increasing the Northwest Mounted Police, passed through committee.

The bill to incorporate the Temporalities Fund Board of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland, passed through committee.

Mr. Blake moved a resolution condemning the present system of granting timber limits in the North-west without competition, when the statements in reply elicited the fact that the Mackenzie administration had in their first session repealed the Conservative legislation regarding competition, and that they had leased 605 square miles, without putting a single square mile up to auction. It also appears that after their dismissal by the people in 1878 they passed an order in council giving two of their friends a lease of 200 square miles in blocks of 20 miles, so as to give them control of all the timber in the Edmonton region.

Sir John Macdonald made a personal explanation in regard to the Globe calumnies as to his dealings with Gen. Hewson. It appears that during his severe illness last spring, as his medical advisers forbade his going into court, he had settled the matter by a payment of $2,500, which he had borrowed from a friend, who was not Mr. Shields, as has been falsely stated.

At length, goaded on by their calumnious organ, the Opposition have ventured to attack Sir C. Tupper in parliament. Mr. Mackenzie moved resolutions condemning the award of the Fort Moody and Emory Bar contract to Messrs. Onderdonk & Co., but though he was supported by Sir R. Cartwright and Messrs. Blake, Cameron and Huntingdon, the result was a crushing defeat, the resolution being negatived by a vote of 128 to 55, and the falseness of the charges being conclusively shown. It appeared that not only had Macdonald and Charlebois put in a bogus check, but that they had done so also on the occasion of a previous tender. Mr. Charlebois had had a previous contract for $809,000, and it had to be taken out of his hands a short time before the date of completion when he had only done work for $24,807. It also appeared that their tender was not really the lowest, but that the lump sum stated was a gross deceit, the schedule rates according to which payments would be made under monthly progress certificate, proving to amount to $3,598,740 or $1,110,595 more than the successful tenderer. Sir Charles gave a well deserved castigation to the Globe for its calumnies, and showed that Mr. Mackenzie, had not accepted the lowest tenders any more than himself.

Sir John Macdonald said that he and his colleagues had the fullest knowledge of all the circumstances, and concurred in the action taken. The lowest regular tender had been accepted, and to have acted differently would have cost the country more money.

It is noteworthy that only a few hours' notice was given to Sir Charles Tupper, so as to take him by surprise if possible.

A FOREST DEPARTMENT.

Our readers will be interested in the following extract from the annual report of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Arts, for the Province of Ontario, being part of the report of Mr. Wm. Brown, Professor of Agriculture, and Farm Superintendent of the Ontario Agricultural College and Experimental Farm at Guelph :—

My introductory subject this year is, Our School in relation to the cultivation of Trees in the Province ; as, although I have in previous reports endeavored to give some idea of its immense value, no definite suggestions have been made, nor any future work made clear.

The general importance of the subject, and its special application to Canada, is necessarily our first consideration, but it is one that has been so ably handled by evidence before the recent Agricultural Commission, that little more is necessary to impress its political standing upon the Government. The great points of trees or no trees, of retained moisture or rapid evaporation, of irregularly or regularly distributed rainfall, of unchecked storms or amelioration, of more or less temperate temperatures, and of the secondary but telling ones of ornament and cropping revenue—all go to make up a chapter of keen interest in our yet but short history as a nation.

Were evidence needed either to convince or stimulate us to action, the fact of what is being done in the conservation and replanting of forests in other countries should awaken both our pride and deep interest, as such lessons are plentiful in India, Australia, and the neighbouring Republic. There, Forestry is a profession and a Governmental department, systematically conducted by able officers, who are liberally supplied, first, in the item of experiments, and then in the establishment of extensive re-clothing of lands chosen by virtue of judgment based upon these and other known facts acquired by experience, or as shown by Nature herself.

When we desire to bring this matter right home to the farmer and his son here, the story takes seven distinct heads :

1. Shelter for crops.
2. Shelter for grazing animals.
3. Shelter for dwellings.
4. Regulation of temperature.
5. Regulation of rainfall.
6. Ornamental purposes ; and
7. As a cropping investment,

The area and value of the forest lands of Canada are still of great magnitude ;—indeed, of such magnitude that all the reliable information we possess from the brief notes of surveys stands as evidence of our ignorance of its variety, wealth, and extent, because any survey partakes so much of the character of straight-line testing that whole blocks of hundreds of acres of many kinds of our best timber lie untouched and unknown—at least to Government. It is surely within the scope of a reasonable outlay, and not many years' work, that the country should hold one map showing the principal tree crops on every surveyed lot, as well as on every outlined township, district, and limit. While we know intuitively that we are wealthier than we appear to be, it will give us no better standing in the world's market to make a story about it without actual inspection. Besides, when we talk scientifically, as we must do, in respect of forest influences upon many things ere practice goes afoot, it is most material to be thoroughly familiar with the existing condition of our forests as regards first, second, or any subsequent natural growths, and how far they are likely to subserve the ends in view.

The requisite proportion of tree surface to that under agriculture is another of the studies yet little understood by scientists, and cannot, so to speak, be handled practically with any precise measure of reason until further experiments point to safe data ; but, from the extreme of overclearing on the one hand, to that of too much forest on the other, there is safe ground for no delay on the part of any Government. Of course this would bring up the allied point of what parts of the country should be conserved and what parts replanted, subject to the regulation of appropriate positions and adaptability of soil and climate in each particular example.

It should be one of the particular duties of the Professor of Aboriculture to educate the students of this Institution in regard to the suitability of certain kinds and forms of trees for special purposes—whether for field clumps, shelter belts, road-side shade, neighbourhood of dwellings, or for more extensive planting—in addition to the management of them in all their detail from the seed-bed, transplanting in the nursery, preparation of land for planting, their annual maintenance, thinnings and their value, enemies to and diseases thereof, to the grazing of replanted lands, and the ultimate realization of the matured crop.

Thus should we be in a position to advise our Legislatures on the great national problem of the special and general conservation and replanting, by which it would be shown that enclosing, draining, regulation of fires, animal trespass, and supervision stood as items of public expenditure of the first class, so that one of the first of their duties is the establishment of Forest Departments, and the appointment and duties of a Conservator of Forests for each Province.

AN UNPARALLELED SCENE

Ineffectual Attempt to Receive Subscriptions of Stock—A Pandemonium.

TORONTO, March 29.—Yesterday at noon a scene was witnessed at the offices of Messrs. Pellatt & Osler rivalling those witnessed on 'Change and similar places. The occasion was the opening of the stock books of the Qu'Appelle Land Company to the public. For some hours before the hour set for the opening of the books persons eager to invest were in waiting, and long before twelve o'clock the front portion of Pellatt & Osler's offices were crowded. Just as the hands of the clock pointed twelve the cry of "time" was raised by the impatient throng. When the doors leading to the rear offices were opened a rush was instantly made, and crash after crash was heard as the glass of the partitions was broken. By the jostling the crowd strained the wood-work audibly. When the room in the rear was reached was made at the desk where the clerks were in readiness to receive subscriptions. All seemed to loose their senses simultaneously, and each endeavoured to be first to register his name. The crowd jumped upon the chairs and counter and forced themselves behind and to the side and rear of those who strove, but in vain, to receive the names. The excited crowd surged back and forth amid deafening shouts and cries. Those behind cried "Forward," and those in front cried "Back." As the men upon the counter attempted to force their way forward the woodwork was wrenched and appeared each moment as if it would collapse. If such had happened some would certainly have been injured. Those in the rear now cried "Postpone, postpone." At length it was found necessary to call in a policeman, who when he did arrive, was as powerless to control the madmen as a child. As each fortunate—or rather unfortunate—investor manages by the use of his elbows and muscle to get to the stock-book, others would seize him by the shoulders, arms, and neck, until the shout would be raised,

"YOU ARE CHOKING THE MAN!"

when those behind would for a moment, and for a moment only, give their victim an opportunity to breathe. If he again attempted to register his name he would—now perspiring at every pore—be seized and dragged away, every one clutching at the paper. Before long the paper was in a deplorably tattered condition. As the crowd had got right on the top of the desk, attempts were made to hold the subscription list together and in position long enough to enable a name to be written against the wall, but this also was found to be impossible, the crowd all the time shouting, and the chairs counters, desks, and framed pictures on the wall being fast wrecked. It was at last found impossible to go on with the business in hand, and the announcement of a postponement was made. The assemblage reluctantly withdrew, but not until they were almost forced out by additional policeman, who had now arrived, and the clerks of the establishment. The damage done to the offices will amount to about $100, each pane of the oval-shaped glass broken being worth from $10 upwards. It was said by a number of those present that subscriptions were received before the hour advertised, but this is denied by Messrs. Pellatt & Osler. The doors were not opened until two minutes after twelve o'clock. It is not yet known what course will be taken. A meeting of the directors will be held before anything further will be done. Applications for stock to the amount of $500,000 were received during the past few days, although $100,000 is the total amount of available stock.—Globe

THE APPEAL TO ARMS.

There are some reasons for hoping that war is gradually dying out. We have not for some time had commercial wars like those between England and Holland in the seventeenth century, nor are we likely to have them again, except on a small scale and with barbarous nations, such as China, or with the petty potentates of Africa. Wars in support of the claims of dynasties, such as that of the Spanish succession, and armed litigation between monarchies about their rights to Provinces in Italy or Germany, such as filled the eighteenth century, are also numbered with the past. There are general influences which tend in the same direction. The people, formerly food for powder, are now getting votes, which a regard for their own lives and for the enjoyment of their wages, if not a larger philosophy, will lead them commonly to use in favor of peace. Science is at once rendering war fearfully expensive, and divesting it of the glitter and romance by which, after all, it in some measure lived. Perhaps the sight of the North American continent, so organized under the federal system as to maintain peace within its precinct, and thus reaping the untaxed fruits of industry, may not be without its effect on the rest of the world. On the other hand, neither revolutionary wars nor wars of nationality appear by any means to be at an end. German nationality is yet hardly settled, and may have to be once more defended against French jealousy and rage. Sclavonic nationality is a question evidently fraught with the possibility of collisions between great powers. Revolutionary anarchy may again give birth to military despotism, the fell necessities of which were proved by the career of the military despot who began by proclaiming, not insincerely, and certainly in accordance with his personal interest, that his empire was peace. Conquest itself, and diplomatic struggles for ascendancy have not yet ceased to trouble; witness Afghanistan, Tunis, and Egypt. The craters of Communistic volcanoes at Paris and Cartagena still smoke, and other eruption may be at hand. The mere burden of the military system, when it becomes intolerable, may lead some power to rush to arms as the only means of breaking a long dead-lock of ruin. On the pacific influence of commerce rather too much reliance has been placed; nations, like men, are as often governed by temper as by their interests; moreover, free trade does not gain ground, nor is it possible that it should gain ground while the import duties are needed to maintain vast armaments. Arbitration makes way, but its sphere is obviously limited; legal questions, such as that of liability for the damage done by the Alabama, or a difference about a boundary, it may settle, at least if the wrath of the parties is not violently excited; in questions of national independence or ambition, such as those which led to the Italian and Franco-German wars, it is powerless. Apart from the specific causes of quarrel, the war spirit as well as the hunter instinct still lingers in the breast of man. Nor is opinion firmly settled even in quarters where we should expect it to be so. The Free Christian Churches may be reckoned as steady opponents of war, but State Churches still worship the God of Battles. In de Maistre we find a hideous passage describing the earth as a vast altar on which sacrifices of human blood must forever be offered by the sword; and if Canon Mozley, in his "Sermon on War," does not go so far as this, he does in effect almost renounce for his form of religion the hope of effectually preaching peace on earth.—Goldwin Smith, in Nineteenth Century.

THE DUNDAS TRAGEDY.

Mrs. Poole and Johnson Suspected—Card Written by Deceased on Day of Murder.

HAMILTON, March 28.—The supposed Poole murder case is yet the subject of very considerable discussion on the streets. The detectives are diligently at work trying to get a clue to the mysterious affair. As yet no new matter of note has turned up. To-day a postal card was handed into Hamilton which no doubt was the last writing done by the murdered man. The card was addressed to Mr. Thomas Stock, Waterdown, who is Warden of the county, and was evidently put in the Dundas Post Office late Saturday afternoon or evening, as it was stamped March 27. It reads as follows:—

Please appoint me as a county constable for this county at the coming assizes, and oblige
JOS. H. POOLE,
Sydenham Tollgate,
Dundas

It will be seen that the card received the post office stamp after Poole was killed.

SOME STARTLING SUSPICIONS.

LATER.—To-night the mystery of the murder of Joseph H. Poole is the topic on the streets both of Dundas and Hamilton. There are many surmisings as to who are the guilty parties. The police and detectives of Hamilton and Dundas are putting forth every effort to bring the matter home to the guilty parties if possible. At present the case baffles the officers and it is a question if the murderers will not escape justice for some time. That Poole was killed by the assistance of a sling-shot some distance from the railway track where the pool of blood was found is not questioned, and it is also believed that two men must have carried the murdered man and laid him on the track to cover up the horrible crime by the body being run over by a passing train. Among the many rumours the one which looks most probable is that strong suspicious now rest upon Poole's wife and a man named Johnston, with another man whose name is not as yet known. As was intimated in the REVIEW of Monday that Poole and his wife did not live happily together. It is also stated that in the event of the death of Joseph Poole, his wife and this man Johnson would likely fall heirs to a good round sum at the death of Mr. Poole, Sr., who is owner of the Sydenham stone road and is aged and likely to drop off at any time. It will also be remembered that Joseph Poole when last seen was leaving his own house about 9 o'clock on Saturday night. It is further stated that the deceased's life was insured for a considerable sum.

FROM ALL OVER.

HE was an accommodating conductor who stopped his train long enoug, at Maysville, Ill., for a village clergyman to pronounce a hasty marriage ceremony for two eloping passengers.

THE mud has been so deep in the streets of Springfield, Ill., that the hotel omnibuses ceased running. The porters cry out to departing guests. "All aboard going west, via sidewalk!" and escort their passengers on foot.

ALBERT C. BOGERT, aged 101, says he gave up tobacco because it hurt him. But the smoker needn't hurry to put aside his pipe and cigars. Bogart was ninety-eight when he discharged them, so that the noxious weed took a long time to "hurt" him.

THE correspondence in reference to the imprisonment af alleged American citizens in Ireland has elicited the fact that a British subject is in gaol in Michigan, and has hitherto been unable to secure a trial. Secretary Frelinghuysen has notified Earl Granville that he has secured an order for an immediate trial in this case.

BEEF in Toronto at retail costs from twelve to sixteen cents a pound, and yet beef can be taken across the continent from Texas, and across the ocean to England, and be sold there at nine cents a pound, with a profit of two cents to the seller. It would seem the further the meat travels the cheaper its gets.

MR. and Mrs. Bower, of Jeffersonville, Ind., were divorced. Mr. Bower, who had been the complainant, went to the woman with an offer of marriage. She consented with pretended gladness, and there was a gay wedding, immediately after which she disappeared with $1,600 taken from the bridegroom's pocket.

MRS. LANGTRY has promised to visit America, but, it is said, having heard of the spirit of mockery with which Oscar Wilde has frequently been hailed, she has a feeling of dread whenever she thinks of the proposed trip. If she can act she need not fear coming. The American people will judge her purely on her merit, and not on her beauty.

We have lived to see the old adage "Two of a trade seldom agree," satiracally disproved. St. Jacobs Oil can no longer be considered the bone of contention among the medical fraternity, since druggists whose veracity is not to be doubted, and eminent physiciaus like A. A. Waite, of Pittsfield, Mass., give and corroborate their testimony cheerfully and without solicitation.—Providence (R. I.) Democrat.

THE decision of the French Government that a French Crystal Palace shall be reared upon a portion of the park of St. Cloud is universally applauded. The proposed works will involve the removoal of the melancholy ruins of the old palace and the restoration of the famous grounds. It is also intended that classes for instruction in various branches of knowledge shall be instituted in this new palace for the people.

A POOR labourer, near Wabash, Ind., whose wife and children had been two days without food, went to a mill in the neighbourhood and asked credit for a small sack of corn meal. This was refused. He grabbed the bag and ran. On arriving at home, he hastily mixed some of the raw meal with water, and the family ate it uncooked, knowing that no time was to be lost. They had berely satisfied their hunger before a constable came in and arrested the thief.

Mr. J. W. Manson, of Waverly, Ill., says:—"The St. Jacobs Oil is the grandest medicine for Neuralgia I ever saw. I have frequent attacks of disease, and nothing does me good except the great German Remedy. I commenced using it about a year ago, and would not be without it for anything. I have a brother-in-law, who, if it be possible, has greater faith in this curative medicine than myself. It cured him of a terrible attack of Rheumatism, and he swears by it.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

W. T. Hart, Esq., 128 Amherst street, Montreal, in speaking of Dr. Smith's Great German Worm Remedy, says he found it to operate successfully after only two doses, and he had tried other Remedies with the same child without success.

Charles Blaise, 384 Plessis street, says: If you want the best Worm medicine, get Dr. Smith's. It performed miracles in my family.

Dr. Smith's German Worm Remedy removes stomach and seat or pin worms from child or adult, without the use of other medicine.—Price 25 cents of J. McKee, Druggist, Peterborough.

Mrs. Shirlow, 130 Nazareth street, says it acted like a charm on her little boy, and she would not be without it.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chopped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For Sale by Taylor & Macdonald.

By the use of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hyphosphites the blood is speedily vitalised and purified, and so made capable of producing a sound mind and a sound body.

YOUNG MEN suffering from early indiscretions lack brain and nerve force. Mack's Magnetic Medicine, advertised in another column, supplies this want and thus cures when all other preperations fail.

DON'T BE ALARMED at Bright's Disease, Diabetes, or any disease of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs as Hop Bitters will certainly and lastingly cure you, and it is the only thing that will.

FROM ROSWELL M. KENNY, M. D., OF MANNSVILLE N. Y.—"I do not hesitate to say that the Peruvian Syrup has claims to my confidence equal if not superior to those of any medicine that has ever come to my knowledge. I have used it with great success for Dyspepsia and Epilepsy. Sold by dealers generally.

GREAT GAIN IN WEIGHT AND PROLIFICNESS.—Is the uniform results where Harvell's Condition Powders are mixed freely with the feed of live stock, whether animals or poultry. These great specifics never fail, and are for sale everywhere. Ask for them at your druggist's or your grocer's.

THE new treatment for rapidly conditioning horses, Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture. Each package contains a good Purging Ball which is given to the animal previous to using the strong tonic powders. This is the common sense treatment and will accomplish more in one week than the old system of Spices, Feeds and Condition Powders would do in a month. Ask your druggist about it. J. D. Tully, agent.

A WORD OF CAUTION.—As is usually the case where an article of true merit has attained a world-wide reputation by its wonderful results, as the celebrated Electric Bitters have done, certain unprincipled parties have endeavored to imitate them, and expect to induce an unsuspecting publie to purchase their fraudulent wares. Ask your druggist for the genuine Electric Bitters, that are guaranteed to cure, and take no others. Sold by Taylor & McDonold at 50c.

THE DOCTOR'S SECRET.—Probably no new development will more surprise the public, than to learn the secret of success of certain leading physicians. When they have a difficult case of throat or lung disease that baffles their scientific skill, they prescribe Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, having it disguised in a prescription bottle, with their own directions and name attached. The patient is cured and they get the credit.—Tribune. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.—2

THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

St. John's Church.

The services at half-past seven this evening will be conducted by the Rev. O. P. Ford.

A Rarity.

At Mr. Smith's fishmarket may now be seen a fine specimen of Hudson River fresh shad—a delicacy that has seldom if ever been seen here before. The present supply is limited, so that an early call is advisible.

Midland Railway of Canada.

The Traffic of the above Railway for the week ending March, 25th, 1882, was as follows:—Passengers and Mails, $7,375.33; Freight, $12858.-05; Total, $20,233.38 as compared with $17,351.-70 for the corresponding week of 1881, being an increase of $2,881.68; and the aggregate traffic to date is $171.587.19, being an increase of $59,110.59 over 1881.

Personal.

We are pleased to announce that Messrs. Crevier and Paquin, two members of the Montreal Veterinary Association, propose to commence the practice of their profession in Peterough during the coming month. Both of the young gentlemen studied under Dr. McEachern, the celebrated Veterinary Surgeon, Montreal, and thoroughly understand all diseases of the horse and domestic animals.

Railway Notes.

A very influential deputation waited upon the Premier on Tuesday to urge the claims of Western Ontario to have direct connection with the North-West by means of a line connecting the the Western railway system with the Canada Pacific at Callender. The projected line will be 110 miles long, and the deputation asked for a bonus of $12,000 a mile. The Premier said that Western Ontario had a claim to have the connection desired, and he would lay the matter before the other members of the Government, and he hoped to be able before the end of the of the session to give an answer that would satisfy the deputation.

Colonization Scheme Dropped.

The Globe says that the Revd. Mr. Stobo, of Peterborough, on Tuesday had an interview with Hon. Mr. Macpherson in regard to his proposed colonization scheme. He was informed that there were no more lands surveyed now available for colonization. Some tracts of country, including the entire Qu'Appelle Valley, had been applied for four times over, and settlement is proceeding in advance of the survey, and unwilling to attempt to locate a tract for colonization without more information than he could obtain, he has concluded to take no further proceedings at present.

Royal Hand Bell Ringers.

Mr. Singleton, Port Hope, will be in Peterborough on Friday to solicit names for a guarantee list to support him in bringing this wonderful company of bell ringers to our town. Lovers of music we would advise you to get this company here, they are the best in existence and you can secure them by signing your name on Mr. Singleton's list, to say you will take one or more tickets for the concert:—

From Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, Metropolitan Tabernacle.

WESTWOOD, BEULAH HILL, UPPER NORWOOD, April 28th, 1881.

Mr. Duncan S. Miller and his comrades gave an entertainment of the most healthy and exhilarating kind. Never were bells so rung before. The touch and the consequent tone are such as I was never acquainted with before. In hearing the music I can hardly imagine that it comes from bells, but rather from all manner of well-tuned instruments. The "sounding brass" is not here at all, but all is sweetness.

I know these men and their communications, and they are good and true, helping every cause that is good. They have gone up and down our land with their sweetness, and I hope that in America they will be received with cordial confidence.

People will have amusement, and if these good brethren repeat what I have heard, they will do nobody any harm, but they will charm all who hear them, and throw a handful of good seed into furrows where else it might never have fallen.

Giving up Business.

As Mr. Ruston is about to give up business, all parties owing him are requested to call and settle immediately, and persons having claims against him will please send them in.

Railway Time Table.

The following gives the time of arrival and departure of the Midland and Grand Junction trains at Peterborough station:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.20 a.m., and 4.30 and 6.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.35 and 11.50 a.m., and 6.15 and 9.55 p.m.

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 7 a.m. and 3 p.m.

ARRIVE at 11 a.m. and 6.10 p.m.

The Townsends.

Our readers are reminded that the celebrated Townsend family, after an absence of seven years, during which time they have made a tour of Europe and America, will appear to-night in Bradburn's Opera Hall. The bill is an immense one, including "Richard III." and two roaring farces. From the exceedingly complimentary notices they have received from the press in other towns, we bespeak for all who may attend an evening of unalloyed pleasure. Be sure and be present, or you will regret it.

Saddlery Business Bought Out.

We understand that Mr. B. Shortly has purchased the saddlery and harness business of Charles LeFranc, who is going to the Northwest. This addition to Mr. Shortly's own large stock of staple and general saddlery and harness, equips his store with the largest and best assortment of goods carried by any shop store in the Midland district. The old customers of Mr. LeFranc will find in Mr. Shortly's store anything required, and their orders will receive careful and prompt attention.

The Weather.

There is not the slightest doubt that probs, of late has been hitting the mark pretty closely by his predictions, and very little fault can be found with them on the score of accuracy. True to his promise, rain fell last night, heavily for a time and then rather lightly. All day a "baby blizzard" has prevailed and the air is cold. The weather probablities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m, to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes,—Fresh to strong westerly to north-westerly winds. Fine, colder weather.

For the Last Time.

The Port Hope Times again insinuates that Mr. E. J. Hartley is a professional skater by quoting from the Campbellford Herald that an admission fee of ten cents was charged to see Mr. H. skate at Warkworth. Such undoubtedly is the case, but the Times, very conveniently no doubt, forgets to mention that the admission fee was charged to witness a carnival, in which Mr. Hartley kindly took part and received a handsome silver cup, but no money. All reasonable people were satisfied some time ago on this point. We have referred to this subject for the last time as we cannot afford the space, to contradict such nonsensical assertions as are made by some of our contemporaries.

Presentation.

Mr. Samuel Jameson, who for a number of years, has been an employee of the Examiner office, having decided to try his fortune in the Prairie City, has severed his connection with that office. Prior to his departure the staff and employees presented him with the following address, accompanied by a handsome silver watch:—

To Mr. Samuel Jameson:

The proprietor and employees of the Examiner office have learned with regret that you are about to leave us and betake yourself to the North-West, and although we cannot but feel sorry at your departure, still we unite in wishing you every prosperity in your future home. We shall ever be happy to hear of your success, and sincerely trust that you will be one of the many fortunate ones who have gone to that bourne from whence no traveller returns without wealth, or if he does he keeps most particularly silent on the subject.

We earnestly entreat you not to accumulate so vast a pile of riches that you will be unable to carry them back here, for we desire to see you again—and help to spend them.

We doubt not that your geniality and good fellowship will win you many friends in your future home, and you will find that the more lucre you amass, the more numerous will be your friends, who will rally around you as long as it lasts, and be unanimous in their endeavors to borrow a dollar from you.

During the number of years you have been in this office you have given every satisfaction, as an excellent compositor, an agreeable companion, and a faithful employee.

We have united in giving you some little memento of ourselves, on which, when you look, we trust you will think of us ever as your friends and well-wishers, and which we have decided should take the form of a watch, of which we beg your acceptance.

We think you would have done wisely had you provided yourself with a feminine partner for life before you left Peterborough, for we understand that the material for such an article is extremely scarce in Manitoba, and should you become a millionaire, as we anticipate, you will never find any one who will so self-denyingly assist you in getting rid of your cash as a true, faithful, loving wife, one whose well-set-up form you can lock-up in your fond embrace, and on whose lips you may imprint your fond caresses, and when you do take unto yourself a better moiety, we hope you may obtain one of the finest type, and one who is an adept at making pi.

In conclusion, we beg you, when you have acquired untold millions in the North-West, not to forget us because we are poor, for we have resolved never to deviate from the strict path of duty, and in consequence can never hope to be rich in Canada.

We join in wishing you a long life of happiness and prosperity wherever you may be.

Signed on behalf of the above,

E. McCABE.

Mr. Jameson returned thanks in a few feeling remarks, thanking his fellow-laborers for their kind wishes and token of esteem.

We understand that Mr. Jameson has secured a position on the Winnipeg Times, and we join with his many friends, both in this and neighboring towns, in wishing him a successful career.

PORT HOPE.

LOST A FINGER.—The Guide says that Mr. James Haskill, 1st con. Hope, had the misfortune to put his hand too far into the straw-cutter on Tuesday. He to-day is minus a part of the middle finger of the right hand. Moral—Cut straw, not your fingers.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.

OWEN SOUND, March 29.—At the assize court here yesterday a case of some interest to the farming community was tried. The case of the Queen vs. Ellis was one of forgery, and arose through the defendant altering a grain ticket thereby increasing its face value some six bushels. The defendant is a respectable farmer of the Township of Arran. It appears that he came into town last fall with a load of oats which was purchased by Mr. John Wright, and after the oats were weighed a ticket was given for the number of bushels. It is alleged that the defendant before presenting it for payment altered the figures. The jury after about an hour's consideration of the case returned a verdict of guilty. His Lordship reserved sentence.

HASTINGS.

ACCIDENTS.—The Star says that in attempting to turn his buggy around on Front Street last Saturday, young Mr. Goulay upset the vehicle and threw both himself and his mother out on the road. Neither were hurt, but the buggy sustained the loss of a wheel.—Mr. Thomas Ryan, a son of Mr. John Ryan, of Asphodel, inflicted a very severe cut on his foot while engaged in chopping wood last Friday. It is feared that he will lose the great toe.

P. O. MATTERS.—Mr, Jones, Assistant Post Office Inspector for the District of Kingston was in the village for two days last week on official business. From him we learned that the through stage to Norwood will be discontinued after the first of April, Hastings being the terminus of the Colborne stage line.

SURVEYING.—The surveying party engaged in locating the line of the Trent Valley Railway have reached Chisholm's Rapids.

MILLBROOK.

STILL DELAYED.—The Messenger says that the large party who expected to leave Millbrook for the Souris, Turtle Mountain, and other parts in the North-West, on Tuesday by extra special train, to the number of about 150 passengers, with 23 cars of freight, 5 of passengers and one of baggage, while loading up on Saturday afternoon, were informed that the departure was put off for a week. The telegram ran thus: "Roads all blocked; extra special from Millbrook on the 28th and Ottawa on the 29th, are postponed for a week." As may be expected, this was a poser to many, who had their stock brought to town from a distance. However, better delayed at this end of the journey than at the other, or on the road. Most of the travellers from a distance went home, and in some cases took their stock with them. On Monday afternoon another telegram was received that threw consternation among the departing ones, it was to this effect: "Roads all clear; trains must start on time, on Tuesday, as previously announced." As a matter of course, this raised considerable rebellion, ending in arrangements being made to load up, as far as possible, the cars then to be shunted on to the north siding and the excursion to start on Tuesday next at 1 p. m., according to the postponement notice. We have not time to gather up general information in respect to material or stock being taken West, but will endeavor to do so in our next. The town is full of "Haw Buck," "Gee Bright," and such like delightful rural music.

PRESENTATION.—At a social gathering, which was held at the residence of Mr. W. Might, for the purpose of showing some mark of esteem to those who are about to leave Millbrook, and who have been long and efficiently connected with the Methodist Sabbath School of this village, a pleasing incident took place, in the way of a presentation, to Mr. C. Brandon, at the hands of his Sabbath School class, which consisted in a very nice and large Bible, accompanied by an address.

ANOTHER FLOOD.—On Monday last we had another of our periodical floods. Although not so extensive as the last one, it caused considerable damage to property in cellars, as well as to seriously impede travel and business, in the inundated portions of the village.

THROUGH the months of March and April be careful not to use Purgatives containing Calomel or other injurious substances. The proper and safe Purgative is the Great Vegetable Preparation Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the purest and best Blood Purifier known. J. D. Tully, agent.

TAKE CARE OF THE LITTLE ONES.—Children are the mother's idol, the father's pride; they are entrusted to your care to guide and protect, to fill positions of honor and trust. If you truly feel the responsibility of your trust, and want to make the duties of your office as light and pleasant as possible, don't allow a slight cold to prey upon the little ones, for even a single day or night may reveal the dreaded destroyer, Croup, but a few doses of Down's Elixir, if taken in season, will banish it, as well as Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung affections. For sale by all dealers in medecine. Price 25 cents and a $1 per bottle.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance.

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

Vegetable Balsamic

ELIXIR!

This valuable medicine is purely vegetable, the discovery of which was the result of many years' close study, in order to discover the cause, the symptoms and the cure—viz.:

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Influenza, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis,

and every species of oppression of the Chest and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir has been duly administered its efficacy has been invariably manifested, convincing the most incredulous that is not incurable, if properly attended to.—Consumption, at its commencement, is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is more observable, but rather dry—then becomes local fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration,

CONSUMPTION

and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are of so drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the CAUSE, generally destroys the hectic before the cough is entirely gone. Consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions for cure of pulmonary diseases. Price 25cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold everywhere.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

STRATFORD SHOOTING CASE.

The Usual Weekly Remand—The Charge Dwindling Down.

STRATFORD, March 29.—The prisoners charged with the shooting at the station here were arraigned to-day. Two witnesses were examined, a Pullman car porter and a lady passenger on the train. The porter's evidence was merely to the effect that he saw the prisoners on the train, and recognized them. The lady's evidence was that she was sitting with a Jew on the train when the prisoner Wilson, alias Hennessy, came up with Morton, alias Rice, &c., and ordered the Jew out of the car, as he had a second-class ticket, and drew a revolver saying, "Don't draw a revolver at me." The Jew replied that he had no revolver, and left the car. The evidence given is unimportant, and has no bearing on the charge of shooting the man here, it having happened the night after. The Crown has asked the Attorney-General to extradite the prisoner supposed to have done the shooting, and to pay the expenses of witnesses. The whole case is likely to rest on the fact of their having revolvers in their possession, nothing more. The wounded man denies all knowledge of the prisoners, and is not yet in a position to be examined. The man Ford is not arraigned as yet, as there does not seem to be any case against him. The affair promises to be the greatest judicial farce ever enacted here. Both prosecution and defence say they are getting tired of it, and his Worship is more so than either of them. The prisoners were remanded until to-morrow, and took their usual weekly walk to gaol again.

THE St. Kits License Commissioners have ordered (1st) that each hotel be required to keep a register showing the names of boarders and transient lodgers; and (2nd) that no seats or screens be allowed in any bar-rooms used under a tavern license. If they think of any other suggestions, they should lose no time in incorporating them with the above.

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma and lung disease by Dr. M. Souvielle's Spirometer, an instrument which conveys medicinal properties direct to the parts affected. These wonderful instruments are used in all first-class hospitals, and prescribed by leading physicians. Full directions, for treatment sent by letter, and instruments expressed to any address. It is only since Souvielle's invention that lung disease are no longer feared until their very last stage. Write for particulars to Dr. M. Souvielle, ex-Aide Surgeon of the French Army, 13 Phillips Square, Montreal, and branch office 75 Yonge Street, 1 door north of King, Toronto. All letters must contain stamp for reply. d64-w11

KEEP THE FEET DRY.—This is the season of sloppy weather so productive of colds, and lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

Over three hundred Liberals and the whole Conservative strength, with four exceptions, have signified their intention of voting.

TROOPS vs. POPULACE.

DEMANDS HIS RELEASE.

DUBLIN, March 30.—Mr. Dillon has protested against his further detention in gaol, as his health is much worse. Mr. Forster has declined to release him.

THE CHANNEL TUNNEL.

LONDON, March 30.—A protest is published in the London morning papers against the construction of the Channel tunnel. It is signed by a number of peers, Conservative and Liberal members of the House of Commons, Messrs. Tennyson, Browning, Herbert Spencer, and other authors, Generals Simmons, Havelock, and other prominent military gentleman, numerous financiers and several leading journalists. It is reported that the Government intend to put a stop to the work.

ANOTHER IRISH MURDER.

DUBLIN, March 30.—Arthur Herbert, an active anti-Leaguer, was shot dead to-day while returning from the Castleisland, Kerry, sessions.

CHURCH AND STATE.

BERLIN, March 30.—The Lower House of the Prussian Diet has passed the ecclesiastical law amendment bill, under a compromise between the Conservatives and Clericals. The latter are highly elated.

POLITICAL INTRIGUES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 30.—The intriguers desiring to restore the ex-Khedive of Egypt are so active that Aribi Bey, Minister of War, and Abdallah Feyre, Minister of Public Instruction, the leaders of the military party, have taken precautions for their personal safety. An attempt was made recently to poison the latter.

SKOBELEFF'S LATEST SPEECH.

VIENNA, March 30.—Information received from Russia, and through most credible sources, reiterates the correctness of the report concerning the remarkable speech of General Skobeleff at the military club. The speech was delivered in a room belonging to the officers of the yacht club, which is part of the military club, in the presence of the Duke of Leichtenburg, and many officers of the Prebrjenski regiment. At the request of his brother officers General Skobeleff narrated what had occurred in the imperial presence. He maintained that the Czar approved of his Paris speech, but feared to openly express his approval, because Russia at that moment was so dependent upon Germany that it was not safe to run the risk of a rupture with the latter power. This rupture, however, it is believed is inevitable. It is perfectly well known here that Germany believes war with Russia is certain to break out at no distant day. The German general staff has been for weeks studying the strategetic details that are necessary to be thoroughly mastered before entering upon this war. Field Marshal von Moltke has said that while war could not be undertaken with perfect assurance of success until after eighteen months' further preparation it could be begun now with a reasonable hope of triumph. He thinks before war is declared the fortress of Posen and Thorn should be greatly strengthened. Then, as a war with Russia would invite France to her revenge, all defences along the French frontier should be carefully guarded.

AMERICAN.

THE GUITEAU CASE.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The points of difference in the bill of exceptions in the Guiteau case have been settled, and the bill will now be written out and signed.

IRISH-AMERICAN SUSPECTS.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—In the Senate, Senator Cockrell offered a resolution directing the Secretary of State to ascertain whether citizens of the United States are now confined in Ireland, and for what length of time and for what cause, and if charged with crime what steps have been taken to secure a speedy trial, and if not charged with crime what steps have been taken to secure their release. Adopted.

THE IMPERIAL SCANDAL.

COPENHAGEN, March 30.—The woman with whom the Czar is infatuated is Mdlle. Donnichetisky. She is remarkably handsome, and attracted much attention in St. Petersburg and Moscow last year as a circus rider. The Czar insisted upon her presence at Gatschina, and a few days since the Empress was forced to behold such undeniable evidences of the infidelity of her husband as to render her residence with him almost impossible. She begged her parents to permit her to return home.

THREE CONQUERED.—Three seems to be the number of fortune and progress. The third effort wins, and the following as related by Mr. M. E. Dodge, Belfast, Me., is no exception: I had a person in my employ last winter who was badly afflicted with acute rheumatism. He applied many different remedies without obtaining any relief, until I bought him a bottle of the Great German Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. After applying three bottles of the Oil, he was completely cured and has never been troubled with rheumatism since. It beats all the remedies I ever saw or heard of.

Daily Evening Review

FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1882.

THE OPPOSITION POLICY.

In default of any authorised platform the policy of the Opposition seems to be to indulge in slanders and personal abuse. There has been a long debate on the budget, but no amendment was offered so as to place on record their own policy on the tariff question.

Twice, however, they have plucked up courage to take a test vote, and in each case they have been ignominiously defeated, both as regards the vote and the argument.

Mr. Blake ventured to attack Sir John Macdonald for the system of disposing of timber on the crown lands in the North West, with the result of showing that the system attacked was adopted by the Reform administration, who repealed Sir John's previous legislation, that they might deal with the timber limits at their own pleasure, and for the benefit of their friends.

Mr. Mackenzie, under the pressure of their organ, attacked Sir Charles Tupper for the award of the Emory Bar and Fort Moody contract, only to show that his own regulations had been carried out and that the lowest tender with a worthless deposit, was in reality for a far higher sum than the successful tender and had been thrown out to the great saving of the public money. Both these attempts were defeated by enormous majorittes which testified as did the debate to the judicious conduct of the Government.

Sir John, also while rising to vindicate a contractor who had been unjustly attacked, incedentally though most effectually refuted the vile calumny that he had paid a debt with money received from this contractor.

The policy of slander seems to have failed completely, and apparently they have nothing to fall back upon but obstruction. Long speeches are made and voluminous returns, at great cost to the country, are called for, in order to give an excuse for saying that business is in arrears, though in fact returns have never before been brought down so promptly, and the public business so well advanced.

Our friends of the Opposition must find some more valid platform on which to appeal to the country.

THE REFORM LEADERS.

The Ottawa Citizen has the following very pertinent remarks on the subject of the leadership of the Reform party :—

"While, on Tuesday evening, Mr. Blake and Sir Richard Cartwright were paying their tribute to the high standing and personal worth of Mr. Mackenzie and the members of the Opposition side of the House were cheering their remarks, it is not unreasonable to suggest that Mr. Mackenzie thus reasoned with himself : "If they are sincere in their sentiments and their applause, why did they turn me out of the position of leader of the party, which I endeavoured to fill to the best of my ability ?"

THE DUNDAS TRAGEDY.

Inquest on the Remains Found on the R.R. Track Pointing to Murder.

Hamilton, March 29.—This evening the adjourned inquest on the body of Joseph Poole, in the Dundas murder case, was resumed. A number of witnesses were examined, mostly employees of the Great Western Railway. They all agreed that the deceased could not possibly have had his head cut off by a passing train, but that the man had been evidently murdered and then thrown on the track to be crushed by a train. Thos. Coldwell, one of the witnesses in the case, gave evidence stating that from what he had seen this was a clear case of murder, and that on the bank near the track was blood, also marks showing that the deceased had been murdered near that spot, and afterwards carried on the track to be mutilated by a passing train. He also proved the finding of blood on the fence near where the deceased was supposed to have been killed ; also the finding of a slungshot over this fence, which was also covered with blood. The medical testimony not being ready, the inquest was further adjourned until next Tuesday evening.

CONVICT LINDSAY'S ESCAPE.

How He is Supposed to Have Fooled the Deputy Sheriff—A Sharp Move.

Chief of Police Stewart, of Hamilton, is advertising the burglar and gaol-breaker, Samuel Lindsay, who managed to escape a few days ago from the Grand Trunk train near Bowmanville while on his way to Kingston Penitentiary in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Gibson, of Wentworth. The Hamilton authorities seem to be under the impression that Lindsay jumped the train, but the Globe says there is good reason to believe that he did not, and that he continued his ride eastward, while the Deputy Sheriff got off at Bowmanville and went back to look for his mangled remains. It happened that the convict's hurried exit from the front end of the car was witnessed by a gentleman who was at that moment standing on the platform of the car ahead of it, and who states positively his belief that Lindsay could not have jumped off without his seeing him do so. So far as he could discern his movements in the dark he thinks he swung himself with great dexterity under the platform, and found a resting-place on the truck of the car. As he had disappeared by the time the Deputy Sheriff reached the car door, the latter naturally concluded that he had jumped off the platform, and he accordingly left the train at Bowmanville to go back and hunt him up. If the gentleman referred to was not mistaken it is highly probable that Lindsay was in the United States a few hours after he had made his escape. The incident goes to show that he knew a trick with which the Deputy Sheriff was not acquainted, and it may be that other other officials besides Mr. Gibson will learn from it that there are other ways of disappearing from a car than jumping off the platform.

IS IT ABDUCTION ?

Another Case of Alleged Unlawful Detention of an Heiress.

Mrs. Christina McIntyre is a respectable elderly Highland Scotch farming woman, living on the sixth line of Bosanquet. She claims Sheriff Colin Munro, of St. Thomas, as first cousin, and Mr. Lawrence, the proprietor of the Lawrence station, on the Air Line, as a son-in-law of hers. The old lady speaks but imperfectly in English, but is thoroughly posted in Gaelic, of which language she is a master. Her maiden name is MacLean, which fact she more than once impressed on the mind of the Police Magistrate during the forenoon.

HER STORY,

when related, will no doubt elicit considerable sympathy from the citizens at large, and her countrypeople in particular. It is as follows : About nine years ago her daughter Mary, "as fine a Scotch lassie as ever stepped on the 6th line of Bosanquet," married a young man flamed Lawrence, of Lawrence Station. A year or so after a little one, named Christina after her grandmother, made its appearance. The infant was idolized alike by mother and grandparent. Shortly after this event the husband died, and the widow and her little girl found a welcome home in Bosanquet with Mrs. McIntyre. Here they lived happily till about ten years ago, when a man named Jas. Cleve made his appearance, and, according to the grandmother's story, wooed and won her daughter's affections for the sake of her (the daughter's) money. Notwithstanding the tears and protestations of the grandmother, the misguided girl married this man Cleves, and according to Mrs. McIntyre's account, lived a wretched life with him. A few weeks ago Mrs. Cleves died, and the grandmother at once applied for her grandchild, which was refused by the stepfather. Mrs. McIntyre is now fully resolved to spend her last dollar in instituting legal procedings for the recovery of the child. Her lawyer, Mr. Essery, appeared before the P. M. this morning, but the P. M. said it was out of his jurisdiction—to go either to a country magistrate or to one of the judges. Mr. Essery claimed the grandmother was the only constituted legal guardian, and asked that a warrant be issued against Cleves. The P. M. contended that it was not a case of abduction or of and could not see his way clear to act. Mr. Essery now intends approaching the matter from another direction. In the meantime it is supposed Cleves is holding out for money. The girl is now seven years of age, and is said to be a very pretty child.—Advertiser.

BLUE-EYED, FLAXEN-HAIRED

THE CONTENTED MAN,
Who is he ?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

FEATS OF HUMAN OSTRICHES.

The Extraordinary Digestion of Some Men and Women.

There died not very long ago at Prestwich asylum, in England, a madman in whose body were found 1,481 objects—to wit, 20 buckles, 14 pieces of glass, 10 pebbles, 3 knotted strings, a piece of leather, 1 fish hook, 1 pin, 9 copper buttons, and 1,782 nails and tacks. His madness was of a common sort, after all. At the autopsy of a convict in the Brest galleys 52 objects were found in the stomach, including several knives and pieces of iron hoop four inches long. In March, 1880, a sailor named John Cummings died in Guy's hospital, London, whose experiences completely eclipse the performances of the boy described by Messrs. Sawyer and Allen in "Pickwick" as addicted to wooden beds. In 1799 he had seen a French juggler swallowing knives by the dozen, and in credulity, believing that the juggler actually conveyed them into his stomach, he undertook to rival him and swallowed four clasp knives. Luckily these did not kill him, and as was satisfied to rest on his laurels until March, 1850, when at Boston he was one day tempted, while drinking, to boast of and repeat his performance. In the course of that evening he swallowed six knives, and when next morning crowds of visitors came to see him was induced to swallow eight more. He paid dearly for his frolic; for he was seized with vomiting and pain in the stomach, and though by heroic measures he was relieved that organ was irretrievably ruined. But all his suffering did not suffice to cure him of his folly, for at Spithead, in December, 1805, being somewhat tipsy, he resumed his boastfulness of being able to swallow knives, and to amuse the ship's company swallowed nine clasp knives, some of them of a large size. Again he became ill, and was in the hands of the ship's surgeon for several months, during which portions of knives were discharged. At length he was admitted as a patient at Guy's hospital and in March, 1809, he died in a state of extreme emaciation.

A milder form of this disease is fondness for pins and needles. Dr. Stepson, of Detroit, reported in 1877 the case of a woman of 75, whom he had relieved of a pin swallowed forty-two years before while picking her teeeth. Silos has recorded the case of a woman who made pins and needles her daily diet, and from whose body 1,500 of these artictes were taken after her death. Another case, almost as striking, said the London Lancet about a year ago, has been recorded by Dr. Gillette (1874), that of a girl in whom, from time to time, needles were found beneath the skin, which they perforated, and were removed by the fingers or forceps. Concerning the way in which they got into her system no information could be extracted from her. She was carefully watched by Dr. Lepaulmier, and in the course of eighteen months no less than 320 needles were extracted, all being about the same size. The largest number which escaped in a single day was 61. A curious phenomenon preceded the escape of each needle. For some hours the pain was severe, and there was considerable fever. She then felt a sharp pain like tightening in the tissues and on looking at the place of which this pain had been felt the head of the needle was generally found projecting. That little weight is to be attached to the place at which the needles escape as proof of their mode of introduction is evident from a case recorded by Dr. Villars of a girl who swallowed a large number of pins and needles, and two years afterward, during a period of about nine months two hundred passed out of the hand, arm, axilla, side of throat, abdomen, and thigh, all on the left side. The pins, curiously, escaped more readily and with less pain than the needles. Many years ago a case was recorded by Dr, Ott, of Copenhagen, in which 495 needles passed through the skin of a hysterical girl, who had probably swallowed them during a hysterical paroxysm; and these all emerged in regions below the level of the diaphram and were collected in groups, which gave rise to inflammatory swelling of some size. One of these contained 100 needles. In 1878 Dr. Biggor described before the Society of Surgery of Dublin a case in which more than 300 needles were removed from the body of a woman who died in consequence of their presence. It is very remarkable in how few cases the needles were the cause of death, and how slight an interference with functions their presence and movement cause. Mr. Henri de Parville, the well-khown French writer on science, has described many cases of this sort, not a few of them of sane persons. M. Berenger-Feraud took a needles from the arm of a woman of 24, who did not recollect swallowing it. and had for weeks been unable to understand why she had felt a pricking sensation whenever she rested her arm on the table. Another case is that of a girl of 16 who was dying of gastritis, it was thought, till examination revealed the presence of a needle, swallowed by accident, she knew not when.

What became of the rash youth of Bologna, who, to show how a juggler swallowed a sword, introduced a silver fork into his throat, and let it slip down, we do not know. He probably "went to meet" the swallowers of false teeth. Brunel, the great engineer, had a narrow escape once upon a time, when amusing some children, by causing a half-sovereign to vanish from his mouth and re-appear in his ear, the coin suddenly slipping down into his gullet. He tried to cough it up without effect. There it stuck. Every surgical device was tried to get hold of it without avail. It became evident that if the coin could not be dislodged fatal results would ensue. In the dire dilemma into which he had needlessly brought himself, Brunel devised a wooden structure to which he could be be strapped head downmost, keeping his mouth open. To his inexpressible relief the coin dropped from [illegible] lurking-place and rolled to the floor. A German juggler who introduced a variation of the sword-swallowing feat by swallowing a bayonet, balancing thereon the musket to which it was attached, came to grief under even more alarming circumstances, as the weapon broke short off and the steel slipped down into his gullet. He acted on the same principle as Brunel, and promptly inverted himself, and with the aid of friends stood feet upwards till, by force of gravity, the bayonet dropped to where it could be reached from the mouth and drawn out. In March, 1847, the surgeons at the Edinburgh infirmary relieved a woman of a brass padlock, an inch and two-thirds long and an inch in width, which she had swallowed. Four years ago they were less fortunate in the case of a boy who had swallowed a brass chain, and in 1880 a child in Devonshire was vainly treated who had allowed a small tin whistle to slip from the mouth into the traches. Since the introduction of the balloon whistle there have been several fatal accidents—by inhaling instead of expelling the breath to fill the balloon—swallowing the whistle and India-rubber sack attached to it, about the ugliest thing possible to deal with, since the toy sticks in the windpipe and every attempt to breathe tends to inflate the balloon, and so the sufferer is choked as promptly and inexorably as if he were in the grasp of a garotte. The moral of all which is that people should be careful about putting solid substances in their mouths.—New York Press.

By the use of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hyphosphites the blood is speedily vitalised and purified, and so made capable of producing a sound mind and a sound body.

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

SAWING MACHINE ACCIDENT.

Last week three very painful accidents occurred to parties engaged in attending to sawing machines in the Township of Smith. Mr. A. Nicholls got his thumb torn off. Robert Jory, a son of Mr. James Jory, had his hand badly cut, and a son of Mr. Charles McCaul had a leg broken in two places.

EASTER BEEF.

Mr. Fred Waldron, our village butcher, has purchased from Mr. Grieves, of Douro, a couple of very fine cattle, (one thoroughbred and one grade) for his Easter beef. We are informed that the above are remarkably good. Fred is bound to have a display equal to any in Peterborough.

NEW SAW MILL.

The work of construction at the new saw mill is just now progressing very favorably. It is thought that the raceway work will be so far advanced as to permit the water to enter in about ten days, when the eleven inches will be taken off the dam, and the same lowered in accordance with the Chancery injunction. Surely this will put an end to the Lakefield dam question one way or another.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

Lakefield has during the past two years made good and substantial progress in many important matters. As a market for farm produce, a very great improvement has been made in the time mentioned. Mr. Samuel Nelson entering the market as a purchaser has had a very beneficial effect, and Lakefield will now compare very favourably in this respect with any other place of its size.

Our sidewalks and streets have been vastly improved, and next fall a rate of 11 mills on the dollar will leave the village out of debt and free from all incumbrance. This is surely a financial position which any town or village might well envy. The business and mercantile interests of the place have not been neglected, new attractions in this line being constantly added.

During last fall and winter a spacious and commodious skating rink was built at considerable expense, and consequently skating has been the all absorbing pastime of many of the youths of the village. Recreation and physical exercise, and consequent development should receive its proper share of time and attention, as being necessary to the enjoyment of good health, but the line must be drawn somewhere. When the inclination for such sports become almost a mania, it is time to draw the rein by introducing other attractions which would have a tendency to strengthen and develop the mental and moral faculties of the people.

Lakefield at present stands in need of a Mechanics' Institute and a Public Library. We believe many of our young people would greatly appreciate such an Institution, and we are satisfied that a great and lasting good would be accomplished by the same, and in consequence of this conviction we bring this matter before the reading and thinking portion of Lakefield, and urge the advisability and necessity of starting a reading room and library next fall. Who will help? The village will then be in a position to do so without incurring a burden in the shape of taxation. Four hundred dollars, say partly in subscriptions from the people, and partly from a grant by the Village Council, and $400 from the Government, making $800, would be sufficient to make a very respectable beginning. The Council room could be used for the purpose of a reading room, etc., and very little expense would be incurred on account of maintenance. This is a very important matter, and we hope to see it very freely discussed. A Mechanics' Institute and Public Library would not only be useful to our citizens individually, but would add greatly to the reputation of the village.

BURIED AT SEA.

A letter has been received from the Captain of the Circassian by a relative of the late Mr. Barlee, which states that the deceased gentleman was buried in Lat. 53°07 and long. 24°20 at sea, on Friday the 3rd day of March.

NEW TIME TABLE.

On Saturday next April 1st, according to the Midland Railway's new time table, Lakefield has an additional train per day. On and after the above date, trains will arrive at 9 o'clock a.m. and 12.40 p. m. The second train will be of great advantage to the people in the vicinity of Lakefield in giving two mails per day, and in enabling people to go to Peterborough and return the same day.

LUMBER NOTES.

Messrs. R. & G. Strickland have returned from the personal supervision of their timber and lumbering operations on their new limits, having straightened uptheir winters' operations. They have take out over six thousand pieces of square timber and sufficient saw logs to make over ten and a half million feet of lumber. This is less than a tenth of the quantity which their limits contain. We are assured that these excellent limits will stand such extensive operation for another ten years at least. The Messrs. Strickland' have been offered already 4 cents per foot over and above last year's price for their square timber. They have as fine a quality of timber as was ever taken to Quebec.

KINMOUNT.

IRON SMELTING.—Messrs. J. C. Parry and J. G. Mills, of Chicago, have commenced the erection of a hot-blast charcoal furnace about six miles from Kinmount, on Myles' branch of the Victoria Railway, and have purchased a water privilege on the Burnt River, conveniently situated for their purpose. The furnaces will smelt ores from the Snowden Iron Mines, the proprietors having leased some lots from Messrs. O'Brien, Shortiss & Co. and from Irving & Co., for their ore supplies. The furnace is to be pushed forward with all possible despatch, and will probably be completed and in blast by next August. The capacity of the furnace will be 30 tons of pig iron a day, and will use 50 to 60 tons of ore daily. This will be of great advantage to the mining interests of the Snowdon district, as it will create a home demand for the leaner ores which it will not pay to export. This furnace will give constant employment to nearly 200 men, as in addition to the miners and furnace men a large force will be required to furnish wood and convert it into charcoal.

W. T. Hart, Esq., 128 Amherst street, Montreal, in speaking of Dr. Smith's Great German Worm Remedy, says he found it to operate successfully after only two doses, and he had tried other Remedies with the same child without success.

Charles Blaise, 384 Plessis street, says: If you want the best Worm medicine, get Dr. Smith's. It performed miracles in my family.

Dr. Smith's German Worm Remedy removes stomach and seat or pin worms from child or adult, without the use of other medicine.—Price 25 cents of J. McKee, Druggist, Peterborough.

Mrs. Shirlow, 130 Nazareth street, says it acted like a charm on her little boy, and she would not be without it.

FROM ALL OVER.

SOME miscreant recently poisoned the water in Roger's fish pond at Barrie, and caused the destruction of over three hundred fine speckled trout.

No trace has yet been obtained of Miss Maggie Merrill, of Cobourg, who left her brother's residence a month ago to visit her uncle residing near Baltimore.

MR. OWEN JONES, Chief Engineers of the N. and N. W. Railway, has prepared for the Collingwood Dry-dock Committee an estimate of the probable cost of the proposed dock, and places it at $48,000.

YOUNG MEN suffering from early indiscretions lack brain and nerve force. Mack's Magnetic Medicine, advertised in another column, supplies this want and thus cures when all other preperations fail.

AN exchange says fashionable young people are calling upon somebody to invent a new dance. Suppose "somebody" invents one wherein the young lady dances around the house and helps her mother to do a little housework—how would that step take?

THE Port Hope millers a few days ago discussed the subject of mixing arnecta or goose wheat with other wheats, and after due delibration gave orders to the street buyers not to pay more than arnecta prices for any wheat which contains a mixture of arnecta, as there is a discount of one dollar per barrel on flour containing arnecta in the wholesale markets.

A TEN year old boy, who gives his name as John Dougald, has been sent to the Woodstock gaol to await his trial for stealing a horse from Wm. Renen, of Norwich. The lad took the horse out of a field, and gave the constable a lively chase before he captured him well on the way to Brantford. He confessed the crime, and said he took the horse to sell.

The Prescott Telegraph says the coming season bids fair to be a very lively one at the St. Lawrence. A number of large buildings will be erected at Cape Vincent, Thousand Island Park, and other points among the islands, and several new and fine boats will be put on the river, among which will be two fine steam yachts, one by H.H. Warner, of Rochester, and one by a Utica gentleman, to cost between $35-000 and $60,000 each.

THE new treatment for rapidly conditioning horses, Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture. Each package contains a good Purging Ball which is given to the animal previous to using the strong tonic powders. This is the common sense treatment and will accomplish more in one week than the old system of Spices, Feeds and Condition Powders would do in a month. Ask your druggist about it. J. D. Tully, agent.

THERE are at present 5,000 female mill operatives on strike at Lawrence, Me. Their chief grievance is the cutting down of wages. To all who advised them to return to their work—and the advice came from their sympathizers outside the mills and from various quarters—the reply always was that "it would be impossible for us to lead an honest life on 68 cents a day."

THE DOCTOR'S SECRET.—Probably no new development, will more surprise the public, than to learn the secret of success of certain leading physicians. When they have a difficult case of throat or lung disease that baffles their scientific skill, they prescribe Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, having it disguised in a prescription bottle, with their own directions and name attached. The patient is cured and they get the credit.—Tribune. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.—2

FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

The Herndons.

We learn that the Herndon Opera House Company are to appear here again for a season of two nights, during the last week of April.

Board of Education.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will take place at the Collegiate Institute on Tuesday evening next at 7.45 o'clock.

P. B. C.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Boating Club will be held on Monday evening, the 10th of April, at the boat house at half past seven o'clock.

Broke Down.

One of the hacks stood on George Street all last night, with one of the wheels off and an axle broken. Probably it was a case of break down.

The Schools.

The Collegiate Institute and public schools close down to-day for the Easter holidays. In accordance with the vote of the Board of Education the institutions of learning will not open again until Monday the 10th of April, giving the scholars a full week's holidays.

Easter Beef.

With his usual enterprise Harry Winch has been catering for the Easter dinners of his customers, and has procured some of the finest animals to be found in this and neighbouring counties. Look out for the great live exhibition tomorrow morning.

Boston Opera Company.

The members of the Boston Opera Company were registered at the Oriental yesterday. They remained in town for a few hours on their way to Campbellford, where they played last night. They left on the three o'clock train at the Grand Junction.

Fire, Water and Gas.

A meeting of the Fire, Water and Gas Committee is called for this evening at 7.30 o'clock. The plans, etc., of the waterworks will be presented to them and they will be required to state on what cross streets they desire pipes to be laid, in order to give the company time to order the necessary castings, etc.

The Townsends.

The Townsend family, after an absence of seven years, gave an entertainment in Bradburn's Hall, on Thursday evening. The attendance was good. They played comedy, tragedy and farce. The tragedy was Richard III., with some of the principal scenes omitted. Mrs. Harry Townsend sang several songs in a pleasing manner. The farce "The Romp" caused roars of laughter.

Chimney Fires.

On account of the high wind on Thursday night chimney fires were quite frequent, but happily no damage was done. Sometimes these fires serve a good purpose by burning the soot etc., out of chimneys that have not been cleaned for years. If we mistake not the same by-law that provides against projecting signs also states that chimneys are to be celaned out at regular periods, but we are greatly afraid that the by-law is a dead letter in that respect.

The Weather.

The cold at present is more severe than it has been at any time for months, and it still continues to run along in the same old groove. Those who were foolish enough to be deceived by the genial weather and donned their spring suits, have been glad enough to don their ulsters and flannels again, and will not doff them until summer comes. Probs. to-day promises warmer weather, and if his prognostications are as correct as they generally are we will have it. The weather probablities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes,—Winds gradually shifting to the east and south, fine cool weather to-day, followed by milder weather to-morrow.

Rink To-Night.

The ice is in better condition now than ever. The Orchestra Band will be in attendance to-night as usual.

Giving up Business.

As Mr. Ruston is about to give up business, all parties owing him are requested to call and settle immediately, and persons having claims against him will please send them in.

Carworks.

A meeting of those in favor of the carworks by-law is called for on Monday evening at Hill's Old Music Hall. We hope to see a large attendance. The vote takes place on Wednesday next, 5th of April.

Personal.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. J. W. Jenkins, formerly of Peterborough, has been appointed an express manager on the Canada Pacific Railway, between Winnipeg and Brandon. The position is a good one and we extend our congratulations.

Mr. D. Carlisle has returned from his trip to the Southern States, feeling somewhat improved by the journey.

The Signs, Etc.

All the signs swinging, hanging or projecting in town have been removed, if not altogether, at least within the eighteen inches from the face of the building as permitted by the by-law. The old wooden awnings of which only a very small number have been noticeable for years, are also being pulled down, and when that work is finished we will be able to boast of having as fine and neat appearing streets as any town in Canada.

The New Order of Things.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Saddlery Business Bought Out.

We understand that Mr. B. Shortly has purchased the saddlery and harness business of Charles LeFranc, who is going to the Northwest. This addition to Mr. Shortly's own large stock of staple and general saddlery and harness, equips his store with the largest and best assortment of goods carried by any shop store in the Midland district. The old customers of Mr. LeFranc will find in Mr. Shortly's store anything required, and their orders will receive careful and prompt attention.

A Wet Spring and an Early One.

The Lebanon Times says:—

"One of our prominent attorneys who is at the same time one of the leading fishermen of the valley, claims that the weather invariably repeats itself, and gives the following as the result of his observations, viz.:

All years ending in 9, 0 or 1 are extremely dry.
Those ending in 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 are extremely wet.
Those ending in 7 and 8 are ordinary well balanced.
Those ending in 6 have extremely cold winters.
Those ending in 2 have an early spring.
Those ending in 1 have a late spring.
Those ending 3 and 4 are subject to greats floods."

Railway Notes.

The following respecting freight by the amalgamated railways has just been issued:—

Will you kindly notify the Merchants and Shippers of the Toronto and Nipissing Railway, that on and after the 1st of April, the freight business of the Toronto and Nipissing Railway, as well as that of other divisions amalgamated into the Midland Railway, will be conducted through the Grand Trunk Railway Freight Sheds, at Simcoe Street, and that Messrs. Shedden & Co. will act as our Cartage Agents in the same way as they now act for the Grand Trunk Railway. Yours truly,

A. WHITE,
General Traffic Agent

The Guardian says that on Tuesday a new car arrived in Uxbridge from the car works at Cobourg, intended for through passage from Toronto to Midland City. It is a fine car, but, in our estimation the one built by Mr. Caron, at the Uxbridge car works is a much superior one, and will far outlast the Cobourg car. When completed the new train for Mr. Conductor Mitchell will be long and have a gay appearance, everything being newly painted—except the train hands.

The Lindsay Post says that the new coach and baggage and express car to be used on the run between there and Toronto arrived at the Midland station here on Wednesday night, and were side-tracked, where they will stand until Saturday morning, on which day the new order of things will commence. The coach and car are painted a bright yellow, with handsome stencilled decorations. Passengers will enjoy the greatest comforts, the car being heated by pipes connected with a furnace at one end of the car. The seats are finely upholstered, and the furnishings all silver-plated. Inside the walls and ceilings are one blaze of color, and six beauiful lamps replace the limited number formerly used. The automatic air-brake is attached to supplement the ordinary brake and Miller's patent coupler and draw-head are used. The trucks are of the most approved construction the wheels being much larger than the ordinary pattern.

Mr. Thomas Hay, acting Engineer for the Midland, was at Lindsay on Thursday on business connected with laying out the curve of the track to connect the Whitby and Midland lines at the Junction.

The Victoria Railway coach which was so badly destroyed in the recent collision, has been undergoing repairs at the workshops in Lindsay, and will be placed on the road again a few days.

The Intelligencer says that the surveying party engaged in the location of the Trent Valley Railway have got so far as the G.J.R. crossing, about two miles from Stirling. It is the intention to renew the preliminary survey on Monday next, and a party will be sent out to the proposed terminus of the road in Woolaston to run the line southward and meet the other party.

Furious Driving.

Notwithstanding the many warnings that have been given and the examples that have been made of the gentry who drive fast horses, they will still persist in making a race track of our principal streets. They generally take care however, to drive, not in the centre of the town, but either in the northern or southern ends, where the police cannot very well see them. On Thursday night two individuals amused themselves by driving up George Street near Smith, at a terrific rate, and one of them came very nearly driving over a gentleman who was crossing the street, who only saved himself by striking the horse in the face with a cane, thus turning it away. The incident may result in a police court case.

The Market Tolls.

The market tolls for the year ending the 31st day of March, 1883, have been let to Mr. John Doharty, for the sum of $750. Last year they were sold for $1100, but as this is the first under the new law it is regarded somewhat in the light of an experiment and the Council and tenderers will be better able to judge next year. Mr. Doharty has had charge of the market for the last three years, and has given the utmost satisfaction, having done everything in his power to afford accommodation to sellers and buyers alike. It is a fact well worthy of mention that in three years Mr. Doharty has never had any person before the police magistrate for a violation of the market by-law, which fact shows that at least he is respected.

POLICE COURT.

A VICIOUS DOG.

FRIEAY, March 31.—Joseph Valois was charged by Dr. Fife with keeping and maintaining on his premises, a nuisance, in the shape of a vicious dog.

The animal had bitten a young son of the Doctor's and hence the charge.

The defendent did not appear, although he had been summoned.

The complainant stated that Valois had killed the dog and he saw him lying dead, shot through the head.

The magistrate informed the complainant that he would not dispose of the case in any event, but would send it to a higher court.

The complainant had no wish to proceed any further, as the nuisance had been abated.

After some more talk of a conversational character the case was withdrawn, the complainant paying the costs $1.35.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY are perhaps the most common of our every day ills, and every person nearly has some special cure of their own. Ours is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, and having used it for many years we can confidently recommend it.

THE CAUSES OF COLDS are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to lighter wrappings, cold and damp feet. No matter what is the cause Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the cure for all throat and lung disease that induce consumption.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL will be found invaluable for all purposes of a family liniment. Immediate relief will follow its use in all cases of pain in the stomach, bowels or side; rheumatism, colic, colds, sprains and bruises. For internal and external use. It has no equal in the world for what it is recommended. For sale by all dealers at 25c. per bottle.

A WORD OF CAUTION.—As is usually the case where an article of true merit has attained a world-wide reputation by its wonderful results, as the celebrated Electric Bitters have done, certain unprincipled parties have endeavored to imitate them, and expect to induce an unsuspecting public to purchase their fraudulent wares. Ask your druggist for the genuine Electric Bitters, that are guaranteed to cure, and take no others. Sold by Taylor & McDonold at 50c.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance.

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS OF CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

THE CAR WORKS.

WE publish in this issue a letter on the subject of the by-law in favour of the projected car works. The question is very fully treated by the writer, and he certainly makes out a strong case why the property holders should record their votes in favour of it. The security is shown to be ample, and every precaution has been taken to secure the beneficial results that are to be expected.

There cannot be two opinions as to the immense advantage that will be derived from the establishment of such an industry among us. The only matter for consideration is whether we are asked to pay too much for the benefit that we shall receive. Even if it were an unconditional bonus, instead of a well secured loan, with the prospect of our receiving valuable stock in return for our outlay, the share of each ratepayer in the additional taxation would, as we have already shown, be so small, that it would not compare with the advantages to be obtained.

If on the other hand we do not encourage the location of such industries in our town we may expect to go back rather than advance, while we will see other towns passing us in the race.

We believe that the voters who study the matter for themselves will have no hesitation in casting the votes in favour of the by-law.

THE "GRIEVANCE" COMMISSIONER.

This is the way in which the Woodstock Times' shows up the doings of the Globe commissioner to misrepresent the manufacturers of the country:—"A representative of the Globe recently visited Woodstock, ostensibly to ascertain personally from manufacturers the effect the National Policy had upon the the industries of the town. On arrival here he waited upon Mr. G. R. Pattullo, to receive instructions, doubtless because it was too risky to allow him to call upon the manufacturers indiscriminately, so Mr. Pattullo acted as avant courier, and called upon the manufacturers to select those who could be depended upon to condemn the Government. Then "The Commissioner" was trotted around to report the statements cut and dried beforehand of the bogus grievances of the manufacturers of Woodstock. Those gentlemen, although lifelong Reformers, who honestly acknowledged the benefits of the N. P. conferred on their business were passed by, and those only who are thorough partisans were interviewed."

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

RIOTS AT BARCELONA.

MADRID, March 31.—It is difficult to get the details of the Barcelona riot of yesterday. The mob burned the wooden houses of the Octrois. In the main streets the shops were closed during part of the day, the merchants being scared by the seditious cries of the operatives, who were rushing about to oblige the factories to lock out. The majority of the mills resisted the imposition of the mob. Mounted police dispersed them, and arrested sixty on the spot. Others were arrested during the evening. All club meetings and unions were prohibited or dissolved by proclamation. It is claimed that the riots were fomented by the Federal Republicans and the International. The authorities report to-night all quiet. The patrols met with no resistance. The deputation sent by the Catalan workmen, were heard by Senor Sagasta and the Budget Committee. They seem in earnest, and say that they represent four provinces, with several millions of population, and the richest towns in Spain. They will resist by all legal means. They deprecate rioting, but apprehend serious consequences and lock outs in the towns noted for their advanced ideas. The Cabinet is determined to out its free trade policy in the interest of 35 of the 49 provinces. They have ordered the civil and military authorities to repress disorders energetically.

THE CHANNEL TUNNEL.

LONDON, March 31.—Referring to a question in reference to the Channel tunnel, the President of the Board of Trade said Sir Edward Watkin has been warned that the Government claims the bed of the sea for three miles below low water mark, and hold themselves free to use any powers at their disposel as Parliament may direct, or the national interest may require.

THE CLOTURE.

LONDON, March 31.—In the House of Commons last night Mr. Gladstone denied emphatically that the cloture was intended to prepare the way for coercion. Mr. John Bright, like Mr. Gladstone, commented severly on the designs of the Irish, which he illustrated by quoting the proceedings of the Chicago convention.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATION.

LONDON, March 31.—It is reported that several Irish Liberals are considering a scheme for establishing provincial assemblies in Ulster, Munster, and Leinster.

THEIR EYES OPENED.

BELGRADE, March 31.—Nine directors of the Servian Bank including the Burgehr of Belgrade the first secretary of the foreign office and his father-in-law have been arrested in connection with the failure of the Bank in 1874. Similar action was taken when Risticus, Prime Minister, collapsed.

CHURCH AND STATE.

BERLIN, March 31.—The Prussian Diet has passed the Ecclesiastical Bill. The Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs stated that the amendment adopted would promote serious difficulties, but the Clericals having agreed to compromise would, he thought, contribute materially to the restoration of peace.

AMERICAN.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

TRENTON, March 31.—The whole morning in the House was spent in fillibustering and scenes of wild disorder. The attempt to postpone the hour of final adjournment till midnight failed. The House at noon adjourned sine die. The incidental and other important bills failed to pass for want of time.

THE TRAIN ROBBERS.

KANSAS CITY, March 31.—John Land, one of the train robbers, has made a confession, implicating the James boys and others who participated in the robbery. After the robbery the party went south some distance, when they were halted by Jesse James, who said, "Boys, it's death to any man who gives this away. Go to your homes as if nothing happened, and meet me on the east fork of the Blue next Wednesday night, and we will divide equal." They then separated.

TELEGRAPH MATTERS.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The Herald says that the officers of the Western Union Telegraph Company and of the Mutual Union Telegraph Company both denied yesterday that they have consolidated or that they will in any way be merged. It is, however, admitted that Jay Gould and associates have secured possession of a considerable block of the Mutual stock—a report says as much as 52,000 out of the entire 100,000 shares of the Mutual capital. The share were purchased principally from G. W. Ballon, J. G. Moore, and the estate of the John O. Evans. It is understood that the Gould party will be elected to the directorate of the Mutual Union, so that the men who control the Western Union will have the other also in their hands.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.

Another calamity has followed fast upon the one just perpetrated at Napanee. This time, however, it is a case of supposed suicide, and not murder. About a mile east of Parham is the scene of the tragedy. Last night John Kennedy went to bed seemingly all right bodily and mentally. During the night he woke his wife by getting out of the bed, and when asked why he had arisen and where he was going he replied that he did not feel very well, that he thought he would take a dose of camphor. She thought all was right and paid no more attention to him. As he did not return to bed, she got up to see what was keeping him, and was horrified on going down stairs to find him lying on the floor insensible, and a bottle of strychnine on the table. The bottle was uncorked, and little of the poison remained in it. A doctor was called in. This morning when the K. & P. train passed Parham station Mr. Kennedy was in an insensible condition, and was not expected to live but a few hours. A report says that he is dead, but it has not been confirmed. Mr. Kennedy is a man about 45 years of age and has a grown up family—four sons and one daughter. He owns a farm in the section named and is in good circumstances. The act of taking the poison can be attributed to no cause except that of temporary fit of insanity. He is a very sober industrious man and highly respected in the country.

The above information was supplied us by a gentleman who came in on the K. & P. R. this morning.—(Kingston News).

NEW YORK, April 1.—Norman Sampson, a clerk in the Appraisers' Department of the Custom House, has been suspended. He is fifty years old, has a wife and children in the south. He paid attentions to a young lady here pretending to be a widower. It is alleged that he wrote her a large number of letters revealing custom house secrets, and disclosing irregularities on his own part. The young lady after discovering how he had deceived her, threw herself last May from under the elevated railroad and was seriously injured. After her recovery Sampson persisted in annoying her with letters which her father handed to Appraiser Howard.

REVIEWS.

HARPER'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—The April number of Harper opens with "Spanish Vista," being enhanced in interest by profuse illustrations, one of which is a beautiful full page engraving on heavy paper. Mrs. Reid has an interesting historical sketch "In days gone by" with portraits from old miniatures. Mr. N. H. Egleston contributes a valuable and instructive paper on "What we owe to the trees." Mr. Ingersoll describes "Silver Saw Jam," with the assistance of six admirable illustrations. Mr. Lucy in "Mr. Gladstone at Hawarden," introduces us to the home surroundings of the British premier; there is also a good full page portrait of him, with other engravings. The illustrated papers are:—"Athena Parthenos," "The History of Wood Engraving" and "A Trial-balance of Decoration." The serial story "Anne" maintains its interest, and "Prudence, a story of Æsthetic London" is concluded. There are several short tales, and some poems of unusual merit. The editorial miscellanies are is interesting as ever.

Temperance.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 28.—The scrutiny of votes cast in the Canada Temperance Act election here on the 23rd of February last was to have taken place to-day before County Court Judge Watters, but when the judge opened his court he was served with an order from Judge Weldon, of the Supreme Court, ordering a stay of proceedings until an argument shall be heard on an application on a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge Watters holding the scrutiny, Judge Watters accordingly adjourned his court until August 7th. As there is a large amount of unfinished business in the Supreme Court, this case may not be reached for six or nine months.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

PORT HOPE.

TELEPHONIC.—The Times says that representatives of the Bell Telephone Company waited on the Council on Monday night and requested the privilege of putting poles along Walton Street to support the telephone wires. The request was granted, with the conditions that the poles are straight, painted, and forty feet above the ground. The ones lying along the street at present are not to be used. It will require about seven in all to go from the central office to the corner.

VESSEL SOLD.—Messrs. Capt. Robt. Henning, J. A. Brown, and Capt. T. F. Janes have purchased the M. A. Lydon from Mr. J. Lydon for $7,500. The sum paid is not exorbitant, as the M. A. Lydon is one of the best of the Port Hope vessels. Captain Thomas Fox will be in charge of her during the coming season.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. J. Brown, assistant brewer in Ambrose & Co.'s brewery, some time ago while at work received an injury to one of his knee-caps, which has disabled him ever since. On Tuesday morning he left for Toronto to see what the physicians in that city could do for him.

ONLY NINE DAYS.—John Hurst, who was killed on the Midland last week, was a first cousin to the late James Hurst, of Kingston. There were only nine days difference between the deaths of the two cousins.

A HEAVY LOAD.—Mr. Gamble, on Saturday, weighed a load of mixed wood, which, including waggon and rack, weighed 7,370 lbs. This, drawn by a small team of horses, and considering the state of the roads, is a pretty good load to draw on wheels.

U. S. CONSUL.—Mr. Dutcher, U. S. Consul for Port Hope district, arrived, with his wife, on Friday evening last. He is a fine, genial gentleman, and we are sure he will be popular with our citizens.

CAMPBELLFORD.

FRIENDLESS, HOMELESS.—The Herald says that Charlotte Patterson, a woman about 40 years of age, appeared on the streets on Saturday last, in an insane condition. She was thinly and poorly clad—only sufficient to cover her nakedness, without covering for her head, and her feet wrapped in what might be called boots. She had been stopping at the residence of Mr. Thompson, near the railway station, but fled from her temporary abode to the street during a restless fit of insanity. A gazing crowd gathered about her on the corner of Tice and George streets, and when it was thought the trembling limbs could bear up no longer under the chilling atmosphere, two or three parties took compassion on her and induced her to go into Mr. Vroman's store, where she was placed beside a stove. She was afterwards conveyed back from whence she came, and will likely be sent to the asylum. The unfortunate woman, who is a resident of this locality, has been an outcast for some time. She has well-to-do friends in the township who can and should take care of the friendless and homeless mortal.

EARLIER NEWS.—By the arrangements which have been recently put into order in having railway service for the conveyance of the mails, we are now put in posession of the daily news as early as towns on the line of the G. T. Railway, and fully eight hours earlier than by the old system. All the mail matter from the west now comes via Peterborough, and the eastern mail via Belleville. The mail bag carried by the Brighton and Campbellford stage comes to the post office with very little matter at times—only that which is posted at Brighton and intermediate points of the line. The business at the Campbellford office is largely on the increase.

HEARD FROM.—The company of Western bound travellers who left here last week were among the unfortunates who were detained at Chicago, in consequence of the alleged snow blockade of trains west of that city. Something besides snow, however, seemed to have been the cause. Mr. Charles Turner communicates to us by postal card from Chicago, under date 25th March, saying:—"Stuck. There are not less than 1,500 of us here now. The railway company say it's a snow blockade, but it's generally thought to be a deficiency in rolling stock. Expect to go on to-morrow."

SIXTY HUNDRED FOR A FARM.—Mr. W. J. Bell has sold his farm of 100 acres, the north half of lot 5, in the 9th con. of Seymour, for $6,000. The purchaser is Mr. J. W. Walleau, of Codrington. Land in Seymour is looking up.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1882.

ARE THEY DEARER OR CHEAPER?

THE Post had not time or space in several issues to retract its false statement that the prices of agricultural implements have been raised. It still cannot find time or space for this piece of honesty, but it can fill more than two columns with abuse of the REVIEW, some being original and the rest quoted from journals of a similar type. It quotes at length the Examiner's attack upon us because twelve years ago, under other management, the REVIEW thought that a fifteen per cent tariff afforded sufficient incidental protection, while the United States were still so greatly affected by their civil war that the competition of their manufactories was not so detrimental to our own. It also quotes and enlarges on the Globe's falsehood that we "garbled" their commissioners' reports. They may not know the meaning of the word "garble," but most people know it to mean, mangling a quotation so as to misrepresent the meaning, the very contrary to what we did, for we stated plainly that the speakers were hostile to the N. P. and denied its beneficial results. This improved business, with higher wages and lower prices, which they are forced to admit, they think is in spite of the tariff—we, with the great majority of the people of the country, think it is in consequence of the tariff. As the facts are sometimes untruthfully denied, as for instance by the Post, we take the evidence of these hostile witnesses to establish them, a perfectly fair step. As to the deductions to be drawn from these admitted facts, we are content to leave them to the intelligence of the people.

We are challenged to give in full the manufacturers' statements to the interviewer. We must decline to assist in the dirty and unpatriotic work of misrepresenting the condition of the country. The system by which the commissioner, while pretending to make a fair investigation, carefully selects the testimony of rabid grits, who are willing to join in defiling their own nests, if they can thereby injure their political opponents, is now too thoroughly exposed, for this disgraceful style of journalism to do any injury.

We may remind the Post that the question between us is whether agricultural implements have been lowered or raised in prices under the N. P. We, on the authority of the makers in this town and elsewhere, state that they are lower. The Post still leaves unretracted its insinuations to the contrary. The farmers of Victoria can easily settle the matter for themselves, for if they cannot purchase on fair terms in Lindsay or elsewhere, they can come to Peterborough, where they will find honest manufacturers and will be practically convinced of the truth of our assertion.

THE DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

THE CAR WORKS.

To the Ratepayers of the Town of Peterborough.

I would like to give my views upon the car works by-law before the vote is taken thereon, and I would like to show you why I propose to give my vote in favour of it.

I have heard some people say that they are opposed to this by-law because they are opposed to giving a bonus to this Company. Now I have carefully examined the by-law and in no part of it do I find one single word which justifies the saying that the money proposed to be granted to this Company is in the nature of a bonus. Bear in mind that the word bonus means a free gift of the money to the Company. Now, upon reading the by-law you will find, I think, that the advance of this money to the Company is in the nature of a loan until the town obtains the necessary legal authority to take stock in the Company to the amount of the sum proposed to be advanced, and that in the meantime, and until the obtaining of such authority, the Company is bound to give the town security, by way of mortgage, for the money so advanced upon all its property, lands, buildings and machinery, which mortgage is also to contain provision for the continued employment by the Company, of not less than one hundred and fifty men, and that failing to employ this number of men for at least two hundred and twenty-five days in each year, the Company shall pay the town interest on the money advanced at the rate of ten per cent. per annum. You will thus see that you are not voting to give this Company the money if you vote in favour of the law, but that you simply loan it to them and take security therefor, as I have stated above, until the town converts this loan into stock in the Company. And you will see further that the by-law provides for the repayment of the money advanced, with interest, if the town does not obtain authority to take the stock, or if the Company refuses to allot the town the stock, thus completely removing all doubt as to the nature of the dealing between the town and the Company, showing plainly that the word bonus has nothing to do in the matter. You will, therefore, in voting upon this by-law, keep this fact distinctly in mind and understand that, when you do vote, you do so either to loan the mony until the town choses to take the stock, or to refuse to loan it and thus prevent the introduction into our town of a very important manufactory, the result of which, if brought here, would be to circulate in the town at least five thousand dollars a month or sixty thousand dollars a year, a sum three times greater thus in one year, given back to the town than the money the town is now asked to loan the Company. But suppose these works continue in operation for only five years, the money thus left in the town would be three hundred thousand dollars, a sum fifteen times greater than the town is now asked to lend them. I think, however, that it may be fairly assumed that these works will continue in operation ten or more years, for Mr. Cox stated at the meeting the other night, that for at least twenty years to come, the demand for cars alone throughout Ontario and the North-West, would be great enough to tax to the utmost capacity every car shop that will be put in operation, and he said further that, at the present time, his own Company alone has contracts for cars amounting to three hundred thousand dollars. Assuming then that our car works continued in operation for ten years, the money left by them in the town during that time, would be six hundred thousand dollars, or thirty times greater than the town is asked to advance to the Company. Now, suppose the twenty thousand dollars were given outright by the town to the Company, would we not be great gainers by the transaction? for the town would receive the very first year sixty thousand dollars in return for the twenty thousand, that is, three dollars in return for every dollar so given, and thirty dollars by the end of ten years for every dollar so given. But as the town does not give the money, it will also receive its own money back again. I don't see how it is possible the money can be lost. The town has a first mortgage for it, and this ought to be considered a reasonable security for its repayment. If you look at the names of the private stockholders in the Company you will not only see this to be true, but you will also see that these car works cannot be quite so bad an investmest, when such shrewd business men as these private stockholders are, are willing to invest their means, to the extent of over fifty thousand dollars, in them. This fact alone ought to satisfy any man that the money put in by the town cannot be very unsafe, especially when you consider that the town has a first mortgage upon the very property purchased and put into the works by these private stockholders. Here are the names of some of these private stockholders: Messrs. Cox, Dumble, Stevenson, R. S. Davidson, Jno. Burnham, Geo. Hilliard, Ponssette, W. H. Law, Geo. M. Roger, R. B. McKee, Robt. Rowe, Thomas Bradburn, A. C. Dunlop, G. Dunsford, Richard Hall, and Thos. W. Robinson. Surely these names ought to satisfy you that these works must be considered a safe investment for far more money than the town is asked to put into them.

Some people say they are in favor of the town furnishing the land and buildings for the use of the company and exempting them from taxes for a number of years. Now, these people say taking stock in the enterprise, because they are opposed to lending the money, or if the company fails we may lose our money; but they are willing to put fully as much money in lands and buildings. Now, let us see our position if we loan the money in the way proposed, and if we put the money in lands and buildings. In the case of a loan we have a first-class mortgage on all the property of the company—land, buildings and machinery—property, too, purchased with the money of the private stockholders, and it would go very hard indeed, if, out of all this property, we could not make our small claim of $20,000. But suppose we buy the land and put up the buildings, and the company fails, what would the land and buildings be worth to us, then? I think I am safe in saying that they would not be worth to us ten cents on the dollar of our money so invested. Don't you think, therefore, that assistance given by way of a loan, with mortgage security for it, will be far the safest way. I think that any sane man will say "yes" to this question, and will vote in its favor. This is what the by-law provides for.

Some people in reference to the loan of this money, wink at a gnat and swallow a camel. You will remember, no doubt, that some time ago we were astonished to hear that the enormous sum of $17,000 had been spent in one year upon the streets of this town. No one raised his voice against that most unjust transaction, and legislation was obtained and debentures issued to pay the amount. That sum is nearly as much as the amount which the town is now asked to loan these car works. This large sum spent upon the streets in the year referred to, was worse than wasted, whereas, every cent of the money which the town is asked to invest in these car works will be repaid back to it thirty fold. To show you how very consistent some people can be, I will just refer to a few facts. At the late meeting I heard a gentleman after a good deal of flourishing say that he was entirely opposed in principle to bonuses, and that therefore he should oppose any advance of money by the town to these car works. To suit his purpose he called this advance a bonus, when he knew, or ought to have known perfectly well, that it was no such thing. Well, this gentleman said he was in principle, opposed to bonuses. Let us go back a little and see whether he is or not. He supported a bonus of $150,000 by the town to the Toronto and Ottawa Railway Company, and he tried to keep that debt fastened upon the town for all time to come. He strongly advocated at a public meeting the giving of a bonus by the town of $60,000 to enable the Grand Junction railway to be extended to Lindsay. Just think of that, to be extended to Lindsay. And he strongly advocated at a public meeting and elsewhere the giving up by this town of its mortgage of $120,000 upon the Midland Railway, virtually making a present of this money to the railway. Now, for some unexplained reason, he tells you that in principle he is opposed to bonuses. Oh consistency, thou art a jewel! I would now ask you to consider the probable increase to the population of the town which the car works will secure. It is said that the number of hands employed there will be about two hundred. A large majority of these will be strangers, coming among us for the first time. A majority of these will be men with families, averaging five persons in each family. Will it be too much to assume then that the increase of our population by this means will be from five to six hundred. One hundred families coming into the town will require one hundred more houses. The consequence must be that new buildings will have to be erected, thus giving additional work to our people. Lumber and other materials will be required, thus giving increased business to our mills and stores. The limits of the town will be greatly extended, property will be in demand, and a large additional prosperity will come to the town, so that in the course of five years it will not be exaggerating to assume that the town will in that time contain a population of ten thousand. Give us these car works in full operation, and other manufactories are pretty sure to follow, and it may be that the erection and employment of these works may begin an era of prosperity to this town which will gladden the hearts of all. The price to be given for this is a mere loan, secured by a first mortgage upon the property bought with the money of the private stockholders. Will any voter refuse such a favourable offer as this is? Surely not.

NORTH-WEST COLONIZATION.

The Rev E. J. Stobo's Plan for the Colonization of the North West.

To the Editor of The Review.

DEAR SIR,—I have been to Ottawa and after consulting an eminent lawyer, and also the Hon. D. L. Macpherson, who is now acting for the Minister of the Interior, I find that my plan can only be carried out by a Company under the Government's present Land Regulations.

If a company be formed to compass the objects named by me in my letter of the 23rd inst. I can obtain six townships in a good location—settlers taking shares in the Company will still have the benefits named in my letter as well as land on the Government terms. The formation of a Company will suit those who cannot settle on the land, but at the same time desire a profitable investment—and good farm land is no delusion like town lots.

The Company will be called "The Fyfe Company for the settlement of Baptists and others in the North-West." (Limited.)

Capital $100,000 in 1,000 shares of $100 each—of the formation of the Company due notice will be given.

I have at present 400 families who are willing to settle on my plan, and the even numbered sections of two townships are already spoken for.

As to whether the Company will take shape depends upon those who are willing to settle on my plan of colonization—if they are willing to take stock the thing is an accomplished fact, and we may get upon the land this spring. I am greatly indebted to Geo. Hilliard, Esq., M. P., and John Burnham, Esq., M.P., for their kind treatment and for their introduction to the Hon. D. L. Macpherson.

I had every kindness and attention shown me by the heads of the Department of the Interior, and I have returned fully posted in all matters relating to settlement in the North-West.

I am now in a position to advise either a Company or the individual as to settlement of land, being in possession of maps and field notes.

My plan was not speculative in any sense. I have as yet handled no man's money, but have paid out considerable of my own, and gone through a great deal of labor in answering correspondents. If my plan could have been carried out it would have been the greatest boon possible to the settlers, but if a company take it up it may still be so. Thanking you for allowing me space in your paper, and for other kind attentions,

I am,
Yours truly,
E. J. STOBO.

TRADE WITH THE NORTHWEST.

The Chicago Northwestern Lumberman in an article headed "Out of Reach," thus describes the prospects of the trade of the old Canadian Provinces with the Northwest :—

There is a good sized persimmon growing north of the British line, in Manitoba and the northwest territories of the Dominion, that is out of reach of the American pole. Reference is made to the immense demand for manufactures that is growing up in that section of the continent, and that is bound to expand continually as settlement progresses. There is an inhabitable territory in that region as large as the northwestern states of the Union, and it is destined to become occupied by populous communities, and that at no distant day. Immigrants are arriving there in large numbers, cities and towns are being built, railroads constructed and projected, and speculation is rampant enough to stimulate a rapid filling up of the country. The demand for manufactured goods in Manitoba is even now large, and it is being principally supplied from the Canadas, the tariff on goods from the United States being an embargo on trade from this side of the line. The Dominion papers are felicitating the manufacturers of the provinces because they have, for once, the advantage of their Yankee competitors. They say, had our tariff remained as it was three years ago and before, then the trade of the Canadian northwest would have been seized upon by American mannfacturers, and Chicago and St. Paul would have taken the business which Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton are now doing. The Canadian Manufacturer even works itself into a mood of pious thankfulness about this excellent state of affairs, and says that "it seems almost providential that the change in our policy came just in time to keep this vast Canadian trade in Canadian hands, and to retain, for the good of our own country, what would otherwise have been appropriated by foreigners."

Thus our cousins across the border are delighted to think that they will get even with their great rival in the trade of the continent. The Canadians have hitherto felt as if they were crowded off over on the wrong side of the lakes and the St. Lawrence, and while they warmed their hands and toasted their knees by the sunny border of the Union, their backs are bumped up against the snow-drifts and icebergs of the North, and to the westward a howling and inaccessible wilderness fenced them back from following the star of empire. If there had been no trade restrictions between the Dominion and the United States the Canadians could have thriven in spite of their cold backs and restricted position, but the tariff laws of both their own and the American government hampered their trade, checked their progress, and induced a depleting emigration to the United States for the sake of ampler space and opportunity. But the opening of the Canadian Northwest to settlement, and the projection and partial completion of the Canadian Pacific railway, has developed enterprise and started a tide of emigration to Manitoba and the prairie regions to the westward that promises a fresh empire for the Canadians. A new community ten times as large and populous as the original Canadas is a prospect to the people of the old Provinces that almost bewilders them with its coming mightiness and opportunity for getting rich. Now the manufacturers of the Dominion, and those who want to become such, are glad that there is a commercial wall between them and the United States, for the golden opportunity that is looming up in the Northwest is all their own, and no Yankee despoiler, with his provoking shrewdness, enterprise and capital can walk in and grasp the prize. There is the article of lumber, for instance; the Canadians have counted it their principal source of wealth, but they have been obliged to market it over the border at a sacrifice of $2 a thousand, which amounted to a serious competition with Saginaw pine in the eastern trade. But now a brighter era dawns. As soon as railroad communication is opened to Manitoba, the vast prairie regions of the Canadian northwest can be supplied without paying any tariff, while American lumbermen look on and long for the commercial persimmons that they cannot reach.

There is no denying the fact that the Canadians have reason to gloat over the good prospect that is before them. It is plain, too, that the tariff on lumber between the two countries, which has served to give American lumbermen a monopoly of the trade on this side, will act as a boomerang in reference to the immense demand for lumber that will grow up in the Canadian Northwest. It may be said that but little Michigan lumber could ever reach the valley of the Saskatchewan. That is not positively the fact. Michigan has abundant water communication half way to Manitoba, and transportation thence by railroad will be very direct. But granting that Michigan pine would not tend in that direction in any event; Minnesota and northern Wisconsin lumber certainly would, if there were no tariff laws to prevent. A heavy demand for northwestern pine to go to Manitoba and other countries contiguous, would become a prodigious drain on the supply of Minnesota and Wisconsin, which, in turn, would create an aching void in our own Northwest, beyond the Missouri, which would inevitably have to be supplied from Lake Michigan markets. Thus a drain in one section of the field effects a drain in all other sections. This will be more and more obvious as the general supply diminishes during the process of time.

This article is not intended as an anti-tariff advocacy; it is a mere reflection of the present and prospective condition of Dominion trade and manufactures, and of the way the development of the new Canadian Northwest is certain to benefit Canadian manufacturers of lumber, as well as other goods, while Americans must to a great extent, be deprived of its benefits through the workings of its present tariff laws. That the advantage already derived from these laws, and to be derived from them, does not more than compensate for any loss that may result from being deprived of the profits of Canadian northwestern trade, is another phase of the question.

AFLOAT ON AN ICE CAKE.

A Thrilling Incident of a "Shove" in the St. Lawrence at Montreal.

MONTREAL, March 30.—The ice bridge broke in front of the city yesdarday afternoon. A thrilling incident occured which was witnessed by a large number of people on the revetment wall. A faamer with a team of horses started from the city to cross to St. Lambert's by-road. When near St. Lambert shore a shove occured, breaking up the ice and leaving a yawning gap before him. Seeing his peril he started back for the city, but what was his horror to see, that the ice had broken up there, too, and left an open space between him and the wharf. The people on shore discerned the extreme danger the man was in and called the police, who advised him to abandon his team and make an effort to reach the wharf. This he did. He scrambled across the detached pieces of ice, and finally reached the shore safe. His team on a "dump" in the river was carried down by the ice opposite to Longuil Ferry, where the "dump" stoped drifting, and was held fast here. Two cabmen volunteered for a consideration of $20 to cross over and bring the team to shore, and on their offer being accepted they accomplished their dangerous feat successfully, and the man departed with his team rejoicing. The river last night was breaking up fast below, and all crossing has been stopped.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.—R. V. Pierce, M.D., Buffalo, N. Y.:—I had a severe disease of the lungs, and was for a time confined to my bed and under the care of physician. His prescriptions did not help me. I grew worse, coughing very severely. I commenced taking your "Golden Medical Discovery," and it cured me. Yours respectfully, JUDITH BURRETT, Hillsdale, Mich.

THE DOCTOR'S SECRET.—Probably no new development will more surprise the public, than to learn the secret of success of certain leading physicians. When they have a difficult case of throat or lung disease that baffles their scientific skill, they prescribe Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, having it disguised in a prescription bottle, with their own directions and name attached. The patient is cured and they get the credit.—Tribune. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.—2

"MADE NEW AGAIN."—Mrs. Wm. D. Ryckman, St. Catherines, Ont., says: "R. V. Pierce Buffalo, N. Y., I have used your Favorite Prescription,' "Golden Medical Discovery, and Pleasent Purgative Pellets, for the last three months and find myself—(what shall I say)—made new again, are the only words that express It. I was reduced to a skeleton, cauld not walk across the floor without fainting, could keep nothing in the shape of food on my stomach. Myself and friends had given all hope, my immediate death seemed certain. I now live (to the surprise of everybody) and am able to do my own work."

A CASE of some importance to jewellers and watchmakers has just been decided in an English court of law. A customer was loaned a watch while his own was being repaired, and he broke the mainspring, for the remedying of which, of course the jeweller demanded payment. The customer declined to pay, and was sued. The judge held that the watchmaker, in such a case, has no claim unless he can prove that the watch was wilfully damaged which is obviously impossible. This is doubtless good law, but it is liable to put an end to a very convenient practice.

"FANTASTIC FOOLISHNESS."

The Anti-Chinese Bill Denounced by Mr. Beecher in a Sermon.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Beecher touched upon two important public matters in his sermon this morning—the action of Congress in regard to the Chinese and the legislative tinkering of city charters. On the former Beecher said that one of the special difficulties of government was caused by the fact that this country was the gulf into which poured a stream of immigration. That stream carried down as much mud as the Nile into its delta, and the mud was miasmatic. It made the best soil, but killed all it overflowed. But still immigration was needed and he favoured it. Great trouble arose over the Irish vote. "The Irish," he said, "is a wonderful race. Mercurial and full of men of genius, full of the most admirable creatures that ever abominated the earth, the Irish were full of driving force, but had no constructive power. Alone they could never build a nation. But cross the breed and they formed an admirable element of a nations power. But they did make mischief in city government." Said Beecher; "Thank God Ireland has not many more to send over, as she is pretty nearly gone up. The next element is the German, more numerous, but more subordinate to law and naturally peaceful citizens. After the hodge-podge of other nations comes last, but best of all, the Chinamen. It has been said that the German could live on what the Yankees throw away, and the Jew on what the Germans throw away, and the Chinese on what the Jews throw away. They are types of patient industry and persistency in living, and can do more, and live on less, than anyone else. And here our fool Congress goes to work to shut them out. (Applause.) Of all fantastic foolishness is this legislation of Congress. All the importantraces in our country have a springup which carries them to seek the higher forms of living. The want of the country is a class of men to do the common and vulgar work. We are hungry for them. The work is left for the broken-down, and the under-class, and here we have a class of men coming to us ready and willing to do it, and we shut the golden gates of hope and promise in their faces, and God writes down 'asses' against all the men who vote for this piece of legislation—(applause)—and that is my opinion."

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcule which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Concert.

A concert under the auspices of the Carswell Lodge, I. O. G. T., will be given in the Temperance Hall. over Long's confectionary store, on Tuesday evening April 4th. The programme promises well.

Progressing.

The Port Hope News has received one of the Otto silent gas engines, which henceforth will be used to work off the paper, etc. The News s a good local paper and we are pleased to see this further evidence of progress.

High School Inspector.

Mr. J. E. Hodgson, B. A., Toronto University, at present principal of the Brantford Collegiate institute, and for six years principal of St. Mary's Institute, has been appointed to the High School Inspectorship vacated by the lamented death of Mr. Marling.

New Company.

Under the name of the British North American General Farming and Colonization Company, with the chief place of business at Lindsay, and a capital stock of $500,000, the following gentlemen have applied for incorporation:—M. Boyd, M. M. Boyd, and W. Boyd, of Bobcaygeon; J. Macdonald, of Albany; A. Niven, of Haliburton, and J. A. Barron, of Lindsay.

Obituary.

The following obituary notice of a lady, who has relatives in this neighbourhood and other parts of the Canada, appears in the old country papers:—

"On March 8th, at Hampton Court Palace, the mother of the distinguished, General Sir Frederick Roberts, died somewhat suddenly. Lady Roberts was a Miss Bunbury, daughter of Mr Abraham Bunbury, of Kilfeacle, Country Tipperary, and was twice married—first to Major Hamilton George Maxwell, of Ardwell, N. B., and in 1830 to Sir Abraham Roberts, G. C. B."

Lacrosse.

The members of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club intend to enter upon a vigorous campaign during the coming summer, and for the purpose of making preparations, they will meet on Monday evening next at the Oriental at 7.30 o'clock. Although the club has been weakened by the removal of some of the players, still there is lots of good material left, and we fully expect to see a first class team turned out, as many of the "old reliables" are still here and ready to play at very short notice.

Extra heavy Ducks, Denims and Shirtings in any pattern you may want at Turnbull & Gray's.

Ourselves.

The Cobourg World says:—

"We are pleased to observe the progress made by the DAILY REVIEW, which is now, every Saturday at least, and as frequently otherwise as its crowding advertisements demand, enlarged to a twenty-four column sheet. The REVIEW makes several mistakes in the course of a year, on political subjects, we admit; but in every other direction it is a most capital daily, spicy, newsy, well-arranged, and exceedingly well printed. Some "dailies" which we could mention are not worth the name, and are not worth printing once a year. The REVIEW, however, is well worth printing every time."

The Oshawa Vindicator says:—

"The enterprising managers of the Peterborough DAILY REVIEW have enlarged their paper to a twenty-four column daily. It was always noted for being a spicy sheet, and with the present enlargement will be acknowledged the leading paper in the Midland District."

The Campbellford Herald says:—

"The Peterborough DAILY REVIEW now spreads out larger occasionally, to make itself able for its increasing trade. Peterborough should feel satisfied that they have a clean, newsy, almost faultless little daily newsgatherer."

The Whitby Gazette says:—

"The Peterborough REVIEW has been enlarged. It is one of the spiciest exchanges on our list and deserves a liberal patronage."

The Stirling News Argus says:—

"The Peterborough EVENING REVIEW now appears in an enlarged form as occasion requires. It is a live little daily."

Railway Time Table.

Returned Home

One of our exchanges states that Miss Maggie Merrill, whose sudden and unaccountable, departure from home was chronicled in our columns, has returned home. It is said that she had simply been to Toronto visiting friends, and had forgotten, no doubt among the gayeties in the Queen City, to inform her friends of her whereabouts. The next time she takes a trip, she had better inform some person where she is going.

Saddlery Business Bought Out.

We understand that Mr. B. Shortly has purchased the saddlery and harness business of Charles LeFranc, who is going to the Northwest. This addition to Mr. Shortly's own large stock of staple and general saddlery and harness, equips his store with the largest and best assortment of goods carried by any shop store in the Midland district. The old customers of Mr. LeFranc will find in Mr. Shortly's store anything required, and their orders will receive careful and prompt attention.

Railway Notes.

Quite a number of the surveyors engaged on the survey of the Ontario and Quebec Railway between Peterborough and Norwood reached that place on Wednesday evening of last week. The party engaged in the vicinity of Prenevau's Hotel, Belmont, have returned to Madoc to complete their work there. It is stated that as soon as the survey is completed work will be commenced on the road in earnest.

The case of Shanly v. the Grand Junction Railway Company was before Mr. Justice Armour at Toronto on Friday. The defendents moved to set aside a judgment recovered by Mr Shanly, their engineer, for $10,000, on the ground that they have a good defence, the judgment having been signed for default in appearing. The Master of Chambers dismissed the application, and in appeal his order was sustained this morning, and the appeal dismissed with costs.

The Globe says that the Toronto and Nippissing Railway on and from to-day becomes part of the extensive system known as the Midland Railway of Canada. Mr. W. Gooderham will be Vice-President of the new corporation. The Midland Railway, when completed. will become an important factor in the general railway system of this Province. It will extend from Sault Ste. Marie in the West to some point at or near Montreal in the East. Mr. George A. Cox is the President and General Manager.

The new time table came into force to-day. The trains are now run by Toronto time, which is about five minutes slower than Peterborough time. The trains all arrived and left very punctually on time.

Peterborough Waterworks.

The following is the letter referred to in our Council meeting report, regarding the Peterborough waterworks:—

To His Worship the Mayor and Council:

GENTLEMEN,—The Peterborough Water Company has directed me to write you on the subject of the water supply for the town. The Company has contracted with Messrs. R. Laidlaw and Sons, of Glasgow, for the necessary pipes to lay the main down George street to Wolfe street, in accordance with the terms of the By-law, also for a certain quantity of pipe for the probable immediate water supply on the cross streets. And these pipes will be here in the early part of May next. The main will then be laid. As it will be necessary in laying the main to make provision by special castings for supplying the cross streets, and for valves and by-drants, which have to be ordered now in order to have them in readiness to lay with the main pipe on George street, you are requested to indicate in what cross streets you will require pipes to be laid, so that provision can be made to have the requisite castings prepared. The contract for these castings and for suitable valves and hydrants has been let also, but the number has not yet been fixed. I submit herewith the drawings for the castings, hydrants, valves and valve chambers, from which you will see how necessary it is that some definite system should be adopted by the Council for a proper distribution of the water for fire protection and domestic use. The required castings in all cases have to be ordered. Patterns have to be prepared after the distribution system has been decided upon by the Council. It will therefore be apparent that no general system for fire protection can be constructed until your Council decides upon the streets to be supplied. As the By-law provides for the completion of the work by the 31st of October next, in so far as completing the main pipe on George street, and as it is also provided that the Company shall not be required to lay any pipes between the 15th of November and the 15th of April in any year, it follows that in order to secure an adequate supply of water before the 15th of April, 1883, action must now be taken by the Council. The present contract for pipes and special castings for street intersections, hydrants and valves, provides for sufficient to cover the general distribution throughout the town. But the Company can comply with the terms of the By-law, viz.: laying a main down George street from Smith street to Wolfe street at a comparatively small expense. This would only furnish a means for securing a supply for George street. The recent amendment to the Act respecting Water Companies gives the Council a power not before possessed by Councils. It is therefore competent for your Council to enter into such a contract with the Water Company as in the interests of the town you may deem advisable. As it will take some months after any contract is entered into by the Company to get the requisite material to carry it out, I am instructed to ask your honorable body to take the matter into your serious consideration at an early day, so that the Company may be enabled to comply with your wishes. It is the intention of the Company to lay the main pipe in May next, and to have the works in order so that a supply of water for all purposes may be obtained in July next. The Company will be happy to furnish your Council with such further information as may be in their power.

Yours, &c.,
G. W. HATTON.
Secretary.

The Coming Comet.

If the comet that was discovered by a young astronomer in Albany a week ago fulfils half of the promises made for it, we may expect to behold in May or June a celestial spectacle such as has not been equalled since 1858 or 1811.

Home Mission.

The Summer Home Mission appointment of the Presbyterian Church beginning on 9th April, as made by the committee on Thursday, for this district are:—Peterborough—Thos. Davidson, Lindsay—John Curry, D. Bickle, J. B. McLaren, J. L. Hargrave, Jas Ballantyne.

The Norseman.

The Kingston News says that the Norseman has been extensively repaired during the past winter. Without exception she has the most extensive sleeping accommodation of any boat in this vicinity, some twenty extra berths having been supplied her last season. A large staff of hands is now at work finishing the hull and joiner work and painting same. Her reputation as a sea boat need not be further explained here, further than since coming to Gunn & Co.'s dock she has been further stayed and strengthened throughout. If all steamers were given the same alteration as this one has always received there would not be any accasion for such disasters as the Waubono, Alpena, etc. Her officers are:—Capt. Geo. Crawford; Purser, Alex. Forin, Belleville; Mate, Robt. Chestnut; Chief Engineer, James O'Reily, (a boat would need a clean pair of heels to pass Jim's); Steward, A. W. Stephenson; (late of the steamer Magnet). The whole of C. F. Gildersleeve's ship and joiner work is under the superintendence of Mr. George Menary.

New Weather Prophet.

A genius who calls himself Prof. John Walker Adam, professor of occult science, the author of the "Bible astronomy and pyramid" "Soli stellar influences," "The divinites," etc., etc., and asserts that he can determine the weather from the motions of the planetary and solar and other influences makes the following predictions for April:—

April 1st—Wet and somewhat windy.
" 2nd—Cloudy to fair weather.
" 3rd and 4th—Stormy and threatening.
" 8th—Wet and stormy.
" 9th and 10th—Changeable.
" 11th—Cloudy but fair.
" 12th—Fair.
" 13 and 14th—Stormy, with some rain.
" 17th till 19th—Fair.
" 20th till 22nd—Changeable, with some rain.
" 28th—Stormy, with but little rain.
" 30th—Fine.

There will be a heavy storm on the Atlantic coasts on April 13th and May 2nd. May enters cloudy and stormy.

Smelting Works.

A special train including the beautiful Directors' Car of the Midland Railway, arrived here on Friday afternoon having on board Messrs. H. S. Howland, President of the Imperial Bank, Toronto; T. Gilford Smith and George Beales, of the Union Iron Company, Buffalo, New York; N. Lillienberg, Metallurgist, New York, and W. Hamilton Merritt, Mining Engineer, Toronto. They were also accompanied by Mr. R. Jaffray, of Toronto, one of the Midland Railway Directors. From a conversation with several of the gentlemen we learnt that they had just returned from a two days' trip, to the Snowden Iron Mine district and having some time at their disposal, they visited Peterborough. All expressed themselves as very much delighted with the trip and their visit to our town and with the many courtesies that had been extended to them by the railway officials. They also expressed the opinion that Peterborough was a first class place for the establishment of smelting works and one of them went so far as to state that there was not a better site in Canada, for the purpose. They left at 6.40 the special car being attached to the regular train.

POLICE COURT.

D. AND D.

SATURDAY, April 1.—John Doig, an old offender, was charged by R. C. McGhee, with being drunk and disorderly on the public streets on Friday night.

The prisoner, who had spent the night in gaol pleaded guilty and promised to leave town at once, saying he had money enough to pay his fare to Omemee, near which place he was working.

P. C. McGhee said that he found the prisoner lying on the road near Sherbrooke street, utterly incapable.

The Magistrate entered a verdict of guilty, but reserved sentence, and Doig departed in charge of an officer, who saw him safely on the train.

A HAPPY YOUNG GENTLEMAN.—Mr. E. H. Rhoads, residing at No. 214 W. Ninth street, says he knows more about the law of contrast than he did last winter. He did not know then what inflammatory rheumatism was. He has since been thoroughly initiated into all its mysteries, and there is a very steep contrast between the feelings of a man when he is dosed with rheumatism and enjoying immunity from it. During the Christmas holidays he was aroused from his sleep about two o'clock in the morning by a terrible pain in his hand and wrist. He felt as if his arm weighed a ton and had been crushed by an elephant. He never did have anything to hurt him so badly in his life. He didn't sleep any more that night, for the pain grew rapidly worse until eight o'clock, when he applied St. Jacobs Oil. His hand had grown so stiff by the time the first application was made that he could not move a finger, and even St. Jacobs Oil could not induce the disease to loose its grip until it had been used two days. At the end of that time, however, the famous old pain annihilator drove out the last vestige of pain and he was all right again and ready to eat, sleep and enjoy himself like other men. He has not had any sign of it since and does not care to make its acquaintance.

EASTER BEEF.

Magnificent Animals Secured by our Butchers—Mr. Harry Winch's Display on the Market Square.

Once more Easter is almost at hand and our citizens after the long season of Lent are prepared to feast upon prime beef, etc.

For some time past the cry has been that our county was being denuded of its finest cattle by the buyers for foreign markets, but such has not been the case by any means. No doubt some remarkably fine animals have been shipped, but still the principal breeders and feeders are alive to their own interests, and know full well, that our local butchers can better afford to pay a higher price than the shippers, if for no other reason than to sustain their prestige as caterers to the public.

As has been the case for many years, in fact ever since he has been in the business, Mr. Harry Winch, steps to the front and announces to the fine beef loving community, that he is fully prepared to supply their wants. His display of live cattle on the market to-day was never surpassed in the town of Peterborough, and excellent judges inform us that it could not be surpassed in the Province, if not for quantity for quality at least. The stock were surrounded by a large crowd as long as they remained on the square, while the knowing ones stood in knots and amused themselves by punching the animals in the ribs, and laughing when the fat fairly shook.

Among the others Mr. Winch showed four steers and one heifer from the herd of Mr. J. Wallis, "Merino."

One thoroughbred Durham heifer from the herd of Mr. James Campbell, "Walkerfield."

Two thoroughbred Durham heifers and two steers from the herd of Mr. W. Armstrong, Otonabee.

One Grade heifer fed by Mr. Winch, specially for Easter.

Prime calves from the herds of Messrs. G. McKee, Smith, Edward Sutton, of Cavan, and Samuel Wallace, of Smith.

Prime sheep from the fold of Mr. W. Buckham, South Monaghan.

Fine spring lambs from Mr. Anthony Garnett, Cavan, carefully nursed for the occasion.

In addition to the above, Mr. Winch will on Saturday next have the best display he ever had of fancy meats of all kinds, turkeys, roasters, etc. Be sure and see his stall.

Mr. R. Wainwright and the other butchers are also making great preparations for the festive occasion and a show well worth seeing may be expected.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY are perhaps the most common of our every day ills, and every person nearly has some special cure of their own. Ours is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, and having used it for many years we can confidently recommend it.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

Vegetable Balsamic
ELIXIR!

This valuable medicine is purely vegetable, the discovery of which was the result of many years' close study, in order to discover the cause, the symptoms and the cure—viz.:

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Influenza, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis,

and every species of oppression of the Chest and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir has been duly administered its efficacy has been invariably manifested, convincing the most incredulous that is not incurable, if properly attended to.—Consumption, at its commencement, is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is more observable, but rather dry; then becomes local fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration,

CONSUMPTION

IT HEALS THE ULCERATED SURFACES

and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are of no drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the CAUSE, generally destroys the hectic before the cough is entirely gone. Consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions for cure of pulmonary diseases. Price 25cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold everywhere.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

A BOY AND A PISTOL.

A Young Lad Accidentally Shot in the Leg—A Warning to Juvenile Sports.

Many boys are very fond of firearms, and it is a remarkable thing that accidents are not of more frequent occurrence. In Peterborough there are probably more boys who are accustomed to fire off pistols, revolvers, and guns than in any place of the same size in Canada. It is no rare occurrence to see half a dozen boys, ranging in age from eight to twelve years, with two or three pistols and a good supply of powder and shot, amusing themselves in some unfrequented barn or shady spot by shooting at a mark, sometimes with the cognizance of their parents, but oftener without, we must charitably suppose. As we said before, it has often been a source of wonder to us that a didn't-know it-was-loaded accident or something of that character did not occur before this.

On Saturday an accident occurred that will for some time at least, we hope, deter the juvenile sports in their endeavours to become adept marksmen before they are hardly able to carry a pistol or know how to load one. On this occasion three young boys named Mitchell, Delaney, and Sanderson, armed with an old single barrelled pistol and a goodly supply of bullets, powder and caps, betook themselves to Dixon's woods, in the vicinity of the Cobourg Railway cut. Finding no game, they resolved to test their powers of hitting a mark, and accordingly fastened a handkerchief to a tree and "peppered away" in turns, sometimes hitting the mark, and oftener missing. However, all went well until young John Mitchell's turn came and Delaney handed him the pistol, loaded and cocked. While Mitchell was taking it, by some means it went off and the bullet lodged in his thigh, inflicting a nasty wound. He was taken home and medical attendance secured, but we understand that the ball has not yet been found.

It is to be hoped that this will prove a warning to parents to keep firearms away from their children in future.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

MURDERERS ARRESTED.

DUBLIN, April 1.—Three passengers on the steamer Scythia, which sailed from Liverpool on Saturday for New York, have been arrested at Queenstown, charged with implication in the murder of Arthur Herbert.

MORE IRISH OUTRAGES.

DUBLIN, April 1.—Mr. Smythe, a wealthy landlord of Westmeath, was fired at while driving home from church to-day. A lady accompanying him was wounded. A quantity of dynamite was placed on the window-sill of the police barracks at Limerick to-day and exploded, destroying a neighbouring warehouse.

DISASTROUS COLLISION.

LONDON, April 1.—The Spanish steamer Yruracbat, from Liverpool for Porto Rico, colided with the royal mail steamer Douro, from Brazil, off Cape Finisterre, on Saturday night. Both sank. The steamer Hidalgo rescued 17 persons from the Douro, and 67 from the Yruracbat, and landed them at Corunna. A despatch from Corunna says 20 of the crew of the Yruracbat, including Captain Ugarte and the pilot, were drowned. Thirty-five of the Douro's passengers were saved. The number of the drowned is unknown.

AMERICAN.

DR. LAMSON'S CASE.

WASHINGTON, APRIL 1.—The following is the despatch sent by Secretary Frelinghuysen to Mr. Lowell regarding Dr. Lamson:—"It is the personal wish of the President, in view of the evidence of this country, that the execution of the sentence in the Lamson case should be suspended until that evidence can be forwarded. Secretary Frelinghuysen received a cable from Mr. Lowell this afternoon announcing that in deference to the request of the President a respite of a fortnight has been granted Dr. Lamson. Secretary Frelinghuysen says this does not imply that the sentence has been commuted, and must be construed merely as affording an opportunity to the friends of the prisoner in this country to forward evidence.

SPANISH FINANCES.

MADRID, April 3.—Sagusta closed the debate on the financial policy on Seturday night, amid great excitement and anxiety. He stated that the government propose to support the French treaty of commence, and are prepared to crush rebellious resistance to its policy. Tranquility is re-established in the proclaimed provinces, but the feeling is strong against the treaty. Sagusta's speech produced an excellent impression in financial circles.

AMERICAN.

NEW YORK INVADED.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The professional thieves here have been largely reinforced from Philadelphia. Since the breaking up of the detective squad there has been a considerable increase of petty larcenies. A large number of prisoners were discharged from the penetentiary during the past winter and many came to New York.

A DREAM VERIFIED.

STAPLETON, Staten Island, April 3.—Post master John Bale, was found dead in the street yesterday morning. He had a large amount of money and stamps on his person which was untouched. It is supposed that he died of heart disease. His wife, at midnight, had a dream that her husband was in danger. She rose and prayed for him until 4 a.m., when the tidings of his sudden death reached her.

AMERICAN "SUSPECTS."

WASHINGTON, April 3.—It is said that the majority of the House Committee on foreign affairs condemn Lowell's policy regarding the imprisonment of American citizens in Great Britain.

DANCING FOR CHARITY.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The Blue Anchor Auxiliary of the Womans National Relief Association gave a reception, followed by dancing on Saturday evening for the benefit of the sufferers by the southern floods. Large donations of clothing, food and considerable sums of money were received. The reception was under the charge of prominent ladies.

GRAIN BURNT.

STOCKTON, Cal., April 3.—Sherry and Co's. flouring mill and warehouse, containing an immense quantity of grain, also several other buildings were burned yesterday. The loss is estimated at $200,000. Several men were severely injured.

NEGROES ARRRSTED.

ROCKPORT, Mo., April 3.—Twenty drunken negroes fired on the same number of white men and boys here on Saturday night. Eight men were wounded. There was great excitement. Ten negroes have been arrested.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The World's Washington despatch says that it is reported that one of the commissioners for the negotiation of the treaty with China, writes that the Chinese authorities have been persuaded to agree to the suspension clause of the treaty upon the assurance that no such advantage would be taken of it as that contemplated in the Chinese Bill, without which assurance the negotiations would have failed. It is also reported that the Chinese Government through their embassy here intimated that if the bill became law the Chinese would retaliate by excluding Americans from China.

THE MISSISSIPPI FLOODS.

MORGAN CITY, La., April 3.—The water is still raising, and a strong current is setting in from the swamps in rear of the town. The indications point to a flood equal to that of 1878.

IT CANNOT be said that St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy, is ever demonstrative over a case of rheumatism; quietly he performs his mission, leaving the relieved one to tell of its result. Mr. Carl Siegmund, cor. Congress and Washington sts., Ypsilanti, Michigan, writes:—My daughter had suffered from Rheumatism to such an extent that is crippled her, rendering her unable to walk at all. We consulted many physicians and used all kinds of medicines, but in vain. At last we decided to try the St. Jacobs Oil, and this wonderful remedy effected the happiest results. It cured my daughter and the little girl is now well and strong. Such facts, plain and incontrovertible, are always in the order and are convincing; and it gives us no small pleaure to add our endorsement of the article which has accomplished such results.

HANLAN DEFEATS BOYD.

CANADIAN PLUCK AND SCIENCE TOO MUCH FOR THE OLD COUNTRY SCULLER.

The Toronto Boy Wins with the Greatest of Ease and Adds Another to his Already Long List of Victories—A Fair Race and no Favor.

Special to the Review.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—Hanlan won the great boat race by four lengths.

LATER NEWS.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—The race was fairly close. Some state that Hanlan won by from two to three boat lengths. Boyd won the toss for positions and chose the north side of the river. At the start which was splendid,

HANLAN LED SLIGHTLY.

At Redhugh bridge, 4½ furlongs from the starting point, Hanlan had increased his lead to one and a half length.

THE COURSE.

The length of the course was 3 miles and ½ furlong. The wind was easterly and fairly fresh.

A CORRECTION.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—The weather was dull with a light shifting wind, and a drizzling rain at intervals.

THE SPECTATORS.

NEWCASTLE, April 4.—An immense crowd witnessed the race and there was considerable excitement. Hanlan was the favorite by long odds.

HE PLAYS WITH HIM.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—Hanlan played with Boyd all along the course.

BY FOUR LENGTHS.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—Boyd, at the outset raised the hopes of his supporters, but Hanlan gathering himself together with one effort placed himself first, after 50 yards had been rowed. He maintained a lead of from one to four lengths throughout the race, playing with Boyd, and won by four lengths.

BOBCAYGEON.

CHANGE IN THE MAILS.—The Independent says that the alteration in the time table of the Midland Railway takes effect on the 1st of April, and changes all the mail arrangements of this district. The time table is arranged with great skill and judgement, and the whole of the Midland Counties will have a railway service of the most efficient character. The town of Peterborough will have five trains each way daily, and the train leaving Toronto at seven in the morning, will be in Haliburton at two o'clock in the afternoon. This village, being off the line of railway receives but little advantage from the change. We shall despatch our mail at ten o'clock in the morning instead of half past seven, and shall receive it earlier by half an hour in the evening. We could get our Toronto mail at two o'clock in the afternoon, instead of six o'clock, if we were prepared to sacrifice our connection with the back country. The back country mail reaches Fenelon at 4.30, and this mail will be brought by mail stage to this village at 6.30. Letters posted in the morning in the back country will be delivered here in the evening, and the reply posted here before ten o'clock the next morning will be delivered by two o'clock the same day. This is all that can be desired. When the Toronto mail is delivered here at 6.30, and we have until ten next morning to reply, the full requirements of business are fairly met. It is of great importance to this village that it should preserve its connection with the back country. There was a time only a few years since, when the back country trade was of the highest value, and even now it is worth more than we can afford to lose. The present arrangement, of despatching the mail at ten o'clock, and receiving it at 6.30 will probably be found, on trial, to answer all expectations.

INSTINCT.—Some horses were turned out of the stables at Kinmount, on Sunday night, during the conflagration at that village. They were panic-stricken and galloped down the road towards Bobcaygeon. One of them had been raised on a farm near Lindsay. He went straight to his native place, and was found there early on Monday morning. The horse was returned to his owner at Kinmount.

GREEN GLASSES.

The Guelph Herald thus neatly hits off the proceedings of the Globe grievance commissioner:—

"A Frenchman once conceived a brilliant idea. He put green spectacles on his horse to lead the animal to believe that the basket of wood shavings placed before it was grass. The Globe tries to reverse the operation and induce the electors of Canada to view the prosperity of the country through its own pessimist glasses. The Globe has been interviewing manufacturers of agricultural machines. With scarcely an exception these manufacturers admit that they are doing a larger business, that the orders are far ahead of the supply and that the North-west is an almost unlimited market, but the price of paint has been increased by the National Policy. We fancy that the country will pull through, even though the Globe does prove to demonstration that the green paint on the handle of a reaper costs a cent and a half instead of a cent and a quarter as formerly."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For Sale by Taylor & Macdonald.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.' This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

IF YOU ARE RUINED in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimoniais, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1882.

THE CAR WORKS.

TO-DAY we publish two letters in opposition to the car works by-law, not because we agree with them, for we think them inaccurate, believing that the town would have ample security for the advance, and would benefit largely by thereby securing the establishment of this industry. We were unwilling, however, to refuse publicity to the fullest discussion of this important matter from both points of view.

SUSTAINED BY THE PEOPLE.

THERE have now been several divisions in the House of Commons this session, and they have served to place on record the fact which we have many times had to announce that the majority supporting the government of Sir John Macdonald has steadily increased. Year after year the bye elections have resulted in favour of the adminstration, till now in its fourth year it is stronger than ever.

This is unprscedented in modern parliamentary history. Sir John Macdonald and Mr. Mackenzie in Canada, Lord Beaconsfield and Mr. Gladstone in Great Britain, have found hitherto that their large majorities have gradually decreased, till it seemed to be accpted as the natural course of events that strongly supported adminstrations should lose a portion of their majority during the intervals between the general elections.

That this should have been reversed—that the sweeping majority of 1878 should have been augmented instead of being reduced—is conclusion proof that Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues have the people at their backs—that their policy is approved by the country.

WHAT PROTECTION HAS DONE.

Under the above heading the Lumberman's Gazette of Bay City, Michigan, has the following editorial. There is many reasons why protection should be equally beneficial to us:—"There is nothing which argues so strongly in favor of protection as the financial and commercial career of the United States in the past 20 years. During that time the entire property of the country has increased fram $16,000,000,000 to $38.000,000,000, though in that time 4,500,000 men were lost to the country's wealth by the war. The manufacturing power and products of the country have nearly tripled, the United States at this time turning out cotton and woolen fabrics more than one-fifth as much as entire Europe, while possessing one-sixth as much population. The entire manufactures of the United States are equal to one-fourth of the total produced by Europe. In the same period we have built more than 60,000 miles of railroad, and since 1865 have paid off $800,000,000 of national debt, and reduced our annual interest on the same to the extent of $70,000,000. In the same period our home commerce has increased more than three fold, our foreign trade has suffered but increased, while the financial prestige and commercial worth of the United States is much greater than it was in 1860."

THE CAR WORKS.

To the Editor of the Review:

SIR,—When a censor assumes to correct abuses, he should himself be free from the errors he attributes to those whom he undertakes to criticise. This your correspondent H completely ignores. In your issue of 27th ult., he in the ex-cathedra style peculiar to his profession undertakes to "champion" the bonus by-law now before the ratepayers, and to correct what he calls "misrepresentations" made by those opposed to the by-law.

Now sir, while I am opposed to the by-law, and propose doing what I can to prevent the infliction of so greivous a wrong upon our community, I will not knowingly have recourse either to "misrepresentations" or deception in order to support my views. The arguments, based on sound principles and sustained facts, are overwhelming in opposition to the practice of giving bonuses, so that there is no need for "misrepresentation."

Were I disposed to charge "misrepresentation" and deception upon the supporters of the by-law, as H has done upon the opponents of the scheme, I might point out the fact that some of the names flaunted before the public, as the promoters of the enterprise have not subscribed a dollar towards the stock, nor have they given any authority for the use of their names in connection with the by-law. Is it fair or honest to employ men's names without authority, and place them as "decoy ducks" to mislead the public? and by the use of names proverbial for caution and sound judgment give status to a scheme, otherwise weak and indefensible? This alone should discredit the whole project, and savors very strongly of rank "misrepresentation."

But H indulges in an array of figures, the magnitude of which seems to have obscured his perception, when he announces that the paid up capital of the company, amounting to $70,000 "WILL BE EXPENDED IN LAND AND BUILDINGS upon which the town has a first mortage, together with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, which payment of interest must be made within three months after the 31st day of December IN EACH YEAR."

Now I submit that this is the grossest perversion of the meaning and intent of the by-law, or an unpardonable blunder on the part of your correspondent. The legal acumen of H and his well-known ability as a jurist precludes the possibility of the latter assumption. and I am VERY RELUCTANT to charge him with wilful perversion or intentional "misrepresentation." Where does H find that the company are called upon to expend their paid up capital of $70,000 in land and buildings? Not in the by-law which only provides for an expenditure of $40,000 to entitle the company to the full bonus of $20,000, so that the amount furnished by the town is equal to the amount required under the by-law 6 to be furnished by the company, making the difference between the security required under the by-law, and the amount of security claimed by H the trifling sum of $30,000, but this is only a small "misrepresentation" in the estimation of H, especially when a bonus is required.

The statement that the mortgage secures the payment of interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum in each and every year fairly "Bangs Banagher." H. must have given loose rein to his fancy or in slang parlance have "cut the lines and let it run," when he imagined that the by-law made such a provision. If all the other securities are as aerial as that conjured up by your correspondent, the ratepayers will find when too late, that, like the bond given to secure the return of the $2,000, lent to the promoters of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway, it will assume the locus standi—non est inventus—the meaning of which H. can readily understand.

The only provision for interest is found in Sec. 3, Sub. Sec. (one) where in case of default the Company is required to pay the sum of $2,000 as interest on the bonus. H. must have been revelling in golden dreams when he fancied such glorious results accruing to the town.

We are next treated to a homily on the wise provisions of the law to prevent crookedness and dishonesty in public men. Like "Josiah Allen's wife, whose maiden name was Smith," H. is "powerful on episodin and moralisin," but to follow him through all his wanderings would occupy too much of your valuable space and of my own time, I must therefore like Josiah's wife "Resoom."

The reference made by H. to the bonus, given to assist the Millbrook branch is rather unfortunate for your correspondent's side of the question. It will still be fresh in the memory of many of the ratepayers that by that transaction for which H. voluntarily assumes the responsibility—the town was defrauded of the handsome sum of $40,000, and yet H. has the hardihood to claim that we "are now receiving the interest on all the money we were ever called upon to pay or become liable for," while the fact is we have not only not only received the interest on all the money, but we have been swindled out of $40,000 of our capital. This is but a poor reason why the ratepayers should be placed in a position to lose $20,000 more, notwithstanding the assurances of H. that the security is sufficient. In the case of the "branch bonus"—H., with others pronounced the security all that could be desired. But when the town undertook to assent and enforce the claim for default in payment of interest, it was found that the security accepted by "H. and others" was not sufficient, and in order to obtain proper security and avoid litigation the town abandoned the $40,000 referred to. "When, therefore H. and others were stigmatized as being about to sell the town" the charge seems to have been well founded. "The result has shown" that the town was shamefully sold to the tune of $40,000. A few more such arguments should decide the ratepayers how to shape their course on the day of polling. If they want to jeapardise another $20,000 let them vote yea.

But I am as desirous to see the car works established and prosperous as H. or any other of the promoters of the scheme—but differ with them as to the means. With Mr. Cox I believe the enterprise should be the outcome of the public spirit of our wealthy citizens, backed up by their own capital, and if the men who are loudest in clamoring for the public money, would, like him, put up their own instead, they would do more to advance the car works than all the futile efforts they are making to secure the bonus, will ever accomplish.

There is a degree of mystery about the whole affair that does not commend itself to the thinking portion of the ratepayers. It is not known outside the charmed circle who was the originator of the scheme, or who applied to the Council to submit the by-law. The principal promoters of the enterprise could not be applicants—Mr. Cox and Mr. Stevenson both repudiate the proposition. The men whose names are paraded in the by-law as having "associated themselves together for the purpose of establishing and carrying on the manufacture of railroad cars, &c." cannot be the foster-fathers of the scheme, for some of them were not even consulted as to the use of their names. Who then was the originator? The large stockholders repudiate. The small promoters clamor. The by-law says that the sixteen men named "have associated themselves together." Some of them say "No; I did not authorize the use of my name." What can the ratepayers think of such a chaos?

If the bonus is granted and the company as now constituted continue their operations with the same unity (or rather disunity) of purpose, the town will require a better guarantee than any provided in the by-law, if they ever receive either principal or interest.

As to the equitable view of giving bonuses, there is not much difference of opinion. There are few who defend it from that standpoint, and contrary to the teaching of our highest code of morals, while they admit it is wrong in principle, yet for expediency, they virtually say "let us do evil that good may come." There is nothing to justify men who band themselves together to extort money out of the public so as to enrich themselves—to tax the many so that a few may be benefitted—to cramp and discourage other struggling industries, that they may endow a pet scheme,—a scheme which as a joint stock company has never succeeded in Canada, and as a joint stock company cannot succeed in Peterborough.

To the working men, the artizan, and labourer, I would say, Vote against the by-law. What have you to gain providing all is realized that the promoters claim? For you it simply means a higher rate of taxation, increased expenses in living, higher rent, firewood and every other necessary—while you derive no benefit from the project, either pecuniary or otherwise.

Trusting to the good sense that has hitherto characterised our community, to give the present by-law such a quietus that we will not again be troubled on the subject for some time.

I remain, etc.,
ANOTHER H.

"VOTER" AND THE CAR WORKS BONUS.

To the Editor of the Review:

SIR,—"Misrepresentation" in discussing the bonus by-law by the supporters of the scheme seems to be the order of the day, Voter, unwilling to call things by their proper names, leads off by stating that he has examined the by-law, and in no part of it do I find one simple word which justifies the saying that the money proposed to be granted to this Company is in the nature of a bonus.

The preamble to the by-law states, after reciting the name of the proposed Company that, "it has been agreed that the said municipal corporation should grant to the said Company when incorporated, aid by way of bonus, to the extent of $20,000." Which is wrong, Voter or the by-law? But even the definition of the word bonus as given by Voter is incorrect and tends only to mislead.

Again he says "you will see further that the by-law provides for repayment of the money advanced with interest" etc.—I have read the by-law carefully, but fail to see any such provision. The only provision for interest is in event of default on the part of the Company.

But if the Company do not succeed, where will Voter find either principal or interest? The only securities held under the mortgage are "the lands, buildings and fixed machinery," not the whole machinery as claimed by voter, which buildings and fixed machinery in case of failure according to his own estimate "would not be worth ten cents in the dollar."

Voter's estimate of the security he considers safe is most absurd and contradictory. If we loan the money and take a mortgage, he pronounces it good and sufficient security, the property being that of the Company. But assuming it to be the property of the town, under the same conditions, viz., should the company fail, the same property he pronounces not worth ten cents in the dollar!" "Oh consistency, thou art a jewel" "of the first water." Why should the lands and building as the property of the company, possess any greater value than if vested in the town? Let Voter explain. But Voter very adroitly puts the staple argument of the promoters of the scheme, that is, "You will see that these carworks cannot be quite so bad an investment when such shrewd business men as these private stockholders (?) are, willing to invest their means to the extent of $50,000 in them.' Were these men bona-fide stockholders, and had invested their means to that extent, the argument might have some weight with some. But when we know that some of these names are merely used as an "Ignes fatuus" to mislead the public, and that they have neither taken stock nor permitted the use of their names as stockholders, it is time to be on the defensive, and not to trust "the Greeks, even when bearing gifts."

Is it creditable for Voter and the promoters of the scheme to have recourse to such questionable means, even to ensure success? There are many of these men highly esteemed, and I am convinced they did not consider the matter or they could not have lent themselves to such a course. But the electors will take into account the attempt to mislead, and will remember that any measure requiring such practices to promote it must be unsound at the core, otherwise the promoters would be willing to submit it upon its merits, to be dealt with by the ratepayers.

Voters estimate of the return of money to the town providing the bonus is passed, seems to me both silly and child like. Sixty thousand dollars of wages paid to the employees, all go into the coffers of the town according to his theory! Take his own words, "suppose the $20,000 were given outright by the town to the Company, would we not be great gainers by the transactions? for the town would receive the first year $60,000 in return for the $20,000, that is three dollars in return for every dollar so given." This is surely "reason run mad." Because 60,000 dollars is expended among the various industries in town, according to voter it necessarily passes into the coffers of the town. If so we need only pass another such bonus, and we will have such a revenue accrueing that we will henceforth require neither a person nor collector. Our income will be sufficient for all purposes without taxes.

The "case made out" by Voter is too good—so very good that the majority of the voters, I have, no doubt, will express their opinion by voting against "misrepresentation," deception, and the unfair means resorted to—to carry the by-law—and against the by-law itself.

Yours &c.,
RATEPAYER.

A PSLAM OF LIFE.

WHAT THE YOUNG MAN SAID TO THE PSALMIST.

Tell me not in mournful numbers,
"Life is but an empty dream !"
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real ! Life is earnest !
And the grave is not it's gaol ;
"Dust thou art, to dust returnest,"
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way ;
But to act, that each to-morrow
Finds us farther than to-day.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, through stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle !
Be a hero in the strife !

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant !
Let the dead Past bury its dead !
Act,—act in the living Present !
Heart within and God o'erhead.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time :—

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate ;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

COBOURG.

THE SAILORS.—The Sentinel Star says that the recent cold snap did not make the sailor boys feel half so much like fitting out as they did a week previous. They saw their shadow and went back into their winter quarters again. The soft weather on Monday brought them out again. The Nellie Hunter has had a new deck put on her, and the other vessels in the harbor are being overhauled preparatory to the opening of navigation.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. C. Welton, who is employed by Mr. Angus McDonald drawing timber to the wharf, met with a serious accident on Saturday morning last. While he was engaged in unloading, he had occasion to hitch his team to a stick of timber ; his horses started and the timber struck him on the leg, breaking one of the bones just above the ankle. His injuries received the necessary care by Dr. Craig and he was driven to his home by Mr. McDonald. He will be laid up doubtless for some time to come.

WELL DESERVED.—Mr. Hugh McGuire, for so long a time the popular and affable clerk at the Horton House, has received a position with the extensive manufacturing establishment of Messrs. Mason & Riche, as traveller for the sale of their pianos and organs. Mr. McGuire has a large number of friends here, who will be pleased to hear of his promotion. He is a musician himself, and very capable, and we have no doubt will prove an accession to the staff of the firm he has engaged with.

WELL AGAIN.—The Mayor was at his post at the head of the Council last Monday evening. He has nearly recovered from his recent severe illness. We regret to learn, however, that Mrs. Graveley is still very ill.

BETTER.—Maude Battell, who was injured at the skating rink some time ago, is able to get around with the aid of a crutch.

THE HALDIMAND CHEESE FACTORY.—The World says that from a return made by Councillor Grimison, of Haldimand Cheese Company, we find that the following was the result of last year's business:—There were 1,225,213 lbs of milk received at the factory during the season, which made 123,503 lbs of cheese—1 lb of cheese from a little less than 10 lbs. of milk. 117,752 lbs. were sold, at an average of nearly 11 cents, realizing $12,596,60. The remainder was taken out by the patrons.

ACCEPTED A CALL.—The Rev. F. R. Beattie, M.A., Presbyterian Minister of Baltimore and Coldsprings, has accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church, Brantford, and will remove, to assume change of his new appointment, about the beginning of May. While we congratulate Mr. Beattie on his selection for so important a charge, we are sure that not only present congregations but all who have enjoyed the pleasure of his acquanintance, will regret the fact of his intended removal.

Skobeleff's Latest Speech.

VIENNA, March 30.—Information received from Russia, and through most credible sources, reiterates the correctness of the report concerning the remarkable speech of General Skobeleff at the military club. The speech was delivered in a room belonging to the officers of the yacht club, which is part of the military club, in the presence of the Duke of Leichtenburg, and many officers of the Prebrjenski regiment. At the request of his brother officers General Skobeleff narrated what had occurred in the imperial presence. He maintained that the Czar approved of his Paris speech, but feared to openly express his approval, because Russia at that moment was so dependent upon Germany that it was not safe to run the risk of a rupture with the latter power. This rupture, however, it is believed is inevitable. It is perfectly well known here that Germany believes war with Russia is certain to break out at no distant day. The German general staff has been for weeks studying the strategetic details that are necessary to be thoroughly mastered before entering upon this war. Field Marshal von Moltke has said that while war could not be undertaken with perfect assurance of success until after eighteen months' further preparation it could be begun now with a reasonable hope of triumph. He thinks before war is declared the fortress of Posen and Thorn should be greatly strengthened. Then, as a war with Russia would invite France to her revenge, all defences along the French frontier should be carefully guarded.

LORD MONTEAGLE has agreed to build two hundred laborers' houses for men employed on his estate in the county Limerick, in place of a like number which has been declared unfit for habitation.

FRANCIS MASSEY, a Justice of the Peace living at Suir Castle, has, it is stated, been completely boycotted for having given permission to erect a policeman's hut on his property. NEAR Swinford, on March 5th, a party of police came upon a body of about one hundred men drilling in a wood. They returned to barracks, and mustering all the available constables in town, returned to the place ; the men ran away, but twelve of then were arrested. When returning their prisoners escaped. The names of the prisoners are John and William Feury (brothers), Pat Burke, James Costello, Martin Benson, and John Kelly. One or two of the above are only boys, fifteen or sixteen years of age.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic ; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produces a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

POLICE COURT.

D. AND D.

MONDAY, April 3.—Jas. Murphy was charged by P. C. McGhee with being drunk and disorderly on the public streets on the 18th of March last.

Mr. R. E. Wood appeared for the prisoner, who pleaded not guilty.

P. C. McGHEE, sworn,—On the day mentioned he saw prisoner on Hunter street. Prisoner was cursing and swearing in the American Hotel and refused to leave when Mr. Halpin told him to move on. Witness at last persuaded him to go along with him, and got him as far as Mercer's corner. Witness tried his best to get him home quietly, and cautioned him several times.

To Mr. Wood—He tried to get prisoner home three times. He laid the charge for the third time. On that occasion prisoner was swearing and apparently addressed his remarks to Mr. Halpin. He arrested prisoner about Chambers street. He told prisoner just after coming out of the hotel that he would either have to go home or go to the cells.

MICHAEL HALPIN, sworn,—Prisoner was the worse of liquor in his house on the day in question. He was raising a disturbance and refused to go when witness told him to leave. He sent for an officer, and P. C. McGhee came; prisoner went out the back way, but returned again and was put out by the officer.

To Mr. Wood—Prisoner was taking pipes out of the mouths of those in the bar room. He did not consider such an action fun. He requested P. C. McGhee to take the prisoner out of his house.

THOS. BEAGLEY, sworn,—He saw prisoner on the 18th of March. He was on a public street, was under the influence of liquor, and was using blasphemous language.

WM. BELLEGHEM, sworn,—He saw the officer endeavoring to coax the prisoner home. Murphy was intoxicated.

T. CANANAGH, sworn,—He saw prisoner on the 18th of March at the Stewart House. Prisoner was under the influence of liquor, and tried to raise a fuss in the hotel. Prisoner made a row in the street. Witness put him out of the hotel, and on doing so his shirt was torn. He accompanied prisoner as far as the old post office, when he went on quietly.

THE DEFENCE.

PATRICK NOLAN, sworn,—He saw prisoner on the 18th of March, when he was under the influence of liquor. He saw the officer take prisoner away from the American Hotel twice. Prisoner walked as far as Mercer's corner quietly. He did not see prisoner raise any row or disturbance. He heard Mr. Halpin order prisoner out of the hotel. He did not hear any bad language.

PATRICK SULLIVAN, sworn,—He saw Halpin putting Murphy out of the hotel. He went out quietly. This was on the first occasion.

The MAGISTRATE said he thought the evidence was very clear that prisoner was drunk and disorderly on the public street.

Mr. WOOD addressed the court for his client, urging that there was no evidence to prove the charge.

Judgment—Guilty. Fined $5.00 and costs, $7.70.

AN AMENDED CHARGE.

The charge against Michael Cahill was amended to one of common assault.

Mr. C. W. Sawers for prisoner pleaded guilty.

Judgment—Fine $10 and costs, $5.10.

OBSTRUCTING AN OFFICER.

Patrick Sullivan was charged by P. C. McGhee with obstructing a Police Officer in the discharge of his duty.

Mr. C. W. Sawers appeared for the prisoner who pleaded not guilty, and asked for summary trial.

P. C. McGHEE sworn—He was arresting Murphy on the 18th of March, for being drunk and disorderly, when prisoner and others interfered and rescued Murphy. He told prisoner to let go as he was taking Murphy to the cells. Prisoner replied "You'll not take him to any lock-up." The witness followed up and got the "nippers" on Murphy, and walked him away from the crowd that surrounded him. A number of cititens then came around and shewed him fair play, and he placed his man in the cells. Prisoner took Murphy by the arm and tried to take him away.

To Mr. Sawers—Prisoner, Cahill, and R. White, interfered. Fully 500 or 600 people were around Mercer's corner. He told prisoner that he was taking Mvrphy to the cells. Prisoner was close to him at the time, and replied to the effect that he could not take Murphy away.

R. WHITE JR., Sworn—He saw P. C. McGhee arrest Murphy. Murphy took the officer by the whiskers. Witness interposed and separated the two. The officer then took out his baton and two men tried to take Murphy away. He did not notice prisoner in the crowd. A large number were present. He heard the officer say to leave Murphy alone as he was taking him to the cells. He heard some person say "don't take that man away, we will take him to Kennealy's"

TENICE GUERIN, sworn—He saw P. C. McGhee arrest Murphy. Cahill yelled out to strike the officer. Prisoner caught hold of the officer and shook him. He first noticed prisoner near Hall's tinshop. He heard the officer tell prisoner to let Murphy go. Prisoner was one of the first to let go and then hung back.

To Mr. Sawers—Cahill was the first man who took hold of Murphy. As soon as the "nippers" were put on Murphy's wrist Sullivan dropped back.

ARTHUR RUTHERFORD, sworn—He saw a crowd on George street west, on the 18th of March, Sullivan and Cahill had hold of Murphy and were walking up street. He spoke to the officer and told him to do his duty. The officer pushed Sullivan away and caught Murphy. There was a great crowd around.

To Mr. Sawers—When near the telegraph office the three men and the officer were almost abreast. He did not see Sullivon interfere with the officer after the officer shoved him away. He considered that the prisoner obstructed the officer in the discharge of his duty.

W. S. COCKS, sworn—He saw the crowd but did not notice the prisoner.

WM. BELLEGHEM, sworn—He saw two men who had hold of Murphy. One man took off his coat and went to fight the officer, but the latter drew his baton and soon stopped that work. He did not notice prisoner.

CHAS. ROBINSON, Sworn—He did not see the row until the crowd were opposite the Express Office.

CHAS. PAISLEY, Sworn—He saw the row on Hunter street. The officer was trying to get Murphy away but the crowd impeded him. He could not recognize the prisoner as one of those who interfered.

FOR THE DEFENCE.

P. NOLAN, Sworn,—He saw the row. He saw the person take Murphy by the arm on George str eet. The prisoner was acting quietly.

MR. SAWERS spoke for his client and claimed that he endeavored to quiet the disturbance.

The MAGISTRATE thought it was a mistaken kindness on the part of the prisoner in acting as he did. The crowd were all obstructing the officer, and if the prisoner had only attended to his own business, and not interfered he would have done right. He would find defendant guilty of acting in a disorderly manner, and impose a fine of $1 and costs $4.35.

ASSAULTING A POLICE OFFICER.

James Murphy was charged by P. C. McGhee, with committing an assault on a police officer on the 18th day of March last, while the said officer was in discharge of his duty.

Mr. R. E. Wood appeared for the prisoner who pleaded not guilty.

P. C. McGHEE, sworn,—He arrested Murphy on the 18th of March. He walked with prisoner from Halpin's hotel to Mercer's corner. Murphy was under ar rest and tried to get away. He pulled out a handful of witnesses' whiskers and choked him. He had arrested prisoner on other occasions and was always resisted. His neck felt sore afterwards. Prisoner tried to thr ow witness down and off the sidewalk. Prisoner set witness at defiance and refused to go. He did not think that Murphy intended to beat him.

Mr. WOOD said his client would plead guilty to resisting arrest.

The prosecutor consented to amend the information to charge common assault.

The MAGISTRATE said that the officer had shown a great deal of forbearance, and if he had not done so, prisoner would probably have been sent to the Central Prison for two years, or at least one. This kind of work must stop and he would never impose another fine but would send the offender direct to the Central Prison. He would impose a fine of $20, and costs $4.60.

KICKED BY A HORSE

And Instantly Killed—Sad Fate of an Immigrant Near Millbrook.

On Saturday afternoon a very sad affair occured near Millbrook by which a newly arrived emigrant named Willlam Reid met his death.

The deceased with others was working on the farm of Mr. William Fair, only a few miles from the village, attending to a sawing machine, when one of the horses from some cause or another became restless, and Reid stepping up to quiet it, commenced to caress the animal, when it suddenly kicked, striking the unfortunate man on the skull, smashing it in completely. Medical aid was at once summoned, but before the injured man could be carried to to the house, a very short distance away, he had breathed his last, without ever regaining consciousness after the fatal kick.

The deceased was a middle aged man, and was greatly respected by all who knew him. He was buried on Sunday. Our informant is not aware that he has any friends in this country.

Cricket.

The annual meeting of the members of the Cricket Club will take place on Tuesday evening, at the Oriental, at 7.30 o'clock.

Lacrosse.

A meeting of the Lacrosse Club for organization takes place this evening at the Oriental at 7.30 o'clock. You will have to look sharp, boys, as all the neighboring clubs are already organized and ready for business.

The Weather.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes—Winds increasing, strong to moderate gales from east and south, fair to-day, local winds to-morrow. Higher temperature.

Big Cedar.

Messrs. T. W. Robinson and others have been for some time past taking out cedars for the Midland Railway of Canada. The principal scene of their operations has been the township of Smith. They have secured some fine pieces but a log taken out by Mr. Garner Nicholls, of Bridgenorth, on the farm of Mr. J. C. McConkey, undoubtedly carries of the palm. The log in question is 24 feet long and 27 inches at the top end. It contains 790 cubic feet. It is the largest of over 15,000 pieces taken out by the firm.

Railway Notes.

A meeting of the old Board of Directors of the G. J. R. company was held at Belleville on Saturday. Mr. Geo. A. Cox, President of the Midland Railway, was present. Several communications having been read and considered, Mr. W. H. Biggar was appointed Solicitor to wind up the business of the old company, and Mr. E. Donald was appointed Secretary.

Mr. Thomas Kelso of Belleville, ex-President the Grand Junction Railway, is in town to-day.

The first through train from Toronto to Midland ran on Saturday. A large number of officials and prominent citizens were on board, and the trip was greatly enjoyed. The official car of the Midland was attached to the train.

THE GLOBE'S CALAMITY HUNTER.

THE Hamilton Spectator publishes the following letter, giving another instance of the unfairness of the Globe commissioners :—

"SIR,—I have written to the editors of the Globe, asking them, instead of interviewing a Reform manufacturer here and there in Hamilton, giving no names, thereby placing others in a false position, that the correspondent here of the Globe be asked to interview all manufacturies of every political stripe, and that the Globe people publish in condensed form the whole of the answers received. If the Globe conductors wish to arrive at a true expression of opinion on the N. P. they will do this; if they only want an expression of opinion to suit party exigencies and to capture a few votes at the approaching election, they may think their present course of action preferable; but I doubt if the public generally will be influenced in this way. By all means interview all the manufacturers and publish their answers as given.

J. H. KILLEY,

Hamilton, March 30, 1881.

People have no more right to become dyspeptic, and remain gloomy and miserable, than they have to take poison and commit suicide. If the stomach becomes weak and fails to perform its functions, Burdock Blood Bitters will speedily remedy the trouble.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance. This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

Kendall's Spavin Cure

ON HUMAN FLESH.

Thousands of trials on Human Flesh has proved yond a doubt that "Kendall's Spavin Cure has sufficient strength to penetrate and virtue to cure the worst cases of rheumatism, corns bunyons, frostbites or any bruise, cut or lameness which are not affected in the least by ordinary liniments. It does not blister, but on the contrary, removes all soreness.

DUNHAM, P. Q., March 10th, 1879.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—About a year ago I fell in the road on to some ice and was badly hurt in the hip joint, which caused me much suffering. I tried various remedies, but none gave relief until I tried Kendall's Spavin Cure. I applied it full strength twice a day for two weeks during last October, and it effected a perfect cure I have since then been well and free from lameness It is very valuable for man as well as or beast.

Yours truly,
CHESTER K. GREEN.

Miscellaneous.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

THE CAR WORKS.

To the Editor of the Review:

SIR.—"Another H." states in his letter of the 1st inst., that some of the men "whose names are paraded in the By-law as having associated themselves together for the purpose of establishing and carrying on the manufacture of of railroad cars, &c., cannot be the foster-fathers of the scheme, for some of them have not even been consulted as to the use of their names."

As solicitors for the applicants we have only to say that at the preliminary meeting held at our office, when it was resolved to apply for the charter of the Company, there were at least ten of the persons named present, who agreed to that course, that was besides the written agreement of several who were not present to take stock in the Company. We were assured that the others, whose names were used, had expressed their intention of taking stock in the Company, and although their names were published once in the REVIEW and four times in the Ontario Gazette, not one of them has expressed to us any objection to his name being so used,

Yours etc.
POUSSETTE & ROGER.

Peterborough, 4th April, 1882.

MR. COX'S VIEWS.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I notice that an unfair use is being made of the views expressed by me at the public meeting held to discuss the carworks question. Although I stated that I would not take stock in a Company burdened with such anc incumbrance as I conceived the proposed by-law calculated to create, I had no intention of having it understood that I was unfavourable to the passing of the by-law itself. On the contrary I have no hesitation in saying that the by-law is in my judgment too stringent upon the Company, and altogether in favour of the Corporation, and that the ratepayers would be serving their own interests in granting aid to any Company which would be willing to accept it from them upon such terms as imposed by the by-law. I intend, therefore, as a ratepayer to give it my support. I think it would be to the credit of the town to pass it by a handsome majority, if the Company never avails itself of it.

Yours etc.
GEO. A COX.

ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS.

KIEFF, April 3.—Great excitement exists and fresh outbreaks against the Jews are imminent. The students of the University assembled yesterday armed with revolvers, and marched in a body to the prison in which their comrades, arrested during the recent disturbances, are confined. They clamorously demanded the release of the prisoners, and they would have forced an entrance into the gaol had the military not presented a bold front. It is well known that the troops sympathise with the mob, and fears are entertained that if the disorders continue they may refused to act against their frenzied co-religionists.

LAMSON'S CASE.

LONDON, April 3.—The Times, Standard, and Telegraph this morning, commenting editorially on the respite of Dr. Lamson, question the wisdom of such an act. The press generally seems to think little of Lamson's chance of escaping execution. In the House of Commons to-day Sir William Harcourt, replying to a question, stated that when he receives from Attorney-General Brewster the document relating to Dr. Lamson, he cannot on any account present them to the House, as such a course is contrary to precedent.

RUSSIA EXPLAINS.

LONDON, April 3.—It is reported that Russia has made explainations to Austria and Germany regarding the activity displayed in her different military departments, declaring that such activity was limited to pacific reform in the organization of the army.

A CONTRADICTION.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—The Journal de St. Petersburg denies that there is any intention to compulsorily naturalize foreign residents.

FINANCIAL CRISIS.

PARIS, April 3.—The French Minister of Finance states that the stockbrokers of Paris have completely recoveerd their position. Their losses were 130,000,000 francs. At Lyons the liquidation is not completed, and the losses amount to 80,000,000 francs.

AN AGREEMENT.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—The Russian Minister of the Interior prefesses to have information that a treaty exists between Germany and Sweden, according to which, in the event of war between Russia and Germany, Sweden will lend her fleet to the latter, receiving Finland if the allies are victorions.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

DUBLIN, April 3.—Smith, of West Meath, who with three ladies was fired at returning from church, had seemed ill, and was accompanied by his wife, sister-in-law, and Lady Harriet Monck. Mrs. Smith was killed and part of her head blown away.

THE DOURO DISASTER.

LONDON, April 3,—Later particulars from Corunna state that after the collision off Finisterre the Douro sank in thirty minutes. Forty-nine of her passengers and 63 of the crew escaped in boats. The survivors are entirely destitute. The Captain and four officers, with some of the passengers and crew, are missing. The bows of the Yuracbat were stove in, and she sank in 15 minutes. Thirty-six persons were saved from the latter vessel, and about twenty were lost. The steamer carried £636 of specie, and the crew numbered 81. The loss of life would have been much greater if the collision had occured earlier, as 175 passengers from Brazil landed at Lisbon. It is known that of those on the Douro, the Captain, four officers, first and second engineers, and four passengers were drowned. It is stated that the Yruracbat had only nine steerage passengers, all Spanish, and they were all saved. A consul and his family from Pernambuco were saved. Thirty-two persons are missing from the Douro, and 19 from the Yruracbat.

AMERICAN.

MASON'S CASE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The Supreme Court has granted the prayer of Mr. Liddy for leave to file a petition for writs of habeas corpus and certiorari in Sargeant Mason's case, and awarded a rule to show cause, returnable on the 17th of April, when the court will hear the arguments regarding its jurisdiction. Secretary Lincoln has made a report to the President in the case of Sergeant Mason. He disregards the opinion of the Judge Advocate-General, and holds that there is no power to set aside the trial of the court-martial after it has been approved. He recommends a mitigation of the sentence, and this will be ordered.

VANDERBILT'S SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The body of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt was removed to the Church of the Strangers this morning. The coroner states the ball was found on the pillow flattened by contact with the bones of the skull. It passed clear through the head, entering the left temple and coming out an inch above the ear. It is thought that Scott Lord's suit against the deceased for $40,000 counsel fees, the hearing in which was set down for to-day, greatly worried him, and was an important factor in the suicide.

CHINA TO RETALIATE.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The World's Washington special says it is reported that Mr. Angell, one of the commissioners for the negotiation of the treaty with China, writes that the Chinese authorities were pursuaded to agree to the suspension of the clause of the treaty upon assurances that no such advantage would be taken of it as that contemplated in the Chinese bill, without which assurances the negotiations would have failed. It is also reported that the Chinese Government, through its embassy here, intimated that if the bill became law the Chinese would retaliate by excluding Americans from China.

GUITEAU AND THE NIHILISTS.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—To a reporter Guiteau said that there were thousands of Nihilists in this country, and in the future members of their order will commit crimes that will cause a reign of terror in this country. Said Guiteau:—"The American Nihilist is a more dangerous citizen than you or any other ordinary man would imagine. Old Schwab the beer seller of New York, is a pronounced Nihilist as well as a Communist. Some of these days that old brute will do something to startle the country. He is an old agitator and ought to be put out of the way. He is a bad citizen. In fact when I am released from goal I intend to pursue the Communists and Nihilists until they leave the country." The reporter changed the subject, and suggested that in case the Court in banc sustained Judge Cox the sentence of death would be carried out. "I suppose so" said Guiteau. "Are you prepared to die?" asked the reporter. "Prepared to die? Prepared to die! shouted the assassin. "Why certainly I am ready to die when the Lord calls for me. I have always lived a correct, virtuous life, and I know that I will be saved."

MORE ARRESTS.

DUBLIN, April 4.—An evicted tenant named Rigg, his wife and son, have been arrested in connection with the tragedy in West-Meath county on Sunday.

SPANISH TROUBLES.

MADRID, April 4.—In Congress yesterday the Minister of the Interior read a telegram stating that the situation at Barcelona was hourly becoming worse, and Gen. Lancot was convoking a meeting of the influential inhabitants to seek to avert a crisis. The telegram caused a painful impression. The minister declared that to defend the liberty and interests of the country against violent demonstration was the province of the ministerial benches, amidst loud cheers from the Opposition. Financial circles political and even society evince much anxiety. The army in the country will be reinforced.

INFLUENCING THE CZAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 4.—Several condemned Nihilists have escaped death through the influence of Ignatieff with the Czar and Victor Hugo's appeals to the latter. Lt. Soukhanoff's life also would have been saved but for the murder of Gen. Stretnikoff at Odessa.

CHURCH BURNT.

NEW YORK, April 4.—St. James the Less, Episcopal Church, was burnt yesterday. Loss $20,000.

MYSTERIOUS FIND.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The bodies of two children aged 6 months and two years, were found at the Grand Central depot last night in a package addressed to Prof. Gage, Cornwall College, Utica, N. Y. The children had not been dead more than 24 hours. The name of one Coleman, a medical student, was written on a board in the package, but he denies all knowledge of it. The theory of the police is that the bodies were purchased from some undertaker charged with the duty of burying them, and were sold to Gage.

PAID THE PENALTY.

LITTLE ROCK, April 4.—Two Indians named Hanny and Lilly were shot in the presence of 100 of their nation at Ocmulgee, Indian Territory, for the murder of an old Indian.

THE CHINESE BILL.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—It is understood that the Cabinet to-day decided upon adverse action on the Chinese Bill, and that the President will send in a veto message to-morrow.

NORWOOD.

DYNAMITE.—The Register says notwithstanding the number of accidents that have occurred and are occurring almost daily from the use of this powerful explosive, it is still handled carelessly, as the following very nearly fatal accident will show. As Messrs. A. D. Robertson and T. Elliott were engaged in digging a well for Mr. John Miles, of Asphodel, a cartridge of dynamite exploded, the result of which very nearly proved fatal to the two above named. It appears that after digging to the depth of about 24 feet, they found they could proceed no further with pickaxe and shovel. Dynamite was procured and siege laid to the rock. The first three experiments resulted favorably—the cartridges being hammered in with a sledge when they could not be forced otherwise! They then proceeded with the fourth. The hole was drilled and the cartridge produced, but could not be forced into position. Either the cartridge was too large or the drill too small, so the usual expedient—the sledge—was resorted to. But this time the result was not so favorable, as when the dynamite had been driven very nearly into position it exploded, sending the spades, shovels, etc., in every direction. At first Mr. R. says he did not know wether he was "dead or alive or only speechless," but was soon awakened into the reality of the present by the "racket" Mr. E. was raising at the top of the well, and at once proceeded to investigate his wounds. He found that he had lost a portion of three of his fingers and the use of a thumb. Mr. Elliott, who was leaning over the top of the well at the time of the explosion, had his elbow fractured by a piece of rock from below. Both the injured men proceeded to a medical man in this village and had their wounds, which were pronounced not at all serious, dressed. The "tamping iron" was driven through a two-inch plank lying across the well. The sledge-hammer, the cause of all the mischief, was nowhere to be found.

OYSTER SUPPER.—On Friday evening of last week, Mr. John Clysdale, son of Mr. Jas. Clysdale, of Dummer, was invited, by a number of his friends, to an oyster supper. It was partaken of at the Beckett House. About 25 were present and sat down to a nicely-laid table. The usual toasts were proposed and drank and a very enjoyable evening spent. Mr. Clysdale left the following Tuesday for Corunna, Ontario West.

AN attempt is being made in France to resuscitate, under a new name, the defunct Union Generale Bank, but it meets with little success.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

IF YOU ARE RUINED in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimoniais, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

THE CAR WORKS.

OUR readers will peruse with interest the letters we publish to-day on the subject of the car works by-law. They completely expose the fallacies of some of the opponents of the by-law. It appears that our leading men are really in favour of the by-law, instead of opposing it, as they are misrepresented to do. Those who wish to see our good town progress should record their votes to-morrow in favour of the by-law, which will establish an industry, which will add greatly to our population and our business.

WILFUL MISREPRESENTATION.

WE notice that the leading organ of the Reform party has the effrontery to devote a column to the proceedings of its commissioner, and to draw conclusions from them unfavourable to the N. P. The dishonesty of the system by which carefully selected evidence of partisans is represented to be the opinion of manufacturers in general, has been thoroughly exposed. Even this thorough sifting of the persons interviewed is not enough, for their statements themselves are manipulated. For instance Messrs. Harris, Son & Co., of Brantford, had to write them a long letter correcting inaccuracies in the commissioner's report of their sayings. In particular they state that the price of agricultural impliments to the farmer is lower, as we have maintained it to be, instead of being higher, as the more reckless and mendacious portion of the Reform journal mistate it to be.

In another column in order to make a point by understating the number of our population dependent unpon manufacturing, the Globe actually takes the figures of eleven years ago, hoping that its readers may not notice this trick or may be unaware of the vast subsequent increase, and even then they have to falsify their statistics.

What can we think of a cause which requires such advocacy?

THE VOTERS SPEAK.

LAST week Mr. Charlton, M. P. P., addressed a public meeting, under the auspices of the Reform Association of Cornwall, with their newly elected President in the chair. After Mr. Charlton had spoken for nearly two hours the following resolutions were adopted in support of the policy of Sir John Macdonald's administration :—

"That those of the qualified voters of the electoral district of Cornwall who are here present have listened attentively to the address delivered by Mr. John Charlton, M. P. for the north riding of Norfolk ; that while extending a cordial greeting to that gentleman, as they would to any visitor who might desire to address them upon subjects of deep moment to the people of the Dominion, they are firmly decided to differ from the views which he has advocated this evening. They thoroughly believe that the policy of the present Government, properly termed the National Policy, has tended to the material prosperity of the Dominion, and that that policy is fully deserving of the support of the people of Canada ; and further they believe that the Government pursued a wise and enlightened policy in arranging with the Canada Pacific Railway Company, for the working and construction of the railway, and the consequent opening up of our vast fertile territory in the North-West for the purpose of settlement upon terms that are peculiarly advantageous to the farmers of Ontario and others who desire to take up lands."

IT is strange that the Globe, with its fondness for giving both sides of a question, though it had a reporter present, has not a word about his resolution. As the Reformers had a meeting to elect the officers of their Association in the afternoon, they had every advantage in their favour, but this did not prevent this manifestation that public opinion is in favour of the Dominion Government.

POSTAGE ON NEWSPAPERS.

The Cobourg World, the editor of which paper was one of the deputation to Ottawa says:

"Concerning the visit of the Deputation of the Press Association on this subject, the Ottawa Free Press of Saturday says :—The deputation from the Ontario Press Association, consisting of Mr. Pense, of the Kingston Whig, Mr. Trayes, of the Port Hope Times, and Mr. Hough, of the Cobourg World, had an interview yesterday with Hon. Mr. O'Connor, Sir S. L. Tilley, Sir A. Campbell, and Hon. Mr. Bowell, and urged upon them the propriety of abolishing the postage on newspapers within the counties where they are published. The Ministers admitted the reasonableness of the request, and the deputation are satisfied that their representations have not been without effect. The revenue collected from the newspapers is only $47,000 in the whole Dominion —an amount that hardly pays the cost and trouble of collection, while it is a vexatious burden to the press, already heavily taxed in other ways. We hope the government may find their way to compliance with the request of the Press Association." In this connection we may say that the Deputation met with a favorable hearing from the members of the Government interviewed. Though their business was especially with the Postmaster General, it was considered advisable that they lay their case before the ex-Postmaster General, and the Finance Minister,—the Minister of Customs, himself an old newspaper man, also being present at one of the interviews, and taking a great interest in the success of the application. The Deputation think the request will be granted ; but whether so or not, the Ministers admitted its reasonableness, expressed their conviction that it was not fair to saddle the tax upon publishers, and conceded that the small amount of revenue which it produced,—only $47,000 through the whole Dominion, from papers circulated both inside and outside of counties where published,—was not worth the labor and expense of collecting. The members of the Deputation have to express their obligation to Lt.-Col. Williams, M.P. for East Durham, who kindly accompanied them to the departments and gave them to the necessary introductions."

BRIDGENORTH.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Mud Lake Bridge has had a great deal of damage done to it this last week back. On Wednesday night, the 29th, the wind blew strong from the west, and started the ice. It struck the bridge near the south end, bending it and taking the railing off. Then on the next night, the wind blew from the north-east, and struck it in the middle, bending and breaking it. Then on Sunday, the 2nd of April, it struck it again in the the middle, breaking it so that it is lying 100 yards apart in the middle, and there is no knowing when it will be got together again, as there is a lot of ice lying on the east side of the bridge, yet. The bridge is in a bad shape at present. It has had the hardest siege this spring it has ever had since it was built.

FENELON FALLS.

OFF FOR DAKOTA.—The Gazette says that on Tuesday last a procession of nine wagons, laden with "portable property," passed along the main street of this village to the railway station, and on making enquiries we learned that they contained the family and effects of Mr. James McConnell, of Verulam, who was on his way to Dakota, where his eldest son has been living for about a year, and has a quantity of land broken up. Mr. McConnell, who is about 55 years of age, took with him his wife and ten children, three of whom are stalwart young men; also five horses, four cows, a number of sheep, one brood sow, and a large coop of poultry, besides household furniture, farming implements, etc. His reason for moving was that he was cramped for room on his farm of 175 acres close to Bobcaygeon, and as the property is valuable he accepted Mr. John L. Read's offer of about $40 an acre, and left for the States with ample capital to give all his boys a good start in life. He was one of the most honest, upright, and popular residents of Verulam, where his departure is generally regretted.

RECOVERING.—The many friends of Mr. Robt. Welch, of Verulam, will be glad to learn that he has so far recovered from the serious accident which befel him about two months ago that he is able to walk around his farm, and will probably in the course of time, be restored to complete health and strength. Mr. Welch fell from a load of hay and struck the back of his head so violently upon the ground that he was rendered insensible, and for several weeks lay in such a condition that his death at any moment would have caused no surprise. The numerous medical men who, in turn were called in, tried different remedies without avail, but about a fortnight ago Dr. Herriman, of Lindsay, was sent for and under his treatment, which consisted chiefly of repeated cuppings, the patient recovered with such wonderful rapidity that his friends wish to publicly acknowledge, through the medium of the Gazette, their sense of indebtedness to Dr. Herriman.

THE COBOCONK.—The steamer Coboconk is to be run this season by Mr. John C. Craig, who is now busily engaged in repairing and painting her, and otherwise making her ready for the opening of navigation, which he expects will take place in about three weeks from this date.

LINDSAY.

BUSY.—The Post says that the railway workshops at the union station in town are extremely busy, partly with new work and with several very heavy jobs of repairing which were taken in hand some time ago. The passenger coach which was damaged during the collision on the Victoria section has been repaired in the most thorough manner. In a few days the painting will be completed, when it will be placed on the road. Engine No. 2, the "S. C. Wood," is undergoing a pretty extensive overhauling and will come out of the shops fit for service—bar accident—for the next ten years. It was the intention of the company to have sent the engine to some large shop to have the repairs made, but Mr. Polson, the superintendant of the Victoria division, thinking that it could be well done here, the officials gave the idea up of sending it off. The engine has been entirely dismantled, and the trucks taken from under it. New tubes will be placed in the boiler, and the latter patched where it has been cracked and showed signs of weakness. The expence of the improvements on the engine will foot up to something over $2,000. To give room in the shops for more machinery, which will soon be placed, a new building has been put for keeping the stores for this division in, and the articles taken out of the shop. A new engine to furnish power will soon be a necessity, and will no doubt be procured. One result of the amalgamation will be that by the end of next year we shall probably see twenty men employed in these shops, which will be extended. It is also found necessary to add to the roundhouse to give accommodations to more locomotives.

THE SYLVESTER WORKS.—Mr. Sylvester left for his home the day after the lease of the town property had been signed. Before leaving he entered into contracts with Mr. Curtin for the necessary brick and with Mr. Thos. Williams for the brick and stone work. Just as soon as the weather will permit the contractors will set to work and have instructions to push everything forward with speed, and have entered into agreement to keep not less than six bricklayers constantly at work. The building will be 240 feet long, considerable of it two storey and the rest one storey high. The engine will be procured in Toronto and the boiler will be the one used at the factory at Port Hope.

THAT ESCAPE.—Mr. Robt. McKelvey writes concerning an item under this heading in the Post last week mentioning the escape of one Alex Austin from the lock-up. The paragraph stated that Austin received assistance from outside from a party of roughs, and Mr. McKelvey states that from some insinuations an attempt has been made to connect his name with the outside party. He desires therefore simply to state that "some although clothed with perhaps a little authority and wishing to gratify personal spleen can never connect him with trying to interfere with the proper observance of law and he defies them to do it."

BOOMING.—Things are going on merrily at the paper mill. Just now the engine is being taken down to admit a new foundation being placed under it. Mr. F. Smith, who had charge of the engine some years ago, and who has since been employed on several of the steamboats running to Lindsay, has been engaged to take charge of this part of the work. On Thursday a quantity of square timber for sills, etc., arrived and will in a few days be framed and placed in position. The estimates for the machinery have been received by Mr. McKay, and forwarded to the company at Montreal for approval.

SELLING TOWN PROPERTY.—The Warder says that Col. Deacon intimated at the council meeting on Monday evening, that he would take steps during the present year, to procure the passage of a special act empowering the town to sell the land on both sides of Kent street, at present owned by the town. Would it not be well to use the proceeds of this property in paying for a piece of land, conveniently situated, for a park ?

A FLOOD.—On Monday last the culvert on Kent Street, west of the drill shed, overflowed owing to its not being able to carry of the large volume of water caused by the recent thaw and rain. Half of the lot on which the drill shed stands was under water and the block opposite, on the north side of Kent street, was a miniature lake. For about fifty yards the water was even with the sidewalk and in one place several inches higher.

SHIPPED.—Mr. Hugh Jack, who has been buying for his brother, this week shipped for the Eastern States market a carload of horses. The animals are said to be about the finest lot of horses that have ever been picked up in this locality, the teams being well matched and stylish in every respect. As high as $300 per team was the average price paid.

LAMP EXPLOSION.—On Friday night a lamp in the diningroom of Mr. George A. Weese's house exploded. The burning oil flew over the table and floor beneath, but was promptly extinguished, although at much personal risk, by Mr. Weese and Miss Richardson. The table cover, lamp cloth, etc., were destroyed.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Geo. C. Clarke, of Port Dalhousie, Ontario, states that she had been confined to her room for a long time with that dreadful disease, Consumption. The doctors said she could not escape an early grave, but fortunately she began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and in a short time was completely cured. Doubting ones, please write Mrs. Clarke, and be convinced. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1. (3)

BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, KIDNEY, LIVER OR URINARY DISEASE.—Have no fear of any of these diseases if you use Hop Bitters, as they will prevent and cure the worst cases, even when you have been made worse by some great puffed up pretended cures.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

N. H. DOWNS' Vegetable Balsamic ELIXIR!

This valuable medicine is purely vegetable, the discovery of which was the result of many years' close study, in order to discover the cause, the symptoms and the cure—viz.:

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Influenza, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis,

and every species of oppression of the Chest and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir has been duly administered its efficacy has been invariably manifested, convincing the most incredulous that is not incurable, if properly attended to.—Consumption, at its commencement, is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is more observable, but rather dry; then becomes loose and the fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration,

CONSUMPTION

IT HEALS THE ULCERATED SURFACES

and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are of so drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, generally destroys the hectic before the cough is entirely gone. Consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions for cure of pulmonary diseases. Price 25cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold everywhere.

THE MIDLAND RAILWAY OF CANADA.

Something about the amalgamated Lines and their Connections.

The Markham Economist says :—On and after Saturday fast broad-guage passenger trains will run between Toronto and Lindsay, over the line formerly known as the Toronto & Nipissing, but which now forms a part of the main line of the Midland Railway of Canada. On the Lake Simcoe branch narrow guage trains will still continue to run in connection with those of the main line, as will also the trains running between Lorneville Junction (formerly Midland Junction) and Coboconk, both of the aforesaid lines being considered as but branch lines to the main line proper, which has termini at Toronto, Port Hope and Midland. Then there are the four divisions: the Peterborough division, which branches from the main line at Millbrook for Peterborough and Lakefield; the Whitby and Haliburton division (the old Port Perry and Lindsay); the Belleville division (late the Grand Junction), between Peterborough and Belleville; and the Madoc division, with trains running between Belleville and Madoc, the iron district of Ontario.

Prior to the recent amalgamation with the Toronto and Nipissing, the Midland and its branches consisted of about 270 miles of railway. Now that it and the Toronto and Nipissing have blended their interests there is made up the nice little sum total of all of which, with the exception of about 50 miles, is laid with steel rails, and the whole in a good state of repair, with excellent rolling stock and other equipments; and under the shrewd and energetic head management of Geo. A. Cox, President and General Manager; William Gooderham, Vice-Pres.; A. White, Traffic Agent, and W. B. Ferguson, Superintendent, a great carrying trade is most confidently assured.

THE IMPORTANT LAKE PORT TERMINI

in the possession of this road makes success doubly assured. Of the three termini on Lake Ontario—Port Hope, Whitby and Belleville—the former possesses an elevator with a capacity of 120,000 bushels. The northern termini are Waubaushene and Midland. At the latter place a huge elevator was completed last September, that has a capacity of 250,000 bushels of grain. Here also is one of the best natural harbors in America. We understand arrangements have been made with vessel owners for a through trade, and in future, instead of the bulk of the millions of bushels which annually leave Chicago for the East, going by way of Ogdensburg and the Niagara frontier, the policy of the Midland is to secure a portion of such trade for their line and convey it more cheaply and speedily to Canadian seaboard and Canadian ocean steamers. A company has been formed to build a line of steamers to ply betwee Midland and the other lake ports.

THE SAULT ST. MARIE EXTENSION, which three surveying parties were engaged in locating last summer, and which Government has already subsidized to the extent of three million dollars, will be pushed to completion, and be the means of developing the valuable lumbering resources of the district lying on the northern shore of Georgian Bay. This project will add another 300 miles to the already vast network of railway lines worked under the name of the Consolidated Midland Railway of Canada.

AS A FIELD FOR SUMMER TOURISTS

the Midland and its connections afford opportunities that are not to be dispised—the scenic beauty and delightful relief from the turmoil and care of the business connected with everyday life experienced in a few days' sojourn among the many lakes and paradisical islands to be easily reached from these lines is commendable. We can imagine no more enjoyable trip than that from Lindsay down the Scugog River and Sturgeon Lake to Sturgeon Point, and thence to Fenelon Falls, Bobcaygeon, and Bridgenorth, which can be made per the pretty and comfortable little steamers plying on those waters.

LOCAL BENEFIT

will, no doubt, be reaped in many ways. The expense of transhipment from narrow gauge cars has already been done away with, and other benefits that naturally flow from increased traffic will be ours. Markham affords facilities for manufacturers which but few places can boast of, and with taxes and other expenses very much lower, why should not Markham be able to roll up an extensive "tall chimney" catalogue?

MANUFACTURING NOTES.

THE Aurora Agriculture Works have lately increased their capacity for turning out implements. Besides building a new blacksmith shop and enlarging their plow shop, they have placed in their works a new engine and boiler.—Canadian Manufacturer.

ODESSA, March 31.—A terrible crime was committed here to-day, and the city is in a state of profound consternation in consequence. General Strelnikoff, public prosecutor of the Kieff military tribunal, who has been remaining here to conduct the examinations preliminary to the political trials now approaching, has been assassinated. He was pasing through the Boulevard which is a long terrace overlooking the bay and lined with fine residences, hotels and public buildings, when he was shot, the ball penetrating his forehed, killing him instantly.

FROM ALL OVER.

A FENIAN threat has been made of blowing up the town hall at Manchester.

THE Parnellites have resolved to call upon the Irish constituencies to record their opinion of the conduct of the Home Rulers voting for the cloture.

MIDDLE AGED MEN, often lack vigor, this can be restored by that great brain and nerve food, known as Mack's Magnetic Medicine. Read the advertisement in another column of to-days paper.

THE British Columbian Government has been sustained in the matter of the dry dock resolutions merely by the casting vote of the Speaker. It is understood the Government will attempt to carry the estimates, and then appeal to the country.

DEACON JONES was happy indeed when he was told that his daughters, the dear girls, had gone to the revival. Their mother didn't tell him it was a revival of "Pinafore." Possibly she did not think it was necessary. He was happy and the girls were happy; therefore why say more?

FOR all affections of the Chest, Lungs and Throat, use Dr. Carson's Pulmonary Cough Drops. They speedily cure Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, &c. As an expectorant the Cough Drops are unequalled, loosening phlegm very readily. J. D. Tully, agent.

MGR. CAPEL has gone to Rome to negotiate for the resumption of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and the Vatican, and it is understood that if he succeeds in his undertaking an effort will be made to induce the United States to follow suit.

MR. SCOVILLE has been giving a reporter, somewhat late it is true, his impressions of Guiteau. He says his dear brother-in-law, whom during the trial he called "this poor lunatic," is an ingrate, a liar, a coward, and a thief. And he might have added, but he didn't, a murderer.

THE new treatment for rapidly conditioning horses, Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture. Each package contains a good Purging Ball which is given to the animal previous to using the strong tonic powders. GEN. GRANT was "compelled to decline" an invitation to attend a New York indignation meeting on the subject of the Americans imprisoned in Ireland, but sent a note declaring that if he were President he would certainly demand their immediate trial. The General is evidently looking forward to 1884.

I recommend it with the greatest confidence to those subject to coughs and pulmonary complaints." 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

LONDON Saturday Review:—"Half a dozen of idle young men may make the necessary business of life a torment to the women of the neighborhood; and before things can have come to that pass that witnesses are afraid to come forward to give evidence against those who annoy them, something more than horseplay has probably been carried on."

TAKE CARE OF THE LITTLE ONES.—Children are the mother's idol, the father's pride; they are entrusted to your care to guide and protect, to fill positions of honor and trust. If you truly feel the responsibility of your trust, and want to make the duties of your office as light and pleasant as possible, don't allow a slight cold to prey upon the little ones, for even a single day or night may reveal the dreaded destroyer, Croup, but a few doses of "Down's Elixir," if taken in season, will banish it, as well as Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung affections. For sale by all dealers in medecine. Price 25 cents and a $1 per bottle.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of the Smith Medicine Co. We are certain that thousands of mothers will hail with joy the advent of such a company. Their worm medicine has been tested and found as described, a great boon to suffering humanity. In the case of tapeworm we have been shown one measuring 80 feet, one of 33 feet and one 14 feet, which have been passed from the bowels of three different individuals after taking a few doses of Dr. Smith's German Worm Remedy. Thousands of testimonials are in possession of there gentlemen showing clearly that their worm medicines are all that they claim them to be.—Montreal Post.

MR. SPURGEON says if a man catches a Tartar or lets a Tartar catch him, he must take his dose of tartaric acid, and make as few ugly faces as he can. If a three-legged stool comes flying through the air, he must be thankful for such a plain indication of love from the woman of his choice, and the best thing he can do is to sit down on it, and wait for the next little article.

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma and lung disease by Dr. M. PROPERLY APPRECIATED.

Sir John Macdonald's explanation about the $2,500 paid by him, by a loan from a friend, in the Hewson business, had a pathos in it which I think the country will appreciate. He had to pay the money or appear in Court at the risk of his life. He had not the money to pay, and was compelled to lay friendship under contribution to help him for the time. One thing is plain: Sir John has brought marvellous ability to bear upon the work of making a nation, but he has entirely ignored the right and chance to make a fortune for himself. When he is dead we shall understand the value of such a man, and give orations in honour of his personal honesty.—Canadian Spectator.

A Canadian Speaks.

When anything worth saying is spoken in that terse and pointed way that bears the impress of honest conviction, we like to have people know the nature of the communication. Of such a nature is the following from Mr. W. F. Haist, Campden P. O., Lincoln Co., Ontario. Mr. Haist says: With great joy over my restored health, I would write a few lines concerning that wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. For the last six years I have been using various medicines internally, but nothing would help me. Finally I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, which cured me after a few applications. My mother-in-law, who has also been a great sufferer from rheumatism, was also instantly relieved by the use of the Great German Remedy. St. Jacobs Oil is a blessing to suffering humanity, and I shall do all in my power to spread its merits.

Extract from a letter written to T. J. Griffiths, editor of the Y. Drych, a weekly Welch paper of Utica, N.Y.: "As an encouragement to you, since the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure first appeared in your paper many injured miners have been using it, and in all cases in and around here it has achieved wonders. It is a perfect success among injured miners. Yours truly. RICHARD OWEN.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcule which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Daily Evening Review

TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Board of Education.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education takes place this evening at the Collegiate Institute building at 7.45 o'clock.

Practising at the Butts.

The members of No. One Company, 57th "Rangers," are practising every day for the Good Friday match. Some of them are making very good scores.

Cricket Meeting.

We wish again to remind cricketers that the annual meeting of the club takes place this evening at 7.30 at the Oriental, when the election of officers for the ensuing year takes place. Members and those who intend to become members, are particularly requested to attend.

A. B. C. Railway Guide.

We have received from the publishers, the New England Railway Publishing Co., of Boston, Mass., the April number of the A. B. C. Pathfinder Railway Guide. The time tables of the railway and steamboat companies of Canada and the United States, are very clearly given, and travellers will find the publication very useful.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

The Weather.

Yesterday was a really splendid day, as warm as any day in June. To-day is cloudy and rain has fallen, but not to any extent. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes—Local rains to-day, wind shifting to northward and increasing to gale, decidedly cooler weather with snow flurries to-night.

The Tug of War.

We have received the following verses in reference to one of the questions of the day :—

When H. meets H. then comes the tug of war ;
Whether laying of a water pipe or building of a car,
The togos of the one is just as hard to beat
As the log rolling of the other on each corner of the street,
All those who for the by-law can give an honest vote;
Do so—and for neither H. care a single groat,
One quotes figures—enough to give the cram poh,
And the other—latin ? sic—comeatibus in swampo.

Carworks.

A meeting of those in favour of the carworks scheme took place in Hill's Old Music Hall last night. The attendance was large. Committees were formed to canvass the town.

A meeting of those opposed to the scheme was held in the small ante room off the Council Chamber on the same evening.

A vigorous canvas is being made of the freehold voters by pros and cons.

It requires 328 votes to make the necessary two-fifths required by-law.

Ontario Cricket Association.

The annual meeting of the Ontario Cricket Association was held at the Rossin House on Saturday afternoon, Judge Dartnell, vice-president in the chair. The annual report of the Secretary was read by Mr. W. Hamilton Merritt, which gave particulars as to the arrangements that had been made with the Cricketers' Association of the United States in reference to future international matches. The financial statement showed a small surplus. The election of officers resulted as follows: President—The Governor-General. Vice-Presidents—Judge Dartnell, of Whitby, and Col. Williams, M.P., of Port Hope. Executive Committee—R. D. Gamble, Brampton ; E. M. Morris, Guelph ; W. R. Wadsworth. Port Hope, and Dr. R. Sprague and W. Hamilton Merritt of Toronto. Secretary—W. Totton. Mr. Merritt resigned the office of Secretary, to the regret of the members of the Association. It was decided to allow clubs to have banners if they so desired.

500 PEOPLE STRONG.

The Sowden Party for the North-West—A Lively Scene at Millbrook.

For some time past as the majority of our readers are aware, extensive preparations have been making at Millbrook and vicinity for a wholesale exodus to the Great North-west, to settle on land secured from the government by Mr. Sowden and his confreres.

After the false alarm last Tuesday, caused it is said by the snow blockade between St. Paul and Winnipeg, Millbrook has been the centre of a genuine hum, but nothing however like what was witnessed in that quiet village to-day.

The work of loading commenced on Monday and was carried on almost uninteruptedly until the hour of departure, more being accomplished during the quiet hours of the night, than during the day. Cattle and coal oil cars, with the greater number of the interstices boarded up, to keep out the cold and snow, box cars packed to the ceiling, as full as a woman's trunk, and last, but not by any means least, passenger coaches, covered all the available tracks in the vicinity and around each car clustered old men, young men, women, boys and girls, all by their incessant chatter adding to the noise made by the hammers and the bellowing of the oxen. Of the latter we never saw so many together before and it appeared to the uninitated that the Millbrook excursion party had secured all the oxen to be obtained in the Province. They were to be seen everywhere, every fence, post, lane and in fact streets, were hidden by them and the hoarse voices of the drivers as they made their pets stand around, made one think that fully one hundred elephant trainers were at work.

The cattle cars were all filled with oxen, horses, and cows, a manger being constructed on one side the full length of the car, while the ends were filled with baled hay, straw, oats bran, and other fodder, and the floors of some of the cars covered with a carpeting of sawdust or shingle shavings. In the box cars were stored household goods and utensils, farming implements, machinery of different kinds, and wagons taken apart so that they would not occupy as much space as if they were in running order. The articles taken were almost innumerable, and comprised many of rather antiquated manufacture, which were probably heirlooms or family relics, or at least we should judge that such was the case, from the snug manner in which they were stored away, to be unpacked again in the "Great Lone Land," and treasured as relics of the "old Ontario home."

We have been in Millbrook when the village was crowded, but certainly we never saw as much bustle and excitement, or such a crowd as was there there this morning. The villagers turned out en masse, and appeared awe stricken as they gazed at the crowd soon to join "the fleeting army." It appeared, in fact, as if the entire surrounding country was to be depopulated, and when we state that fully five hundred persons left on the excursion, living within a radius of ten or twelve miles of the village, it will readily be seen that their fears had some foundation. Every person who left had four or five friends at the station to see them off, so that the number present did not fall short of 4,000.

People were to be seen on all sides chatting in groups regarding the bright future of the "Canadian land of promise." Some took their departure as if it was an every day occurrence,—a mere matter of fact, while others by their tears plainly demonstrated that it caused them much pain to sever the ties that bound them to their birthplace. Some were gay and some were grave, but one and all spoke hopefully of the future. Many were the promises made of returning to visit those left behind and every soul on the train promised faithfully to write at least half a dozen letters as soon as they were "settled down."

A large number of sheep, calves, dogs and hens were taken, so that the thrifty settlers intend to commence farming in earnest, at once. A large quantity of seed grain of all kinds was taken, as well as patent plows to break the prairie sod, and a conspicuous object, cropping out in all kinds of unexpected places, was the "neck yoke," soon to adorn the necks of "Buck" or "Bright," which appeared to be the favorite names applied to the oxen.

Among the others were three cars from Peterborough engaged by the Roses, Wilsons and others of Dummer, and some others from Smith and Otonabee, and right here we may mention that all agreed that a carload of oxen from Dummer threw all the others in the shade.

The train, which was a special, did not leave until the evening, the work of loading the cars not being finished at the hour at first announced for departure As the train left the station the immense throng assembled fairly cheered themselves hoarse, and those on the train perched in all positions from which they could see the crowd lustily returned the compliment. Not until the long trains had disappeared did the crowd move, and then suddenly recollecting that there was nothing more to see, as if by mutual consent they separated, and soon the railway station resumed its wonted quiet and the Sowden party were quickly speeding to their as yet unseen homes.

Amidst all the excitement many found time to listen to the silver tongued sharper who was giving away money in pill boxes, "just to advertise his soap," and many's the hard earned dollar the individual pocketed while his dupes received an empty pill box, and a worthless piece of soap. A "wheel of fortune man" also made a few dimes at the expense of the emigrants, while the more legitimate trader in the shape of the small boy with the sandwiches, etc., did a thriving trade.

For the C. P.

Bailiff English, of the Central Prison, Toronto, this morning took Hooey, alias Mahood, to that Institution for a visit of six months. It is to be hoped that he will be taught how to work there, and become a useful citizen, instead of the useless vagabond as he is at present.

Personal.

Col. Deacon of Lindsay, and Mr. Lewis Ross of Port Hope are in town to-day.

POLICE COURT.

THE LAST OF ALL.

TUESDAY, April 4.—Thomas Bradburn appeared to answer to the charge of continuing the "Golden Lion" sign, contrary to the provisions of the by-law.

This case came up before the Magistrate on two previous occasions, but was adjourned until this morning.

The defendant stated that he had removed the sign and was willing to pay the costs.

The case was then withdrawn, the defendant paying 75 cents costs.

Our National Game.

There was a rousing meeting of the members of the Peterborough Lacross Club at the Oriental on Monday night. The attendance was very large and from the enthusiasm we should judge that the coming season will witness more and better matches than ever were played here before.

The secretary's report was a favourable one giving in detail the matches played, showing a string of victories and no defeats.

The treasurer's report shows that the club has a handsome balance on hand to commence operations with.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year :—

Hon. President.....R. A. Morrow
President (re-elected).....H. LeBrun
1st Vice. President.....Alex. Elliott
2nd Vice. President.....John Hackett
Sec'y. Tres. (re-elected).....W. J. Morrow
Captain (re-elected).....W. A. Sanderson
COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.—W. Rudkins, C. Rutherford and M. McDonald.

Although, like the majority of clubs throughout Ontario, the local club has lost some of its best players, by the exodus to Manitoba, still there are good players left and lots of raw material to work up.

No less than twenty-five new members who never had any connection with the club before, were balloted for and elected. The new members comprise some of the best players of clubs in the neighboring towns and taken altogether the coming season promises to be a good one.

Riots at Barcelona.

MADRID, March 31.—It is difficult to get the details of the Barcelona riot of yesterday. The mob burned the wooden houses of the Octrois. In the main streets the shops were closed during part of the day, the merchants being scared by the seditious cries of the operatives, who were rushing about to oblige the factories to lock out. The majority of the mills resisted the imposition of the mob. Mounted police dispersed them, and arrested sixty on the spot. Others were arrested during the evening. All club meetings and unions were prohibited or dissolved by proclamation. It is claimed that the riots were fomented by the Federal Republicans and the International. The authorities report to-night all quiet. The patrols met with no resistance. The deputation sent by the Catalan workmen, were heard by Senor Sagasta and the Budget Committee. They seem in earnest, and say that they represent four provinces, with several millions of population, and the richest towns in Spain. They will resist by all legal means. They deprecate rioting, but apprehend serious consequences and lock outs in the towns noted for their advanced ideas. The Cabinet is determined to carry out its free trade policy in the interest of 35 of the 49 provinces. They have ordered the civil and military authorities to repress disorders energetically.

We thought we were too late until we saw the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin cure.

It is a fact that Kendall's Spavin Cure is all it is claimed to be. See advertisement.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance. This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

MORE MINES.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 5.—The police have obtained a letter addressed to a nephew of the station master at Little station on the St. Petersburg and Moscow Railway, giving directions in regard to the construction of a mine. The nephew has been arrested and refuses to give any information. It is suspected that several other mines have been made.

POLICE PROTECTION.

LONDON, April 5.—All the landlords in the counties of West Meath and Roscommon are now under police protection.

AMERICAN.

THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Pacific Coast Senators and representatives of both parties are much disappointed at the veto of the anti-Chinese Bill. It is the opinion of many of the best men of both houses and both parties, that by the veto the President has saved the good name of the country, and will get great credit and praise for it.

A PRIMA DONNA'S GAINS.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Adelina Patti sailed for Europe yesterday. She cleared $175,000 in this country.

LOW GRAIN FREIGHTS.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Ocean freights are so low that grain is carried at a loss by the steamships. There is no inclination shown to take contracts by the owners of sailing vessels. Small lots of grain have been engaged for steamers from New York at three farthings a bushel Liverpool, and a penny to London. It is stated that a steamship to sail from Boston agreed to carry 10,000 bushels of Canada peas to London, free.

OF UNSOUND MIND.

ALBANY, April 5.—Dr. John Swinburne, yesterday swore to an affidavit asserting unsoundness of mind in Dr. Lamson's case, while the latter was the former's aid in the American ambulance department at Paris, during the Franco-Prussian war.

A POLL TAX

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The New York Senators and representatives have agreed on the Bill regulating immigration. It will be offered to the House to-morrow. It requires vessels to pay a duty of 50 cents for each immigrant brought to this country.

CHOKED TO DEATH.

TRENTON, N.J., April 5.—At the inquest here yesterday Dennis Donovan, the suspected man, confessed that he choked Jas. Murphy to death in a fight last Wednesday over a bottle of rum.

SCENES IN A CHURCH.

ST. LOUIS. April 5.—The Methodist Convention adjourned on Monday night. Dr. Hughey was transferred from a large church to a smaller one, yielding only one half the salary. As soon as the conference declared that it had adjourned, Hughey excitedly accused Elder Haggarty and the Rev. Mr. Fry with improperly influencing the Bishop to transfer him. Hughey's son, aged 14, denounced Fry in vehement and profane language, and drew a knife, but was pulled away. The boy declared that he would yet "cut Fry's liver out." All this took place in the presence of a large congregation, causing great confusion. Some of the ladies screamed and others fainted.

NO PARTY CONSIDERATIONS.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Times Washington despatch says that members from the Pacific slope say the veto will unquestionably give the States there to the Democrats. When this was suggested to the President he said he had not given party considerations a thought while examining the bill, and if any party would reap any advantage from the executive approval or disapproval of the bill which involves American principles that have been in vogue for a hundred years, it would be the party on the long run which stood on true American ground. Some attempt will be made to rush a new bill through, but it is too late in the session and political considerations are such that it is regarded highly improbable that another bill can be passed.

AMERICAN SUSPECTS.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Some persons imprisoned in Ireland who claim the protection of the United States as Americans citizens have by their own previous acts forfeited all right to it. O'Mahomey one of the prisoners is of Irish birth but he claims that he served in a year in the navy during the war in 1866. He endeavored to get naturalization papers in Louisiana but was refused because he could not produce his discharge. In 1874 he went to Ireland, married and went into business and in 1879 he returned to the United States and was naturalized to Lockport N. Y., Feb. 1880. In January 1881 he returned to Ireland where he had left his family and business. He was elected a poor law guardian and was holding that position when arrested. There are other cases of the same kind. In one case a man got naturalized at Baltimore and returned immediately to Ireland and has lived there constantly. He afterwards went into business and became secretary of a Land League.

A LITTLE CIVIL WAR.

CADILLAC, Mich., April 5,—At the election on Monday the question of removing the county seat from Monton to Cadillac was carried. Yesterday Sheriff Dunham went to Menton with 20 assistants to remove the records to Cadillac, but he was attacked by 200 of the inhabitants of Menten and driven off. Several of his men were severely injured. The Sheriff telegraphed for reinforcements, and 30 volunteers headed by the brass band of the Opera Company went to Menton. The battle was renewed. The Menton people rallied in large numbers, but the invaders broke down the doors of the court house and pitched the defenders from the doors and windows. Clubs and knives were freely used, and some painful injuries were inflicted. The papers and safes were carried off in triumph. The inhabitants of Cadillac turned out en masse to welcome their warriors home.

YANKEE DEMAGOGUES.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—On receipt of the news of the veto here, crowds gathered on the streets and around the bulletin boards. Expressions of disgust and universal indignation were made—men of all shades of political opinion uniting in the sentiments. Despatches are pouring in from all parts of the interior, expressing a feeling of anger and despondency; occasioned by the action of the President. Some of them note movements for the formation of Chinese Leagues to take steps to drive the Chinese from the country. Others report public meetings called, and in some cases the President was hung and burned in effigy.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

A POLITE HINT.

LONDON, April 4.—A meeting of Liberal members of Parliament yesterday decided to make strong representation to Mr. Gladstone with regard to the condition of Ireland. Several members expressed the opinion that a new Chief Secretary for Ireland was required.

SARA MARRIED.

LONDON, April 4.—Sara Bernhardt was married this morning at St. Andrew's church, London, to M. Damale, a Greek gdntleman of position. She leaves to-night for Barcelona, where she continues her theatrical career. The Paris Figaro says that Sara Bernhardt is worth 1,200,000 francs, and M. Damala is tolerably rich.

WITHDRAWING.

It is reported that Mr. Chamberlain, president of the Board of Trade, and Sir Charles Dilke, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, will withdraw from the Minrstry on account of opposing an extension of the coercion policy of the Government.

BIG BARN.

LONDON, April 4.—The Gladstone mills at Ashton-under-Lyne, containing one hundred thousand spindles, were burned to-day; damage $100,000.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, April 4.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Gladstone stated that the negotiations with the Government of the United States respecting the suspects of American nationality continued. To the representations made by Great Britain to the United States last June respecting certain Fenian literature no answer had been received. This was received with ironical cheers from the Conservatives.

AMERICAN.

SERGEANT MASON.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Cabinet to-day considered the Mason case. It was concluded that the President would take no action till the question pending in the Supreme Court bearing on the legality of Mason's imprisonment was decided. The Secretary of War made a report, which it is understood sustains the views of the Judge Advocate-General that the sentence is invalid.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.

KEOOKONIA, Ind., April 4.—Chas Jamison who outraged a three year old child, was taken from the jail last night and hanged.

A FLOOD.

MORGAN CITY, La., April 4.—The situation here is decidly dangerous. The water is still rising rapidly and reaches the eaves of many dwellings, some of which floated from their foundations.

THE JEANNETTE.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Secretary Hunt has telegraphed Lieutenant Barber authority to expend 10,000 roubles in getting the most desirable vessel for the search for the Jeannette party.

A MILE LONG.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The numerous petitions for the pardon of Sergeant Mason sent out by the Garfield Club have been collected, and the members were busy yesterday pasting them together. The roll is already over a mile in length, and contains over 150,000 signatures. Part will be taken to Washington to-day, and the rest next week. It is thought it will then have been signed by 500,000.

LOSS BY FIRE.

HOPKINTON, Mass., April 4.—Thirteen dwellings and stores, the post office, Congregational church, town hall, hotel, and a factory, employing 1,000 hands, were burned this morning; loss, $350,000. The fire was probably incendiary. It is thought powder was exploded in the basement of a clothing store. The factory was the mainstay of the town. Several attempts to burn the town had previously been made. The fire destroyed over half the business portion. Several firemen were injured.

MINISTER TO ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The Star's Washington despatch says it is rumoured that the President will nominate Governor Cornell as Minister to England in place of Lowell who will be recalled.

FIERCE FIRE.

NORTH RATTLEBORO, Mass., April 5.—The buildings occupied by Russell & Co., J. J. McCard, Bailey & Co., Totton & Co., Clark & Co., and Schofield & Ashton all manufacturing jewellers, and three dwelling have been burned, entailing a loss of $150,000. 250 jewellers are out of work.

A WILL CONTESTED.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The surrogate sustained the will of John Jacob Bristowe. The will was contested by Bristowe relatives, who got nothing.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.—R. V. Pierce, M.D., Buffalo, N. Y.:—I had a severe disease of the lungs, and was for a time confined to my bed and under the care of physician. His prescriptions did not help me. I grew worse, coughing very severely. I commenced taking your "Golden Medical Discovery," and it cured me. Yours respectfully, JUDITH BURRETT, Hillsdale, Mich.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.", This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

IF YOU ARE RUINED in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimoniais, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

"WHAT EVERY ONE SAY MUST BE TRUE."—And every one who has tested its merits speaks warmly in praise of Hazyard's Pectoral Balsam as a positive cure for all throat and lung complaints, coughs and colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and incipient consumption.

Daily Evening Review

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1882.

HARD UP FOR A DEFENCE.

CHAGRINED at its own inability to meet our facts and arguments anent the National Policy the Lindsay Post, like our contemporary the Examiner when badly cornered a few months ago, seeks to cover its retreat by throwing at our heads a portion of an article which appeared in the columns of the REVIEW only twelve years ago, or on the 1st of April 1870, as contradictory of our present position on this important subject and therefore a sufficient answer to anything we may now have to say with regard to the same.

Our readers may remember that some months ago we had occasion to expose a most wilful and barefaced perversion, by the Examiner, of market quotations alleged to have been taken from our columns and those of them who see our camelion like contemporary will also remember that instead of apologizing to its readers for the fraud perpetrated upon them, it betook itself to the study of our old fyles and that as a result of its researches it reproduced in its columns a portion of a twelve year old REVIEW article, as an offset to a piece of dishonesty which even its barefacedness was unequal to defending, and thereby unwittingly paid the REVIEW a compliment which we venture to think no one will pay either the Examiner or Post by searching their fyles to ascertain their views upon any public question, twelve or even ten years ago. And now the Post reproduces the same article in its columns as an offset to its own inability to maintain its position in the passage at arms, which has been going on between it and ourselves during the past two or three weeks.

As we have already pointed out, the present management of the REVIEW are in no way responsible for the article in question and we might very well leave the matter where it is, and we certainly would do so, were it not that a further reference to it will serve to show the straits to which the Examiner and the Post are both driven in the discussion of so important an issue as that of the National Policy.

Granting for the sake of argument that the managers of the REVIEW in 1881-2 are responsible for every jot and title which appeared in the REVIEW in 1870 and that the REVIEW's opinions on the tariff question in 1870 are diametrically opposite to those which it entertains in 1882 on the same subject, what then? Are the REVIEW's opinions like the laws of the Medes and Persians, unchangeable? Are we to be deprived of the right of changing our opinions, especially when the circumstances change, in the course of twelve long years? If we are to be discredited because our utterances of 1870 are not in unison with those of 1882 what is to become of such men as Blake, Cartwright, Charlton and Paterson, who are given to an annual revision of their political opinions. Really the position of our contemporaries is too absurd to be worthy of serious consideration and their adoption of it is the best possible proof that they are "hard up for a defence."

But does the article in question justify the comfort which they seek to draw from it? We trow not. In the first place they have quietly cut off both its beginning and ending. And in the omitted portion we find such statements as these:—"That we should adopt a policy—a National Policy if you please—calulated to protect our own (these italics are in the original) interest is beyond question," "That it is desirable to afford every reasonable encouragement to those disposed to engage in the manufacture of any of the many articles for which the country is suited is also beyond question." These statements certainly do not sound very antagonistic to the National Policy,; and yet they are to be found in the article as published in the REVIEW, although not in the article as published in the Post and Examiner. Then these journals which never "garble" conveniently overlook the concluding paragraph of this same article which reads as follows:—

"Our political creed with regard to the question of tariff may be briefly stated to be, first "that duties shall only be levied for the purpose of revenue; secondly, that in their imposition they shall be made to bear as heavily "as possible on the luxuries of life, and as lightly "as possible on the necessaries of life, particularly those which the country cannot produce, "and thirdly, that a proportionately heavier "duty should be placed on the manufactured "article than on the raw material from which "it is made, in order that incidentally encouragement may be afforded to the manufacturers."

That was the REVIEW's tariff creed "briefly stated" twelve years ago and we must confess that although (if responsible for it) twelve years older, and being open to conviction, which it is evident our contemporaries are not, yet we cannot see much to revise about it.

First, no one wants more duties collected today than the revenue necessary to the payment of our way and the proper development of the country requires, and it is not being done because as soon as the era of surpluses returned duties have been taken off the necessaries of life, und particularly those which the country cannot produce—as for instance the duty on tea.

Secondly the present tariff bears at least much more heavily relatively upon the "luxuries of life" than its predecessor did, and is therefor in accord with the second item of the REVIEW's tariff creed of 1870; and thirdly the distinguishing feature of the National Policy is that it levies a "proportionately heavier duty" "on the manfactured article than on the raw material from which it is made, in order that encouragement may be afforded to the manufacturer."

So much for the "omissions" of our good friends, the Post and Examiner. Let us now turn for a moment to some of the passages which our contemporaries have honored with large type. "Does any sane man believe that the "imposition of 25 or 50 cents duty per barrel of "flour will put a single penny into any farmers "pocket. If so what is to be done with the surplus grown every year in the Dominion."

But what if there were no surplus, would not that "little difference" knock the bottom out of the statement quoted, and make that which was being condemned expedient? Not being like the Post and Examiner, who shut their eyes to all facts which do not favour the conclusion at which they wish to arrive, the REVIEW soon discovered that it was wrong in supposing that we always had a surplus of wheat, and as a consequence we find it, in the campain of 1872, taking strong ground in favour of a duty on wheat. In that campaign not only did it rejoice that the Free Trade issue was fairly joined between Messrs. Bertram and Cluxton, but in an issue just before polling day it said:—"Farmers vote for Grover and Cluxton and Canadian markets for Canadian produce" and "if you desire to have the manufacturing and agricultural industries developed by a judicious encouragement and protection vote for Cluxton and Grover." That was the position of the REVIEW ten years ago, and that has been its position ever since—a position on which the Examiner's diligent search of old fyles has been unable to find anything to cast a doubt—and which ought to amply atone for any mistaken leanings to free trade which can be found in that "celebrated" article of all fools day, 1870.

WRECKED ON A DESERT ISLAND.

Thirty Three Americans Who Lived on this Island for Sixteen Months.

Papers brought by the Cape mail steamer Balmoral Castle, which arrived at Plymouth recently, state that on Feby. 20th, the American corvette Marion, Commander Terry, arrived at Cape Town from Heard's Island, bringing the survivors of the crew of the American bark Trinity, 33 in number, who were wrecked at Heard's Island in October, 1880. The Trinity, Capt. John L. Williams, sailed from New London, Conn., on June 1st, 1880, bound on a whaling and sealing voyage in the Southern Ocean, and arrived at Heard's Island on October 2nd, 1880. The bark anchored off the island, which is uninhabited and is situated in latitude 53 deg. south, longitude 73 deg. east. Until Oct. 17 all went well, but on that day, during a heavy gale, the bark dragged into four fathoms of water. The anchors had to be slipped, and the vessel was beached in order to save the lives of the crew. At the time the weather was intensely cold, and while the crew were being landed seven of them had their limbs badly frostbitten. With this exception, the landing was effected without accident. The same night the Trinity floated off and was blown to sea, since which time no trace of her has been found. From October 17, 1880, the shipwrecked crew, numbering 35 originally, remained on the island until they were rescued. Fortunately, in landing the crew managed to save some three months' supply of provisions from the wreck. This, supplemented by sea elephant, penguin flesh, and penguin eggs, with some sea cabbage, formed the diet of the crew. On landing, the captain and crew found some small wooden huts which had been placed there by various whalers who occasionally visit the place in search of sea elephants. These huts formed a most welcome shelter. During the 16 months of their enforced captivity the sailors were engaged in hunting sea elephants. In the winter season, and, in fact, during most of the year, the men suffered much from the intense cold, and on January 30, 1881, two of the crew, named Bernard Kelly and George Watson, while out hunting, and when crossing a glacier, were overcome by the cold, and were frozen to death. On the 15th of last month, about 5 p.m., the forlorn crew sighted a ship standing along the coast. Signals were made to her by means of blankets, and the steamer, which proved to be the Marion, at once made for the anchorage. Early next morning the wrecked mariners were transferred to her. Heard's Island is a bleak island of volcanic origin, and is about 30 miles long by 3 miles in width.

BRIDGENORTH.

From Our Own Correspondent.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. James Stubbs, an old and esteemed resident of this village, having had bad health for some time, his medical attendant insisted on his giving up the business at which he has been so eminently successful. He has therefore sold his place to Mr. W. Nichols, and intends taking up his residence in Peterborough. Very general regret is being manifested at his departure, as he and Mrs. Stubbs are very highly respected. Besides being an excellent mechanic, Mr. Stubbs has always been genial, off-handed, and uniformly obliging. His friends determined they would not allow him to depart without giving him some proof of the respect in which he and his family are held. Last Friday evening being a fitting occasion, some fifty or sixty ladies and gentlemen took him by surprise by calling, and after spending a very pleasant evening, presented him with a handsome album and the following address:—

To Mr. and Mrs. James Stubbs:

DEAR FRIENDS,—As you have decided to leave this village to take up your residence in Peterborough, we felt that we could not let you go without giving some slight expression to the great esteem and respect you have been held in by us in the village and vicinity. During the years you have resided here you have made many friends, who will long remember you for your inherent worth—for the kindness and geniality which has ever been a prominent charactaristic of you.

Our dear brother, while we deplore the cause of your departure, that is, that your health did not permit you to continue the business you have so long, so assiduously, and so successfully carried on, we do sincerely hope and trust that the change may completely restore you to your former vigour and activity, and that our loss may be your gain. It is hard to part, to sever the tie of friendship which binds us together, but we in submission bow. Permit us, however, before parting to present you with this album as a slight memento of our regard for you, asking you to receive it not so much on account of its intrinsic value as on account of the spirit that prompts the donors.

In conclusion we join in wishing you long life and much happiness and prosperity, and that God may be with you and care for you during all your future life.

Mr. Stubbs made a feeling reply, in which he earnestly thanked his friends for the present of which he had been made the recipient, and also for the respect those present had always shown him.

ENNISMORE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

WEATHER NOTES FOR MARCH.—The closing of March has more reminded us of winter then spring, in fact the month as a rule has been cold, stormy and blustering, although the downfall has been light compared with other years. Snow fell on 8 days to the depth of 11½ inches, and rain on 7th to the depth of 2⅜ inches, making a total depth of 6½. The lowest temperature was on the morning of the 15th, the thermometer standing at 3° above zero, and the highest in the evening of the 29th namely, 44° above; total average at sun rise and sun set for the month 25° above zero. One noteworthy thing during the month is the absence of fogs, with only one exception on the morning of the 26th, and then only lasting about two hours.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Geo. C. Clarke, of Port Dalhousie, Ontario, states that she had been confined to her room for a long time with that dreadful disease, Consumption. The doctors said she could not escape an early grave, but fortunately she began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and in a short time was completely cured. Doubting ones, please write Mrs. Clarke, and be convinced. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1. (3)

Turnbull & Gray have just to hand another lot of that superior make of Black Cashmere.

Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are perfect preventives of constipation. Inclosed in glass bottles, always fresh. By all druggists.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and mercy. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE ATTACK ON THE QUEEN.

Services in the "Eternal City"—Two Canadian Bishops Take Part.

A correspondent at Rome writes to the London Globe:—A Te Deum was sung on Sunday afternoon (March 12th) in the church of St. Andrea delle Fratte, in thanksgiving for the preservation of the life of Queen Victoria. The Church of St. Andrea delle Fratte is close to the Piazza di Spagna, and is much frequented by British, Irish and American Catholics, being for the season, the parish church of most of the strangers. It is in this church the English Lenten sermons are usually delivered, and the preacher this season is the Right Reverend Norbert Sweeney, O. S. B., Abbott of St. Albans. The thanksgiving service was arranged by special permission of the Cardinal Vicar of Rome, without whose licence no services can be held in any Catholic church, and with the previous approval of the Pope himself. The church was crowded to excess on the occasion, Protestents, as well as Catholics, bing anxious to show their loyalty to the Queen and their indignation at the attempt made upon her life. The "Te Deum" was sung immediately after the afternoon sermon, the preacher at the close of his sermon having called attention to the circumstance that Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament would be given by Monsignor Kirby, Rector of the Irish College, assisted by the rectors of the English and the Scots Colleges, as representatives of the three parts of the United Kingdom, forming one in faith and loyalty. He asserted that all three—English, Scotch and Irish—were anxious to form a triple cord of defence, for their beloved Sovereign, whose life was so dear to her subjects and so important to the welfare of her empire. Monsignor Kirby, as a bishop as well as from the respect in which he has been held during a long residence in Rome, was chosen to preside over the proceedings, which terminated with the playing of "God Save the Queen" on the organ, while the congregation was departing.

At the functions were present all Ambassadors and Ministers to Rome accredited to the Holy See, with the members of their respective legations. They occupied seats especially set apart for them. Mr. Errington, M. P., the British agente (recommended or not recommended), was present, but not in the ambassadors' seat. Sir Augustus Pagont was anxious to attend, but as he is not accredited to the Pope, it was thought advisable that he should not take part officially in the proceedings. Two Canadian Bishops (of Ottawa and Three Rivers), the Hon. Right Rev. Monsignor Stonor, the Bishop of Avila in Spain, and Monsignor Mermillod, sat within the altar rails, and twelve students (four from each of the theee colleges, the Irish, English and Scotch) performed the service of the altar. The congregation included all the leading British and Irish residents in Rome, or visitors, Protestants as well as Catholics. The Prior and all the community of the Irish American Convent of St Clement, were present, and Father Carbery, O. P., Pro. B. Smith, O. S. B. and several members of other religious orders. In the upper end of the church were the Earl and Countess of Denbigh, Lady Herris, Marchioness of Tweeddale, Mrs. Towneley, Hon. Mrs. Bruce, Hon. and Rev. Algernon Stanley, Lord and Lady Bagot, Mrs. Kinloch Grant, Nr. Sherlock, Mrs. Walpole, Prince Dora, Prince Giustiniani-Bandini (Earl of Newburgh in Scotland), Princess Odescalchi and Rospigliosi, the Marchesi Ricci, Serlupi, Lezzani, etc., with their consorts. Altogether the affair, considered as a demonstration of respect towards Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, was a success as well as a novelty; for a Te Deum in honor of a Protestant Sovereign has not often been sung in a Catholic Church in Rome, and by sanction and implied order of the Pope.

A HORRID DISCOVERY.

Water Rats Found in a Well Feasting on the Body of an Infant—a Mystery.

GREENE, Pa., March 31.—A startling discovery was made in this township this morning, which it is believed solves a sanitary enigma that has puzzled the people of that place for some time. Diphtheria and malaria have for the last two months prevailed with fatal effect in the neighbourhood of the Applebee farm. The vicinity has always been considered one of the healthiest, and the cleanliness of the farm and adjacent homes made it appear almost impossible for any such malady to exist or generate. Every effort was made to trace the cause, but without success until this morning. It had been noticed that the water in the Applebee well had recently acquired a brackish taste, and as the water of this well had always been noted for its purity, Farmer Applebee decided to investigate. He decended until he reached the surface of the water, and then probed down with a pole, at the end of which was affixed the prongs of a pitchfork. The disturbance of the water caused a commotion that startled the investigator, and almost caused him to lose his hold and drop into the water. Up to the surface came a number of fierce water rats which scrambled up the sides and darted into the nooks and crannies of the brickwork, several of the rodents making a stand as though disposed to attack the disturber of their banquet below. When he recovered from his fright the farmer plunged his spear down again, and felt the prongs enter a soft substance. He hauled it up, and was horrified to find impaled on the prongs the body of a young babe, its nose, ears, eyes, little hands and feet being eaten off by the rats, and its entire body bearing marks of the teeth that had been tearing at it. Mr. Applebee ascended to the surface with his horrid discovery, and the coroner empanelled a jury to investigate the cause. It was ascertained that the child had breathed, and from the stage of decomposition it was conjectured to have been in the well several months. The jury returned an open verdict, and the facts have been presented to the authorities for further investigation.

WHEN all with one accord give spontaneous testimony in favor of St Jacobs Oil, we know that its virtues are such as to merit it, and we are heartily glad of the generosity which does not hesitate to give a good article its due meed of praise. Mr. William Hadeler, at the Marathon Hotel, Wausau, Wis., relates the following experience: Some time since, said Mr. H., I took a severe cold, which settled in my limbs, and gradually developed into a bad case of rheumatism. After suffering for some time, and using many different preparations (among which was a remedy prescribed by a physician)—all without receiving any benefit whatever, a friend advised me to try St. Jacobs Oil. I did so expecting but little benefit, and was considerably surprised to feel somewhat easier after the first application. The use of only one-third of a bottle perfectly cured me. From a state of complete helplessness, I am now just as strong as ever, and gladly give all the praise to that wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Personal.

Mr. A. M. Millar, who formerly taught in school section No. 16, Otonabee, but who has of late been a resident of Belleville, has accepted a situation as salesman in one of the leading wholesale and retail establishments in that city. His many friends in this town and vicinity wish him every success in his new line.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

For Manitoba.

On Tuesday evening Messrs. T. Billington, J. Lasher, S. Jameson, Adams, Ray and several others left for the home of land sharks and town lots. May success be their lot.

This morning a party of young men including Mr. Fowler's sons, left for the North-West, taking with them two car loads of stock and implements.

Mr. Wm. King has also left for Winnipeg with a view of spying out the land.

Surveyors.

Mr. Thomas R. Hewson, of Peterborough, is to have charge of a Government survey in the North-west during the coming season.

Among the names, as published of those who passed the necessary examination before the Board of Dominion Land Surveyors at Ottawa recently we find, Mr. Herbert C. Denny, of Ottawa, formerly of Peterborough, and Mr. J. A. Maddock, also credited to Peterborough, but who is unknown to us.

The Weather.

The weather to-day is remarkably fine and warm, a great contrast to that of yesterday afternoon and evening. The weather probabilities for the following twenty-four hours, as reported from Toronto to-day, at 10 o'clock a.m., by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes,—Fresh to strong winds on lakes Erie and Ontario. A moderate gale from the east ; fair to cloudy weather, with local rains in western portion. Higher temperature.

The Strike Ended.

The strike of the Knights of St. Crispen has been ended by the employers granting the increase asked for. The masters were given notice that the men would all strike on Saturday last if their demands were not acceded to, and all the employers with but one or two exceptions gave the desired increase, and the men only struck where such was not done. Since then however, all have come to time and the men with but a few exceptions are at work as hard as ever.

Try a pair of Turnbull & Gray's 3 Button Kid Gloves at 75 cents.

The Lakefield Dam.

We learn that the Ontario Government has telegraphed to Messrs. R. Strickland, saying that the Lakefield dam is not to be lowered, and that they will send an engineer down this week, thus showing that they are alive to the importance of the interests at stake. Messrs. Strickland deserve commendation for the public spirit they have shown in not taking advantage of their position, and for deferring their own interests to those of the public, by placing a low valuation upon their works.

The Market.

As far as Peterborough is concerned the so called "free" market bill has a good effect. The attendance of farmers on the market place on Saturday and Wednesday, was rather better than usual, and the receipts in the shape of tolls and weighing fees above the average. Farmers can understand the advantage of having a place where buyers congregate and prefer to go there rather than to peddle from door to door and sell their produce, very often, for whatever it will bring. Peterborough has an established market, well known as being one of the best in the Province, and as long as such is the case, it will continue to be well patronized.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A MEETING AT WHICH NO BUSINESS OF IMPORTANCE IS TRANSACTED.

But the Members While Away an Hour in "Talk," Which when Boiled down Amounts to Nothing—Communications, Etc., The Cadet Corps Question "in Statu Quo."

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education took place at the Collegiate Institute on Tuesday evening.

Present—Messrs. James Stevenson, Chairman, and Rutherford, Burnham, Stratton, Robinson, Denne, Weir, Wrighton, Poussette, Sawers, Best and Sproule.

Mr. DENNE having subscribed to the necessary declaration took his seat.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

INQUIRIES.

Mr. ROBINSON asked what interest the Board paid on borrowed money ?

The CHAIRMAN said the rate paid was seven per cent.

Several members thought that 6 per cet. was sufficient.

The SECRETARY said they formerly paid 8 per cent., but upon the representation of a committee of the Board, it was reduced to 7 per cent. and had remained at that figure for the last two years.

Mr. POUSSETTE thought that money could be obtained for 5 per cent., and then only charged on balances.

The CHAIRMAN said that sometimes the Board borrowed $8,000.

The SECRETARY said the amount paid for interest this year would be very low, owing to the payments due being promptly paid.

The subject then dropped.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From the Educational Department stating that the sum of $792.54 was due the Board—Received.

From the Secretary of the Lindsay Board of Education, asking for information regarding the Collegiate Institute.—Answered.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR MARCH.

Public Schools.	On Roll.	Avge
Central School	568	478
South Ward School	238	204
Third Ward School	153	132
Total	959	814

The largest attendance there has ever been in the history of the schools—Received.

ASHBURNHAM'S GRANT.

The CHAIRMAN said that the special committee had called on the Reeve of Ashburnham and had been cordially received. That gentleman had held out hopes that the grant of last year would be voted again. A meeting of the Ashburnham Council would take place on Wednesday evening and the matter would be brought before them.

"LITTLE WOODEN GUNS."

Mr. BURNHAM asked about the cadet arms?

Mr. STRATTON thought the formation of a cadet corps would be detrimental to the interests of the school, and he wanted to see the arms returned.

The CHAIRMAN said that Capt. Edwards was endeavouring to form a company and if he was not successful, the arms would be sent back. He had the arms cleaned and they were in good order.

Moved by Mr. STRATTON, seconded by Mr. DENNE,—That the Chairman take steps to return the cadet arms to Ottawa at once.

Mr. RUTHERFORD thought the arms should be retained until Mr. Edwards was heard from. It did not cost anything to keep them here.

Mr. POUSSETTE said the motion was new matter and therefore out of order.

The CHAIRMAN said he would return the arms if the Company was not formed.

Mr. SPROULE thought there was no use of passing the motion as the arms would be returned if the Company was not formed.

Mr. SAWERS thought the matter was all child's play.

Mr. POUSSETTE thought the members were very inconsistent, passing a motion one night and then rescinding it the next.

The CHAIRMAN stated that a majority of the Board would be required to rescind the motion passed at the last meeting.

The motion was lost.

The meeting then adjourned.

That Yeast!

Mr. G. C. Rogers has perfected arrangements for receiving fresh weekly supplies of the celebrated compressed yeast, which is being used with such excellent results in Peterborough as well as elsewhere. Consumers are only required to keep it in a cool place and to use it only when fresh, to ensure success.

Fire Water and Gas.

A meeting of the Fire, Water and Gas Committee of the town council takes place to-morrow evening, at 7.30 p. m. o'clock. A full meeting of the members is requested, as the important business of selecting the streets on which mains are to be laid, and the locations of hydrants, so that the water Company can order the special castings required, and proceed with the work of laying the pipes, as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

Railway Notes.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

The Midland trains are all run by Toronto time now. It is about eight minutes slower than our time.

Mr. J. C. Bailey, Chief Engineer of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway passed over the missing link, on Tuesday. He states that 300 men will be put at work in a few weeks. The line from Madoc to Bridgewater is graded and good progress is being made with the other sections under construction.

French Wove Corsets at Turnbull & Gray's.

USE OF THE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—Posters were put up through the town yesterday calling a meeting of those opposed to giving a bonus of $20,000 to the proposed car works, to be held in the Council Chamber. Along with a number of ratepayers I found myself shut out. Mr. Beavis, whose duty it is to have the rooms open when requested, was not to be found. Mr. Beavis is in favor of the by-law, it will thus be seen the reason he could not be found. Now, Mr. Editor, if town officials can use their office to suit their own ends it is the imperative duty, at the next meeting of the Council to have him or them discharged. But Mr. Editor, the little game that was got up with caretaker Beavis as a tool, was utterly frustrated. We did get a meeting after all, in the Collector's office, but unfortunately a large number of bona fide ratepayers, thoroughly disgusted with the trick had gone away, determined to oppose the by-law. Thanking you for your space, I remain,

Yours etc.,
ANTI-BONUS.

Peterborough, April 4th, 1882.

Rink Closed.

The Rink is now closed for the season and all ticket holders who have Rented boxes are requested to call at the Rink and get their skates on Thursday afternoon between the hours of two and six o'clock, when the caretaker will be there to settle for the same.

The By-Law.

It is only within the last day or two that the people have really woke up to the importance of the by-law, voted on to-day. Before the time mentioned, the matter was seldom spoken of, but yesterday the people awoke from their lethargy and the carworks question was the topic of the discussion from one end of the town to the other, and whereever one might be carworks was the matter under consideration. Canvassers for and against the passage of the by-law set vigorously to work and fully explained the views they entertained on the important matter. To-day the tug of war took place, but as the poll was not closed when we went to press it is impossible to say what the result will be. A large number of vehicles were out and many men have been working hard to get the voters out all day and there has been considerable excitement, which intensified as 5 o'clock approached and the drivers of the vehicles made frantic effort to get voters in just as the polls closed.

"MADE NEW AGAIN."—Mrs. Wm. D. Ryckman, St. Catherines, Ont., says : "R. V. Pierce Buffalo, N. Y., I have used your Favorite Prescription,' "Golden Medical Discovery, and Pleasent Purgative Pellets, for the last three months and find myself—(what shall I say)—made new again, are the only words that express It. I was reduced to a skeleton, cauld not walk across the floor without fainting, could keep nothing in the shape of food on my stomach. Myself and friends had given all hope, my immediate death seemed certain. I now live (to the surprise of everybody) and am able to do my own work."

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance.

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

Daily Evening Review

THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1882.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

MR. LAURIER on the motion for going into committee of supply moved an amendment for the removal of the duties on breadstuffs and coal. He was supported by Messrs. Cosgrain, Cameron, (Huron) Charlton and Fleming, the speakers on behalf of the Government being Sir H. Langevin and Messrs. Bourbeau, Hackett, Sproule, Tillier and Hesson. Mr. Hackett made the good point that in 1870 before confederation higher protective duties on breadstuffs were imposed by the Prince Edward Island Liberals who now with their Dominion allies advocate free trade. Mr. Hesson pointed out that Mr. Laurier, urged that the tariff increased the prices of agricultural products, while Mr. Charlton denied this, and called upon them to settle their own differences before attacking the Government. The amendment was negatived by 120 to 47.

Mr. Plumb moved in amendment to going into supply:—

"That it be resolved, that in the opinion of this House, it is expedient that the western and northern boundaries of the Province of Ontario should be finally settled by reference to, and the authoritative decision of, either the Supreme Court of Canada or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in Great Britain, or by the Supreme Court in the first place, subject to the final submission to the Judicial Committee, as the Province of Ontario may choose; that such decisions should be obtained by either an appeal in a friendly action brought for the purpose, or by reference to the said courts by either or both of them by her Majesty under the power conferred upon her by the Imperial and Canadian Parliament, as the Government of Ontario may prefer; and that such reference should be based on evidence collected and printed, with any additional documentary evidence, if such there is, and that pending the reference the administration of lands shall be intrusted to a joint commission appointed by the Government of Canada and the Government of Ontario."

Mr. Mackenzie made a brief and tame speech in defence of his action in the matter, saying that he would have confirmed the award if he had remained in power, but shirked the question of why he would not join with Mr. Mowat in giving, by legislation in advance, full power to the arbitrators.

Mr. Ives argued forcibly against the legality of the award.

Mr. Mills, who it will be remembered received a fee of $4,000 from the Ontario Government in this matter, went into a long history of the question in its geographical and legal aspects, supporting the award. He succeeded in driving nearly all his friends out of the House.

Mr. Dawson argued that a great part of the boundary fixed was only an arbitrary line and quoted Sir Francis Hincks as supporting his contention.

Sir R. Cartwright, Messrs. Laurier, Mousseau and a number of other members took part in the debate, the opposition not repeating the truculant threats of their friends at Toronto.

The amendment was carried by 116 to 44.

The Presbyterian Temporalities Fund Bill was read a third time and passed after being considerably amended.

EMIGRATION OF LABOURERS.

LONDON, April 5.—A preliminary meeting of an important character was held at the Mansion House to-day, the Lord Mayor presiding, with a view of taking steps to raise a fund for assisting unemployed working people to emigrate to Canada. Sir Alexander T. Galt announced that Canada offered to give £1 per head for certain families to whom the Canadian Pacific Railway Company offered employment. McArthur and Torrens, members of Parliament, Cardinal Manning, and several well-known churchmen were present. It was announced that £6,000 would be required to start the scheme.

THE TURKISH TREASURY.

CONLTANTINOPLE, April 5.—The Sultan to-day granted Wallace and Pheleps, United States Ministers to Turkey and Austria, permission (now very rarely granted) to inspect the Imperial Treasury. The Ministers were surprised at the amount of treasure and the great number of precious stones displayed. There were forty officials in attendance, who opened the locks with many formalities.

A VERITABLE CRANK.

CHICAGO, April 6.—John McAuley, an old eccentric citizen, had himself boxed up with a flask of whiskey, 12 bottles of beer, and a few biscuits. The box was addressed to a lady in Philadelphia and shipped by express at Van-Vert, Ohio. He was discovered by an express messenger and jailed, but was afterwards sent home. It is stated that he chose that mode of transportation to save fare.

A BIG STRIKE FEARED.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A Cahooses despatch says the manager of the Harmony Co's mill will post a notice to-day setting forth that owing to the depressed condition of the market, a reduction in wages will take place on the 24th instant. Another strike equal to that of two years ago is probable. Nearly 1,000 people are employed in the mills.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—Old John Bender, whose name and that of his daughter Kate, rang from one end of the country to the other eight years ago, as perpetrators of several murders in Kansas, was arrested here yesterday. He claims that his name is Baelas, but he has been identified by a former acquaintance.

THE HANLAN-BOYD BOAT RACE.

A Fuller Account of the Race—Time 21 Minutes 6 Seconds.

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—At the starting the boats were moored opposite the Mansion House about a hundred yards above the high level bridge, and thirty yards apart. The oarsmen appeared within a few minutes of each other, Hanlan using Phelps & Peters' boat, Boyd using the Britannia, built by Swaddle & Winship. Boyd dashed away with the start, and was half a length in front in a few strokes. Hanlan, however, sculling in grand form, caught him and in half a mile was clear of him. Hanlan's time to Redheugh bridge was 3 minutes 23 seconds. By this time Hanlan was two lengths in front and the race was over. The Canadian was in magnificent form, sculling easily and well, putting not more than 28 strokes to the minute and winning easily. Boyd was screwing and in evident trouble, pulling a very bad course about the bridge. It was quite clear that the Canadian could play with Boyd, and he soon began his old tricks, such as playing with the oars every now and again, stopping dead for several seconds. Boyd struggled gamely on, doing his best, but quite ineffectually. Hanlan stopped, held up one hand, blew his nose, and generally disported himself, but directly Boyd got anywhere near him the champion pulled a dozen or so powerful strokes and went right ahead. It was as easy a task for Hanlan as the Laycock race was. The course was admirably kept, there not being the slightest obstacle in the way of the men. A feature of the day was the enormous numbers of spectators, estimated at hundreds of thousands, who lined the whole course. Hanlan won by seven lengths in 21 minutes six seconds.

THE FASTEST TIME ON RECORD.

Hanlan made the first mile in 5 minutes 45 seconds, the fastest time on record on the Tyne.

A PRESENT.

LONDON, April 3.—Newcastle is idolizing Hanlan. He was presented with a gold watch at the theatre this evening.

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

A largely attended meeting of the Liberal Conservatives of Lakefield was held in Doman's Hall on Thursday evening the 30th of March. Mr. R. C. Strickland was appointed Chairman and Mr. Frederick Lillicrap Secretary. The following were elected as delegates for the East and West Riding viz:

EAST RIDING.—Messrs. W. C. Sanders, J. Griffin, W. Cox and James Moore. Mr. R. C. Strickland, Vice. President.

WEST RIDING.—Polling subdivision No. One Messrs. Thomas Joseph Nelson, John Dinwoodie, John Cooper and Fred. Lillicrap. Mr. R. C. Strickland, Vice. President.

Polling subdivision No. Two, Messrs. Josiah Blewett, Richard Hill, John P. Strickland and Dr. Armour. Mr. W. C. Sanders, Vice. President.

ORANGE MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Canadian Orange Lodge of this village will be held in the Orange Hall on Tuesday evening next the 11th instant at 8 o'clock.

LAKEFIELD DAM.

Messrs. Walters and McCallum on behalf of the Ontario Government visited this village on Tuesday last and inspected the Lakefield dam, leaving on Wednesday morning. We understand that the Government has assumed the dam.

NEW TIME TABLE.

The new time table issued by the Midland Railway took effect on Saturday last the 1st instant giving two trains per day to Lakefield. This is quite a gain for the people of Lakefield, but the time between the two trains is so short that the arrangement cannot be said to be in the interest of the railway. The railway has been considerably patronized since the change, people now being able to go to Peterborough, remain there two hours and return the same day to Lakefield, which could not be done by train before Saturday last.

MANUFACTURING.

The question of encouraging the starting of manufactures in Lakefield by way of remission of taxes for a number of years is now being very freely discussed by the ratepayers. There is a prospect we believe of having a large flouring mill built during the ensuing summer, at, or near the junction of Queen and Water streets, if a remission of taxes be granted for 15 years. We understand that the village council have the power of remitting taxes, but only for ten years. In order to get taxes remitted for a longer period than ten years, the question must be submitted to and decided by a vote of the municipal voters who are freeholders. Lakefield is quite favourably situated for certain manufacturing enterprises, particularly the manufacturing of wood. We have an excellent water power and an almost unlimited supply of hard wood to the north, which can be brought to Lakefield by water. Lakefield should encourage by at least the remission of taxes any manufacture for a limited number of years at any rate. Another flouring mill is very much needed in the place to create a sufficient competition in the grain trade. The village cannot be any the worse off by remitting taxes on what does not now exist, and if by such slight encouragement, manufacturing interests can be created here by all means let us have them and as soon a possible.

CHEESE MEETING.

A meeting of those interested in starting a cheese factory in Douro, will be held in the Church School house on Friday afternoon the 14th instant, by Mr. J. W. Moore, who is endeavoring to start a cheese factory in the centre of the township of Douro. The people of Douro will now have the opportunity of securing the services of a first class cheese manufacturer.

FINE COLT.

Mr. Wm. Abbott a farmer living about three miles north east of Lakefield sold a fine two years old colt last week, receiving for it the handsome sum of $150.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lakefield Village Council, will be held in the council room on Monday evening next the 10th inst. at 7.30 sharp. It is expected that there will be considerable business of importance to transact. Those interested had better be present.

PORT HOPE.

LIGHTNING'S FREAKS.—The Guide says that Port Hope was visited by a most severe thunder storm on Sunday morning, two or three places in town were struck by the electric fluid and considerable damage done, in one instant at least. The house of Mr. Robert Elliott, Ward street, was struck about four o'clock yesterday morning; the electric current entered the chimney at the peek of the roof and shattered it to atoms, the bricks of which were scattered for rods around; then passed down the stove pipe into the bedroom where Mr. Elliott and wife were sleeping, bursting the pipe and sending it in all directions, passing down into the lower part of the house and knocking the stovepipe in blissful confusion. In passing from the stove, one of Mr. Elliott's boots was entered and the front part of it shattered—it is a real curiosity to see it. The fluid then passed under the floor and out of the rear of the kitchen, setting fire to the building. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were stunned by the shock, but the wreck of the house woke up all the inmates. The fire was extinguished without much delay. None of the family are any the worse for the mishap. It was a very providential escape for Mr. Elliott and wife. The damage to the building will be repaired for about one hundred dollars. We are glad to learn that the house was insured.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1882.

THE CAR WORKS BY-LAW.

We must congratulate the town on the success of the by-law to advance $20,000 to the projected car works, with the view of taking stock in the Company as soon as the necessary legislation is procured. The property holders of Peterborough gave a very positive proof of their desire to establish such an industry here, for they carried the by-law by a majority of more than three to one, the total vote in its favour being nearly half the number on the roll, and more than half of those who could vote. Of course it greatly exceeded the number required under the statute to carry the by-law. The popularity of the project is thus plainly shown in spite of the loud assertions that some made to the contrary.

We hope that this vote with facilitate an early commencement of operations, and that the town will soon be reaping the fruits of its enterprise.

ONDERDONK CONTRACT.

If the political opponents of the present Dominion Government were open to shame, they would all be clothed in sack-cloth and ashes today, for the disgraceful manner in which they maligned Sir Charles Tupper, for awarding the contract for the Emory Bar Section of the Canadian Pacific Railway to Mr. Onderdonk, and were they possessed of the slightest spark of manly feeling, or actuated by the slightest sense of fair-play, they would apologize for the gross injustice which they have been doing him, with regard to this matter, for more than six weeks. This, however, is not to be expected from either the Globe or its echos throughout the country, and instead of anything like an opology appearing in their columns, the Onderdonk contract, will continue to be dished up with other slanders in the columns of those journals, and by their orators, who are, and can be nothing, except when traducing and belittling their superiors. Happily for Sir Charles Tupper, and his political friends, Mr. Mackenzie in some way or another, had his courage screwed up to the point necessary to enable him to bring the matter before the House, by way of a motion in amendment to the motion to go into the committee of supply, without giving Sir Charles that previous notice of his intention so to do, which fairplay as well as common courtesy called for.

But, apart from this little bit of sharp practice and the animosity of which it afforded additional proof, both the Government and their friends have reason to rejoice that the Globe has at last found some one willing to father, on the floor of Parliament, what we may reasonably assume it considered the strongest card in its pack of slanders, as it afforded the Minister of Railways just the opportunity he required to tear to shreds the bubble, which had been blown with so much care, and upon which so many hopes were built, and to utterly discredit his maligners, in the estimation of all fairminded and honest men. Let us briefly recapitulate the circumstances upon which the Globe and Mr. Mackenzie, as its humble servant, sought to fasten upon Sir Charles Tupper a transaction "the most dishonorable ever known in the administration of public affairs." Some months ago tenders were asked for the construction of the Emory Bar Section of the C. P. R., to be accompanied by a check for $20,000, marked good by a bank, as a guarantee of good faith and that the tender was a bona fide one on the part of the tenderer. Among the tenders so put in was one from Messrs. MacDonald and Charlebois, accompanied by a cheque for $20,000, dated 24th of January, and which upon close examination proved to have been marked "good for two days only." As a matter of fact then, this tender was not on the 1st of February, a tender in accordance with the notice calling for it, inasmuch as it was not accompanied by the kind of cheque called for. In fact this cheque was on the 1st of February, whether intentionally or unintentionally, matters not, a worthless piece of paper, and as such necessitated, as a matter of simple justice to the other tenderers, the rejection of this tender, and had the Minister of Railways permitted this cheque to be amended by the striking out of the words "for two days only," or permitted another, and good one to be substituted for it, he no doubt, have been submitted to, and in some measure at least, would have deserved, the personal abuse which he has been and is yet receiving, at the hands of his opponents.

But, although the foregoing facts, and they cannot be gainsaid, are of themselves sufficient to justifiy the rejection of Messrs. Macdonald & Charlebois tender, but to prove that had it not been rejected, the Minister would have flown in the face of the rules laid down by his predecessors, and the conditions upon which tenders were alone asked, yet, Mr. Mackenzies motion served to bring to light another fact connected with this tender, which we think would have amply justified its rejection, even had the cheque accompanying it been all right.

In making up tenders for such works, tenderers are required to furnish a schedule of prices, at which they propose to do the different kinds of work, as well as to state the lump sum at which they will do the whole of the work mentioned in the approximate estimates of the engineer. As the actual quantities of each kind of work done varies from the "approximate quantities,, upon which the tender is made it is obvious that the schedule becomes of quite as much, if not more, importance than the lump sum, in arriving at a conclusion as to which is in reality the lowest tender. Applying Messrs. Macdonald & Charlebois schedule of price to the approximate qualities given by the engineer, and upon which the tender was based, the extraordinary fact is brought to light, that while they say they are willing to do the work for $2,275,000, then schedule of prices calls for $3,598,740, or $1,323,000 more than the lump sum named in the tender, and over $1,100,000 more than the tender of Mr. Onderdonk, which has been accepted. Now, this conclusively proves one of two things, viz., either that the tender was not bona fide, was in fact put in for the purpose of being sold, or it was expected, no doubt correctly, that if they got the work they would be paid in accordance with the schedule. That this is a fair inference, to be drawn the circumstances which we have just stated, is evident from the fact, that when the same test was applied to the other tenders the the schedules and the lump sums named were practically the same—the difference between the amount called for by Mr. Onderdonk's schedule, and lump sum in his tender, being only $2,000—the very best possible proof that the tender accepted was an honest one, while the other was a bogus, if not dishonest one. Clearly, if Sir Charles Tupper were the dishonest man his opponents would have the country believe; were he, as they say, always on the lookout to serve himself at the expense of the country, he should have accepted the tender of Messrs. Macdonald & Charlebois. It was the one which possessed all the elements out of which a good fat job could have been made, not that of Onderdonk.

LOUD-VOICED TELEPHONES.

A New Discovery that Astonishes the Electricians Themselves.

An improvement has been made in the telephone, by which the full tones of the human voice may be transmitted.

Mr. C. E. Chinnock, the electrician of the Metropolitan Telephone company of this city, said recently. "Two weeks ago I went to Boston to consult with the Bell telephone company from which all other telephone companies obtain their rights. While there I was invited into the office of Mr. Jacques, the chief electrician of the company. Mr. Jacques said he had something to show me that would perhaps surprise me. He gave me a seat in his private room. About twenty feet away from me was an ordinary looking telephone, just like those in use all over this city. A moment after Mr. Jacques had closed the door I heard the voice of an unseen person say, in an ordinary conversational tone: 'Good morning, Mr. Chinnock, how do you like Boston?' I looked around in amazement, and said to Mr. Jacques: 'Have you got a speaking tube here?' 'No, that is the telephone, said the electrician. At first I thought it was some practical joke they were playing on me, but, after a little explanation, I was convinced that it was result of a wonderful discovery in electrial science. By using the carbon in a pulverised form instead of in the shape of a hard button, and by the using of a currant four times as strong as before, the telephone is made to give forth as loud and articulate sounds as those of the human voice. I believe there is no doubt that, after this improvement has been put into general use, the call bell now attached to all the telephones can be dispensed with, because the voice from the telephone can be heard by anyone near enough to hear the bell. While I was still in the room a voice came from the telephone calling for 'Miss Taylor,' a lady employed in an adjoining room some forty feet away from the instrument; and yet Miss Taylor at once left her desk and went to answer the call."

Mr. Chinnock says that when the voice comes from a long distance, as from New York or Philadelphia, it is necessary to speak loudly, but it is not necessary to shout.

Mr. Davis, the vice-president of the Metropolitian telephone company, said that the new invention would probably not affect telephoning at short distances. The present instrument for short distances, he thought, was now as near perfection as could be. The only thing needed was a wire that would not pick up the outside noises which at present sometimes interfere with easy conservation. The new telephone would be used for talking beween distant cities, as Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago, New Orleans, and possibly San Francisco.—New York Sun.

SHELBURNE TRAGEDY.

Probable Adjournment of the Case Against the Boy Smith—A Labourer's Story.

ORANGEVILLE, April 4.—It was expected that the boy Smith, arrested in connection with the Shelburne murder, would have been indicted before the Grand Jury to-day, but at the present time it is doubtful what action will be pursued, as the Crown does not feel possessed of sufficient evidence to proceed against the boy at present.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE CRIME

of which the boy stands charged are as follows:—John Smith, the unfortunate victim of this mysterious tragedy, a quiet and highly respected bachelor farmer, aged 70, living alone with his nephew aged 14, on the south half of the east half of lot 27, 4th concession township of Amaranth, about four miles from Shelburne, was on Saturday night, the 21st January last, sitting by his fireside after supper, when according to the boy's story, a shot was fired through the uncurtained window, and he fell to the floor. His nephew, who was in the house at the time reading a newspaper, saw, he says, that the shot had been fired by a man outside with a dark beard and moustache and dark clothes. He ran out, but before he reached the door a shot was fired at him, the bullet passing through his cap. He ran on and informed a neighbour, distant a mile and a half, of the deed. On looking back he saw the house on fire. The body of the old man was found near the door with part of one leg burned off. He was reputed to be well off, and was known to have a considerable sum of money in the house. Upon examination of the body a scalp wound was found two inches long. The parital bone under the scalp and the bones on the right side of the face were fractured. No aperture was found in the brain by which it was possible for a bullet to enter or escape. Under a minute examination no indications of a bullet of other foreign body was discovered. The medical experts therefore came to the conclusion that death was caused by a heavy blow inflicted on the right of the head and face. This evidence impeached the veracity of the boy strongly, and when a hardware merchant turned up who said that a boy, who he was reasonably sure was Smith, purchased a revolver at his store before the murder, the current of suspicion turned against him. He was finally arrested and committed for trial by a Coroner's jury.

THE STORY OF ONE THOMPSON.

Something has just transpired which makes it possible that the trial will yet take place. At 4 o'clock a warrant was issued to bring to town at once a farmer or farm labourer named Wesley Thompson, who has related the following story to a number of persons:—On the afternoon of the murder he was in the woods near the house when he saw James Smith, brother of the murdered man, draw up, and hitching his horse in the swamp, enter his brother's house. He saw him emerge shortly afterwards, mount his horse, and ride away. James Smith, he says, afterwards offered him $50, according to his story, not to mention the circumstance, and according to another story he offered him the money to swear that the man he saw was Hannah, the hardware merchant at Shelburne. This account Thompson gave Hannah himself in the presence of Mr. Jelly. It will be remembered that the boy stated that his father was last at the house on Friday, the evening before the murder. Those who know Thompson place no reliance on his story. He is a heavy drinker, and the neighbours say he likes to talk. However, Thompson sticks to his story, drunk or sober. A boy named Curry says he saw the murdered man at 4 o'clock outside of his door washing a pot. The nephew said the murder was at six. Unless some reliance is placed on Thompson's story, and he arrives before morning, and unless some new evidence is found before ten o'clock to-morrow, the boy will not be indicted before the Grand Jury this Court. The man Thompson had not arrived up to a late hour to-night. It has just been learned that if Thompson clings to his story the trial will be postponed in order to give the Crown further time to procure evidence. Owing to the frost it has been impossible to make certain searches in the neighbourhood of the scene of the murder. Between now and the next Court the Crown theory will be worked out as far as possible.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE CHINESE MUST GO.

A TRUE PICTURE OF CHINATOWN IN SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

Alleys in which the Sun never Penetrates—Filth and Squalor—Working Sixteen out of Twenty-Four Hours.

I propose, with the reader's permission, to take him on a trip into that famous slum Chinatown in San Francisco, which shall be directed by neither the interested ciceronage of a Colonel Bee, nor the unprincipled sensationalism of a flash writer.

The windows of St. James palace look out upon one of the foulest purlieus of London. In the same way, the deadliest slum on the American continent exists almost within a stone's throw of the pretentions palaces in which some of the lordliest millionaires of the continent are housed.

Chinatown consists of two main streets, Washington and Jackson by name, half a dozen smaller streets, and a net work of alleys, passages, and no thoroughfares, besides which the old Paris which Baron Haussman has rendered only a legend, was a legion of palaces and stately avenues. In its entirety, Chinatown forms a solid section of San Francisco some half a dozen blocks long by two broad.

The main streets of Chinatown are innocuous enough to the view. They are lined by many large and substantial stories of masonry and iron, and though their ensemble is barbaric by reason of the people one meets, the business carried on, and the evidences of foreign taste and habits, contributed by store displays and queer signs, they are altogether bright enough and harmless enough to create rather a pleasing impression on the civilized eye.

They are but the walls of the sepulchre, however. Pass behind them, and the corruption they hide will speak for itself to every sense which is the attribute of decent men.

The ramifications of Chinatown's byways are indiscribable. Winding ways have been burrowed through the hearts of blocks as rats bore their way through solid walls. From serpentine alleys others branch out to end nowhere. So tangled and cut up is the district by these passages that it requires an expert to find his way about in broad daylight. At night navigation is a matter of skill many of the denizens themselves do not possess.

Overhead the houses are built out, story beyond story, as in a mediæval city, until the roofs almost meet. Upon the architecture of the American builder, the invader who has populated the district has grafted his own carpenter work until the common-place forms of the old houses which he took possession of when the Caucausian abandoned them have entirely disappeared. The lanes and alleys of Chinatown are simply so many lanes and alleys in Pekin for any trace they reveal of their original condition in the hands of the white man.

Within, as without, all the original architectural characteristics of the house have vanished. Ordinary rooms have been partitioned off into sombre kennels, affording just enough space for movement between the bunks which line the walls. Cellars have been excavated under the old cellars, and houses built upon the roofs. Many of the buildings were, in the old days, handsome residences, with quite lofty parlors and dining rooms. In these flying floors have been erected. This is, half way to the ceiling a plank floor, supported by wooden pillars, has been laid, so that two floors have been created out of one, and these are both divided and subdivided by partitions, till the whole house resembles nothing so much as a great anthill. There are houses, originally of ten rooms, which now contain half a dozen times as many. I know one, whose builder divided it into three stories of four rooms each, which has now under the same roof seven stories, cut up into ninety rooms, on the parlor floor three stories have been made of one.

Life swarms in every hole and corner of these vast barracks. Wherever a human being can be squeezed one is found. Disease and such health as can exist in such a place lie cheek by jowl. The scales of the leper fall upon the sound man in the bunk below him. Families find room in dens which could be set down inside an ordinary New York hall bedroom. Only the very aristocrats of Chinatown enjoy the luxury of single apartments. The colonists of Chinatown resemble in their dense gregariousness, nothing so much as the vermin which prey upon them.

Of course, under such conditions cleanliness is an impossibity, even were it a desideratum with the teeming thousands who gorge Chinatown with unhealthy life. The alleys are deep with offal; the house walls exude a horrible moisture, a species of death damp which breeds a slimy, greenish-black fungus everywhere it touches. Through the narrow gap the house tops leave between them the sun never reaches the sidewalks, which are slippery with damp. Indoors a crust of grime scales from walls and ceilings, and floors are literally carpeted with foot-beaten filth. This filth has penetrated every pore of Chinatown, and though in certain spots it may be gilded, it is still underneath and needs but a scratch to be revealed.

The industries of Chinatown are adjusted upon the same sordid and economical basis as its methods of existence. Everything, from the house he lives in and the fool he eats, to the work he does, is tested by Ah Sin to its uttermost capacity. The shoemakes and tailors, who people many of the cellars, toil sixteen hours out of the twenty-four, and sink upon their benches to slumber as soon as they drop their work. They devour their rice and their morsel of fish between the strokes of the hammer and the stitches of the needle. The cigarmakers only rest with midnight, the carpenters lays his tools by long after white craftsmen are asleep. In short, the only division they make between working and resting time is that created by the fact that they can work no more.

The enslavement of man for purposes of labor is denounced by all civilized statutes as a crime. What can then be said of the enslavement of woman for purposes whose very name is a shame upon mankind?

Yet this slavery exists and flourishes in Chinatown, openly, by broad day. The purchase and sale of women to garrison the brothels is a common a transaction almost as the transfer of merchandise. There are dealers in women in China and San Francisco, who prosecute their business as systematically and as fearlessly as if it were the most legitimate commercial enterprise in the world.

I have alluded to the absolute absence on the part of the average Chinaman in America of the domestic element. They marry, but solely for purposes of economy or lust; and marriage, as performed among them, imposes no obligation on the husband which he considers binding.

The reason for this is, chiefly, the most of them have left families abroad, to home they intend to return, and marriage here is a temporary convenience. This has given raise to the business of providing woman a market in which they rate as so much merchandise with a regular scale of values fluctuating with circumstances.—New York Truth.

A Trustee's Logic.

There is nothing like logic, and every thoughtful man ought to keep a stock on hand in case of emergency. A countryman was told by a schoolmaster that the earth is round and turns round, and he stared in astonishment and then said:

"I'll just try an experiment for myself."

The next day he came back with a triumphant proof that the schoolmaster's yarn was all nonsense. "If the earth turns round," said he, inquisitively, "then half the time we are on the top and half the time under, ain't we?"

"Most assuredly," was the reply.

"Well; the earth did't stop turnin' last night, did it?"

"Probably not," said the schoolmaster.

"Now then," went on the logician triumphantly, "see how foolish you be. Why don't you try experiments before you scare people by tellin' such stories? Last evening when I went home I put a 'tater' balanced on a stick that I stuck in the ground. If the earth had moved a quarter of an inch all night that 'tater' would have dropped sure; but when I got up this morning there it was just as I left it. We don't want no such nonsense taught here. This school closes to-day, and your bill to date will be paid."—Ex.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Rink Closed.

The Rink is now closed for the season and all ticket holders who have Rented boxes are requested to call at the Rink and get their skates on Thursday afternoon between the hours of two and six o'clock, when the caretaker will be there to settle for the same.

Norwood and Hastings.

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Peterboro', held in Hastings, on Wednesday last, it was unanimously decided, after consultation with those interested, to dissolve the union which has hitherto existed between the Presbyterian congregations of Norwood and Hastings, and to allow each congregation to have a separate pastor in future.

Venners Bulletin.

We have received from Mr. Venner his weather bulletin for April. It is a very interesting number, containing the predictions for the month in detail, besides a large amount of interesting matter regarding the weather and etc., and a picture of the ice railway across the St. Lawrence at Montreal. It is published monthly at Montreal, at $1 per year or 10 cents per number.

Railway Notes.

The Kingston Whig says that on Tuesday Mr. R. Clarke, a G. T. R. official, had an interview with the citizens representing that corporation, the Midland and other associations relative to the laying of extra sidings and switches for the accommodation of those sending exhibits to the Provincial Exhibition in September. The official visited the various places where switches could be put down, made estimates, and will report in a short while.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

Presbyterian Missions.

It will be observed that the sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian Church, in Canada, is to be held in Peterborough during next week, and at which a number of ladies and gentlemen from a distance will be present. On Tuesday meetings will be held in the school room of St. Andrew's Church, at 10.30 a.m. and 2.30 p.m., and in the evening a public meeting will be held in St. Paul's Church to be presided over by the Rev. Prof. McLaren, of Knox College, Toronto, and to be addressed by the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell ; on Wednesday, the concluding meeting will be held in St. Paul's Church at 2.30 p.m.

Who is It?

The Hastings Star says :—

"One of the finest entertainments, including views of the Holy Land, scenes in Palestine &c., ever presented to a Hastings audience, was exhibited in the Town Hall on Wednesday evening last. Maxim Lemoire's vivid description of the scenes as they passed through were greatly appreciated, in fact the same may be said of the entire audience. When the portrait of Gilbert Peck as a "Corporation Fiddler" was presented, a round of applause burst forth, and the proprietors believing the restoration of quiet uncertain, struck up God Save the Queen. The whole concluded with the screaming farce, entitled ——— ! which did not come off. We understand the troupe were billed to appear in Stirling the following evening, but being anxious to deposit the heavy receipts taken, while here, in the bank of their native town, Peterborough, altered their minds and returned from whence they came. We sympathise with Stirling in the loss she sustains."

We rather think that the Star man makes a mistake when he credits the fraud to Peterborough, as no person here owns such a panorama as the one described, and we can further assure him that any show that starts from here is always of a first class character; the "snide" articles come from the front,

THE VICTORY IS OURS.

The Workingmen of the Town Aid Industry.

AND VOTE "EN MASSE" FOR THE CARWORKS BY-LAW.

MISREPRESENTATION AND "CROOKED" FIGURES COUNT FOR NOTHING.

The Intelligent Electors see the Dodge and Record their Ballots Accordingly—A Decisive Vote—Over Three to one—The Official Figures.

The great fight is over and the victory rests with those who supported the carworks by-law, who are of course elated, while their opponents are correspondingly depressed.

Those who worked for and supported the by-law have just pause to be proud of the success that has crowned their efforts, considering that they had to fight a bitter fight against several influential and popular men, who on this occasion held opposite views. The struggle was a game one, and notwithstanding the many untrue reports that were put in circulation, the workingmen, the bone and sinew of the town, were not to be misled, and recorded their votes almost en masse in favor of the by-law, and to them in a great measure is due the victory. Facts were distorted, figures "cooked" and fly sheets issued, but the intelligent voters soon saw through the thin dodges and marked their ballot papers "for the by-law," in order to aid and encourage manufacturers to locate in our midst, and build up a town that nature has so lavishly endowed with facilities.

As soon as the polls closed, a crowd congregated around the bulletin board displayed in front of the REVIEW office, and as the returns from the various wards were marked, cheers went up, especially when the messenger from No. 1 handed in his return. As will be seen by the following return every ward in town gave a majority in favor of the by-law. The following is the unofficial return :—

	For.	Against.	Majority.
First Ward.....	145	23	122
Second Ward.....	71	31	40
Third Ward.....	119	38	81
Fourth Ward.....	58	33	25
	393	125	268

THE OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

	For	Agn.	Maj.	Rejected or Spoilt.
No. 1..	143	25	118	1
No. 2..	71	31	40	2
No. 3..	119	38	81	0
No. 4..	58	33	25	1
	391	127	264	4

The Town Clerk summed up at 4.30 o'clock and announced that the total number of freehold votes in town was 824, of which 391 were cast for the by-law, and 127 against it. The necessary two-fifths vote was 330, and 391 having been cast for it the by-law is carried by 61 votes more than the limit.

ASHBURNHAM COUNCIL.

The Regular Monthly Meeting—Aiding the Collegiate Institute—Minor Business.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ashburnham Council took place at the Town Hall on Wednesday evening.

Present, Mr. John Burnham, M. P., Reeve, in the chair, and Councillors Calcutt, Rogers, Forsyth and Mowry.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Mr. John Ludgate and others asking for a sidewalk from the Norwood road to the Smith street bridge.—Received.

From T. O'Connell asking for a sidewalk from Elizabeth street to Douro street on Concession street.—Received.

From John Erskine, for the McFarlane estate, complaining that property was overflowed and damaged by a defective culvert and threatening legal proceedings unless the difficulty was remedied.—Received.

ACCOUNTS.

T. Menzies..... $4.02
Lewis Glover..... 9.00

On motion of Councillor ROGERS seconded by Councillor CALCUTT the accounts were ordered to be paid.

AIDING OUR INSTITUTE.

The REEVE stated that he had been called on by a deputation of the Peterborough Board of Education in reference to aiding the Collegiate Institute, the same as had been done last year. Last year $150 had been granted but he thought $125 would be sufficient.

Councillor CALCUTT asked if there were many pupils from the village and if they were admitted on the same terms as those from town.

THE REEVE stated that quite a large number of Ashburnham pupils attended the Institute and Public Schools, and the pupils were regarded the same as if they came from town. No fault had been found with the grant last year and he expected the same this year.

Councillor CALCUTT said that there were only two men who growled and these two were the principals in asking to have such a grant made, a few years ago, but as they had their families educated now they didn't care about their neighbors.

Moved by Councillor CALCUTT, seconded by Councillor MOWRY, —That a grant of $125 be made to the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, for the current year, provided pupils from Ashburnham be admitted thereto on the same terms as Peterborough pupils.—Carried.

PECULIAR PETITION.

The Reeve remarked that the petition from John Ludgate and others bore the names of more residents of Peterborough and Douro than it did of Ashburnhamites.

A COUNCILLOR suggested that it be referred to the council of the former place.

The petition was laid over for further consideration.

REMITTING TAXES

Moved by Councillor ROGERS, seconded by Councillor MOWRY,—That Fred. Fisher's taxes be remitted as he is an indigent, and unable to earn money to pay them.

SCRAPING ROADS.

The street inspector was instructed to clean the streets as soon as possible.

The meeting then adjourned.

No Issue.

To-morrow being Good Friday, there will be be no issue of the DAILY EVENING REVIEW.

Fire Water and Gas.

An important meeting of the Fire Water and Gas committee takes place this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The Weather.

The weather to-day has been disagreeable. The weather probablities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Strong winds and gales from eastward, cloudy cool weather with local rains, followed tomorrow by southerly to southwesterly winds, and warmer weather.

Our Post Office.

We mentioned the other day some changes that had taken place in the post office, and others that were contemplated, to give greater accommodation to the public. As the Examiner claims that these changes were made at its instance, it is only fair to our efficient and obliging postmaster to say that he had formed his determination to carry them out, and had obtained the approval of the Inspector long before any suggestion appeared in our contemporary, but it was not put in force till the beginning of the quarter. The extension of the general delivery till 6.30 p.m. is well appreciated by the people.

HASTINGS.

ACCIDENT.—The Star says that while at work in his shop the other day, cutting a bar of iron, Mr. Thos. Beamish came very near loosing the sight of one of his eyes, the bolt of iron snapping and striking his left eye with great force. For some days the sight was dispared of : but owing to the skilful treatment of Dr. O'Gorman who operated on the pupil, he is likely to retain the use of so important an organ.

IF YOU ARE RUINED in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimoniais, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

TAKE CARE OF THE LITTLE ONES.—Children are the mother's idol, the father's pride ; they are entrusted to your care to guide and protect, to fill positions of honor and trust. If you truly feel the responsibility of your trust, and want to make the duties of your office as light and pleasant as possible, don't allow a slight cold to prey upon the little ones, for even a single day or night may reveal the dreaded destroyer, Croup, but a few doses of Down's Elixir, if taken in season, will banish it, as well as Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung affections. For sale by all dealers in medecine. Price 25 cents and a $1 per bottle.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

N. H. DOWNS' Vegetable Balsamic ELIXIR!

This valuable medicine is purely vegetable, the discovery of which was the result of many years' close study, in order to discover the cause, the symptoms and the cure—viz. :

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Influenza, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis,

and every species of oppression of the Chest and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir has been duly administered its efficacy has been invariably manifested, convincing the most incredulous that is not incurable, if properly attended to.—Consumption, at its commencement, is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is more observable, but rather dry; then becomes loose, fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration,

CONSUMPTION

IT HEALS THE ULCERATED SURFACES

and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are so far drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, generally destroys the hectic before the cough is entirely gone. Consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions for cure of pulmonary diseases. Price 25cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold every where.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

CANADA APPRECIATED.

EVERY mail from England brings fresh evidence of the increased attention which Canada is attracting. The Daily Telegraph of March 18th, has an editorial filling more than one of its large columns dealing with our North-western territories, and recommending them to emigrants In an adjoining article on the Naval estimates we find the following sentence:—

"To the Navy we owe the acquisition and the protection of that "Greater Britain" which gives us such a position among foreign nations."

It is evident that the colonies, and in particu- the Dominion are being appreciated more nearly at their full value than was formerly the case, but then Canada has the advantage at present of having an administration, the members of which legislate for our own, not alien interests, and advocate their own country instead of foreign states.

A Career of Prosperity.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Maine State Press, says: "The Canadian government have taken a leaf from our book and are founding their policy upon it; I mean protection to their own industries. They call it a leaf from our book; they have not the least feeling of reluctance in following our example—so far as they think it wise—nor in "Americanizing their institutions," from which our English brethren shrink in fear, if not in horror. Since Canada has adopted the American policy of protection, she has taken a new spring in the career of prosperity—which is felt in all her interests."

A Fly on the Wheel.

Grip has hit it this time. Its leading cartoon represents Mr. Mackenzie grasping the wheel of the ship "Clear Grit," while the storm of "Protection" howls about it. Upon examination it will be seen that the wheel has no connection with the rudder, and consequently the ship goes at her own sweet will. This is the truest kind of history. While Mr. Mackenzie grasped the wheel of power he had no command of the good ship of State; he was "a fly on the wheel," and she dashed wildly upon the rocks, until the crew rebelled, and removed the old captain from his place of trust.—Ottawa Citizen.

Winnipeg Crowded.

ONE hundred of the trade excursionists, four hundred immigrants in the morning and a thousand more in the evening, are items in one day's record of arrivals in Winnipeg which hardly required the sentence that follows them in the telegrams, "The city is densely crowded," to give a faint idea of the situation to a person at this distance who has read the previous accounts of churches and every possibly available building being crowded with the overflow of both hotels and immigrant sheds. It is to be hoped that this evil will not accumulate until it becomes disastrous.—Montreal Witness.

IMMIGRATION TO ONTARIO.

To the Editor of the Review:

SIR,—It will doubtless be in your recollection that a meeting was held in the Town Hall, on the 21st day of February, convened at the instance of the Rev. W. Bennet, for the purpose of devising a plan for the encouragement of immigration, by farmers possessed of some means, to this section of Ontario. It was believed that some steps should be taken to endeavour to supply the places of those who are removing to Manitoba, and that it would be more to the advantage of agriculturists from the old country to come to a settled Province, with a less severe climate, than to proceed at once to the wild far west; while, on the other hand, those who have lived for some years in Canada would be more likely to succeed in Manitoba than such as might go direct thither from England or Scotland.

I had the pleasure of attending that meeting, and, although not a member of the committee then organized, I took, and still take, an interest in their proceedings, and having subsequently noticed a short article on the same subject, in an English paper, I answered it, and I now trouble you with the following correspondence, which I think you will not object to publish, inasmuch as the question of supplying the places of those who are now leaving our county is one of very great importance.

VINCENT CLEMENTI.

Peterborough, April 6th, 1882.

LAND AND WATER, EMMIGRATION TO CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES.

The Rev. A Styleman Herring, B. A., and Mr. John James Jones, member of the School Board for London, will take out a large party of emigrants on April 26th. Any of our readers interested in intending emigrants should send for particulars to Mr. John James Jones? 98 High street, Homerton, London, England.

To John James Jones, Esq:

SIR,—Having seen your notice respecting emgration to Canada, in the impression of Land and Water dated February 4th. I take the liberty to write to you to say that we have just formed a committee consisting of clergymen of various denominations, and some laymen of influence, including one of our members, in the town of Peterborough, for the purpose of conveying useful information to farmers possessed of some capital, who intend leaving England with a view of settling in the older districts of Canada. There is no doubt that those who have resided for some years in this section of the Dominion, and who have thus become acclimated, will make better settlers in Manitoba than such as go thither direct from Europe, and as many of our farmers are leaving our neighborhood with the object of obtaining free grant lands on certain settlement conditions, from the Government, or, irrespective of those conditions, lands at $2.50 per acre, in Manitoba, we are prepared to furnish lists of improved farms for sale in this county, with all particulars respecting locality, acreage, soil, price, &c.

Our chief object is to invite attention to such vacant farms as are within easy access of various churches, schools, markets, etc. We have no intention, in our organization, to act as mere land agents, our object being a purely philanthropic one, without any thought of or desire for pecuniary renumeration.

If Mr. Herring and yourself are disposed to assist us in the promotion of this object we shall be happy to place ourselves in communication with you.

VINCENT CLEMENTI.

Peterborough, Feb. 21, 1882.

To Rev. V. Clementi, B. A.:

MY DEAR SIR,—I am in receipt of your favor of the 21st ultimo, and in reply beg to say that I shall be pleased to do all I can to assist you in your efforts to obtain settlers in your particular district you will supply me, if with all the information you can so that I can inform intending emigrants, who apply to me, of the advantages your district offers.

Awaiting your further communication, and thanking you for the information already given, I am, dear sir,

Yours very faithfully,

JOHN JAMES JONES, H.H.B.

London, England, March 14, 1882.

P. S.—Having, from various circumstances, been unable to write to Mr. Jones again, in acknowledgement of his communication, I now leave the matter in the hands of the committee.

VINCENT CLEMENTI.

P. B. C.

To the Editor of The Review.

SIR,—Allow me through your columns to stir up the members of the Boating Club to take a more active interest in its affairs by at least attending the annual meeting and electing competent and active men to office for the ensuing year. We want men on the committee who will attend meetings when called and work for the interests of the club. Let us have a full turn out at the Boat House on Monday evening next instead of a bare quorum.

Yours truly,

A MEMBER.

BELLEVILLE

SUICIDE.—The Intelligencer says that Mrs. Betsy Ray, a woman aged about 60 years, living near Ivanhoe, about 18 miles from the city on the Madoc road, committed suicide by taking strychnine on Thursday afternoon. The cause of the act was that she was not satisfied with the way in which her husband, who died last fall, had disposed of his property. He willed the bulk of his estate to his three sons, and since his death Mrs. Ray repeatedly expressed her dissatisfaction in strong terms. She complained that she had been left out in the cold, and frequently threatened to throw herself on the railway track. No doubt her mind was affected. It was not believed that she she would put her threats into execution; but on Thursday, shortly after dinner, she horrified the family by quietly informing them that she had taken a powerful dose of strychnine. A physician was hastily sent for; but it was too late. In ten minutes from the time she took the poison, she was a corpse. It was not considered necessary to hold an inquest.

REVIEWS

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE certainly stands at the head of children's periodicals, and the current number is even better than usual. The letter press is both amusing and instructive without being too deep for young readers, and the illustrations are excellent. "Sleep, baby, sleep" is an artistic gem, and the "Clown's duel," is irresistibly comic.

IMPORTANT ARREST.

DUBLIN, April 7.—Mr. Fitzpatrick, supposed to be secretary of the Dublin branch of Fenians, was arrested there yesterday.

IN TROUBLE.

VIENNA, April 7.—Mr. Welsics, correspondent at Ragusa of several Servian and Russian papers, has been sentenced by court-martial to a month's imprisonment for being in league with Panslavic agents in Krivoscie.

TORPEDO EXPLOSION.

PARIS, April 7.—A torpedo exploded at Toulon to-day as eleven sailers were about to throw it into the sea. Three were killed and eight seriously injured.

A BAD IMPRESSION,

LONDON, April 7.—A bad impression has been prodnced at Berlin by the nomination of M. Deljaneoff as Russian Minister of Public Instruction. M. Deljaneoff is a violent Slavophil.

PRECAUTIONS AT BARCELONA.

BARCELONA, April 7.—A naval division has arrived there, also three brigades of soldiers. An anonymous proclamation has been circulated encouraging the tradesmen to persevere in their opposition to the Franco-Spanish treaty.

FEARS OF A MASSACRE.

VIENNA April 7.—The Russian authorities are taking great precautions against a renewal of the anti-Jewish disturbances at Easter. Two thousand one hundred persons with unsatisfactory papers have been expelled from Kieoff. Grave apprehensions exist at Warsaw of a renewal of the outbreaks against the Jews. Placards have been posted threatening the Jews, who are in great terror. The Government has ordered the shops to be closed, and great military precautions are being taken.

VIRULENT ATTACK.

PARIS, April 7.—A virulent attack by the Republique Francaise on the Cabinet creates a sensation. The article accuses the Ministry of disorganizing the administration, destroying the springs of Government, and falsifying the parliamentary system.

THE FRENCH IN AFRICA.

ALGIERS, April 7.—A French column has completely defeated Bou Amena's forces, capturing his provision train and twenty-six of his women. Almost all his fighting men were killed or captured. Bou Amena escaped.

IRISH AMERICAN SUSPECTS.

LONDON, April 7.—The Times says the attempt to excite a popular agitation against England on the ground of the detention of the Irish-American suspects in Ireland has proved a signal failure, and served only to show that the the great majority of the American people are friendly towards the Mother Country, and appreciate rationally and wisely the obligations of international comity.

PORTE AND BULGARIA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 7.—The Porte, replying to the complaints of Bulgaria of the movement of Turkish troops near the frontier, states that Bulgaria, being aware that efforts are making to produce a revolutionary movement, should not be surprised at the efforts of the Porte to guard its Macedonian frontier.

PROTECTION IN SPAIN.

MADRID, April 7.—A meeting to-day, organized by Catalonian workmen, denounced free trade, and declared that the treaty of commerce with France would be ruinous to Spanish industry, which the Government ought to foster by imposing high duties on foreign products.

AMERICAN.

DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING.

BUFFALO, April 7.—About half-past six o'clock last evening during the progress of the storm, lightning struck the frame barns of Mr. Chas. L. Abel, at Hamburg, and caused their total destruction. The barns contained, in addition to the usual aggregation of farming implements and agricultural property, a large number of valuable cattle, horses and hogs. Among the former were a number of very valuable Jerseys, which were saved. Of the live stock burned there were seven head of other cattle, five valuable horses, and a number of hogs. The loss will amount to more than the insurance, which is $8,205.

THE PERUVIAN MATTER.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Mr. Shipherd's examination this afternoon resulted in the production of seven letters from General Hurlbut, in which he advises Mr. Shipherd that he could do nothing without instructions from the department, and suggesting activity on the part of the claimants. Mr. Shipherd's letters to General Hurlbut were next read. They are characteristic, and similar to those already published. An adulatory letter from Mr. Shipherd to Mr. Walker Blaine was read. The only reply was a statement from Senator Blair that Mr. Blaine wanted no correspondence with any of his assistants. He believed General Hurlbut was hostile to his claim, because he failed to see in it a clear case. The Blaine correspondence, as yet unpublished, will be produced to-morrow.

JESSE JAMES MURDER.

KEARNEY, Mo., April 7.—The town was thronged with people all day yesterday. The body of the late Jesse James, the dead outlaw, lay in state at Kearney house all the forenoon, and the funeral was held in the Baptist church, the services being conducted by the Rev. B. R. Jones, Rev. Mr. Martin in his discourse said, as the life and career of the deceased and the circumstances of his taking off were known, he would confine his remarks to the hope and incouragement of the living. The funeral cortege moved to the old homestead, and the remains of the bandit were taken into the house of his mother, Mrs. Samuels. Mrs. Samuels and James wept over the corpse, and called down the vengeance of Almight God upon the slayer of the "poor innocent boy." The women were greatly excited. A sermon was again preached at the house, and the remains were then taken to the little graveyard on the hillside. The bandit's widow is dangerously ill, and his half-brother John is dying. A solid wall of plank was built over the coffin, and then stone filled in on top. Armed men watched the grave last night.

"MADE NEW AGAIN."—Mrs. Wm. D. Ryckman, St. Catherines, Ont., says: "R. V. Pierce Buffalo, N. Y., I have used your Favorite Prescription,' "Golden Medical Discovery, and Pleasent Purgative Pellets, for the last three months and find myself—(what shall I say)—made new again, are the only words that express It. I was reduced to a skeleton, could not walk across the floor without fainting, could keep nothing in the shape of food on my stomach. Myself and friends had given all hope, my immediate death seemed certain. I now live (to the surprise of everybody) and am able to do my own work."

CHEAP TRANSPORTATION.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The high prices in Chicago for grain have brought the movement of freight eastward almost to a stand still. In their anxiety to secure freight it is suspected that the trunk lines make contracts at less than tariff rules. Railway agents received telegrams yesterday from steamship agents at Boston, offering to carry wheat to Liverpool for nothing, but none was secured. Later they proposed to pay a premium of several cents, but met with no better success.

DEAD.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Representative Thos. Allen, of Missouri, who had been ill several days, died this morning.

SUSPENDED.

POUKEEPSIE, April 8.—The Steel Company has suspended. They claim that the embarrassment is only temporary. They have a capital of $150,000.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Tribune says there is evidence showing that Whitlaw Reid's famous despatch to John Hay, was stolen by Jules Guthridge an operator at Washington.

A STATE'S DEBT.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 8.—It is generally understood in Legislative circles that the state's creditors will present a proposition next week to settle the debt of Tennessee, by a new issue of bonds on a basis of six per cent. Yesterday it was believed that such a proposition would be adopted. The debt including interest now amount to $28,000,000.

SOUTHERN FLOODS.

MORGAN CITY, La., April 8.—The outlook here is regarded as more cheerful. At Bagon, Bante and Duck Lakes the water is 15 feet deep, and in 12 hours it swept 20 houses away. The people are suffering severely.

A POLITICAL POINT.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Time's Washington special says the nomination of Worthington as collector at Boston, is the subject of considerable discussion. It is regarded as placing the Massachusetts senators in the position occupied by Conkling and Platt, when Robertson was nominated.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1882.

PRACTICAL AND THEORETICAL.

THE Globe in its editorial department maintains the theory that the amount of the duty is added to the cost of articles whether imported or manufactured in Canada. Its commercial reporters and its business staff, having to deal with facts, do not countenance this theory. The following is an announcement issued from the Globe office as a means of canvassing for business:—

THE DUTY.

On Printed Matter coming into Canada is now 20 PER CENT, and 6 CENTS PER POUND.

Send your orders to the Globe Printing Co., Toronto, and save this expense.

It will be seen that the Globe Printing Co., does not invite customers to come to its office and have the amount of the duty added to the cost, but to come to it and save this expense. So the Globe office does not add the duty when doing business, but only when printing editorials. It knows well that other business firms act on the same principle. It also knows that the Globe Printing Co. and other industrial firms, are doing a larger business through the Canadian market being secured for them and that without raising prices they have thus made greater profits.

A DESPICABLE ANTAGONIST.

THE Lindsay Post can only reply to us by abuse, and deliberately repeats its falsehoods that it reprinted an "article" that appeared in the REVIEW in 1870, whereas it really garbled the article, omitting both the begining and end, because they would show that the REVIEW twelve years ago, virtually anticipated and advocated the National Policy. The Post is still unable to find space to explain why it insinuated that farmers have to pay more for their agricultural implements, when in fact they have to pay less since the present tariff was adopted.

AN ILLOGICAL ADVOCATE.

The Toronto Daily Telegram, an independant journal, thus forcibly exposes the inconsistency of the opposition to the present tariff:—

"Than the Globe's attitude towards the N. P. nothing could be more illogical or stupid. One day it tells the farmer that he is being robbed to create wealth for a few blood sucking manufacturers, who will spend their ill-gotten gains abroad. Next day it tells the said blood-sucker that he is being crushed even to the verge of ruin by the excessive duties on his raw materials. Then it takes up the cause of the poor working man and shows him how heavily protection bears upon the necessities of life, at the same time assuring the farmer that he reaps no benefit from the tariff.

THE difference between "a tariff for revenue only," and a protective one on the growth of our cities is well illustrated by the fact that Toronto's population only increased from 71,693 in 1872 to 73,813 in 1878 under the tariff for revenue only, and that it increased from the last named figure in 1878 to 86,445 in 1881 "in spite of the N. P." That is, to reduce the thing to Mr. Wood's percentages, nearly a gain of 16 per cent, "in spite of the N. P.," as against a gain of less than 3 per cent under the beneficial influence of Mr. Mackenzie's tariff for revenue only—we prefer to live in spite of the N. P."

"HANDS UP JESSE."

Details of the Killing of the Noted Desperado Jesse James.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 3.—Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning Jesse James, the Missouri outlaw, before who the deeds of "Fra Diavolo," and "Dick Turpin" shrink into insignifiance, was killed by a boy 20 years old named Robert Ford, at his temporary residence on Third and Lafayette streets, in this city. In the light of all moral reasoning the shooting was wholly unjustifiable, but the law is vindicated, and the $50,000 reward offered by the State for the body of the brigand, dead or alive, will doubtless go the man who has had courage enough to draw a revolver on the notorious outlaw when his back was turned, as in this case. There is a little doubt that the killing was the result of a premeditated plan formed by Robert and Charles Ford several months ago. Charles had been an accomplice of Jesse James since the 3rd of last November, and entirely possessed his confidence. Robert Ford, his brother, joined Jesse James near Mrs. Samuel's house, the mother of the James boys, last Friday a week ago, and accompanied Jesse and Charles to this city.

Jesse, his wife and two children, removed from Kansas, where they had lived several months, until they feared their whereabouts would be suspected, in a wagon to this city, arriving here in November 8, 1881, accompanied by Ford, and rented a house on the corner of Lafayette and Twenty-first streets, where they stayed two months, when they secured house 1318 on Lafayette street, formerly the property of Councilman Aylesbury, paying $14 a month for it, and giving the name of Thomas Howard. The house is a one-story cottage painted white, with green shutters, and romantically situated on the brow of a lofty eminence east of this city, commanding a fine view of the principal part of the city, the river and railroads, and adapted by nature for the perilous and desperate calling of James.

Just east of the house is a deep gulch like a ravine, and beyond a broad expanse of open country backed by a belt of timber. The house, except from the west side, can be seen for several miles. There is a large yard attached to the cottage, and a stable, where Jesse had been keeping two horses, which were found there this morning. Charles and Robert Ford have been occupying one of the rooms in the rear of the dwelling, and have secretly had an understanding to kill Jesse since last fall. A short time ago the latter proposed to rob the bank at Platte City. He said the Burgess murder trial would commence there to-day, and his plan was if they could get another companion to take a view of the situation of the Platte City Bank, while the arguments were being heard in the murder case, which would naturally engage the attention of the citizens, boldly execute one of his favorite raids. Charles Ford approved of the plan and suggested his brother Robert as a companion worthy of sharing the enterprise with them. Jesse had met the boy at the latter's house near Richmond three years ago and had consented to see him. The two men accordingly went to where Robert was and arranged to have him accompany them to Platte City as stated. All three came to St. Joseph a week ago Sunday. They remained at the house all the week. Jesse thought it best that Robert should not exhibit himself on the premises, least the presence of three able-bodied men, who were doing nothing, should excite suspicion. They had fixed upon the night to go to Platte City. Ever since the boys had been with Jesse they had watched for an opportunity to shoot him. But he was also so heavily armed that it was impossible to draw a weapon without him seeing it. They declare that they had no idea of taking him alive, considering the undertaking suicidal. The opportunity they had so long wished for came this morning. Breakfast was over. Charley Ford and Jesse James had been in the stable currying the horses preparatory to their night ride. On returning to the room where Robert Ford was, Jesse said:—"It is an awfully hot day." He pulled off his coat and vest and tossed them on the bed. Then he said:—"I guess I'll take off my pistols for fear somebody will see them if I walk in the yard." He unbuckled the belt in which he carried two forty-five calibre revolvers, one a Smith & Wesson, and the other a Colt, and laid them on the bed with his coat and vest. He then picked up a dusting brush with the intention of dusting some pictures which hung on the wall. To do this he got on a chair.

He back was now turned to the brothers, who silently stepped between Jesse and his revolvers, and at a motion from Charley, both drew their guns. Robert was the quickest of the two. In one motion he had a long weapon on a level with his eye with the muzzle no more than four feet from the back of the outlaw's head. Even in that motion, quick as thought, there was something which did not escape the acute ears of the hunted man. He made a motion as if to turn his head to ascertain the cause of that suspicious sound, but too late. A nervous pressure on the trigger, a quick flash, a sharp report, and a well-directed ball crashed through the outlaw's skull. There was no outcry, just a swaying of the body, and it fell heavily back upon the carpeted floor. The shot had been fatal, and all the bullets in the chambers of Charler's revolvers, still directed at Jesse's head could not more effectually have decided the fate of the greatest bandit and free-booter than ever figured in the pages of a country's history. The ball had entered the base of the skull and made its way out through the forehead over the left eye. It had been fired out of a Colt's 45 improved pattern, silver-mounted and pearl-handled, presented by the dead man to his slayer only a few days ago. Mrs. James was in the kitchen when the shooting was done, divided from the room in which the bloody tragedy occurred by a dining-room. She heard the shot, and dropping her household duties ran into the front room. The saw her husband lying on his back, and his slayers, each holding his revolver in his hand making for the fence in the rear of the house. Robert had reached the inclosure and was in the act of scaling it when she stepped to the door and called to him:—"Robert, you have done this; come back." Robert answered:—"I swear to God I did not." They then returned to where she stood. Mrs. James ran to the side of her husband and lifted up his head. Life was not yet extinct, but when she asked him if he was hurt it seemed to her that he wanted to say something, but could not. She tried to wash away the blood that was coursing over his face from the hole in his forehead, but it seemed to her "that the blood would come faster than she could wash it away," and in her hands Jesse James died. Charles Ford explained to Mrs. James that a pistol had accidentally gone of." Yes, said Mrs. James, "I guess it went off on purpose," and meanwhile Charley had gone back into the house, and brought out two hats, and the two boys left the house. They went to the telegraph office and sent messages to Sheriff Timberlake, of Clay County, to Gov. Crittenden and other officers and then surrendered themselves to Marshall Craig and a posse of officers had gone in the direction of the James residence, and they started after them and surrendered themselves. They accompanied the officers to the house, and returned in custody of the police to the Marshal's headquarters, where they were furnished with dinner, and, about 3 o'clock were removed to the old Circuit room, where the inquest was held in the presence of an immense crowd. Mrs. James also accompanied the officers to the City Hill, having previously left her two children, aged 7 and 3, a boy and a girl, at the house of Mrs. Turnall, who had known the James under their assumed name of Howard ever since they had occupied the adjoining house. She was greatly affected by the tragedy, and her heart rending moans and expressions of grief were sorrowful evidence of the love she bore the dead desperado.

CANADA AT CHICAGO.

A correspondent of the Montreal Witness writes from Chicago as follows:—"Yesterday, Tuesday, I had the opportunity of being driven through the lumber district by Mr. Wilce, senior partner of Thomas Wilce & Co. Mr. Wilce is an old Montrealer, having arrived there from Cornwall forty years ago, and engaged for for several years in business as contractor. In 1848 he removed to Chicago, where he continued his contracting. Having secured a competence before the fire, he retired from business, but two or three years after entered the conflict again, having secured possession of a planing mill, which now does the largest amount of work of any in Chicago. About five years ago he added to this a lumber yard at the corner of 22nd and Throop streets, with a frontage of 400 feet by 250 in depth, where annually is handled about 14,000,000 feet of lumber. This is in addition to the 5,500,000 shingles and 32,000,000 feet of lumber consumed in the planing mill. In the planing mill ten machines are at work, running at the highest rate of speed. The employees are mostly Bohemians, and a number of women and girls of that race were engaged in gathering the shavings from around the machines into immense bags, so large and heavy that it was as much as I could do to lift one. These they attach to their shoulders by means of straps and carry to their homes, a mile or more away. These women are the best featured and healthiest looking I have seen in Chicago, with, of course, an occasional exception. Mr. Wilce showed me the plan for feeding the furnaces below the boilers, which was invented by a former engineer. The shavings were made to fall into the furnace like snow in a heavy storm, and as it fell it was consumed, the combustion being perfect. This is a great saving of labor, the fireman being able to regulate the fall by means of a switch, while an automatic poker swaying from side to side kept the fire constantly stirred. In rear of the planing mill is a very large sash and door factory, in which Mr. Wilce's son is an equal partner. Here are made all kinds of articles for use in the building and finishing of houses in the great North-West.

SPRINGTIME AND HOPE.

The wintry days are passing by
And spring is coming fast ;
The sun stays longer in the sky
Each evening, than the last ;
Though dark the days sometimes appear,
Hope sees a path through all,
The time for songs of birds draws near,
Come back at summer's call.

They come ! to wake the sleeping flowers
The tender fern and spray
Of grasses, which have passed the hours
Of winter, far away
Under the leaves of the past year,
Deep in kind mother earth
Warmly cherished ; the time draws near
The day to give them birth.

So, in our lives come wintry days,—
Barren and cold and bare ;
Useless we deem them, in all ways,
Bemoan they in our prayer.
Fear that the storm will always last,
True peace return no more,
Forget the brighter moments past,
In happy days of yore.

Oh ! let the voice of coming spring,
Revive the drooping heart.
Fresh words of hope and comfort bring,
To heal the secret smart.
Tell of flowers ready to bloom
When ice and snow are gone,
And birds to flit with varied plume
The rustling trees among.

All teach of patient love and trust
While wintry days remain,
Though hope sinks to the very dust,
Summer will come again ;
Brighter sunshine and calmer peace,
Felt in unnumbered ways,
Ever till time itself shall cease,
Will there be glad spring days.

LIFE AND AGE OF A TELEGRAPH POLE.

This subject may seem of trival account to the great mass of business people, but when it is proved to them that it actually affects the cost and convenience of telegraph messages and of dividends to stockholders, an interest may be awakened that will make the inquiry on the subject one of unusual interest, inasmuch as it affects the high or low price of rates for messages. The original cost of the erection of telegraph lines is important, but not so important in a series of thirty or forty years as is that of its maintenance in working order during that period. Some of the lines now owned and used by the Western Union Telegraph Company were first built more than forty years ago. When one is told that they have been built three or four times since that at great expense, it would seem to lead to the conclusion that a large amount of capital is necessary to represent the actual cost of the telegraph lines which have been in existance for many years.

The size of a telegraph pole has much to do with the duty which it is expected to do—that is, the number of wires it is calculated to carry. Many telegraph companies now owned by the Western Union Telegraph Company of to-day were organized and there lines built many years ago, before the organization of the "N. Y. and Missippi Valley Printing Telegraph Company" in 1851, its name being changed to that of the "Western Union Telegraph Company" in 1856, by an act of legislature of New York State.

The contract to build the original line required that the posts be not less than thirty feet long and twenty-seven inches or more in circumference, four and a half feet from the butt, and twelve inches in circumference at the top, and set in the ground five feet. There were to be at least thirty of these posts to the mile, and they were to carry two lines of iron wire, one of which should weigh not less than six hundred pounds to the mile, and the other not less than four hundred and fifty pounds to the mile. These posts were to be of the best and most durable timber obtainable along the route they were stationed. These posts were intended for light lines only. When it was found necessary to increase the number of wires it was necessary to have larger and more heavy poles, not necessarily much taller only in cities and large towns.

When considered apart from any local catastrophe or universal storm, the poles which were cut in winter were found to last as follows, according to the wood used, without being renewed :—Cedar, 16 years ; chesnut, 13 years ; these are used in the Eastern, Middle, and Western States. Juniper and cypress are used in the Southern States, and redwood is used in California. Spruce lasts 7 years and juniper 13 years. If poles are cut in the summer their life will be about five years shorter than if cut in the winter. The soil in which they are set, and also the atmosphere and sunlight, have much to do with their life, for if one breaks off at the surface of the ground, or near the surface, as is usually the case, it will be five feet or more shorter than the others, and hence it is generally regarded as unfit to reset, and a new one must take its place. In some location this is provided for by having all the poles long enough to reset if they are sound enough for it to be economical to do so. The average period of the usefulness of a pole under ordinary circumstances is as above mentioned. It is seldom that mixed woods are used on a line ; they are all of one kind of wood.

The official return of the Western Union Telegraph Company to the Superintendent of the United States Census, in July last, shows the following facts as to the poles used during the year :—Average length of poles, 27 feet ; diameter at top, 6 inches ; kind of wood used, cedar, chestnut, juniper, cypress, and redwood. These poles were obtained in all parts of the United States and in Canada. The average cost of each pole delivered without freight was one dollar and two cents. All these poles were round, except about one-fiftieth, which were sawed or squared. No process was used for preserving poles, and their average life, according to the wood used and the location where set, was twelve to fifteen years, and most durable wood in favorable situations did not exceed twenty-five years. The woods preferred were red cedar, white cedar, chestnut and redwood. It is to be observed that pine and hemlock are not used. It may be remarked here that American telegraph poles make an agreeable contrast with the crooked and unsightly larch poles used in England.

The falling of a pole generally does much damage to the arms, insulators and wires. If they were all put up new at once, plain wire will last from twelve to fifteen years, and the galvanized wire used at the present day, being the best conductor, will last in the most favorable atmosphere for from sixteen to twenty years, but no longer ; and where there are strains by poles or wires falling they will not last so long, and in cities and large towns, where there is much gas and moisture, it will not last more than two or three years. At all events, when a line begins to be about ten or twelve years old, and has plain wire, it is regarded as unreliable, and the safest and most economical way is to rebuild it throughout of new materials. The cost of constant repair and isolated and frequent transportation of posts and other materials, and the labor of repairs and resetting, are almost as much in a short time as it would to rebuild. The gauge of wire and the number of pounds to the mile are as follows : No. 4, 730 pounds ; No. 6, 540 pounds ; No. 8, 380 pounds ; No. 9, 320 pounds.

From these facts we can see that a telegraph line that is thirty-six years old has been entirely rebuilt three times at least under the usual course of things, and that it may have been nearly four times rebuilt. The trunk lines of the Western Union Telegraph Co. were first built more than thirty years ago, and nearly all of their lines have been rebuilt at least once. Where a line is built for only a few wires and it is proved that more are required it is then necessary to rebuild it entirely, with longer poles, and in such cases all wires are also put up new, if they are expected to be in constant use.

The maintenance in working order of continual expense to provide for the wear and tear incident thereto, the same as is the case with railroad lines, where it is always calculated that there are to be a certain proportion of new ties, rails, etc., every year, and it is charged to the maintenance account and reckoned as part of the cost of running the road.—Journal of the Telegraph.

Turnbull & Gray have just to hand another lot of that superior make of Black Cashmere.

NOT SUMMER YET.

The bright spring days, because warmer than winter, delude children with the idea that summer has come, and this delusion often keeps the doctors uncommonly busy in the early spring months. A little more care, and exercise of common sense, would prevent half the cases of sickness. It pays to provide children with rubbers. Few parents properly teach children the use of head-covering. It would be a safe rule to impress upon them that some covering on the head should always be worn out of doors when the air is cool or damp, as well as in the bright sunshine, at any season of the year—in short, fix the habit of putting something on the head wherever they step out of doors. If found burdensome, on a warm day in the shade, it may be temporarily removed, but always be near at hand ; also some light coat or shawl for protection out of doors as the weather changes, while the thick outer garments worn during the severest winter weather are unsuited to spring months, it is most unreasonable to pass from the heavy wraps to none at all. Some warm April days tempt the inexperienced to take off underflannels, but it is seldom safe in April to remove the winter flannels unless thinner ones are substituted. For the children it seems most seasonable, if the weather favors the change, to leave off the flannels on Saturday night, when the weekly bath is taken. But in our family the flannels worn during the day are always taken off at bed-time for an all-night airing, and the winter under-flannels (home made garments of wool), preceded in fall and followed in spring by long-sleeved high-necked garments, of unbleached cotton, with thinner ones for summer. We must be guided by the weather rather than by the calendar in our charges of garments ; and put on and resume the flannels if a cold snap comes on, even through it may last but a few days. If this is not done the needed warmth of clothing should be sought by putting on extra outer garments—sacks and skirts.

A great proportion of our colds results from insufficient clothing, but many are caused by remaining in unheated rooms in cool weather. If the bright sunshine and warm air make a fire burdensome at midday, the mornings and evenings are often chilly. We think it will soon be bed-time, and it is hardly worth while to build a fire. So we go to bed with cold feet and in a chilled condition, and are all "out of sorts" next day.

What Protection Has Done.

Under the above heading the Lumberman's Gazette of Bay City, Michigan, has the following editorial. There is many reasons why protection should be equally beneficial to us :—"There is nothing which argues so strongly in favor of protection as the financial and commercial career of the United States in the past 20 years. During that time the entire property of the country has increased fram $16,000,000,000 to $38.000,000,000, though in that time 4,500,000 men were lost to the country's wealth by the war. The manufacturing power and products of the country have nearly tripled, the United States at this time turning out cotton and woolen fabrics more than one-fifth as much as entire Europe, while possessing one-sixth as much population. The entire manufactures of the United States are equal to one-fourth of the total produced by Europe. In the same period we have built more than 60,000 miles of railroad, and since 1865 have paid off $800,000,000 of national debt, and reduced our annual interest on the same to the extent of $70,000,000. In the same period our home commerce has increased more than three fold, our foreign trade has suffered but increased, while the financial prestige and commercial worth of the United States is much greater than it was in 1860."

Undeserved Sneers.

The Journal of Commerce rebukes as follows: the leader of the Dominion opposition and others for their sneers as Mr. Peter Redpath :—"The principal management of the (sugar refining) business has for many years devolved on Mr. Drummond, while Mr. Redpath has devoted his leisure, and a considerable portion of his income, to the promotion of various objects of usefulness in his native city. The taunts to which he has been subjected owing to his recent munificent donation of a museum to McGill University are certainly in very bad taste, especially coming from the Chancellor of the University of Toronto, an institution largely endowed by the Province of Ontario. Mr. Redpath has never been an active politician, and we venture to assert has never actively interfered with the fiscal policy of the Government. Wherever he may live, we feel assured that his native city will continue to occupy a large share of his thoughts, and to benefit by his wealth, whether inherited or acquired by the legitimate investment of his capital."

A Police Sergeant Shoots Himself

KINGSTON, April 5.—To-day at noon Patrick Nugent, who has been a policeman since 1858 and for many years sergeant, shot himself in the head. Embarrassment had demented him and incapacitated him for service. He had been on leave of absence for some time. He has been getting worse instead of better. He managed to elude his friends, and purchasing a revolver from one who did not know of his lunacy went into an adjoining yard and blew out his brains. He is momentarily expected to die.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic ; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcules which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Presbytery of Peterborough.

An adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Peterborough. was held in Hastings on the 5th inst. Messrs. Torrance, Bell, Sutherland and Bennett, ministers, and Messrs. Roxburgh and Douglas, elders, were present. The minutes of the last sederunt of the regular meeting in Peterborough was read. The application of the congregation of Hastings for separation from Norwood was first considered. It was found that the parties interested had been notified to attend. Messrs. Fife, Peters, and James Fowlds were heard in support of the application There was laid on the table ; a subscription list to the amount of over $600 on behalf of a settled pastor, should the request of the congregation for separation be granted. Messrs. Roxburgh, Anderson, Burgess and Findlay were heard on behalf of the congregation of Norwood. These brethren stated that the congregation of Norwood would not oppose the separation and that they themselves were prepared to contribute $700 per annum toward a settled pastor. After lengthened conference among themselves, and with the Presbytery the congregation of Hastings intimated their purpose also to contribute $700 towards a settled pastor in the event of their becoming an independant charge. It was then moved by Mr. Sutherland, seconded by Mr. Bell, and carried unanimously,—That inasmuch as the Hastings congregation requests a separation from the Norwood congregation and guarantee a minimum stipend of $700 to a setled pastor, and inasmuch as the Norwood congregation offer no objection to the separation, and has also guaranteed a minimum stipend of $700 (with manse) to a settled pastor, the request be granted, the separation to take effect on the 16th inst., and that the Presbytery expresses satisfaction with the liberal spirit manifested by both congregations. Mr. Bennet was appointed to preach in Norwood and Hastings, on the 16th inst., and to notify these congregations of the action of Presbytery in relation to them. Mr. Sutherland was appointed moderator of the session of Hastings and Mr. Bennett, moderator of the session of Norwood during the period that these congregations may remain vacant. They were authorized also to take the usual steps so soon as the people shall be prepared to call. Mr. Stevenson ordained missionary at Minden received instruction as to the steps to be taken in the way of obtaining an addition to the eldership in Minden and Kinmount. A circular was read from the Clerk of the Presbytery of Kingston to the effect that it was the intention of that Presbytery to ask leave of the General Assembly to receive as a minister of the Church the Rev. Godfrey Shere, formerly a minister of the Nova Scotia Methodist Conference. The Presbytery adjourned to meet again in St. Paul's Church, Peterborough, on Tuesday, the 2nd of May, at 2 o'clock p.m., and was closed with prayer and the benediction.

Lumbering.

Messrs. R. & G. Strickland, of Lakefield, the purchasers of the Dominion Bank limits in the County of Victoria, Ont., have taken out during the last winter 6,000 pieces of timber, and logs to the extent of ten and a half millions of lumber. It is estimated that this is about a tenth of the production of the whole limit. Messrs. R. Dobell & Co., of Quebec, after examining the timber, purchased the whole lot at prices more than five cents a foot above their last year's sales, and they say that the quality is equal to any timber they have examined this season. Messrs. Strickland have been offered $16 a thousand for their merchantable timber. They have been shipping by Toronto, but next season they hope to ship by the Midland Railway, owing to the contemplated completion of the Sault Ste. Marie branch.

The Band.

On Good Friday afternoon the Fire Brigade Band gave an open air Concert (sacred) on George street. They played a number of sacred selections in their usual good style, thus showing that they are "at home" on this as well as all other classical music. The Euphonium solo by Mr. E. McCabe was especially well rendered, being a difficult and intricate movement. We hope that this summer some steps will be taken to secure a suitable place for the band to give their excellent music to the citizens. Who will move in the matter.

EASTER BEEF.

Our Butchers make a Grand Display, and Show the Best to be Had.

Easter, like Christmas, comes but once a year and when it does come our butchers are prepared, and generally show a stock of meat that cannot be surpassed in any town in Canada. On this occasion they were not one whit behind, but rather ahead, and the exhibit at the market this morning was the best we have ever seen here.

The butchers have been very busy during the past two or three days making preparations, and the result of their labors was plainly discernable to the large number of persons that passed through the shambles and admired the display that would have tickled the pallet of a genuine "beefeater" of "beefeaters."

As it is always the case the smiling face of our friend Harry Winch was the first to greet us as we entered the market, and his show of beef was great, in fact the best that he or any person else has ever shown here. He occupied the two stalls on the left hand side and they were fairly hidden by the beef, lamb, mutton and pork that hung in front. Colored bunting, flags, banners and variegated flowers and rosets adorned the display, while the names of our leading citizens, neatly written on cards were discernable on all the choice "tit bits." Roasters, or young sucking pigs with lemons in their mouths, looked cunning and were fondly patted by the youngsters. They were real beauties and were fed by Mr. Larmour, of Otonabee. The cattle mentioned in the REVIEW a week ago were all there, and fully came up to expectations, while the giant calf fed by Mr. Ed. Sutton was indeed a monster. Taken altogether, Harry's display was extra good, and we doubt very much if it was surpassed in the Province.

Messrs. Laplant and Heather also had admirable displays that reflected credit on their judgment as buyers, and gave good satisfaction to their many customers, who crowded their stalls from an early hour.

Of the outside butchers Messrs. Wainwright and Brother had the largest display, and as is customary with them, as far as quality is concerned, they stood in the front rank. Their shop was nicely decorated with banners, mottoes and ribbons, which gave it a gay appearance.

On motion of Dr. HOURIGAN, seconded by Mr. McGRATH,—The Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer were authorized to borrow money to an amount not exceeding $1,000, to meet pecuniary obligations, until the Board, are placed in funds by the Town Treasurer, and for that purpose to make or endorse such promissory notes as may be necessary.

The Board then adjourned.

No. 1 Company.

The match between two squads of the company for the cup presented by Col. Rogers took place yesterday, and was won by Sergt. Lech's team by seven points. The men advanced as skirmishers firing at uncertain distances wherever they were ordered to halt. As a first experiment in skirmishing practice the match was a success. The members of the winning team then shot off for the cup at 400 and 500 yards. Private C. Shaw headed the list and carried off the prize. Col. Sergt. Cocks won the sweepstakes.

The Weather.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes—Wind increasing to strong breeze or a moderate gail from the east, veering on Sunday to south and southwest. Fair to-day local rains possibly thunder to-morrow.

A Correction.

Mr. Wm. Fair, the gentleman who owns the farms where the unfortunate man Reid met his death, desires us to state that Reid was not working at the sawing machine when kicked by the horse. He was leading the animal to the stable after finishing his day's work, and at the full length of the halter the horse kicked and struck Reid on the head.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.' This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

HABILIMENT HALL.

TWEEDS! TWEEDS!

The manufacture of Tweed originated at Galashiels, and early in the present century took root in the towns of the "Tweed" Valley, whence it is commonly supposed the name "Tweed" arose ; but, in reality, the name is due to a mistaken reading of "Tweel," under which term the fabric was originally known.—GLOBE ENCY.

DUNDAS TRAGEDY.

Further Evidence at the Coroner's Inquest —No Additional Light.

HAMILTON, April 5.—This evening the adjourned inquest to enquire into the Poole murder case was resumed at the City hall, Dundas. Further evidence of the mysterious affair was taken, but without throwing much light on the question as to who the guilty party is. Among the witnesses examined were John Johnstone, a chum of the deceased, Wm. Johnstone, John's father, Brown a barber, and the medical gentlemen who made the post-mortem. No clue to the murderer has yet been brought out in the evidence. The jury adjourned for two weeks for further evidence.

LIFE, when we pause to contemplate the hurrying throng rushing madly through the world, is too brief to spend much of it in pain, especially when a fifty cent bottle of St. Jacobs Oil will afford immediate relief. Millions say so, and they seem to know whereof they speak. The La Fayette (Ind.) Courier, in a late issue, says : Mr. Wendling, who, as many of our readers may know, was a short time ago seriously afflicted with severe sickness, stated that while thus confined to bed for five weeks, during which his left leg was powerless, his attention was called to a statement in the Courier of the wonderful cures effected by St. Jacobs Oil. He sent for a bottle of this Great German Remedy, and states that after using the article for but a few days he was on his feet again, and that it entirely cured him. As such information is not only pleasing, but of great interest to everybody, we cheerfully give our readers the benefit thereof, and we congratulate our friend on his recovery, and the public on the fact that a reliable cure for one of the most painful of all ailments has at last been found.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance.

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

Miscellaneous.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

The Field Battery.

Lieutenant Sanderson's squad of the Field Battery, now numdering about twenty men, are getting along finely in their drill, and unless the infantry and cavalry look to their laurels the "cannon shooters" will carry off the palm next summer. The young men are taking a great interest in the drill, and the large majority of the members are present at the drill shed every Monday evening. On Good Friday they had a shooting match at the butts, when the following members made the scores indicated. Of course Lieut. Sanderson, well known throughout the district as a "crack" shot, headed the list, but the prizes were not open to him. Considering that the majority of the participants never shot before, the scores made were very good. The following is a complete list:—

Special to the Review, April 10.

A MAN named John Dodd went to the police station about midnight on Friday, and complained that he had been assaulted by a saloon keeper, who threw him out of the place. His head was badly gashed, and he was covered with blood. He was advised to get a warrant and did so.

RATES REDUCED.

CAIRO, April 8.—The Khedive has issued a decree reducing the legal rate of interest in Egypt from twelve per cent. to nine, in the case of commercial paper, and to seven in civil cases.

THE DARDANELLES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 8.—Gen. Burden has agreed to construct two torpedo batteries in the Dardanelles, and two at the mouth of the Bosphorus. He guarantees a speed of forty miles an hour, and double the accuracy and double the range of any other torpedo.

RUSSIAN JEWS.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 8.—A corps has been sent to the town and district of Ananieff on account of a disturbance created by the peasants at Walegojula. On the 2nd inst. [illegible] shops and eighty houses belonging to the Jews were destroyed by a mob. Thirty arrests have been made.

A NOVEL EXHIBITION.

LONDON, April 8.—At the Alexandra palace there is a novel exhibition of articles which can be obtained in the shops and streets of London for one penny, including an immense variety of cheap-jack articles—some cheap at a penny some dear—from the tablet "warranted to remove all stains," to the sedate columns of the daily Conservative paper.

HOME RULE.

LONDON, April 8.—Truth has the following remarks on the Irish Home Rule:—"Home Rule has taken its place in the area of practical politics because Englishmen are beginning to see that they will eventually have to accept it. There is no more reason why we English should claim the right to make land laws for Ireland than for Canada or New Zealand. I venture to predict that within twenty years it will be thought monstrous that we ghould ever have denied the Irish so self-evident a right."

RELEIVED FROM DUTY.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 8.—An imperial ukase states that in deferance to the wish of Prince Gortschakoff the Czar has releived him of his functions as Minister of Foreign Affairs, on account of his shattered health and advancing years. Prince Gortschakoff still retains the dignity of Imperial Chancellor and member of the Council of the Empire. On the imperial rescript which was delivered to Prince Gortschakoff, the Czar wrote with his own hand,

"With the sincere esteem of your grateful
:"ALEXANDER."

LEOPOLD'S MARRIAGE.

LONDON, April 8.—Society sympathizes with the misfortunes which keep Prince Leopold and Princess Helena asunder. Their marriage is now believed to be further postponed, the immediate causes being a tree root and a piece of orange peel. When in Waldeck his Royal Highness accidentally kicked against a root while walkiug and sprained his right knee. Then again at Mentone, before the royal joint was quite in working order, Prince Leopold slipped on a piece of orange peel and gave it another twist.

CURIOUS CUSTOMS.

LONDON, April 8.—The crews of the Maltese and Portuguese vessels in London docks perpetuated the Good Friday custom of administering a sound thrashing to the effigy of Judas Iscariot, the figure being hung at the yard-arm, then scourged, spat upon, kicked into a fire, and what remained thrown overboard. The sailors then marched to pray for the second advent of the betrayed Redeemer. Another curious custom was observed in the church of St. Bartholomew. Twenty-one widows visited an ancient tomb in the churchyard, and picked up twenty-one new sixpences. The name of the donor is lost, but this has been done every Good Friday for 400 years.

THE DEATH PENALTY.

DUBLIN, April 8.—Major Twill, a resident magistrate, writes from Claremorris recommending that certain death be the penalty for all attempts at murder. He says that he has often been threatened, and has been warned that his assassination has been actually paid for, but he defies the assassins. He says he never travels without an escort of two armed policeman and an armed groom. Counting a Winchester rifle, the revolvers and shot guns of the party, there ore twenty-five rounds that can be discharged in as many seconds, with thirty-four in reserve. His escort searches all plantations and hedges on the route, and the neighbourhood of his house is patrolled all night by an armed guard provided with dogs to aid in the search for explosives and assassins.

HOME RULE FOR SCOTLAND.

LONDON, April 8.—In politics of course there is a lull, but home rule is still in the air. The Scotch Home Rulers appear to be better able to reply to Mr. Gladstone's request to formulate a scheme than their Irish brethern. The Burgh convention has commenced its annual meeting at Edinburgh, and immediately proceeded to unanimosly adopt a resolution in favor of home rule, namely, that all Scotch legislation should be effected, subject to the approval of Parliament and the veto of the Crown, by Scotchmen chosen triennially by the electors of the burghs and counties. This decided step may act, to use a hunting phrase, as a sort of breaking the top bar for the Irish horse to follow and make the big jump successfully.

School of Forestry.

Is it not about time that our Local Government did something for the protection of the timber of this Province? It is fast disappearing. Poles, ties, timber, logs, and lumber are cut in millions daily, and are being carried away, some to the front, some to the States, some nobody knows where, but our forests are disappearing. The Midland has 500 miles of railway, more or less, and it is only along the Haliburton branch that there is any timber left. What we want is that Mr. Mowat should establish a Department and School of Forestry, to protect the old forests, and to plant new ones. The Foresters should make a study of forestry, and first of all plant all the roads in the Province with trees. The roads form three per cent. of the whole area of Ontario, and this at once would be an advantage. This thing should be attended to without delay. Nearly all European Governments have State Foresters,—why is Ontario without them.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

"WHAT EVERY ONE SAY MUST BE TRUE."—And every one who has tested its merits speaks warmly in praise of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as a positive cure for all throat and lung complaints, coughs and colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and incipient consumption.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 10.—A sensation was caused on Saturday night by a street encounter between Wm. Reyser and Stephen Bousall, two prominent citizens. Reyser was badly hurt on the head. Both were fined a nominal sum yesterday. The trouble was caused by Reyser renting a country seat of which Bousall claimed he had the refusal.

RIOTOUS ITALIANS.

FORT PLAIN, N. Y., April 10.—One of the Italians concerned in the riot on Saturday was fatally wounded and ten others were hurt. Many officers and citizens narrowly escaped, and several were injured. The trouble is attributed to Rose and Chase, interpreters, who were given money and food for the hungry Italians until the pay rolls were made out, but who, it is alleged, pocketed the money and told the Italians that they would get no pay, and advised them to kill the contractors. Rose and Chase have escaped. The Italians have threatened vengeance on them. The contractors have arranged to feed the Italians until they are paid, and no further trouble is feared.

THE TARIFF BILL.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Herald's Washington special says the debate on the tariff commission bill will close some day this week. The bill will undoubtedly pass the House, the Republicans being all for it with probably some Democrats also. Hewitt will try to get a vote on his proposition for an immediate moderate and judicious reduction in the tariff on raw materials, and Morrison and several others mean to get a vote on proposition of a like nature. It is understood that all of these will be voted down by the Republicans. The present bill originated in the House and must go to the Senate unless the Republicans determine to substitute the Senate bill for this. In either case it is expected that the bill become law. The President will then have to appoint nine commissioners. There are a good many candidates for the position. There is reason to believe that Kirkwood will be one of the commissioners if he wishes the place.

A Splendid Market.

The Winnipeg Times says:—"We have had experience in this land of how the National Policy is benefiting Canadian manufacturers. A few years ago, prior to the present tariff, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Illinois supplied us with carriages, cutters, wagons and farming implements. We drew scarcely anything in these lines from the eastern provinces. To-day, Ontario manufactories are so crowded with work of this description for this Province and the North-west that in some cases, it is said, it will take a good part of the summer to fill the orders; and this is in addition to the very large supplies already coming to hand under the tariff. The Canadian manufacturers have secured a splendid market here, of which they have not been slow to avail themselves.

IF YOU ARE RUINED in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimoniais, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1882.

A DISHONEST OPPONENT.

It seems impossible for the Globe to confine itself to honest arguments or truthful statements. It accuses us of garbling the reports of its commissioners interviews with manufacturers, though we expressly stated that its carefully selected witnesses were opposed to the N. P. and we only quoted some facts that they stated, because in our opinion, not theirs, these facts showed the good results of the present tariff.

But now the Globe which is so punctilious when others are concerned, deliberately garbles a REVIEW editorial, leaving out the beginning and the end in order to misrepresent its meaning, which is the very essence of the offence of garbling.

But as if this were not enough the Globe utters the deliberate falsehood that the editorial in question appeared in our columns a few years ago, hoping by this and by its garbling to convict us of inconsistency. It knows that the article was published not a few, but more than twelve years ago, under widely different circumstances, and that the portions it omits would place quite a different construction on the article which it garbles, would show in fact that the REVIEW even twelve years ago was in favour of a National Policy.

It is complimentary to us that our opponents have to go back twelve years to find materials for attacking the consistency of the REVIEW. Certainly it is unnecessary to take that trouble with the Globe. It is much less than twelve years ago that the Globe was lauding the Senate and abusing its opponents, while now the abuse is turned upon the Senate itself. It is much less than twelve months ago that the Globe was calling the manufacturers extortioners and robbers, who were growing rich on their ill-gotten gains, while now it is declaring that they are being ruined by the tariff. But there is no need to go back even for twelve days. The current issues of the Globe contradict each other daily. Farmers are told that the N. P. lowers the prices of their produce, housekeepers are told that it raises them; the manufacturers are favoured by the tariff, the manufacturers are injured by it, and so on.

As for the Globe's abuse of ourselves, we have the consolation of knowing that it has always abused those who do not agree with it, and that it will reverse its abuse and see nothing but good in those who change their coats and side with it.

AN UNREADY LEADER.

THE action of Mr. Blake as leader of the Opposition, this session has excited much comment, especially at Ottawa.

That he should not speak on the budget debate, did not cause much surprise, for he has no love of statistics, but it was felt that he might at least have given some intimation of the principle, without the details, of the tariff which he, would propose to substitute for that so much censured by his colleagues, supporters and organs.

With the debate on the boundary question however, it was different. The question was one coming fully within his usual range, and his Ontario allies are putting it forward as of the utmost importance. Why then did he sit silent without having a word to say on the matter? Was he afraid to commit himself?

So far he has only intervened in the debates to make some mild comments on the address; to find fault with the North-West coal and timber regulations of the Government, with the result of finding that they were instituted by Mr. Mackenzie; to give a half hearted support to an attack upon Sir C. Tupper for awarding a contract to the lowest genuine tender; to object to an amendment of Sir John Macdonald to the Temporalities Fund Bill, and then to make the same motion himself; to ask when returns will be ready, when he knows they are being brought down as fast as possible; and on a few other minor occasions.

Even his followers are beginning to ask what he is waiting for, and when his great effort is to be made, if any is forthcoming?

FENELON FALLS.

ASLEEP ON THE TRACK.—The Gazette says it is informed and it believes correctly, that a well known resident of Fenelon was found, on the evening of the 30th ult., lying across the track of the Victoria Railway, a short distance from this village, with his head on one of the rails and his legs on the other, sleeping off the effects of a drinking bout. The person who discovered him considerately rolled him to one side, as a train was nearly due; but he appeared so well satisfied with his novel resting place that he kicked at the disturber of his slumbers. It is a mercy he was not cut into several pieces and made the subject of a coroner's inquest.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—On Tuesday last a hundred handsomely bound books were received Campbell & Son, of Toronto, and added to the library of the Fenelon Falls Mechanics' Institute. The volumes comprise 34 works of fiction and about equal numbers each of history, travels, religious, scientific and miscellaneous. The ordinary price of the whole is just $100, or a dollar each, but of course there is a liberal discount on so large a purchase. We are pleased to be able to announce that our Institute is in a flourishing condition, there being a large membership and a small but sufficient surplus in the treasury; and, as proof of the popularity of the library, it is only necessary to state that during the past year more books were issued than in Lindsay and Port Hope combined.

CATTLE KILLED.—A letter, dated at St. Paul, Min., was received last Monday from our Reeve, Mr. Joseph McArthur, who left here on the 22nd ult., with three car loads of live stock for the North-West. We are sorry to learn that two of his oxen were killed at St. Paul by an accident, but he does not state how it occurred. A few days ago, however, we read that two head of cattle were thrown from their feet in consequence of the car in which they were confined being violently struck by another while shunting, and that before they could be rescued they were trampled to death by their companions. The name of the owner was not given; but if they were Mr. McArthur's he will of course be paid for them by the railway company.

A RURAL THIEF.—Mr. Nathan Day, of Fenelon, tells us that some person entered one of his granaries during the night of the 29th ult. and stole therefrom a quantity of wheat—he thinks about three or four bushels. A month or so ago he was the victim of a similar depredation, and he is now making arrangements that will render it unsafe for anyperson unacquainted with them to enter his buildings after dark. He has suspicions as to who the thief is, but keeps them to himself, as he may be mistaken.

Jesse James Murder.

KEARNEY, Mo., April 7.—The town was thronged with people all day yesterday. The body of the late Jesse James, the dead outlaw, lay in state at Kearney house all the forenoon, and the funeral was held in the Baptist church, the services being conducted by the Rev. B. R. Jones, Rev. Mr. Martin in his discourse said, as the life and career of the deceased and the circumstances of his taking off were known, he would confine his remarks to the hope and incouragement of the living. The funeral cortege moved to the old homestead, and the remains of the bandit were taken into the house of his mother, Mrs. Samuels. Mrs. Samuels and James wept over the corpse, and called down the vengeance of Almight God upon the slayer of the "poor innocent boy." The women were greatly excited. A sermon was again preached at the house, and the remains were then taken to the little graveyard on the hillside. The bandit's widow is dangerously ill, and his half-brother John is dying. A solid wall of plank was built over the coffin, and then stone filled in on top. Armed men watched the grave last night.

The Peruvian Matter.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Mr. Shipherd's examination this afternoon resulted in the production of seven letters from General Hurlbut, in which he advises Mr. Shipherd that he could do nothing without instructions from the department, and suggesting activity on the part of the claimants. Mr. Shipherd's letters to General Hurlbut were next read. They are characteristic, and similar to those already published. An adulatory letter from Mr. Shipherd to Mr. Walker Blaine was read. The only reply was a statement from Senator Blair that Mr. Blaine wanted no correspondence with any of his assistants. He believed General Hurlbut was hostile to his claim, because he failed to see in it a clear case. The Blaine correspondence, as yet unpublished, will be produced to-morrow.

A cough or cold contracted in the month of April if not speedily arrested is liable to stick to one during the whole summer. Dr. Carson's Pulmanary Cough Drops speedily cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain and oppression of the Chest, and all Throat, Chest and Lung Affections. In large bottles at 50 cents.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

In the month of April almost everyone requires a good and reliable Blood Purifier. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kineys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, Agent for Peterborough.

NORWOOD.

FATAL MISTAKE.—The Register says that Mr. Robert Peters, a farmer residing a short distance out of this village was the victim of a sad mistake on Monday evening last. It appears that he had been suffering for some time past from that dreaded disease, the asthma, and on the afternoon of the day in question had proceeded to Hastings for medical advice, bringing back with him some medicine. On reaching home and partaking of his tea, he took the medicine according, as he thought, to directions; but alas! instead of taking a teaspoonful he took a tablespoonful, the result of which proved fatal. He lingered until about 8.30 in the evening when he died. He was a consistant member of the Presbyterian church of this place, and was highly respected by all who knew him. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole community in their sudden loss. His funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon last and was largely attended.

SURGICAL.—At Mr. D. Hurley's, of Asphodel, last week, Dr. S. P. Ford, of this village, amputated the decayed toes and fore part of each foot of an unfortunate man named Daley, who had his feet frozen while sleeping out during cold weather.

SUGAR MAKING.—The farmers in this neighborhood are busily engaged in utilizing the sap of the maple this season. Some of them have already made as much as 500 pounds.

DISTEMPER.—Another horse epidemic is raging in this neighborhood, the name of which we have been unable to ascertain. Mr. Wm Nicoll, of this village, lately lost a fine horse. It was valued at $250.

ENGLAND.

THERE are now thirty-five theatres in London, the latest addition being the Avenue.

STRANGELY enough the graves of the grandfathers of Abraham Lincoln and John Wilkes Booth are in the same churchyard in England.

ON a recent foggy day in London the Gaslight and Coke Company supplied 75,000,000 cubic feet of gas, for which the charge would be £12,000.

THE excitement about Jumbo raised the number of visitors at the London Zoological Garden on March 12th to 6,981 persons, as against 1,361 on the same day last year.

THE affairs of the banking house of Overend, Gurney & Co., which failed in 1866, are still in liquidation; £457,895 has been returned to the creditors, and there is a prospect for £80,000 more.

NEGOTIATIONS are, it is said, pending between the Marquis of Bute and some capitalists for the acquisition by the latter of the whole of his lordship's enormous dock property at Cardiff, the object being to form a syndicate company for taking over and working the Bute Docks as a joint undertaking.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

People have no more right to become dyspeptic, and remain gloomy and miserable, than they have to take poison and commit suicide. If the stomach becomes weak and fails to perform its functions, Burdock Blood Bitters will speedily remedy the trouble.

ABOUT MANITOBA.

From a Correspondent.

Oxen are better for the first work of the farmer than horses. They don't absolutely require oats, which are hard to get at 90 cts. per bushel. They can stop work and fall to eating grass and go right to work again. They stand the exposure and hardship, and want of stabling better, and they don't get sick and die off like imported Ontario horses which are suddenly exposed to hardship.

The oxen imported from Minnesota are the best, as they are better broken and better walkers than Ontario oxen. Oxen cost from $175 to $200 a pair, and good ones cannot be got for less.

Waggons with broad tires suitable for this country with splendid boxes and well made $80. Breaking ploughs, 12 inches, $21. Iron harrows (very light) $20. Seeders, 12 rows, $85; fourteen rows $90. Self binders $350. Fanning mills $45. Best mowers $90. Hay rake $40. Discount for cash 5 to 10 per cent. Lumber at Brandon can hardly be got. It is worth $35 a thousand feet. A man should come without women or children, and when he has his house up and things comfortable then bring them on.

During the first year a medium crop of oats and potatoes can be grown. And with deep ploughing wheat can be grown, but it will pay better to grow oats and buy wheat. Some say the sod is not rolled so well when a crop is put in the first year. Good cows are worth $80 to $90.

When a man has his buildings up and his family on hand, cows, chickens, pigs, &c., may be bought but not till then. A man going in early in spring has to buy hay at a very high figure. I would advise a new settler to bring as little as possible the first year, as there is a dead loss in being cumbered with what takes time and money to import and to support, until proper preparation is made for the keeping of stock and stuff brought in.

A man must appear personally at the land office to take up land. He is often at a loss where to go and where land is open for settlement. Let the intending settler come where he will, select his land, employ some one to break for him, cost of breaking and backsetting $7 an acre. Having done this get up suitable buildings and then move out in March of following year, while the sleighing is good, first having seen to it that he has on hand a good supply of wood and hay. Then his family and stock will be saved much hardship.

Looked at from a farmer's stand point, ease of work and value of crop, it is without doubt a grand country. Gold can be taken out of the soil easier than ever it was obtained in California or Australia.

Stock do well; eating grass and hay, not straw, all the year round makes large cattle, and with fair shelter in winter the hardship of housing and feeding is more than compensated by the unfailing quantity of good hay generally available.

Men who have good farms with houses, barns, orchards, (with no mortgages) in Ontario had better stay there, but men who are cramped and oppressed and driven to their wits' end to make a living, should lose no time in coming to a land which will give bread and to spare to millions.

VIATOR

COBOURG.

A STEAM WHISTLE ON A BENDER.—The World says that on Thursday night last, an incident occurred at the Car Works quite amusing enough to be put on record. It appears that the rope attached to the valve of one of the engines at the upper works passes, a short distance of its course, outside of the building, above the roof. The rain of the evening gradually tightened this rope, and so by degrees opened the valve and allowed the steam to escape. At first it was "but a little one," and made a noise like the low crooing of a love-sick fellow on his way home, after finding that another had stepped in half an hour ahead and proposed to his girl. But the rope gradually became tighter, till the crooing was forgotten, and anxious people were hurrying to and fro to see what they could do to alleviate the troubles of what everybody believed to be a dying calf. And the rope tightened on, raising a bellow which would make the loudest kind of a calf expire with envy,—increasing and ever increasing, till the whole town was agog with the shriek, and the most plegmatic procrastinator believed the end of all things had come. People rushed to Grand Trunk, expecting to find half a dozen engines on their backs and the station withered to a fish-pole with escaping steam. But the trouble wasn't there,—and the carnival still went on. At length, when the thing had been howling for a full half hour, and a crowd had gathered almost big enough to throw the works bodily into the lake, somebody who "understood the rope" quietly stepped on the scene, liberated the valve, and shut off the steam and the uproar at one pop. Natural causes, you see, natural causes. How many thousands of people have gone wild over results which they did not understand, produced by the most simple of all simple natural causes!

FIRE.—The Sentinel-Star says that on Saturday night an alarm of fire was rung, a little after eleven o'clock. The fire was discovered to be in the shed opposite the dwelling of Mrs. Nolan, on University Avenue. The building was entirely consumed. There is no doubt that the work was that of an incendiary, as the premises were unoccupied. It will be remembered that an attempt was made recently to burn the dwelling house, on the same place, but it proved a failure.

NUMEROUS.—A Roseneath subscriber informs us that there is living in that village an old widow lady named Mrs. Mary Hurst, aged 86 years, who has living twenty-six grand children and thirty-eight great grand children. She is as smart as a great many not one-third her age, and thinks nothing of walking seven or eight miles. Her husband died some forty years age.

WESTWARD HO!—A large number of men from this town and vicinity left for the North-West on Tuesday morning. The party from here comprised Messrs. M. Henderson, Geo. Braithwaite, J. Russell, H. Jacobs, H. Bray, and Geo. Grieve. We wish them all success in their new homes.

LUMBER.—The first train of lumber for shipment from Harwood this season came in on Friday afternoon. We understand there will be a larger quantity brought in this year than last.

STILL LYING.—The pile driver Heenan, which was upset in the harbor by a fierce gale last fall, still lies there, almost submerged under water.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.' This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

He is an American, but has spent most of his life in Europe picking up old coins, rare books and seven tongues. He admires his country above all others, but prefers to live in Europe.

THE creditors of Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati, with claims aggregating $4,000,000, have commenced action in the courts to have catholic property in some twenty counties, standing in his name, sold to pay their claims. The litigation will open up the whole question of the relation of the hierarchy to property.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and mercy. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

A HARBOR without land seems an impossibility, yet something of the sort really exists in the gulf of Mexico. A kind of oil rises to the surface, where it forms a scum, and has the effect of keeping the water smooth in the severest storms. The spot is fifteen miles from shore, and on the approach of a storm small vessels scud to this "oil pond" for safety.

JOHN OWEN, who first published Longfellow's works, was a graduate of Bowdoin, in 1847. Among his classmates were Nathaniel Hawthorne, Longfellow, ex-Chief Justice Appleton, of Maine, John S. C. Abbot, the historian, President Franklin Pierce, Professor Calvin E. Stowe and George B. Cheever. Mr. Owen has lived in Longfellow's neighborhood nearly all his life, and entered upon his 77th birthday a few days after the poet's death.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE burial vault of the Brewer family is the oldest in the Allegheny cemetery, near Pittsburg. When the wealthy Charles Brewer died some years ago, he ordered in his will that only one more person after himself should be buried there. This exception was Miss Hern, a niece. After her death the vault was to be locked and the key thrown into the river. Miss Hern died last week, and the executors of Mr. Brewer have obeyed his injunction as to the key.

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma and lung disease by Dr. M. Souvielle, ex-Aide Surgeon of the French Army, 13 Phillips Square, Montreal, and branch office 75 Yonge Street, 1 door north of King, Toronto. All letters must contain stamp for reply. d64-w11

THE demolition of the buildings round the Pantheon, in Rome, is almost finished, but it may be questioned whether the building gains much in appearance by it. The circular shape is entirely lost at the back by the old walls of uneven height which run out from it and which, except perhaps to the archeologic eye, are as disfiguring as the quaint little houses that once clustered round the building, and were dwarfed by it. Now that they are gone, cornices are seen cut through, holes dug in the wall, and chimneys scooped out by the house owners, deformities which were formerly at any rate hidden out of sight.

From rheumatism I have been a great sufferer during the past seven years and part of the time have been confined to my bed. The last attack kept me in bed for seven long months, in which time I employed the best medical skill without securing relief. I was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil, which remedy has entirely cured me. My hands have become straight and can be used as well as ever. I have induced others afflicted with rheumatism to use it, and they have experienced the same happy result. I wish it was in my power to tell suffering humanity of the curative powers of St. Jacobs Oil. EDWARD RHOERLING, Scranton, Pa.

N. H. DOWNS' ELIXIR

N. H. DOWNS'
Vegetable Balsamic
ELIXIR!

This valuable medicine is purely vegetable, the discovery of which was the result of many years' close study, in order to discover the cause, the symptoms and the cure—viz.:

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Influenza, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis,

and every species of oppression of the Chest and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir has been duly administered its efficacy has been invariably manifested, convincing the most incredulous that is not incurable, if properly attended to.—Consumption, at its commencement, is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is more observable, but rather dry; then becomes local fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflammation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration,

CONSUMPTION

and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are so drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, generally destroys the hectic before the cough is entirely gone. Consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions for cure of pulmonary diseases. Price 25cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold everywhere.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES. There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcule which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produces a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Town Council Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Town Council takes place this evening at the Council Chamber at 7.30 o'clock.

P. B. C.

All members should be present at the annual meetiug of the Boat Club this evening at the boat house at 7.30.

Guiteau.

Mr. Andrew McNeil has on exhibition in one of his handsome windows on George street, striking pictures of the late President Garfield and his assassin Guiteau. Both are said to be excellent portraits and are objects that attract considerable attention.

Square Timber.

The first consignment of Buck & Stewart's square timber has arrived at Belleville, from El Dorado, and is being rafted by a force of men alongside the Grand Junction dock. It will be taken to Quebec. The firm will ship a larger quantity this year than last.

Midland Railway of Canada.

The Traffic of the above Railway for the week ending April 1st, 1882, was as follows:—Passengers and Mails, $7,086.71; Freight, $13,212.85; Total, $20,299.56 as compared with $16,269.53 for the corresponding week of 1881, being an increase of $4,030.03; and the aggregate traffic to date is $191.876.75, being an increase of $63,140.62 over 1881.

The Weather.

The weather continues cold and disagreeable and snow may be expected in some localities. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Winds and gales from the north-west, cloudy to fair continued cold weather with snow flurries.

Peterborough Boat Club.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Boat Club will take place in the Club House this evening, and there should be a full attendance. Among other important business is the election of officers, and we all know that without zealous and efficient officers such a society cannot flourish. Our club has made a name for itself of which we may be proud, and it would be a pity if its position should not be maintained on account of the apathy of the members. Let all attend and see that there is a good organization for starting proceedings this season.

Complimentary.

The Belleville Ontario says that Mr. Geo. A. Cox Manager of the Midland Railway, was in the city on Friday, looking after the general interests of the Company, and arranging for the erection of the mammoth grain elevator there. Mr. Cox is an enterprising, thorough business man, in whom our citizens seem to have much confidence. We would like to some of our local men take a leaf from Mr. Cox's book and do as he does. There is nothing like enterprise—fearless and persistent enterprise.

Womens' Foreign Missionary Society.

The programme for the proceedings of the above society at its meeting to-morrow is an interesting one. At the morning meeting (commencing at 10.30 a.m.,) besides business of the ordinary routine character, addresses will be delivered by the President, Mrs. Burns, of Toronto, and Mrs. Gordon, of Harrington. At the afternoon meeting (commencing at 2.30 p. m.,) the annual reports will be presented; officers will be elected, and a conversation will be engaged in to be led by Mrs. Roger, Ashburnham. In the evening the annual meeting will be held in St. Paul's Church.

Railway Notes.

There are now about forty men and several horses and carts at work in the cuts at Doube's and Sherin's farms. The cuts will be about 49 feet deep, and there will be a trestle work of 1300 feet long and 75 feet high, one of the longest on the whole Midland line. About two hundred additional hands will be put on as soon as the frost leaves the ground. The trestle work when in course of erection willl prove very interesting. The long talked of steam shovels have not yet arrived, although we are assured that they will soon be here now. They are monstrous affairs and have been imported from the other side of the line.

ACCIDENT OR SUICIDE?

A MAN NAMED SAMUEL McILROY, AGED 73 YEARS, KILLED ON THE TRACK

Of the Midland Railway near Garden Hill—A Curious Case—His Body Horribly Mutilated—Points to Suicide—No Inquest Deemed Necessary.

Probably there is no railway in Canada that is as free from fatal accidents as the main line of the Midland, and when such an occurrence does take place, it is generally traceable to the gross ignorance or negligence of the victim. The employes, one and all, use every endeavor to prevent such affairs and in scores of cases but for their intervention, souls would have been hurled into eternity in a twinkling. Such cases very rarely find their way into the columns of the press, but we have chronicled at least half a dozen within the last year, that came within our personal observation, and will undertake to say that we did not publish one tenth of those that occurred.

In the present instance we have asked accident or suicide as there are circumstances that point to both, and from the facts we leave the reader to judge.

On Saturday night as engineer James Young was taking the regular 6.45 o'clock express from Peterborough to Port Hope, an old man named and who resided in the vicinity of Garden Hill, met with a fearful death at a place known as Campbell's bridge, about half a mile south of the station. The particulars we give as gleaned from the engineer, firemen and others who discovered the body. It appears that the train was running along as usual, and when crossing the bridge and the engineer remarked to his mate "that is a very bad joint, we will have to look out for it on our return." Nothing more was thought of the matter until the trip home, when the occupants of the cab were alert. As they neared the supposed defective spot, suddenly the engineer surprised the fireman by stating "the stringers of the bridge

SAMUEL MCILROY, AGED 73 YEARS,

A SUDDEN JOLT WAS FELT.

ARE COVERDD WITH BLOOD,

we have killed a dog or something." As soon as the express reached Garden Hill, no train having passed up or down, in the meantime, engineer Young telegraphed engineer Clark, who was bringing down an engine to Port Hope, to look and see what was killed at Campbell's bridge, and speeded on to Peterborough, and upon his arrival home the startling intelligence awaited him

THAT HE HAD KILLED A MAN.

Upon receiving the telegram from Young, Clark ran as far as the place indicated, and stopping his engine alighted on the track and walked as far as the bridge where he found a hand lying on one of the rails, and a portion of a body on the stringer, the other parts of the unfortunate man having below the bridge. The engineer at once backed up to Garden Hill and informed the people there of the state of affairs. Several persons accompanied him to the scene, and gathered up such portions of the shattered trunk as could be found and took them back to Garden Hill, where they were recognized as comprising the remains of Samuel McIlroy. The body was literally and was indeed a terrible spectacle, especially for those who were not possessed of good strong nerves.

DROPPED INTO THE CREEK,

The relatives of the deceased claimed the body and took it home. A coroner was notified, but did not deem an inquest necessary under the circumstances.

TWO THEORIES.

From the fact that no blood was on the trucks or on the pilot, but only on the large driving wheels, engineer Young is of the opinion that the deceased either threw himself between the wheels, or while standing on the bridge became faint and fell as the engine passed. From the fact that he had his boots off, it is inferred that the deceased was timid about crossing the bridge, a very small structure, and on the other hand rumors are current about the old man having told several persons that he was tired of life, and that they would never drink with him again. However, as is usually the case, very little importance may be attached to such yarns unless they come out in evidence.

This is the first person that engineer Young ever killed, and of course it makes him feel rather bad, although of course not the slightest blame can by any possibility be attached to him or any other employee of the road. Young is positive that the track was clear when he started to cross the bridge, and the deceased must have been clinging to the side, as he would be noticed were he any place else.

The deceased was an old resident, and was well known and greatly respected along the line. He leaves quite a family, but all are grown up. One of his sons is in the employ of the railway at Midland.

A Flourishing Institution—The Annual Election of Officers—The Reading Room etc.

Some years ago Peterborough had a flourishing Young Men's Christian Association, with a good reading room etc., but through the apathy of the members and from other causes it ran down and for four or five years the institution was in a complete state of disorganization. About a year ago, however, the present association was formed and to-day it stands on a firmer basis that ever and is a credit to the town.

A free reading room well stocked with the leading newspapers, magazines and periodicals was opened about ten weeks ago and since that time it has been visited by over eight hundred persons. It is open every evening except Sunday, from 7 to 10 o'clock and the public are cordially invited to visit it.

The association also conducts a Gospel Meeting every Sunday evening and these are well attended. It has supplied two mission fields, Nassau and Tully's School House, Smith, during the past ye ar. A weekly Bible Class has also been well attended and in fact the rooms, which are kindly supplied, free of rent, by Mr. Geo. A. Cox are rather small to accommodate all who wish to be present.

The officers elected for the year 1882 are as follows:—

President	J. F. Jeffers
1st Vice. President	J. A. Hall
2nd Vice. President	E. W. Cox
Secretary	J. W. Minore
Asst. Secretary	J. Richadson

DIRECTORS.—Messrs. Turnbull, Grey, Nesbitt, Brayshaw, Roger, Watson, Gilbert, Grundy, Clarke, McElwain and W. W. Johnston.

POLICE COURT.

ASSAULT.

MONDAY April 10.—Thomas McAvelia was charged by Charles Willoughby with committing an assault on him on Good Friday.

The defendant, who was represented by Mr. G. Edmison, pleaded not guilty, and asked for summary trial.

The evidence showed that plaintiff was walking home, when defendant accosted him, some hot words ensued and blows were exchanged, the plaintiff retiring with two discolored optics. The defendant tried to "gouge" one of plaintiff's eyes out, and the latter caught one of defendants fingers between his teeth.

Judgment, guilty.—Fine $2 and costs $2.75.

Complimentary, but True.

The Monetary Times says:—"This time it is Peterborough which is pronounced "a first-class place for the establishment of smelting works." It was an excursion party over the Midland Railway which thought so; but the truth is sometimes told even when only compliment is intended."

Runaways.

As the noon train on the Midland was coming into the station to-day, the engineer whistled for a switch, and one of the 'bus teams frightened by the noise started off. They ran out the gate taking a horse and truck with them, smashing the gates off and carrying away a post. The 'bus team ran home without doing any damage to the vehicle, but the truck was sadly demoralized.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

FOR WEAKNESS AND GENERAL DEBILITY.—From Itihel Pease, of North Searsment, Me.—"It gives me very great pleasure to inform you of the benefit received from the use of Peruvian Syrup in my own family. My wife, for the past ten years, has been in feeble health—very much debilitated generally. Last spring she concluded to try a bottle of Peruvian Syrup, and was so well pleased with the result continued its use until three or four bottles had been used, and she is now in better health than at any time for ten years, and has increased in weight from 110 pounds to 126½. I have employed physicians and used a great variety of patent medicines, to the extent of hunderds of dollars, and I know she received more benefit from the Peruvian Syrup than all the rest together. My sales of the Syrup are very large and constantly increasing, and I do not hesitate to recommend and even warrant it to give satisfaction." Sold by all druggists.

DYSPEPSIA, that all prevalent disease of civilized life, is always attended with a disordered sympathetic system and bad secretions, and no remedy is better adapted to its cure than Burdock Blood Bitters taken according to special directions found on every bottle.

A POPULAR REMEDY.—Hagyards' Pectoral Balsam is one of the most deservedly popular remedies for the cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, whooping cough, croup, bronchitis, and all pulmonary complaints. For sale by all dealers.

BEST THAT MONEY CAN BUY.

The young men of Peterborough are every year improving in the matter of dress, and should be complimented. A young man elevates himself at home, at his place of business and in society, the moments he appears in well-fitted and stylish clothes. A great many allow divers things to occupy their minds, say business, paying little attention to personal appearance.

This is all wrong, for as soon as a person becomes careless and slovenly in his dress, just so soon he falls in the estimation of his friends and associates.

Some may say "where can I get such clothes as you advise," and we reply promptly at T. DOLAN & CO'S, Peterborough.

We have made the subject of ORDERED CLOTHING in every detail a diligent study, and our stock of Tweeds is the best that money can buy, and it is impossible to come away from our establishment without being suited.

We will make you the finest garments worn, and make them too, in a way that may be done elsewhere, but that we don't often see.

Now gentlemen think over it; the advice is before you, act promptly.

Miscellaneous.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

The World's Championship Record.

The first oarsman to hold the title of champion of the world was Joseph H. Sadler, of London, England, who won it at Halifax, N. S., on September 1, 1871. He came over that year as a member of the Renforth-Percy crew, and it was in his arms that Renforth, then the champion of England, fell back in an expiring condition in the memorable four-oared match race against the Paris crew, of St. John. In the H[illegible] race Sadler beat George Brown, of Halifax, Harry Kelley, of London; Robert Bagnall of Newcastle-on-Tyne; Henry Coulter, of Alleghany, Pa.; and George Lovitt, of Halifax. At Saratoga Lake, on September 12, in the same year, Sadler beat Kelley, John Biglin, of New York; Ellis Ward, of Cornwall on the Hudson; John Bright, of Newcastle; and Bagnall. Sadler when he returned to England could get no one to row him, and, according to the rules, could not be champion of England unless he rowed for and won the title. At last Bagnall rowed him a race on April 16, 1874, which Sadler won, and on November 15, 1875, Sadler beat Boyd. In the summer of 1876, Edward Trickett, of Australia, challenged and rowed Sadler for the championship of the world, and the race was rowed over the Thames course, Trickett winning easily. The Australian, evading the challenge of John Higgins, of London, left for his own country. He there beat Michael Rush on June 30, 1877, and E. C. Laycock on September 5, 1879. His next engagement was the race with Hanlan, who was then champion of America and England, and the Canadian defeated Trickett easily on the Thames on November 15, 1880. Hanlan and Laycock subsequently rowed a race for £500 a side and the championship of England, Hanlan declining to row him for any other title in England. Any difficulty which might have arisen out of this match respecting the more comprehensive title was set at rest by Hanlan winning the race easily on February 14, 1881. Hanlan and the Australians soon after that left England, and the inducement offered by Boyd in the shape of a stake of £500 a side resulted in Hanlan once more rowing for the title on other than a course of his own selection.

The Tariff Bill.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Herald's Washington special says the debate on the tariff commission bill will close some day this week. The bill will undoubtedly pass the House, the Republicans being all for it with probably some Democrats also. Hewitt will try to get a vote on his proposition for an immediate moderate and judicious reduction in the tariff on raw materials, and Morrison and several others mean to get a vote on a proposition of a like nature. It is understood that all of these will be voted down by the Republicans. The present bill originated in the House and must go to the Senate unless the Republicans determine to substitute the Senate bill for this. In either case it is expected the bill will become law. The President will then have to appoint nine commissioners. There are a good many candidates for the position. There is reason to believe that Kirkwood will be one of the commissioners if he wishes the place.

IRELAND.

THE Most Rev. Dr. McCabe, after having received the official notification from the Vatican of his elevation to the Cardinalate, ordered that his official robes and liveries should be, as far as possible, of Irish manufacture. Orders were given to Mr. Goulding, of North Earl street, Dublin, to prepare the full dress and undress robes of a Cardinal.

WRITTEN notices are extensively posted through Ennis, on March 11th, calling the people to "boycott" the establishment of a grocer on account of grazing his stock on land from which another had been evicted. A notice was at once published by the party indicated, stating that he had committed the offence unwittingly, and would discontinue using the land forthwith.

A SUMMONS has been issued against Mrs. Anne Moore, organizer of the Ladies' Land League, and of Julianstown, county Meath, at the suit of Constable Tulley, to appear at the petty sessions of Ballycumber, King's county. The charge on the face of the summons is that the defeudant did endeavor on the 29th ult., at Ballycumber, to establish a branch of an unlawful association known as the Land League, or Ladies' Land League, and did then and there endeavor to excite discontent in the minds of Her Majesty's subjects, and to incite them not to fulfil their lawful contracts, and to combine together to carry out the orders of the Ladies' Land League. The summons is signed by "Henry A. Blake." At the foot of the document the words "God save Ireland" unexpectedly appear, but is clear the expression was not added by the gentleman who signed the summons.

Everyone's writing, like everyone's face differs from every other, and to help these idiosyncrasies the Esterbrook Steel Pen Co. provide a varied assortment of pens to suit every style of writing, from the finest ladies' pen to the broad point engrossing.

"WHAT EVERY ONE SAY MUST BE TRUE."—And every one who has tested its merits speaks warmly in praise of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as a positive cure for all throat and lung complaints, coughs and colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and incipient consumption.

FOR WEAKNESS AND GENERAL DEBILITY.—From Ithiel Pease, of North Searsment, Me.—"It gives me very great pleasure to inform you of the benefit received from the use of Peruvian Syrup in my own family. My wife, for the past ten years, has been in feeble health—very much debilitated generally. Last spring she concluded to try a bottle of Peruvian Syrup, and was so well pleased with the result continued its use until three or four bottles had been used, and she is now in better health than at any time for ten years, and has increased in weight from 110 pounds to 126½. I have employed physicians and used a great variety of patent medicines, to the extent of hunderds of dollars, and I know she received more benefit from the Peruvian Syrup than all the rest together. My sales of the Syrup are very large and constantly increasing, and I do not hesitate to recommend and even warrant it to give satisfaction." Sold by all druggists.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

ST. JOHNS, N.B.

Special to the Review, April 11.

QUITE A HEAVY SNOW STORM prevails to-day throughout the province. Four inches of snow has fallen here.

CABLE.

ORDER IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, April 11.—A local newspaper says that same further step if not a change of policy must be made, if order is to be re-established in Ireland.

PARNELL'S RELEASE.

DUBLIN, April 11.—Parnell's release was not at first understood to be on parole, and telegrams were sent to all parts of Ireland announcing that his release was unconditional. The rejoicings were general, and preparations were made for illuminations and torch light processions. When the true state of affairs became known bitter disappointment prevailed. A strong feeling sprang up in several places, giving rise to apprehensions among the local authorities. Parnell has pledged himself not to take part in any political matters during his absence. He was paroled for a week or for such further time as will enable him to attend the funeral of his sister's child.

AMERICAN.

COAL MINERS' WAGES.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 11.—The Convention of the Mahoney Valley Coal mimes yesterday, after some debate decided to accept the operators proposition to reduce the price of mining 75 to 65 cents a ton. 2,500 miners suffer by reduction.

A WOMAN'S VENGEANCE.

PITTSBURG, Sa., April 11.—Charles McCue was yesterday shot by Lizzie McCue, whom it is alleged that he had wronged. Lizzie has been arrested.

SUSPECTED POISONING.

NEW HAVEN, April 11.—It is stated that Prof. Crittenden, who made the Post-mortem examination of the remains of Jennie Cramer found more than thirty grains of arsenic. It is understood that the analysis of the structures did not recall such an amount of poision as to furnish the defense with ground for the claim that Jennie was an arsenic eater. It is reported that the evidence that has recently been discovered regarding the purchase of arsenic by the implicated persons greatly strengthens the case against the Malleys.

GUITEAU AGAIN.

CHICAGO, April 11.—It is not known whether on account of Mrs. Scoville's petition asking the court for the appointment of a Commission for Guiteau's estate the person of the assassin will be brought here or not. The case requires trial by jury and the question will again come up as to whether Guiteau was insane or not at the time of shooting Garfield. It is stated that newly discovered evidence will be introdnced at the trial of the case here. Many witnesses not present at the Washington trial will be in attendance here. The case will come up regularly at the next term of the county court in May.

Trade with the North-West.

An extensive retail dealer in furniture, from Winnipeg, has been in town, his object being the purchase of certain lines of furniture from Ald. G. S. Tickell. The result of his visit was that a car-load of furniture was purchased by him, and will be shipped to Winnipeg in a few days. The most gratifying fact about the transaction is that all the furniture to be shipped was manufactured at Ald. Tickell's factory here. Four years ago, such a sale could not be effected, because the class of goods which were purchased are manufactured in Boston in immense quantities, and the Boston manufacturers could then rush them into the Canadian market at rates much less than they could be manufactured for here, ; but times have changed, and now the 35 cent. duty enables Ald. Tickell to successfully compete with the American manufacturers, and to furnish goods at as low prices as are paid for the American goods. Ald. Tickell is selling this same line of goods from Halifax to Sarnia, and now this shipment to the North-West is the foundation of a trade which is unlimited in its prospect. Ald. Tickell frankly acknowledges that this vast improvement in the condition of the furniture manufacturing business is solely owing to the N. P.—Belleville Intelligencer.

TRADE NOTES.

The Chambly Cotton Factory claims to be the first of the new mills to start work, and it is capable of turning out 7,500 yds per day. The first new goods are in the market and another new shipment of the machinary is expected early in May. This factory was built within the last six months and now in full working order.

Work has begun in the Kingston Cotton Mill, an interesting description of which appears in the Daily News of Monday last. The mill is 240 feet by 73, three stories high. There are 200 looms, whose capacity is 48,000 yards per week. It is intended to produce five different lines of gray cotton and three of sheeting. There is in the building a water tank of 8,000 gallons capacity, a powerful pump and a number of Babcock extinguishers.—Monetary Times.

A PRISONER at Goqan police court on the 15th of March, complained she had not got justice. Bailie Campbell added ten days to her period of imprisonment for contempt of court, saying "You've got justice now."

IF YOU ARE RUINED in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimoniais, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

DYSPEPSIA, that all prevalent disease of civilized life, is always attended with a disordered sympathetic system and bad secretions, and no remedy is better adapted to its cure than Burdock Blood Bitters taken according to special directions found on every bottle.

A POPULAR REMEDY.—Hagyards' Pectoral Balsam is one of the most deservedly popular remedies for the cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, whooping cough, croup, bronchitis, and all pulmonary complaints. For sale by all dealers.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

Daily Evening Review

TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1882.

WHY IMPRACTICABLE?

THE Globe in discussing the resolutions passed by the House of Commons anent the boundary question says :—

"The proposal to appoint a Joint Commission for the management of the land is an utterly impracticable one. If the Government had been sincere the least they would have offered would have been to hand over the control of the disputed territory to the Ontario Government, on the understanding that the latter should account for all receipts. But the whole resolution bears insincerity stamped on the face of it. A Joint Commission would give rise to endless confusion with respect to titles, arising from the want of authority in the Commissioners. Ontario could not delegate such authority unless the territory be really and legally hers, and the Dominion is equally unable to do anything. The want of certainty as to where the boundary lies carries with it ipso facto uncertainty as to where the power to grant licenses and give titles is vested. No man could safely take up timber limits, for he would not be in a position to exclude trespassers, and the same is true of mining locations and farming lands. Things are now in confusion, but the Joint Commission plan would make confusion worse confounded, and lead to disputes which could be settled hereafter only by litigation, and at great expense to the disputants."

Now why is this proposal of a "Joint Commission" so "utterly impracticable?" Surely the authority to deal with the questions and interests proposed to be intrusted to the Joint Commission "really and legally" belong to either Ontario or the Dominion, and if so surely the titles and licenses granted by both the parties laying claim to this territory and one of which does own it, would be perfectly good to the purchaser no matter which of the two might eventually prove to be the real owner.

Whatever uncertainty there may be now as to where the power to grant licenses and give titles is vested there could be no doubt as to the power of such a Joint Commission to give such when they were duly authorized so to do by both the claimants, and should the Mowat Government refuse to accept so reasonable and so unquestionably fair a proposition for the management of the territory in dispute pending a final decision, the responsibility will be on its own head, and it will find it one more difficult to justify on the public platform, where it will be compelled to meet its opponents face to face, than the Globe seems to immagine.

Moreover the public, will not forget, although the Globe may wish them to do so, that the Dominion Government contends that the arrangement made by Mr. Mowat and Mr. Mackenzie is still in force, and that it is only after Mr. Mowat has gone back on that arrangement that the House of Commons proposes the present one. Evidently the Mowat Government is determined to play the part of the "spoiled child" and is not to be pleased unless it has everything its own way—the everything in this case being the restoration of its political friends to power at Ottawa.

WHOM ARE WE TO BELIEVE?

THE Examiner says that it is "informed that Mayor Smith has been appointed by the Government at Ottawa to look after the matter in the whole province of having the voters list manipulated and scrutinized in the interests of the Conservative party for the coming election," while the Globe has announced that the Dominion elections are to take place on the 6th June.

Of course it would be the "height of madness" for us to question the correctness of any statement made in either the Examiner or the Globe with regard to the intentions of the present Dominion Government—especially as we have not the slightest doubt but that Sir John Macdonald consulted the editor of the Examiner before he employed Mr. Smith for the work in which the Examiner says he is now engaged, and that he consulted Mr. Gorden Brown, instead of Lord Lorne, as to the day upon which it would be most convenient to hold the elections, but what we can't get through our dull heads is the object of "manipulating" voters lists which cannot be used before September or October when the elections are to take place in June and therefore on voters lists already beyond manipulation! Evidently either Sir John's hand has lost its cunning or there is a screw loose somewhere. It would be the height of impudence for us to insinuate that the screw was loose in the cranium of either the Examiner or Globe consequently we shall leave the readers to place his own valuation upon the statements of "undoubted authority" to which we have referred.

HIGHLY PRIZED.

The Brantford Telegram says :—The Globe is highly prized by the people—of Prankeeland, it works into their hands so nicely, and supplies them with so much material that is detrimental to Canada. Hence we see the New York Herald, in its tirades against the Dominion, everlastingly quoting the Globe as its authority. It's an ill bird that fouls its own nest.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

The Hon. Neal Dow, the Maine temperance apostle, writes from Ottawa to the Portland, Me. Daily Press as follows :—Sir Leonard Tilley, the Minister of Finance, has laid himself out in the endeavor to establish manufactures in Canada, and has been so far eminently successful. His wish is to render Canada independent of the world in all matters of supply for the necessaries and comforts of life, and in due time, for all the elegancies and refinements, which will certainly come here by and by, as they have already come to us. But the policy of protection in Canadian industries has not been established here without bitter and persistent opposition, which is now dwindling away and fading out here as it is with us. The results of protection in Canada are already eminently satisfactory, although the policy is yet in its infancy here. The receipts of the customs have large increased, at the same time that the industries of the country have been multiplied and largely extended. Manuacturers from "the States" have come in here with their machinery, and others are coming, to produce goods of many kinds on Canadian soil; the workmen eating the products of Canadian farms, and spending their wages in encouraging and stimulating all useful industries and one not so useful, to wit: the grog shop. This latter industry, however, is already under the ban of the law in a large part of the Dominion, and will soon be driven out of the entire country, as being in deadly hostility to all its interests. The agitation to that end is now going with great activity in every part of the country.

I have seen and talked with some of our manufacturers who have come here to make goods of many kinds for the supply of Canadian needs; they like very much the prospect that opens up before them and are sure of success because they have confidence in the permanence of the policy by which they were induced to come here. Of course we of "the States" would prefer that our people would remain at home and that Canadians would come to us to buy, paying to us all the profits instead of keeping them at home. We look on and see going on this hegira of skilled workmen from us to them and can quite sympathize with our English brethren who think they have a natural and indefeasible right to make goods for all the world, and do not like to see manufactures flourishing, or even existing, except among themselves.

If the Canadians were to buy their goods instead of making them for themselves, we would like them to come to us for their supply, but since they have the good sense to set up business for themselves, in a way to improve to the utmost their resources and wonderful possibilities, we wish them God speed with all our hearts and the most eminent success. If our manufacturers with their skilled workmen go to Canada with their industries, very well, that's their right, and it is a wise policy of the Canadians to attract them and keep them. We look upon this result of their new policy with no heart burning, but with the warmest assurance that by a steady persistence in it, the Dominion will become a great, populous, rich and powerful nation, as we have, under ite influences.

In a correspondence from Kingston to the Irish Canadian of last week, we read as follows: "Mr. Fraser boasted his education in the Separate School. Where did Mr. Fraser sow the seeds that produced so beautiful a flower? Within the walls of that lovely yet forlorn institution which, in its palmy days, was the proud nursery of so many eminent men—old Regiopolis—for which Mr. Fraser afterwards showed his ingratitude by voting to take away the grant from it." Our readers are aware that Regiopolis is the name of the Roman Catholic College in Kingston.

A cough or cold contracted in the month of April if not speedily arrested is liable to stick to one during the whole summer. Dr. Carson's Pulmanary Cough Drops speedily cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain and oppression of the Chest, and all Throat, Chest and Lung Affections. In large bottles at 50 cents.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

In the month of April almost everyone requires a good and reliable Blood Purifier. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kinneys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, Agent for Peterborough.

IMPOSSIBLE TO ANSWER.

THE Ottawa Free Press close beside an article abusing Sir John Macdonald in its usual scurilous style, for not confirming the boundary award, has the following paragraph :—

The Journal of Commerce in discussing the Boundary debate says: "It is impossible to answer Mr. Laurier's statement that Sir George Cartier claimed more territory than was given by the award."

It certainly is impossible to answer such a statement which confirms our contention that this award should not be accepted. Who are the friends of Ontario, those who wish with Mr. Mowat to sacrifice her rights, or those who wish with Sir John Macdonald to give this Province her just dues in a legal and regular manner? Mr Mowat would sell our birthright in order to make political capital against his opponents.

CIRCULAR SAW ACCIDENT.

Terrible Saw Mill Accident at Tweed—A Boy Cut to Pieces.

A young boy named Wm. Carr, youngest son of Mr. Thomas Car, commenced working for Mr. Esterbrook in the saw mill, on the 5th. His business was to jack logs and attend to the slash saw, Having gone below to adjust a belt in coming up he did not take the usual way, but climbed up on some slabs which lay at the end of the mill. When he got on the table on which the slash saw is fixed on the upper floor he made a jump (as is supposed) to the floor of the mill, when his feet got entangled in some rubbish which lay on the floor, or his feet must have got into a hole where the ends of boards fell below. At this moment Mr. Esterbrook casting his eyes in that direction, saw the boy make a quick move as if his foot was fast and he was seeking to extricate himself, when his left arm came in contact with one of the button saws, he then fell with the back part of his head on the saw. His head was cut through so that the brains and blood were thrown in every direction. His arm was nearly off and dreadfully mangled. He lived after the accident about one and a half hours, but suffered no pain. The boy was about 16 or 17 years old, and was industrious and steady. He appeared to be over anxious to attend to his duties. As this was his first day in the mill he probably did not use that precaution which older and more experienced hands would have done. His family have the warmest sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.—Intelligencer.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

People have no more right to become dyspeptic, and remain gloomy and miserable, than they have to take poison and commit suicide. If the stomach becomes weak and fails to perform its functions, Burdock Blood Bitters will speedily remedy the trouble.

THE LAMSON CASE.

A Resume of the Circumstances attending it.

The trial of Dr. Lamson for the murder of his brother-in-law, a pupil at a suburban school, promises to be a cause celebre in the history of poisoning. Dr. Lamson is the son of an American chaplain in Italy. He is a gentleman-like, cultured and clever man, married to an English woman whose fortune was increased by the death of the boy whom he is charged with murdering. The deceased suffered from curvature of the spine, and had been in the hab it on several occasions of taking pills prepared for him by Dr. Lamson. On one occasion a pill prescribed by Lamson made the deceased so sick that he refused to take any more. The rest were put aside, and have only turned up recently in connection with a second dose on a much later occasion, which killed the deceased. Dr. Lamson, it appears, became impecunious, notwithstanding several excursions to America, possibly undertaken with a view to advance his fortunes, for he was not successful in practice in England. On the last occasion when he came from America, he had some capsules, which he gave to the master of the school where his brother-in-law was being educated, telling him they were an excellent arrangement for giving the boys medicine. While trying this new invention, Dr. Lamson put some powdered sugar and asked his brother-in-law to take it, which he did, During this interview there were also upon the table cake and wine and other things, the cake the contribution of Dr. Lamson, the wine that of the schoolmaster. Lamson suggested that a little powdered sugar was good to neutralize the alcoholic affects of the sherry, and he thus obtained the addition to the refreshments of sugar. Almost immediately after administering a capsule to his brother-in-law he left, saying he was compelled to go to France. Within three hours after his departure the boy died in great agony, and on medical and scientific examination it is asserted that he was killed by a dose of aconite. Dr. Lamson is proved to have purchased aconite a day or so before the boy died, and the old pills, which the boy refused to take a long time since, on analysis show a commingling of arconite with quinine. One point in favor of the prisoner is that the moent suspicion was raised against him he came from Paris and gave himself up to the police. Against this it is shown that he was utterly without money, and could not therefore have travelled any great distance to be out of the possibilities of extradition. Dr. Lamson being well connected, having an interesting and devoted wife, and a father and mother who evidently regard him with great affection, the case received great attention and excited much interest among all classes and conditions of people on this side of the Atlantic.

PORT HOPE.

PORT HOPE BRANCH OF THE BRAKEMEN'S BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—The Times says that the brakemen of the Midland Railway of Canada have organized themselves under the above caption. The first meeting was held in their hall, over Mr. Wickett's store, on the evening of March 24th, and after organizing, the first act of business was to pass a resolution of condolence to be presented to the bereaved mother of the late John Hurst, which will be found below. This organization is one extending very generally over the United States and Canada, especially the former, and has for its object, the mutual benefit protection and assistance of its members. It is not in any sense a labor union, but, as we are informed, organized solely for the above purposes. The members of the Port Hope branch have decided upon establishing a reading room in connection with their hall, where they can spend their evenings, instead of at the hotels or other places of amusement. This decision on their part is commendable and cannot but raise them in the esteem of their employers, and redound to their own ultimate benefit. The officers elect for the ensuing year are as follows:—

PRESIDENT—H. Rosevear.
1ST VICE-PRESIDENT—John McLean.
2ND VICE-PRESIDENT—W. Rowden.
RECORDING SECRETARY—W. Woods.
TREASURER—R. G. Foster.
TYLER—M. Mongraw.
TRUSTEES—George Pethick, Fred Haskill, and Thomas Rowden.

At the above meeting of the B.B.A. of Canada and the U.S., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to again impress upon our minds the stern lessons, that we are but dust, and that man was born to die, and to bring the truth to our hearts by calling to his home on high, our friend John Hurst.

Therefore be it Resolved, That to the relatives of the deceased, and to the bereaved mother, we tender our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of affliction; and we would commend them for consolation to Him who doeth all things for our good, trusting that they may meet their loved ones in that happy realm where parting is unknown.

Be it further Resolved, That as a token of respect for our deceased friend, our charter be draped in mourning for the pace of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of the resolutions be presented to the family of our deceased friend, and be published in the Port Hope papers.

W. WOODS, Secretary.

REVIEWS.

ROSE-BELFORD'S CANADIAN MONTHLY.—The April number of the Canadian Monthly is even more thoroughly Canadian than its predecessors, showing a continued advance in the right direction. The Hon. Jas. Cockburn has a second paper on "The Power of Disallowance," which is incontrovertible. "Parliamentum" again discusses the boundary question and seems to claim more than the award gives. The Rev. Mr. Pedley, of Cobourg, has an article on "The Study of Canadian Politics," which is worthy of attention. Mr. J. G. Bourinot has an interesting paper on "The Island of Cape Breton." Mrs. Clarke, in a graphic manner give "A Peep at Convent Life and Education." The representation of Sophocles, "Antigone" at Toronto University, calls for two interesting papers by Mr. Wm. Kerr and "Fidelis." In poetry there is another instalment of "Canadian Idylls," and some verses in memory of Dean Grassett. These, with other papers make a very readable and instructive number, which is, a credit to the Dominion.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.' This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

FROUDE'S "Life of Carlyle," just published in England, is creating a great sensation. In it Carlyle attacks his literary associates and especially his publishers with great violence. He refers to his own favorite publisher as "the infatuated Fraser, with his cat's-meat cart of a magazine."

BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, KIDNEY, LIVER OR URINARY DISEASE.—Have no fear of any of these diseases if you use Hop Bitters, as they will prevent and cure the worst cases, even when you have been made worse by some great puffed up pretended cures.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and mercy. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE annual report of the London Peabody Trust shows the net gain for the year to have been almost $150,000. It has now provided for the artisan and laboring class 6.160 rooms, exclusive of bath rooms, laundries and wash houses. The trustees show in their report that the fund has been expended strictly in accordance with the donor's expreesed wishes.

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma and lung disease by Dr. M. IN 1878 Italy exported to Great Britain and her dependencies wine valued at $306,392. In 1880 the export was valued at $507,776. Cheap French clarets for exportation are now so notoriously concocted from raisins and other inferior wine imported into France from Spain and Italy to be exported with the brand of Bordeaux that the English are beginning to see the expediency of taking genuine Italian wine direct.

If a man would rather endure the tortures of rheumatism than provide himself with a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, we pity his penuriousness fully as much as we do his sufferings. Officer Willet S. Hawkhurst, of the Brooklyn regular police force of the Second Precinct, detailed on duty at Catherine Ferry, says that he had been a violent sufferer with rheumatism for eight years—was very often disabled for the performance of duty—suffered intensely, with only short intervals of relief, and became so nearly a confirmed invalid and cripple that he was in the last degree despondent. But as a last desperate resort, and without consulting his physician, about three months ago he made a first trial of St. Jacobs Oil, with almost instant success. He has used about two bottles, and to-day is as well and active as he he ever was. And straightening himself up he called attention to his healthy and robust appearance, remarking, "I am glad to have the opportunity of testifying to the virtues of the greatest remedy the world ever saw.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcule which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

FIRE, WATER AND GAS.

Councillor RUTHERFORD, Chairman, read and submitted the following report of the Fire, Water and Gas Committee.

1st. That we recommend that—hydrants are required for fire protection, and that the ratepayers be requested to indicate to the Council where such hydrants should be placed, in order that the Water Company may be enabled to proceed at once with the construction of the same, and that nothing in this recommendation will compel or bind the Council to pay for hydrants unless asked for by by-law 427, amending the same.

2nd. That 500 feet of "Eclipse" hose be or- at $1.03 per foot, and that the Clerk be authorized to rescind the order to Merry Weather and Co.

(Signed) A. RUTHERFORD, Chairman.

—Received.

Councillor RUTHERFORD said the Committee had met and considered the application, but thought it best to leave the matter of the number and position of the hydrants, to the whole Council. The engineer had stated that 60 hydrants were necessary, and he had gone over the ground and found that the specified number would be required to afford ample fire protection. Under the new act, the town was empowered to take hydrants and pay for them by a general tax, and the members could deal with the matter as they saw fit. The protection was an important subject and had agitated the town for many years, and now a company had been formed and were awaiting the action of the Council.

Mr. D. G. Hatton, on motion was heard. He produced the map with the distribution system prepared by Mr. Surtees, of Ottawa, and showed where hydrants were necessary in his opinion. The water company had now contracted for the supply of pipe and they would have to be made to order. The company had to put in the pipes and hydrants, and had ordered 20 of the latter which they would place from Mr. Hilliard's mill down the main pipe on George Street, as far as they would go valves were necessary to stop leaks in case of a burst, and they could only be placed while the pipes were being laid, and until it was known on what cross streets pipes are to be laid, the company could not order pipes or valves. The company did not ask the Council to take any hydrants, but as all the members have an interest in the town it was deemed advisable to lay the exact state of affairs before the Town Council and let that body assume the responsibility if the system of fire protection was not complete before 1883. Arrangements have been completed with Mr. Hilliard and the Auburn Woollen Company for the power. Some persons had said that the present system would benefit George street more than any other portion of the town, but it was not so. 10,000 feet of pipe had been ordered and the plan submitted required about 5,000 feet more. The company are all residents and ratepayers of the town and desired to furnish pure water. The pipes would cost $10,000 to lay them. The wheel house would cost $4,000 and the pumps are very expensive and have a capacity of 1,750,000 gallons per day, a hundred gallons per day for every man. One pump would supply three times the quantity desired. About 20 gallons per day per head of the population was the ordinary average used in America. In case of fire by simply turning a tap the pressure would be increased to three times its ordinary force. The communication is constant and acts automatically, like an ordinary steam engine when the steam blows off. The pumps and wheels are so constructed that the two wheels can be put on to one pump or one wheel on each pump as may be desired. The rates of insurance in the United States were reduced about a quarter of one per cent. where such a system as ours is in operation. He urged the Council to do something at once or the Company would proceed to lay the pipes on George street, and in some cross streets, and rest there. All the principal engineers of the Dominion thought Mr. Gamble's scheme was insufficient to afford the necessary amount of water. The present engines would supply ten times the amount proposed by Mr. Gamble, and that gentleman retired from the Company, leaving the Peterborough men to carry on the work. The pipes will be here by the 1st of May, and the excavations will go on at once, and the works it is expected will be in operation by the first of July.

The Council went into Committee of the Whole on the consideration of the report. Councillor WILSON in the chair.

Councillor POUSSETTE had no doubt that the Company would be pleased to see the town take a large number of hydrants. The question was whether the town would take sufficient hydrants to protect the town or not take any. Under the new act the council were empowered to take as many hydrants as they saw fit and pay for them by a general tax. His own idea was to take hydrants enough to protect every house in the town and he felt confident that the people would not petition for them until a fire took place. He thought, such a course should be pursued. Perhaps the George street merchants and those in some of the other streets would take hydrants at once, but the great mass of the people would not be so prompt. Unless a general system was adopted, one block would have protection and the next have none and by such means the tax would be distributed according to the value of a person property.

Councillor MCNAUGHTON had not changed his views since the matter first came up, and he still felt that those who wanted hydrants should pay for them. The law had been changed by a few persons procuring a special act. He intended to stick to the by-law as passed.

MR. D. G. HATTON said that no person had procured a special act, but the act referred to had been brought in by Mr. Mowat. The by-law called for single hydrants, but the company proposed to put in double hydrants without extra cost.

Councillor MCNAUGHTON said that 60 hydrants were needed and would cost $3,000 per year.

Councillor DENNE asked if only a dozen hydrants were put down on George street, would they be paid for by a general tax?

Councillor MCNAUGHTON said "yes."

Councillor POUSSETTE explained that the matter rested with the council whether the hydrants were paid for by a general or local tax, and he advocated the former. In nearly all the towns where waterworks have been established the general system was adopted, and in Sarnia it worked admirably, and to-day the works were paying a handsome revenue to the town, and the system was just the same as ours, every house is protected and even its bitterest opponents at first are now perfectly satisfied. Almost every person wanted the works to run past his house, but the few cents extra was the "rub" and that was the matter the town had to deal with.

Councillor MENZIES thought they should stick to the by-law, as at first passed and that every person who used or was benefited by the water should pay for it. He thought an act should be procured to make the landlord protect his own property and not make the tenant "pay the piper." He thought it would be unwise to guarantee any certain number of hydrants. He was in favour of persons petitioning for hydrants, and the town take as many of that number as they saw fit.

The MAYOR said in regard to the new act that the town had a right to take as many hydrants as they saw fit, under the old act, and were now in the same position regarding this as it is regarding the Gas Company, and the lease of the town buildings. He was not in favour of a general system just now, but would favour taking a small number of hydrants, to protect each church, the town buildings, and for watering streets, altogether to the number of twelve or fifteen, just to encourage the company. He favoured a public meeting or a general vote to take the sense of the people on the question.

Councillor RICHARDSON, said when the by-law was first passed he was in favour of taking a small number of hydrants, and he felt confident that if such was done the ratepayers would see the benefit of the system and petition for hydrants. He was rather surprised that the large property holders had not come forward before and asked for hydrants, as they had a large amount of money at stake. He felt like sticking to the by-law. He wanted to see fire protection, but above all pure water.

Councillor ALFORD did not understand that the Company were asking the town to take any hydrants, but simply wanted the town to designate the places where hydrants were required in order to make the necessary connections. He was rather in favour of a general tax, and thought the outside should contribute a mite to protect George street, as, if it was swept away the outsiders would be great losers.

Councillor DENNE thought the law was so altered to force the ratepayers on any steeet to take water whether they desired it or not, and from that view he favoured a general tax. It had been said that insurances would be reduced, but Mr. Cox said it would not make one cent difference.

The MAYOR, not in the rate.

Councillor DENNE, it does not make one cent difference in Port Hope.

The MAYOR, but the people in that that town do not carry one-half of the insurance they did formerly.

Councillor RUTHERFORD said that Mr. Cox made the explanation made by the Mayor, a thing that appeared to have been lost sight of over the water tank matter. No objection had been made to their location, and in a short time a large amount of money would have to be expended to put them in a good state of repair, and on that account he did not think that the Council should throw cold water on the present scheme. He favored a scheme to protect the whole town. He objected to protecting George Street alone. He had gone over the town and map and thought 60 hydrants would be required to protect the entire town. The maximum price on the schedule was $50 for each hydrant, but he thought that the company would reduce the price if 60 were taken. He thought the Company should be assisted by the Council, especially as the water they were to supply for domestic purposes had been pronounced by experts to be nearly pure.

The MAYOR with regard to the new act said that he had requested the Attorney-General to insert a clause in the Act, providing for a special tax.

Councillor POUSSETTE asked the amount that the protection cost yearly at present, and if the present fire engine would be kept as at present? He felt that the town would save money by taking the hydrants. He had seen fires quickly quenched by waterworks in various places.

Councillor MENZIES referred to Chicago, Boston, New York and Toronto, all of which places had waterworks, but still large fires had occurred.

Councillor MCNAUGHTON again spoke in favor of a special tax. The present system of fire protection was of no benefit to the outskirts, as their appliances and facilities for responding to an alarm were defective. He believed that those who received the benefit should bear the expense.

The CLERK in answer to Councillor Poussette stated that fire protection now cost $1,500 per year.

Councillor RUTHERFORD said that he had hired labouring men to-day and had to pay them $1.25 per day. The present engine is now in a bad state of repair and the guarantee period of 10 years is now up and if a fire occurred at present the town would be at the mercy of the flames and they would be held responsible as the representatives of the people. In reference to the Chicago fire, he said that a gale was blowing at the time of the fire and he did not think that city was a fair example.

Councillor DENNE said that an engine would be required and such was found necessary in every place where waterworks were adopted.

Councillor POUSSETT said that Sarnia had no engine now.

Councillor MCNAUGHTON said that Toronto had four or five.

Councillor CAHILL was in favour of passing Councillor POUSSETTE's motion as it did not commit the town and would give valuable information.

Councillors MENZIES and RICHARDSON withdrew their amendments.

Moved by Councillor POUSSETTE, seconded by Councillor ALFORD,—That the Committee recommend that the report be referred to the Fire, Water and Gas Committee to ascertain and report to this Council the number of hydrants required for the efficient protection of the whole town, and for what amount the Water Company would be prepared to supply the town per hydrant.

The committee arose and the chairman reported progress.

The second part of the report was then adopted.

THE AUDITORS' REPORT.

The clerk read the abstract of the auditors' report for 1881, submitted by Messrs. Pearse and Hall, town auditors, showing a surplus of $2,842.-01.—Finance Committee.

COMMUNICATION.

From the auditors asking for an increase of salary of $20 each.—Finance Committee.

TOWN PRINTING.

Councillor MCNAUGHTON asked why the town printing had not been let this year.

Councillor MENZIES said he would call the committee together this week, but in the meantime the work was being done at last year's rates.

OPENING STREETS.

Moved by Councillor WILSON, seconded by Councillor POUSSETTE,—That all the streets in town be opened to the public.

THAT "LOCK OUT."

Councillor DENNE asked how much had been received for the use of the Council Chamber since the motion was passed?

The clerk said $1.

Councillor DENNE asked if that $1 included the amount paid the other evening.

The clerk said he had not received any money for the carworks meeting.

Councillor DENNE wanted to know who was responsible for the "lock out."

Councillor POUSSETTE said that he had nothing to do with the lock out as he declined to have anything to do with the letting of the hall. At any rate he did not think that the motion applied to the present case as it was intended only to refer to meetings of charitable bodies etc.

Councillor RUTHERFORD censured Mr. Beavis and stated that he had advised that official to open the room on the night in question.

Councillor DENNE said the clerk has stated that the hall would be opened.

Councillor CAHILL did not think that Mr. Beavis was very far out of the way as the town should remain neutral on such questions. As it was those who opposed the carworks used one of the public offices and had no great reason to complain.

The subject then dropped.

THOSE BOULDERS.

Moved by Councillor RICHARDSON, seconded by Councillor MENZIES,—that the street inspector be instructed to remove all the large stones on the public streets.—carrried.

CHARITY.

Moved by Councillor POUSSETTE, seconded by Councillor WILSON,—That the allowance to Mrs. John Dugan be continued until further order of the council.—carried.

Councillor MCNAUGHTON thought it should be referred to the Charity Committee, as it was rumored that she received outside aid.

Councillor POUSSETTE said he lived near Mrs. Dugan and knew her circumstances.

FORESTALLING.

Moved by Councillor CAHILL, seconded by Councillor RICHARDSON,—That the hour for prohibiting forestalling on the market be changed to 11 o'clock in the forenoon and that the the Corporation Seal be attached thereto, to give it the force of a by-law.—carried.

OUR WEALTH.

Councillor DENNE said that last year the auditors had reported that £30,000 was due the town from the Midland Railway, and he would like to know how that matter stood.

It was referred to the Finance Committee.

THAT PLAGUE SPOT.

Councillor CAHILL gave notice of a motion that he would move at the next meeting, that the Council take steps to fill up Spaulding's Bay.

The Council then adjourned.

No citizen, irrespective of politics, who values comfort and appearance, should be without one of our Scotch Tweed Suits.

It shines alike upon the just and the unjust, and the citizen with a blameless record gets just the same good fit at our hands as the statesman from the back townships.

The best advice we can give is—order at once. In two weeks our fine stock of tweeds will have shrunk to small dimensions. We know it, and so will the 750 lucky men who will be taken for Capitalists, Contractors, Manitoba Boomers, and Emigration Agents.

Consider, gentlemen, what advantages a good appearance gives.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

RESULTS OF ENQUIRY.

THE Globe commissioner to hunt up dissatisfied manufacturers is still doing his work. We gave some specimens of facts elicited at the earlier interviews, but we have not continued to do so, as it would have been a mere repetition. The modus operandi of seeking out those only who would give prejudiced evidence is now well understood. Even with these selected witnesses the principal facts that have been established by this enquiry are as follows:—

1. Manufacturers have greatly extended their operations since the change of tariff.
2. Many more operatives are now employed.
3. Wages have been generally raised.
4. The prices of manufactured articles have not been increased, and in many cases have been lessened.
5. Manufacturers are more prosperous, even with lower prices, because they have increased sales and a secure market.
6. Some manufacturers, though prospering, would like greater protection by the free admission of materials they import.

These are the principal lessons to be learned from these interviews, and the Globe is to be complimented for having performed a public service in eliciting them, even though they have done this good work unintentionally.

STRIKES.

We notice that some of the Opposition journals are commenting upon the strikes for an advance of wages that have been taking place, and are claiming that they prove that the N. P. is not doing all it promised for the mechanics. The absurdity of this contention is transparent. That wages have already advanced, and that mechanics are pressing for a further advance, are both facts that demonstrate the improvement of the situation for workingmen. Under the old tariff they were glad to get employment at almost any rate and for only a portion of their time, so they were in no position to press for higher wages, nor were their employers able to grant them. Now, however, the position of affairs is very different in consequence of the increase of business, the greater profits obtained, and the greater demand for labour. No tariff can prevent occasional differences of opinion between employer and employed as to the fair rate of remuneration for the latter, unless it is a tariff that depresses the industries by which both alike have to make a living. The following letter which appears in the Mail under the heading "a mechanic on the situation," forcibly depicts the position from the point of view of the workingmen and exposes the fallacies of the Globe and its imitators:—

"SIR,—The enclosed paragraph appeared in the editorial columns of the Globe of to-day:—

"Toronto labourers of both sexes are on strike just now in considerable numbers, the demand being in all cases for higher wages. What has the boasted Tilley tariff done for these people? It has failed to raise their wages to the point formerly attained, and it has cruelly increased the cost of their living. And yet the working classes are insulted by being told that they are prospering through the effects of the N. P."

I can inform the Globe that I am a workingman that had no work when the Reform Government was in power. When I did get something to do I got $1.50 per day, and sometimes $1.30. I now get $2.25 per day, the highest wages I have ever received in Canada in eighteen years, and I can get all the work I want. The Globe says that oats (I like porridge and oatcake) and wheat are much cheaper in Canada than in the States, and all through the N. P. This then does us good. Sugar is cheaper and better. Butter and other necessaries are about the same; clothing is no dearer. Then where does the cruel N. P. pinch us? I am sure I dont know. Perhaps the Globe will give us the market rate of wages and necessaries in 1878 and 1882, and also the state of the labour market then and now, and show us where the cruelty comes in. I am sure I cannot find it. My wife says she can't. I only hope it will continue as it is, and that the times that the Globe longs for, such as we had in 1878 under Reform laws, will not return, at least in my time.

TORONTO AND OTTAWA RAILWAY.

An Important matter—The Road to be Constructed Within two Years.

A Special cabelgram from London to the Globe on Tuesday says that the excitement over the proposed fusion of the Grand Trunk and Great Western Railways still continues. The following cablegram from Mr. E. B. Osler, of Toronto, President of the Ontario and Quebec Railway Company, has been published in the metropolitan press:—

TORONTO, April 8, 1882.

To Morton, Rose, & Co., London:

As there appears to be an impression that the construction of the Ontario and Quebec Railway from Toronto to Perth will be stopped in the event of the proposed fusion between the Grand Trunk and Great Western Companies being approved of by their shareholders, I beg that you will state publicly that the construction of the Ontario and Quebec Railway will be proceeded with, and the line ready for traffic within two years, irrespective of the course the shareholders of the above two companies may adopt, as another line from Toronto to Montreal, independently of the Grand Trunk, is considered a public necessity.

(Signed E. B. OSLER,
President Ontario and Quebec Railway.

The Daily News holds that this cablegram shows there is no longer any need of hurrying the agreement with the Grand Trunk Railway Company until it is ascertained whether it will be legally binding. Many months must elapse before the agreement with the Grand Trunk Railway Company can receive the sanction of the Canadian Parliament. If this sanction be refused, then the Great Western Railway Company will be in the unfortunate position of a company which will have abandoned an alliance with the new Ontario and Quebec Railway Company for one with the Grand Trunk Railway Company, and may thus come to the ground between two stools. This opinion will largely influence the shareholders in arriving at a decision. Mr. Wolsey, in London agent of the Midland Railroad Company, writes to the Times that Mr. Osler cannot be ignorant of the fact that "an alternative line, independent of, though on friendly terms with the Grand Trunk, will shortly be provided by this company as now consolidated. Two-thirds of the distance from Toronto to Perth is already covered by existing lines belonging to the corporation, and the remainder is under construction. With this information before them the public will scarcely think the third line proposed by the Ontario and Quebec Railway Company is a public necessity." Altogether the prospects of a fusion of the two trunk lines do not look so bright as a few days since.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1882.

THE FEMALE CONGRESS.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

In Canada (Western Section)—Large attendance of Delegates—Some of the Principal Addresses—The Ladies Welcomed to Peterborough—The first day's Proceedings.

The sixth annual meeting of the W. F. M. S. was held in the school room of St. Andrew's Church on Tuesday morning. A large number of ladies were present, 50 or 60 of whom were delegates from the Central Board of Management, Toronto, and from auxiliaries in different parts of the Province.

The W. F. M. S. of the North-West (United States) was represented by Mrs. Burke. The Baptist Women's Missionary Association of Ontario, and the Peterborough Baptist Mission Circle, by Mrs. Gilmour; the Peterborough Episcopal Zenana Society by Mrs. Wallis, and the Kingston Presbyterian W. F. M. S. by Mrs. Mackerras.

The meeting was opened by praise, after which Miss Ewart read the 96th Psalm and Isa. 35th chap. The President of the Central Board, Mrs. MacLaren, then lead in prayer. In the unavoidable absence of Mrs. MacMurchie, the Recording Secretary, the minutes of the last annual meeting were read by Miss Topp, the Home Secretary, after which was given by Mrs. F. W. Haultain, who in the name of the Peterborough Auxiliary assured the delegates and friends from our own Societies, as well as those from kindred Societies in other places, of the sincerity and heartiness of the welcome accorded them, and the honor, pleasure and privilege they experienced in receiving into their town, their homes and their hearts so many fellow workers in that mission which takes to their female fellow subjects in India the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, and urged all present so to work that when "sorrow vanquished, labour ended, Jordon past," they might hear from the Master not only a "Welcome," but "Well done good and faithful servants," who will not plead the best of works when done, who know no ground of trust but Jesus Christ alone.

The address of Welcome was responded to by Mrs. Burns, of Toronto, who thanked the ladies of Peterborough for their hospitality, and for the very "elegant welcome" accorded to the delegates. Mrs. Burns remarked that as "well done" were the sweetest words that could be spoken to a faithful servant, "well come" were the sweetest to the weary stranger. Mrs. Burns also said that there was no need to stir up those present to missionary zeal, as the fact of their being present on this occasion, which might be called a missionary festival, was proof of their interest in mission work. The Peterborough ladies had been among the first to respond to the call of the Foreign Mission Committee to help them in spreading the gospel among the women of India, and the Peterborough Society had increased and prospered under the blessing of God ever since. We must remember that this is not our work and our way, it is God's. He could work without us, but chooses us to be honored instruments in His hands. Future generations of workers will profit by our failures and our successes, and we must look forward to the time when the sowers and the reapers will rejoice together.

A hymn was then sung, after which the Home Secretary read letters of greeting from Methodist Societies in Hamilton and Philadelphia.

THE PRESIDENT then rose to address the meeting, and assured those present of what a pleasure it was to her to meet them, and remarked upon the great blessings with which the Lord has blessed us as a society. She introduced Mrs. Burke, and said how glad she (the President) was to see such a large gathering of delegates, and to hear such encouraging reports, telling of faithfulness of auxiliaries and mission bands, though each member would feel in her own conscience that she had done far less than she should, considering the importance of the work.

Another hymn was then sung, after which the nominating committee was appointed.

Mrs. Gordon, of Harrington, spoke as follows:—

By self primeval paradise was lost, and by self renunciation and loving subjection to God's will on the part of our Saviour "paradise was regained." The like self renunciation in our hearts and lives is the condition of our fellowship with Him in His accepted service and future reward. This condition the Lord himself indicates in words of surpassing power and sweetness. The words have suggested a few thoughts and I with much diffidence offer for your attention this morning. They are these; "Behold my mother and my brethren, for whosoever shall do the will of my Father in Heaven, the same is my brother and sister and mother." They were spoken by him as he sat teaching in the midst of the multitudes in Capernaum, and we discern an under tone of sadness in the inquiry who is my mother and who are my brethren. He is pressed by the fickle crowd less eager, it may be to hear his doctrine than to see his miracles—pained by the bold blasphemies of Scribes and Pharisees, and wounded by the irritating officiousness of unbelieving kinsfolk. His human heart turns to its rest in the loyal love of the little circle of disciples around him as he indicates them with tenderly eloquent gesture—Behold my mother and my brethren.

These words of Christ bear on our work as a society, as to the way in which we should do it, and the honour with which it is connected. We can glance only at the first of these. Our model in the doing of the will of God is the Lord Himself.

He did it in the spirit of self renunciation and loving subjection. He took upon Him the form of a servant, He was made under law, witness, the obscurity, the toil, the poverty, the subjection of the silent years at Nazareth. In this attitude of subjection He foiled the tempter in the wilderness—persisting in waiting for his Father's supply for his need as if he held no reserve of power in himself—in the second temptation persisting in rejecting the way to the Messianic Crown suggested by the tempter; and in choosing his Father's way though he well knew it was the way of the cross, and in the third temptation refusing to claim or use miraculous power except at the Father's bidding, and for the doing of the Father's work.

Again and again in the course of His ministry, He declares with a kind of glorying, His subjection to the Father's will as His rule in all His work. "I came down from Heaven, not to do Mine own will, but the will of Him that sent me." My meat is to do, &c., I delight, &c.

When the time for active service is past, and the hour is come for passive endurance of His Father's will—struggle there is, and conflict—else there were no victory, there is the recoil of His sinless instinct from the bitter cup, but, soon yielding his human will sinks in the Divine—as "sinks the moaning river in the sea in silver peace," not My will but Thine be done. "To this self renunciation and loving subjection in His work all God's children are predestined to be conformed by their identity of life with Him. The words of eternal life spoken by Him have become spirit and life to them, the life in Him, His own life has passed into them, and therefore the will of God rules that life in them, as in Him.

As there is identity of life, so there is a kind of identity in the mission which He had from the Father with that of His church, "As Thou hast sent Me into the world, even so have I sent them into the world." God's salvation in all the earth, the end of that mission, He, the purchaser of salvation, His people (instrumentally) the dispensers of it. In this work, we as a society, have our little part. That our doing of the will of God may be of the kind here recognized by Christ, we must accept and delight in that will as supreme—doing it because it is God's will, not because it happens to coincide with our own, again God's will must be accepted and delighted in, as ruling our whole life, personal and social, secular (as we say) and religious—no margin consciously left wherein we shall be permitted to do as we please, and yet again, this doing of God's will is from beginning to end an exercise of love. God is love, His will is an expression of love, and that will ruling the new life in us, makes our entire service one of love.

Dear sisters, in our day, when profession of Christ's name, and outward christian activities, involve so little self denial, we cannot be too jealous in our self scrutiny whether one christian work will bear these tests, proving it to be the outcome of a life hid with Christ, in God. This was the hidden root of all that fair fruit of the Spirit which so beautified and enriched the lives of those blessed women approved by Jesus as sister and mother, and made the simplest ministries of love—even to the giving of a cup of cold water a valued service to be remembered and rewarded at the great day. Let us study their example that we may emulate their devotion and share the precious benediction vouchsaved to them.

They all did God's will in a common service, yet each of them had, it may be, a special service—as have we.

There were Joanna, and Susanna and many nameless ones, of whom it is said "they ministered to Him of their substance," some more, some less, Joanna as the wife of Herod's Steward might give costlier gifts than the wife of Zebidee, the fisherman, but in his eyes the service was one. We too minister to him of our substance when with loving hearts and willing hands we send to his little ones in the Zenana's of India—hungry, thirsty, strangers and in prison, the bread and the water of life, visiting them by our missionaries, and giving them a warm room in our sympathies and our love. Oh, that each of us could say "It is my meat to do His will." Some of them, like the beloved Mary of Bethany might bring to Jesus an offering rich and rare not to supply a need, but to afford a pleasure, such are in our day rare gifts of intellect or imagination—the eye and hand of the artist, the genius of the poet or the power of song. These, devoted to the master as free-will offerings of love, he accepts, and says—my sister, my mother! There were the Martha's too of Bethany and of many a humble village of Galilee, loving Jesus, and loved by Him, though it may be "cumbered about much serving." Thank God these are yet in the church, ever administering the gracious hospitalities of well appointed christian homes, and furnishing many a cup of refreshment to the master in the persons of His little ones, methinks these need a double portion of His spirit enabling them so to adorn his doctrine, that he may say to them "The Father Himself loveth you because ye have loved Me," and giving them the victory over that trinity of evil which is not of the Father, but is of the world. And there was the special service given to the thrice blessed Mary of Magdala on that first Easter morn. "Last at the cross, and first at the sepulchre," she received the first commission from the lips of the risen Lord, Mary—go to my brethren, and say unto them—making her, by this message, His apostle to the apostles, the first apostle of the resurrection.

He tells us, dear sisters by this, what is the will of his Father in Heaven which he would have us to do, not only to give him of our substance, and minister to him in all gracious hospitalities and pour out for Him our precious ointments, but we are to tell the glad tidings—though it may be with trembling lips, "The Lord is risen indeed, we have seen Him, and He hath spoken these words unto us." In the upper room, with the twelve, and with Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brethren, we find these faithful women after the Ascension waiting for the "promise of the Father," and sharing in the miraculous baptism of fire which made the least in that new Kingdom greater than the greatest, who had not crossed that sacred threshold. That baptism purged their love to Jesus from the element of mere human friendship. They had known Christ after the flesh, henceforth they were to know him thus no more.

Henceforth one aspiration filled their souls and governed their lives,—Christ for the whole world, and the whole world for Christ.—Now they understood their Master as never before. the Spirit bringing to their remembrance what he had said unto them, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." Each type of service we have indicated we find reproduced in the N. T. Church, but all transfigured, as it were, by the fire of Pentecost. This it was which gave to the church a Dorcas, a Lydia, and a Phebe, a Priscilla teaching the eloquent Appolos, and a "beloved Persis who laboured much in the Lord." These did the will of His Father in heaven, of them surely he says, My sister, My mother. Nearly two thousand years have passed since these entered in to the prepared place in the house of many mansions.

The heathenism of the 19th century is as fatally ruinous to the souls of men as that of the first. The gospel of Christ is to-day, as then, the power of God unto salvation. The church of Christ is still the appointed channel through which this divine remedy is to be brought into effectual contact with that fatal malady. What has hindered the healing of the nations? Something in the church, has hindered the free flow of the water of life to the perishing. That guilty something has been, as has often been acknowledged, 1st, the spirit of covetousness in the church, 2nd, the spirit of conformity to the world, and 3rd the spirit of indifference, preventing personal effort for the salvation of souls.

It is not, however, with the responsibilities and shortcomings of the church, as such, that we have to do, it is with our own so doing the will of God as to win the approving recognition of the Elder Brother.

The spirit of the N. T. is "free and divinely noble," therefore, the Lord will not say to his people, give Me a tenth, a fifth, a half of your possessions. He says, I have loved you and given myself for you, and His free spirit in their hearts cries, take all Lord, I am not my own, but Thine, all I have and all I am.

So in regard to nonconformity to the world, and work for souls, while laying down authoritively the commands, be not conformed to this world, let your light so shine, He does not, in in the detailed application of these in daily life say—this thou shalt, this thou shalt not, He shows then his will in these details a little more clearly every day—loving Him they love his will, and as they freely choose and gladly obey it, there is a testing and a training of the element in their obedience which gives it its value in His sight.

In closing, the practical question presents itself. Have these then evils in us, hindered our doing of that will? If it has been so, are we willing to-day to know? Are we now willing to lay bare our consciences to the full pressure of of the truth and will of God in this matter? Are we ready if the verdict of conscience be given against us, to cut off the right hand, and pluck out the right eye?

Beloved sisters, if we be not willing to know the will of God, and the special causes which have hindered our doing of it, be assured we shall not know it. It may be written plainly in God's word, and the record of it may be in our hands, and on our lips, but it will be to us but a dead letter, because not revealed and applied by the indwelling spirit, and at this point is the solemn meeting place of the will of the spirit, and the human will,—the, My will, not thine, or the, Thy will, not mine.—Alas for us, if the former is the language of our heart, selfwill and selfindulgences in so far as they prevail, make "the eye evil" and there can be but darkness. We are by this shutting Him out who stands at the door and knocks, alas for us if He come not in, on the other hand, if the heart's language be, not my will, but Thine, we can honestly ask, "show me the way O! Lord, and I will walk in Thy truth," and the spirit freely gives the knowledge of God's will. The eye is single, the whole body is full of light, and our souls let go their idols, one by one so easily, when that revealing touch of light has shown them to be but clay, and now wider room is made in our hearts for Christ, and He dwells in them by faith. Then is the will of God done in and by the soul, when the light of Christ shows clearly day by day, the whole of present duty, and the love of Christ prompts and inspires to the doing of it. We mourn that we have so little of this expereince. It seems a high and distant attainment, nevertheless trusting in the blood that cleanseth, and the spirit promised to guide us into all truth, we "follow after if that we may apprehend that or which also we are apprehended of Jesus Christ."

Mrs. Burke, who followed, conveyed the greetings of the Society she represents, and assured the members of the W. F. M. S. of Canada, what an interest was taken in them by their sisters in the United States, and in their name bids them "God speed."

Mrs. WALLIS of Merino said:—I have been asked, as the President of the Church of England Zenana Society to say a few words about its origin and progress in Peterborough. I must first tell of my joining the W. F. M. S. in St. Paul's here about 2 years since. I had read Mrs. Murray Mitchell's account of her work in India, also Miss Lowes' book about the "Gospel winning the day in India" and from other sources became deeply interested about the poor women shut up in the Zenanas in such cruel bondage, and rejoiced to join a society whose aim was to ameliorate their sad condition in sending them the light of the gospel. My daughter, Mrs. Roger, who is an active earnest worker in this good cause, persuaded me to attend the annual meeting of the Ladies Presbyterian Association last year at Toronto. I need scarcely add I was very much pleased with the proceedings of that large gathering. The christian spirit that prevaded the excellent reports read by the several delegates, and came away impressed with the excellence of the work. I regretted to find there was no sub-mission in connection with the Episcopal church in Toronto. Few seemed to know anything about such a mission. On my return home I wrote to Montreal to ask if the ladies there of our church were doing anything in this cause. They sent me the reports of the good works they were engaged in. Their Society helped Foreign Missions, but not a word about Zenanas. I then thought I would try the Diocese of Huron, and got one of my sons to bring the subject before the Rev. Mr. Richardson, of London. He answered kindly. He did not know of any such society connected with the Episcopal Church in Canada, but that in England there were very earnest workers for this mission. Well, I decided a beginning must be made in Peterborough, so I called on the Rector's wife, and explained what the Presbyterians were doing and how desirable it would be if our church would commence a mission work—what good results would follow in bringing our people together in Christian fellowship. I was greatly cheered and encouraged by the hearty response I met and we arranged to call on each member of our congregation and asked them to join in organizing a society for this mission. With very few exceptions they entered cordially into the plan of forming an association to help foreign missions. A meeting was convened and 39 members enrolled, President, Vice. President, Secretary and Treasurer duly elected and we became affiliated with the Church of England Zenana Missionary Society who send us very cheering and interesting reports of the work done by the parent society among many agencies now employed for the help of India's women. The Zenana Medical Mission is beginning to take its place and it is sought by its means to admininister relief in bodily sickness and at the same time to lead to Him who is able "to redeem the soul from deceit and violence." There it an institution widely known as a Renana medical mission training school in Vincent Square, Westminster, London, where those embarking on their all important missionary service spend four years to fit them for their arduous labors. The Committee of the Church of England Z. M. S. assembled with their friends on October 8th at South Kensington, to take leave of seventeen ladies about to embark for Zenana Mission work in India. I must also mention that I went to Lindsay in the beginning of February to help to organize a Zenana Mission there among the Episcopalians. Thirty members were enrolled in the Society, with the prospect of increasing the numbers, and I hear it is also growing in interest. The growth of our mission work in Peterborough is steadily progressing. Our sphere of action is enlarged. We also help the Algoma Mission, and are taking measures to assist more diligently and effectively our own parish needs. We had cleared at the end of six months $74, half of which was sent to the parent Society in England. We have much cause for thankfulness that God has so blessed our work, and feel much indebted to the Presbyterians for the good example they have set us, and also for their kind invitation to attend their meeting. I may add, in behalf of our own Society, that we wish them God speed and increased success in all they do to further the cause of our blessed Saviour—to glorify His name.

Then the President congratulated Mrs. Wallis on the formation and progress of the Episcopal Zenana Society.

Mrs. Gilmour presented the greetings of the Societies she represented, after which a letter from the Kingston Society was read by Mrs. Mackerras.

A hymn was then sung, and the meeting adjourned until 2.30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was opened by prayer led by Mrs. Harris, after which the annual reports were read.

The Report of Home work was read by Mrs. Topp.

The Report of Foreign Work was read by Mrs. Howie.

The financial statement by Mrs King showed that the total amount raised during the past year was $5,732.54.

The report of the Hamilton and Whitby mission boards and the reports of the auxiliaries of Peterborough, Ottawa, London, Seaforth, Indian Lands, Fergus, Almonte, Clinton, Lochiel, Port Hope, Ernestown, Uxbridge, Lakefield, Vanleek Hill, Stratford, Chatham, Ingersoll, Brucefield, Sarnia, Agincourt, Embro, Teeswater, Kincardine, Carleton Place, Ayr, Beaverton, Kenyon, Lindsay, Mitchell, Chatham, Fingal, Toronto, St. Marys and other places, were read and adopted.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

PRESIDENT—Mrs. Ewart.

VICE-PRESIDENTS—Mrs. MacLaren, Mrs. Reid, and all officers of auxilieries.

RECORDING SECRETARY—Mrs. MacMarchie.

HOME SECRETARY—Miss Topp.

FOREIGN SECRETARY—Mrs. Harvie.

TREASURER—Mrs. King.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Mrs. Gregg, Mrs. Blaikie, Mrs. Miller, Miss Jeffrey.

The General Committee is composed of a number of ladies from the various auxilieries, with Mrs. Thornburn, (Ottawa), as Convenor, and Mrs. C. McKenzie as Secretary.

NEXT PLACE OF MEETING.

The proposed change in the by-laws was then discussed, and the invitations were given for the next annual meeting, and it was decided to hold it at Toronto.

Mrs. Roger, of Ashburn, next led the conversation on the subject of Presbyterial organization, and showed how beneficial to the working of the society such organization was.

After prayer and praise the meeting closed.

IN THE EVENING.

A tea meeting was held in the basement of St. Paul's Church, which was largely attended, after which an open meeting was held in the church. The attendance was large and the proceedings of a very interesting character.

The chair was occupied by Rev. Prof. McLaren, of Toronto, and among the other Rev. gentlemen present were Messrs. Torrance, Bennett, Clarke and Macdonnell, of the Presbyterian Church, Shaw, Canada Methodist and Jollife, Bible Christian.

The Chairman in opening the meeting gave a brief resume of the history of the Society from its inception to the present date, showing that it had accomplished much good in its particular field, and was in a good sound condition financially.

Short addresses were delivered by Messrs. Shaw and Jollife, after which the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, gave an eloquent discourse at considerable length, eulogizing the work of the Society, and pointing out the great future and possibilities before it.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

A Treat in Store.

Mr. Singleton, of Port Hope, is making arrangements for the appearance here during May of the Guernsey-Listemann Combination, including Miss Minerva Guernsey, the new dramatic artiste, in her impersonations from Literature with the Bernhard-Listemann Concert Company, representing the best soloists from the Theodore Thomas Orchestra, the Mendelssohn Quintette Club and the Boston Philharmonic Club, forming the finest combination of instrumental soloists in America and Miss Marie Evelyn Barnes, vocal soloist. As the expenses of bringing this superb organization to Peterborough are exceedingly heavy a guarantee list will be required. This is now open at Davidson's Bookstore and will remain open for three days, so that those who desire to witness the performance can register their names. It is to be hoped that our citizens will show no apathy, but give the necessary number of names, as it is only once in many years that such a company can be secured to play here.

New Factories.

Work has been commenced on two new factories on Dickson's race for the Messrs McKee Bros. and Mr. Forsyth. The buildings are to be of a large size and will add greatly to the already excellent facilities possessed by both firms for turning out work expeditionusly. The Messrs. McKee have now employed 25 or 30 hands, and cannot keep up with their orders. The manufacture walnut parlor suites exclusively and ship them to almost every place of any importance from Sarnia to Montreal. We understand that they now turn out about 40 sets of frames per week and when in the new shop they will be able to turn out double that number. Another large building is also to be erected on the same race for Mr. A. W. Brodie. It is expected that the buildings will be ready for occupation before the 1st of July next.

The Cricket Club.

At the last meeting of the Cricket Club there being only a bare quorum, the election of officers was not proceeded with, and the meeting was adjourned until to-night at 8 o'clock at the office of Hatton, Hatton, & Beck. If members intend to show any interest in the game this season, they will attend this meeting. Arrangements will soon have to be made in conjunction with the Boating Club, for the annual sports on the 24th of May.

The Railway Accident.

Though at first not deemed necessary it was afterwards thought advisable to hold an inquest on the remains of the late Samuel McIlroy, killed on Saturday night near Garden Hill. The evidence of Engineer Young, Conductor Rilly and those who found the body was taken and a verdict in accordance with the facts as given by us returned. The railway authorities were exonerated from all blame. Coroner Maxwell of Port Hope conducted the inquest.

12th of July.

We understand that preparations are being made for a great display here on the coming anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. Besides the lodges from this district we learn that the brethren from Belleville, Madoc, Hastings, Campbellford and other places on the line of the Grand Junction division of the Midland, are expected to take part.

Easter Monday Balls.

The Bachelors' Ball at the Oriental on Monday night was one of the most successful ever held in town, and was a very enjoyable affair.

The ball in Hill's music Hall under the auspices of the Knickerbocker Quadrille club was well attended, over 35 couples being on the floor, and was successful in every respect.

The Weather.

The weather probablities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Fresh to strong northwesterly winds, cloudy to fair weather, with flurries of snow, stationary or slightly higher temperature.

Royal Hand Bell Ringers.

A sufficient guarantee list having been secured the plan of the hall for the Royal Hand Bell Ringers is now open at Davidson's bookstore. Seats are being taken very fast and those who signed the guarantee should lose no time in securing places.

"The Bee."

A new addition to the list of Peterborough journals has appeared, The Bee, published by Mr. W. A. Kelsey. As might be expected it is a neat sheet, having chiefly a free circulation. This is another sign that our town is advancing, and is expected to advance.

Sale of Town Lots.

Mr. Dumble will offer for sale by public auction all the lots north of Smith street, between the Communication Road and the residence of James W. Fitzgerald, Esq. The time of sale will be shortly announced.

Postponed.

The entertainment to be held at St. Luke's School House on Thursday next has been postponed until Monday evening the 17th instant at 8 p.m.

Rifle Association.

The annual meeting of the Rifle Association will be held this evening at the Drill shed, when the election of officers, and other important business will come up.

Opening of a True Blue Hall.

The McWilliams Lodge True Blues, held a Grand Social assembly on Good Friday Eve, it being the opening of their new Hall on Simcoe street over Flavelle's store. About 50 couple tripped the light fantastic toe until early in the morning and all were loud in their praise of the fine and elegant manner in which the members of this young order had decorated their Hall, which is now without doubt one of the finest in the town. The walls are frescoed and the doors and panels painted in white with blue edging. On the walls are mottoes and pictures, among which may be noticed photos of brethern that have passed on to the Grand Lodge above. Banners and banneretts also adorn the wall. The windows are frosted and painted and fine curtains are hung over them. The dais for the Master and Deputy are carpeted and curtained all of which is the handiwork of the members of the order each one vieing with the other to see which can do the most towards making the Hall look as fine as it is possible and a credit to the order. After the second intermission supper served at the St. James, after which the party returned to the Hall and danced till morning when they broke up and departed much pleased with their evening's entertainment.

Almost Perished.

P. C. McGhee the other night picked up a drunken man lying on the road and placed him in the cells. He was about half frozen and the officer feared the man was dying and called the services of the Town Physician into requisition, and the man soon recovered consciousness. He had a narrow escape and would undoubtedly have perished had he not been found by the officer.

The Military Review.

OTTAWA, April 10.—The Free Press, speaking of the proposed military review, says: It is probable that the proposed military review at Kingston on the Queen's birthday will not take place after all. Ten battalions have applied for transport on the occasion, which would involve a cost of about $6000. It is doubtful whether the benefit derived from the review would justify the outlay. That amount would be sufficient to drill a battalion in camp for twelve days, which would be better than a two hours' parade of 3000 men.

POPULAR DEMAND.—The great superiority of Downs' Elixir, over all other cough remedies, is attested by the immense" popular demand for that old established remedy" for the cure of Coughs, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the throat, Chest and Lungs.

The early completion of the Northern Pacific, R. R. is now assured, and guarantees to settlers cheap and quick transportation and good markets both East and West. The opening of this new overland line to the Pacific, together with the construction of the network of 700 miles of railroad by the O. R. & N. Co, in the valleys of the great Columbia and its principal tributaries, renders certain a rapid increase in the value of the lands now open to purchase and pre-emption. There is every indication of an enormous movement of population to the Columbia River region in the immediate future.

DUMMER.

From Our Own Correspondent.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The Council met at Warsaw on Friday 31st March. All the members present. Minutes of last meeting read and signed. A petition asking for an enlargement of S.S. No. 11 was read. On motion no action was taken until such time as the land petitioned for is settled, and the parties thereon have children that would be benefitted by the change. An application was made by George Peters for the purchase of the Old Town Hall and land attached. On motion an abatement of $1.44 against personal property of Charles Kilbank, and $2.63 against the personal property of Ira Stephens was made to Collector, as there is no real property to return said taxes on, and the parties have left the township. $7.45 as arrears of taxes on lot 27, con. 12, was abated to George Grant, on condition of his doing road labor to that amount under Mr. Drain, com. The Collector made out and swore to his list of abatements $83.44, which he was unable to collect. An abatement of $8 was made on the taxes of Thomas and Thomas J. Ritchie in lieu of making six rods of crossway and doing two days statute labor. On motion Alex. Gardner, Collector, was allowed $10 for paying over school moneys to Treasurers of Belmont and Douro, and other trouble in collecting. The Reeve and Clerk were appointed a Committee to meet the Reeve and Clerk of Douro to arrange and settle as to the first proposition to be expended on boundary by Dummer and Douro respectively. Two by-laws were passed, one in duplicate to establish a road, and one to appoint pathmasters, pound keepers and fence viewers. The council adjourned to 26th of May next, to meet in Warsaw as a Court of Revision.

Kitchen Floors.

To keep the kitchen floors clean is a very troublesome. Grease will spill upon it and make a stain that requires much labor to get out. Bare boards are soon soiled, and a carpet, when it is not beyond the reach of the housekeeper collects too much dust to be desirable. Where food is prepared, and where on the farm the butter is churned and packed dust is very disagreeable and objectionable. How to get rid of it and the so very easy made stain is a troublesome problem. A painted floor is perhaps the most comfortable and the cheapest ; an oil-cloth covering the whole floor is much more costly, and does not wear any better than the paint, and is no more easily cleaned. On the whole we would suggest a good painting to the anxious housekeeper troubled with a kitchen floor that requires frequent scrubbing to keep it clean and white. When a house is built the kitchen ought to receive more consideration than all the rest of the house. We would build the kitchen, and then put on the rest of the house. The floor should be of hard wood, sawn purposely into three inch strips, and very well seasoned, kiln dried, if possible, so that there should be no cracks for dust. It should then be well oiled, and then a single washing with hot water and soap and a woollen scrub cloth will keep it quite clean. Where this cannot be done the floor should be painted a color as near to the dust as possible, a sandy brownish yellow, made of brown ember, lightened with chrome yellow, a very little is just the right shade ; neither too light nor too dark. With lead, and oil, and plenty of dryers a paint may be made that will dry in a night so that a few boards may be laid down to walk upon until the surface is quite hard. A floor we know of very well so painted five years ago is to-day in excellent condition and promises to last five years more. The cracks around the base and in the floor should be filled with plaster of Paris and oil which sets as hard as a stone and closes up all harbors for ants, roaches, croton bugs and other bothering pests of the housekeeper.

FROM ALL OVER.

For man it has no equal ; for beasts it is not excelled. What ? Kendall's Spavin Cure.

THE whales recently captured in Weisdale Voe have been sold for £300, giving a dividend of £5 per man to each of the salvors.

DR. CASPER recommends Kendall's Spavin Cure in the highest terms, and thousands of eminent physicians do the same. See advt.

A LITTE child belonging to Andrew Borland, tailor, was drowned at Irvine on the 15th inst., in a tub in which there was only three inches of water.

THROAT, BRONCHIAL, AND LUNG DISEASES a specialty. Send two stamps for large treatise giving self treatment. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE farmers of Lanarkshire, have commenced spring sowing, and altogether it is computed that the season is three weeks earlier than in many years past.

GOOD HEALTH.—Keep the Stomach, Liver and Bowels in good order by the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and perfact health will be the result.

AT the annual sale of pure-bred stock at Kittybrewster recently there was a number of American dealers who have lately taken a strong liking to cattle of the polled Aberdeen or Angus breed.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

C. M. MOSEMAN & BROS' office is the headquarters for all prominent horsemen of New York City. In a letter of recent date says : "We are perfectly satisfied that there never was anything made to equal Kendall's Spavin Cure, nor can there be anything to take its place, as it removes the trouble, and no remedy can do more." Read advertisement.

The excessive dullness of the building trade is causing a large number of tradesmen in Selkirkshire to seek their fortune in the Far West. A considerable number of joiners and masons have gone already, and, it is expected that a constant succession of parties will follow during the season. Manitoba and Iowa are the favourite places.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

In the month of April almost everyone requires a good and reliable Blood Purifier. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kinneys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, Agent for Peterborough.

COPIES of the no-rent manifesto have been extensively posted on all conspicuous places in Kilrea, Derry, including the police barracks and post office. They were also posted throughout the entire village of Innishrush ; but the most amusing of all was one which was suspended from one of the branches of a huge pine tree which grows at the entrance of the lawn of the Roman Catholic Church adjoining Kilrae, around which crowds of spectators assembled. The police arriving on the scene, were driven to their wit's end to devise means for cutting down the obnoxious playcard, as ladders were refused them at every house. Throughout the entire country the no-rent notices were posted on trees a height of twenty feet, and calmly bade defiance to the myrmidons of the law to remove them. Those posted in close proximity to the town were taken down by the aid of ladders, with which the police returned fully armed on their second crusade.

THAT rheumatism is indigenous to the climate of our section of the globe, we admit, but this does not confine it within our limit or insure an attack to foreigners by special cultivation only, therefore we advise all who are in the least exposed to dampness or marshy districts to use St. Jacobs Oil, the great rheumatic cure, liberally, as did Professor F. Bellois, who resides at 1,117 Callowhill street. Philadelphia, and has been for more than two years the cornet-soloist of McClurg's Band. He was formerly first-violin of Theodore Thomas' renowned orchestra, and for several years was a prominent orchestra leader in Europe. He is a graduate of one of the best musical schools in Germany. Mr. Bellois stated that he had suffered severely from rheumatic attacks since he had been in the United States, and never found any substantial relief until he commenced using St. Jacobs Oil. at the request of Prof. McClurg. He had bad attacks in the limbs and joints, and never found any other remedy to do him any good. He always keeps the Oil on hand.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

THEY SPEAK for THEMSELVES

The 11th of APRIL.

GENTLEMEN,—It is time you had settled on what style of goods and cut your spring suit will be.

As simple a thing as the fashion of a man's clothes may make or mar a man's future. Is it well, therefore, to take chances when you can control destiny, by promptly purchasing the latest styles from us, all of which are now in?

No citizen, irrespective of politics, who values comfort and appearance, should be without one of our Scotch Tweed Suits.

It shines alike upon the just and the unjust, and the citizen with a blameless record gets just the same good fit at our hands as the statesman from the back townships.

The best advice we can give is—order at once. In two weeks our fine stock of tweeds will have shrunk to small dimensions. We know it, and so will the 750 lucky men who will be taken for Capitalists, Contractors, Manitoba Boomers, and Emigration Agents.

Consider, gentlemen, what advantages a good appearance gives.

Consider, gentlemen, where this good appearance can be reliably obtained. Don't let this opportunity pass without ordering a suit, and from us.

All of which are respectfully submitted.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic ; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is he?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A CLERICAL SCANDAL.

TRENTON, April 10.—After mass yesterday in the church of St. Peter-in-Chains, letters were read from his Lordship, Bishop Cleary, accusing the Rev. Henry Brettargh of have recently issued through the Kingston diocese certain defamatory and seditious libels, tending to schism and grievous scandal of the clergy, and also of the laity, both Catholic and Protestant, and in virtue of the canonical obedience due his Lordship, Father Brattargh is commanded to appear before to Bishop on Tuesday next, the 11th inst., at the hour of 5 p. m. in the Cathedral Church of St. Mary, in the city of Kingston, in order to answer such questions as shall be proposed to ask him in reference to the alleged libels. MONETARY MATTERS.

PARIS, April 12.—It is understood that a note has been addressed to the powers expressing a hope that the monetary conference will reassemble during the present year.

SARA'S TRIUMPH.

MADRID, April 12.—Sara Bernhardt made her debut to-night at the Theatre Royal in the presence of the King, Queen, and Infanta Isabel. There was a splendid audience. Three tiers of boxes and the pit were crowded with nobility, diplomats, men of letters, politicians, and lovely creatures in rich toilets. Mlle Bernhardt obtained after the second act—and especially after the third and fifth acts—a magnificent success. She deeply moved the audience, and cheers, vivas, and bouquets abounded. Her husband is a poor performer.

LONDON, April 13.—The export from Sheffield to the United States for the quarter ending March 31st, increased £53,000 as compared with the corresponding quarter of last year. The improvement is chiefly in steel and steel rails.

DR. LAMSON.

LONDON, April 13.—The health of Dr. Lamson is good. He has written an account of his movements at about the time of his visit to Wimbldon, just before the death of young John. Many of the statements have been proven to be untrue. Four servants employed by him at Bournemouth depose to eccentric acts on the part of the prisoner, and to the belief that he is insane.

THE AGITATOR.

PARIS, April 12.—Although the London papers announce Mr. Parnell's departure for Paris, nobody seems to have seen or heard anything of him here. Mr. Thompson expected him to breakfast, but he did not come and several letters are awaiting him with seals unbroken. Crowds of wolfish reporters in search of copy have been wearily pacing to and fro in front of the Hotel de Normandie and Mr. Thompson's all day. If he really is in Paris, Mr. Parnell is keeping the secret well.

HASTINGS.

FIRE.—The Star says that during the breakfast hour last Wednesday morning the fire fiend laid its devastating hand on the dwelling of Captain Howard of the Star, and in less than an hour the building vanished in smoke and flame. On the alarm being given the inhabitants turned out en masse, but after a determined, though futile, effort to save the building, turned their attention to saving the contents of the lower story, all of which was carefully removed to a place of safety. Not until the roof and ceilings had fallen in, did friends desert and several very narrow escapes occured in the endeavour to save every sash and door. While the debris was a mass of blazing ruins, Richard Johnson, with kind thoughtfulness, organized a juvenile fire brigade to drown damage to the fences, and liberally rewarded the youths for their labor. Nothing from the upper story was saved. The loss will probably be about $500.

ONE BY ONE THEY PASS AWAY.—Mr. John Lancaster, senr., died on Saturday the 8th inst., at the ripe age of 75 years. The deceased gentleman was one of the oldest inhabitants in the Township of Otonabee. He was born in Lancashire, England, in 1807, emigrating to Canada in 1831, settling in Otonabee, where he continuously resided up to the day of his death. He was a constant member of the Anglican Church, a good neighbor, a warm and sympathetic friend.

A DASTARDLY ACT.—Some miscreant shaved the tails of Mr. P. McGillen's horses, which stood in the Coughlin House shed on last Sunday morning while Mr. McGillen was attending church.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.—Mr. John Clark, of Seymour having declined the nomination as the Conservative Candidate for the Ontario Legislature, Mr. Wm. Wade, of Brighton township will be the nominee of the party.

SCARCE.—Tenements are at a premium in Hastings just now, not a dwelling, or even a a room, can be had for love or money.

MIDDLE AGED MEN, often lack vigor, this can be restored by that great brain and nerve food, known as Mack's Magnetic Medicine. Read the advertisement in another coiumn of to-days paper.

FOR CANKER RASH.—Take one teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in hot water, sweetened with syrup or sugar, three times a day, every other day, and a dose of castor oil on the alternate days.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, KIDNEY, LIVER OR URINARY DISEASE.—Have no fear of any of these diseases if you use Hop Bitters, as they will prevent and cure the worst cases, even when you have been made worse by some great puffed up pretended cures.

Daily Evening Review

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1882.

SACRIFICING OUR TERRITORY.

THE reports in the newspapers of the position assumed by the opposition speakers in the debate on Mr. Plumb's motion as to the Ontario boundaries, appeared so incredible that we hesitated to trust them, and waited to see the official report.

It seemed impossible that those who were agitating for the confirmation of the award, and were accusing the Government of wronging Ontario by not confirming it, should absolutely contend in Parliament that the arbitrators have not given this Province her full rights. The pages of Hansard show, however, that such is the case.

Mr. Cameron (Huron), is officially reported as saying:—

"I have satisfied my own mind at all events, that the western boundary of Ontario was as far, if not further west, than that fixed by the award."

Later in his speech he says:—

"We have found that gentlemen on both sides of the House have pronounced in favor of the case of Ontario, and even of an extension of the western boundary beyond the point where the arbitrators have fixed it; the Conservative party were as pronounced in that opinion as the Liberal party; the Liberal party still adheres to that position."

Mr. Trow, speaking of the committee on the award, of which he was a member, said:—

"At the close of that examination I was satisfied in my own mind that the Province of Ontario had scarcely received justice in that award."

Mr. Laurier, an ex-Minister and colleague of Messrs. Mackenzie and Blake, was even more plainly spoken, for we learn from Hansard that he said:—

"Now let us suppose that the question is opened anew. The award may be set aside, and it may be that Ontario will be increased to the extent claimed as her right by the Dominion Government, or it may be that the territory of Ontario will be increased to the extent claimed by Ontario, and granted by Sir George Cartier; namely to Red River—what then? You will have the Province of Ontario made greater than it is by the award."

Mr. Mills, another member of the late administration, also argued for more extensive territory than that given by the arbitrators.

Mr. Blake's views on the question we cannot ascertain, for strangely enough we cannot find in Hansard the report of any contribution to this debate by the titutlar leader of the opposition.

The opposition could only bring 44 members to vote against what has been denounced as the spoliation of a province. And their speakers are found to maintain that the award does not give Ontario their rights, yet the Reformers praise Mr. Mowat for his surrender, and blame Sir John Macdonald for not hastening to give away territory which they say is rightfully Ontario's.

And to cap the climax we have the leader of the Quebec Liberals actually supporting the award, because he fears that a competent tribunal would give Ontario a greater extent of territory.

Yet, he and his colleagues claim that they are doing justice to this Province, and that the administration are denying it. Could a more impudent contention be maintained for partisan purposes?

This province is not to be deluded in such a way by either Mr. Mowat or his friends of the Dominion opposition. It is too obvious that it is they, not Sir John Macdonald and his supporters, who are endeavouring to force on a sacrifice of the rights of Ontario, to surrender her territory in the vain hope of embarrassing an administration which they cannot successfully attack by fair and honest means.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

JUST before the Easter recess Mr. Paterson moved another of the Opposition amendments on going into committee of supply, the attack this time being on the sugar duties.

Mr. White (Cardwell) made an able reply completely exposing his fallacies.

After further discussion the amendment was negatived by 85 to 36, and some items were taken in supply.

The House reassembled on April 11th.

The Civil Service Bill was read a second time. Mr. Blake complaining that the bill made no great change, but omitting to say why he did not pass a bill to his taste while he was in power.

The Mounted Police Bill passed through committee with slight discussion.

The bill to consolidate the public lands acts was read a second time.

The report of the Royal Commission on the Canada Pacific Railway was laid on the table.

Mr. Charlton on Wednesday moved another of the string of Opposition amendments on going into supply, this time the attack being upon the land policy of the Government.

Sir John Macdonald gave Mr. Charlton a well deserved castigation for insinuations of corruption, and pointed out the benefits resulting from their land policy. He showed what use was being made in the States of the unpatriotic utterances of Opposition leaders.

Mr. Blake, then rousing himself from his long lethargy, attempted to defend himself as to his Kansas advocacy, going on to attack the Government policy.

Sir C. Tupper and Mr. Plumb, Mr. Mills and Mr. Ross, continued the debate, the amendment being defeated by 114 to 42.

INTERPROVINCIAL TRADE.

SINCE the Globe has gone into the business of raking up old files, we would respectfully call its attention to the following extract from a speech of the late Hon. Geo. Brown as reported in the "confederation debates":—

"But, fifthly, Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of a union of these provinces, because it will enable us to meet, without alarm, the abrogation of the American Reciprocity Treaty, in case the United States should insist on its abolition. (Hear, hear.) I do not believe that the American Government is so insane as to repeal that treaty. But it is always well to be prepared for contingencies—and I have no hesitation in saying that if they do repeal it, should this union of British America go on, a fresh outlet to our commerce will be opened up to us quite as advantageous as the American trade has ever been. * * * I hold in my hand a return of the articles purchased by the Maritime Provinces from the United States in 1863, which Canada could have supplied. * * * And the total value of products which the Lower Provinces might have bought more advantageously from us sums up to over seven million dollars. (Hear, hear.) The Americans must, therefore, bear in mind that if they abolish the Reciprocity Treaty, they will not only lose that seven millions which they now receive for their products, but the carrying trade that goes with it. But on the other hand, when we have this union, these products will, as they naturally should, go down the St. Lawrence, not only for the advantage of our farmers,—but swelling the volume of our own shipping interests. (Hear, hear.) The Americans hitherto have had a large portion of our carrying trade; they have brought us our goods—even our European goods—and take our produce not only to Europe but even to the Lower Provinces; and I say one of the best features of this union is, that if in our commercial relations with the United States we are compelled by them to meet fire with fire—it will enable us to stop this improvidence, and turn the current of our own trade into our own waters."

THE TRIP TO MANITOBA.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—According to promise, I will give your readers a sketch of my journey to this Province.

We left Peterborough on Tuesday, the 21st ult. Arriving in Toronto we checked our baggage through to Winnipeg. At Port Huron we had to pass Customs. We reached Chicago on Wednesday morning and were driven to the Chicago and Rock Island Depot. Arriving at Minneapolis, we remained there until Thursday at 8 p.m. We reached Warren per St. Paul, M. & M. R., and we were forced to remain owing to huge snow drifts which were being cleared away as fast as possible. This work was done in two days. We left on Saturday evening. At Emerson two trains were joined, making one of thirteen coaches, five smoking cars and six freight cars, with two engines. Part of this train was left six miles on the prairie and we had to go back for it. With this delay we arrived in Winnipeg at 3 p.m. on Sunday. Such a crowd as was packed on that platform! A stranger gazing on the scene might well ask:—"Can the Marquis of Lorne be on board, or is it Sir John A. Macdonald?"

Mr. Richard Cook and I were immediately surrounded by Peterborough friends, and met on the streets a great many more, among whom were Messrs. D. W. Dumble, Walter Orde and the Hon. W. N. Kennedy. The city is crowded and accommodation is limited. If any others are contemplating a visit to this country I would advise them to wait for another month. I went to Wesley Hall in the evening to hear the Rev. J. Starr preach; the congregation is very large. I had been informed that the people here were not church goers, but this is a mistake, as all denominations are well represented. A novelty here is a male choir, 23 voices, an organist and cornet player, conducted by Hon. W. N. Kennedy. I noticed Messrs. John Wells and Wm. Flavelle among the choristers. You have heard Winnipeg spoken of so much it is unnecessary for me to add my quota. Every one is rushing as if his life depended on it, all business—in fact it is a live city. I left here on Monday morning with my brother for Stonewall, 26 miles from Winnipeg. We made this journey by stage, passing the penitentiary, and arrived at Stonewall. This town plot is owned by Messrs. Jackson, Young and McDonald, and is about the only place that has not been placed in the market, all sales being private, and it is astonishing how those lots are being purchased. The village is on the C. P. R. where the trains are expected very soon. There are two hotels, which are filled, blacksmith shop, grist mill, drug store, three general stores, one of which is owned by A. Johnston & Co., all doing a good business. There are four religious denominations, two of which have churches, viz. the Methodists and Baptists, the others, the Episcopalians and Presbyterians, are going to erect churches this summer. If any liberally disposed members of these congregations at home feel disposed to assist with money the Rev. Mr. Green will receive it for the first and my brother for the last named.

I cannot leave here for Brandon until after the 24th of May. Owing to the blockade it was impossible to get lumber. The track is not clear yet. Four men were killed yesterday with the snow plough. The snow is about six feet deep. It looks like rain this morning. Old settlers say this is the worst winter they have experienced in ten years.

Yours, &c.,
G. H. JOHNSTON.

Stonewall, Manitoba, April 1, 1882.

MILLBROOK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

ADDRESS.—Among the removals to the North-West from this village perhaps apart from family circles none felt them more than the Methodist S. S., from the number of teachers and officers leaving their posts of duty, which they have filled for many years with profit and satisfaction to those they have worked with, two having gone and four about to go, making a removal of six out of a Board of 14. Those remaining invited the departing ones on Saturday, March 25th, to a social held at the house of Mr. Might where, in addition to the abundant spread on the tables, a very social, pleasant time was enjoyed, in the midst of which the young men of Mr. C. Brandon's class came in, to his entire surprise, with a large bible, and an address which was read and presented to him. The Superintendent stated that it was the intention to have a farewell service at the close of school on Sunday, when an address would be presented, and the friends have the privilege of giving their parting advice to those who remained. In accordance to the announcement made, after the usual lesson on Sabbath, the Superintendent stated there were those with us to-day, probably for the last time, and with the view of this he would change the remainder of the service when the following address was read:—

To C. Brandon, W. G. Berry, C. F. and Mrs. Kreiger.

DEAR FRIENDS, AND FELLOW LABOURERS IN THE LORD'S VINEYARD,—It is with feelings of regret we learn that you are about to leave us, and that we are to be deprived of your valued co-operation, in our Sunday School work, in which you have been so long and successfully engaged. For years past you have been identified with our school, and we, who have been so intimately associated with you in this gracious work, can bear the most unequivocal, testimony to the fidelity, and zeal and success of your labours, and to the kind and and cordial and efficient manner in which you have engaged in every effort put forth for the benefit of the school or the church. The good seed of the Kingdom which you have been permitted to sow on the prepared ground of tender, youthful minds and hearts has, in many instances, already sprung up into gracious spiritual fruit; and you have been enabled to rejoice in the proofs that your labours have not been in vain in the Lord—and even where the fruits of your anxious toils and prayers have not been so apparent, yet, having sown in hope you may still confidently pray and believe that the fruit may yet be seen even after many days; and that those whom you have been instrumental in pointing to the Saviour, may in coming years become useful in turning many to righteousness—and that so will the bright succession run until the great harvest come when he that soweth and he that reapeth shall rejoice together.

Although we shall greatly miss you in our Sunday work, our social gatherings, and our various efforts for the good of the school and the church, yet we feel assured that though far separated from us by distance, the Millbrook Sunday School will never be forgotten by you, and that whilst absent in body you will often be present with us in spirit, and will not cease to pray that the blessing of the Lord may rest upon our humble efforts to promote His glory—and we feel confident that wherever in the Providence of God, your lots may be cast you will be found faithfully engaged in the work of the Divine Master, so that our loss will be great gain to the cause of God in that great new country where you expect to reside.

Our sincere and earnest prayer is that the Divine Presence may watch over you in your long and arduous journey—appoint for you the bounds of your habitation—prosper you in your laudable temporal pursuits—keep your feet in the path of life, open up your way to extensive usefulness in His Church, fill you with all peace and joy in believing—and, that when life's short day is past He may bring us to meet at His right hand where there are pleasures forevermore.

Signed in behalf of the officers, teachers and committee of the Methodist Sunday School of Millbrook.

H. MCCARTHY, Secretary. W. MIGHT, Superintendent.

Millbrook, March 26th, 1882.

Appropriate replies were given by those addressed interspersed with singing by the school. The Superintendent stated he was glad the address in this case was not a coloured but a real truth especially in that portion refering to having seen fruit from their labours, each of them having witnessed several conversions in their classes.

A cough or cold contracted in the month of April if not speedily arrested is liable to stick to one during the whole summer. Dr. Carson's Pulmanary Cough Drops speedily cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain and oppression of the Chest, and all Throat, Chest and Lung Affections. In large bottles at 50 cents.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

ALLANDALE.

From Our Own Correspondence.

LAMENTED DEATH.—Death has again taken from our midst one of the earliest settlers of Otonabee, Mrs. John Byram, who died at her residence in the vicinity of this village on the 5th inst. in the triumphs of christian faith. As an evidence of the deep respect entertained for her and family a large number of friends gathered on Friday p.m. to sympathise with the bereaved family and follow her remains to their last resting place—the cemetery in the neighbordood of Fife's church. About one hundred vehicles, of all kinds, were in procession. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. Harper, C. M., minister of Keene.

DR. HOLMES grows old slowly and in growing old loses none of his brightness and vivacity. His conversation is more brilliant than ever. He is a frequent diner out nowadays and he is the life of the tables at which he is a guest. His talk sparkles with wit, gentle satire and rollicking fun.

FROM ALL OVER.

REV. M. J. SAVAGE, of Boston, says :—"I am a theist from earnest conviction."

A STRIKING portrait of James Russel Lowell will be the frontispiece of the Century Magazine for May.

CALLA lilies are in bloom near Tampa, Fla., and they tell of one blossom that measures 11½ inches in length.

THE bible is wholly put into eight African tongues, and partly into thirty-four more, and the thirty-fifth is being prepared for.

GOOD HEALTH.—Keep the Stomach, Liver and Bowels in good order by the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and perfact health will be the result.

The Palatka (Fla.) Herald declares that alligator oil beats lard oil all hollow, and that alligator steaks surpass the frogs of Paris.

"I take my tex' dis morning," said a colored preacher, "from dat po'tion ob de scripture whar de Postol Paul pints his pistol to the Fesians.

THE average life of a circus actor is forty years. The average age af a circus joke is 250 years. The latter is "worked almost to death" every year too.

The Princess of Wales wrote that her favorite name of woman was "Dagmar," her favorite dish Yorkshire pudding, and her aim in life to mind her own business.

AT stations on the new Southern Pacific railroad the following signs are seen in front of tents and shanties :—"One meal 25 cents ; square meal 50 cents ; a regular gorge, 75 cents."

REV. J. ROSS, a Presbyterian minister, has just translated the new testament into the Corean language. This work is the beginning of missionary work in the peninsula of Corea, a country hitherto a most unknown to Europeans.

POPULAR DEMAND.—The great superiority of Downs' Elixir, over all other cough remedies, is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy for the cure of Coughs, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the throat, Chest and Lungs.

A FEW days ago for the first time in the history of British Columbia, a large shipment of live beeves was made from Victoria to the United States, British Columbians are jubilant over the prospect. Not long since American cattle were imported to supply the provincial demand for beef.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

ACTIONS for breach of promise are rare in Germany. A Miss Constance Kirschner recently brought an action of this kind against her faithless swain, a goldsmith, named Mr. John Fundel, in which she sued for the fulfilment of his promise. She won the case and he must marry her or remain single.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

In the month of April almost everyone requires a good and reliable Blood Purifier. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kinneys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, Agent for Peterborough.

DURING the King of Burmah's recent illness his courtiers looked about them for a successor in the event of the king's death and their choice fell upon the young Prince Theebau, but unfortunately for their arrangements, the king recovered and a velvet sack and the waters of the Irrawaddy closed the career of the aspiring monarch, while his followers, three in number, were summarily despatched.

DR. SMITH'S GERMAN WORM REMEDY Removes stomach and Seat Worms from adults or child, and as a cure for Costiveness, Biliousness, Indigestion, Sour or Weak Stomach, it is unexcelled, removing all impurities from the Stomach and keeping the bowels regular. Put up in Packages at 25 cents. Sold by Druggists and country storekeepers generally. If your druggist does not keep it, Use No Other, but sent to our nearest office, or ask your druggist to obtain it for you. Send post card with full directions for using, on receipt of price. AN excellent man in holy orders, but a most mediocre preacher, is conducting Lenten services in a country parish in Champagne. His audience go so far as to laugh at him at times. "You ridicule me," he says, "because I preach so poorly. But to laugh at me is to laugh at yourselves, for I beg you to consider, if I had been a more eloquent preacher I should never have been sent here !"—French Paper.

OF this fact I am convinced, and that is, St. Jacobs Oil does cure rheumatism. For years I suffered with rheumatism in my left shoulder and right arm, and last fall I was incapable of attending to my duties, and lay many a night unable to sleep on account of terrible pains. A few weeks ago a severe attack of this trouble struck me, and this time I concluded to try the St. Jacobs Oil, I must acknowledge, with but little confidence in its merits. I freely confess that the result has completely astonished me. The first application relieved the pain very materially, and the continued use of only two bottles has completely cured me of this chronic evil, and that, after the most eminent physicians and their prescriptions had been of no avail. I therefore consider it a duty to publish the above for the benefit of all sufferers with rheumatism and kindred complaints. G. A. HEILMAN, Editor Republican, Pittsburgh, Pa.

FOR WEAKNESS AND GENERAL DEBILITY.—From Itihel Pease, of North Searsment, Me.—"It gives me very great pleasure to inform you of the benefit received from the use of Peruvian Syrup in my own family. My wife, for the past ten years, has been in feeble health—very much debilitated generally. Last spring she concluded to try a bottle of Peruvian Syrup, and was so well pleased with the result continued its use until three or four bottles had been used, and she is now in better health than at any time for ten years, and has increased in weight from 110 pounds to 126½. I have employed physicians and used a great variety of patent medicines, to the extent of hunderds of dollars, and I know she received more benefit from the Peruvian Syrup than all the rest together. My sales of the Syrup are very large and constantly increasing, and I do not hesitate to recommend and even warrant it to give satisfaction." Sold by all druggists.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic ; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Martin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Daily Evening Review

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

St. Luke's Ashburnham.

The annual vestry meeting of this church was held on Monday evening April 10th at 7.30 p.m. After the opening prayer the Incumbent, Rev. W. C. Bradshaw took the chair and the proceedings commenced. Mr. A. E. Peck, who acted as vestry clerk, read the minutes of last meeting which were confirmed. The churchwardens presented their reports which on motion were adopted. Messrs. H. O. Canning and E. A. Peck, auditors, certified to the accounts as correct. The report of the churchwardens showed a decided increase in the Sunday collections, the average collections for last year being $22.09. The total receipts were $1,516.24 and expenditure $1,435.49 leaving a balance on hand of $80.75. The amount received by the building committee for the parsonage fund from April last was $1,434.45, so that the total revenue for all church purposes was $2,950.69. The reports all indicated a flourishing and prosperous condition of affairs. The communicants have increased more than one hundred fold in five years; the collection were larger than in any previous years, and the Sunday attendance shows a marked and decided improvement. Messrs. John Burnham, M.P., and H. T. Strickland, were chosen incumbent's and people's church wardens, respectively, for the seventh time, and subsequently a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to them for their able management of the financial affairs of the Church. The sum of $75 was, on motion, requested to be paid to the Incumbent from the surplus funds as a token of his self-denying exertions in devoting his services exclusively to St. Luke's congregation during the past year. Votes of thanks were passed to the Parochial Association who had contributed over $200 by various entertainments to the parsonage fund; also to Mrs. C. B. Orde and the Roger's family, for each erecting a memorial window in St. Luke's Church last Christmas, and to the choir and organist for their able services during the year. Messrs. H. O. Canning and E. A. Peck were appointed auditors, and Messrs. C. Chrowe, A. Ingram, and John Heap were named as sidesmen for the present year. A committee was appointed to procure additional subscribers to the envelope system, and subscriptions were taken up at the meeting to reduce the debt on the parsonage to $1,000, a very pleasing result—$240 being promised by a few of those who were present. This work is to be further prosecuted, as one gentleman promises $140 on condition that the congregation contribute $560 by the 1st of July next. At the subsequent meeting for the election of delegates to Synod, Messrs. H. C. Burritt, M.D., and G. C. Rogers were appointed to represent St. Luke's for the current year. Thus ended another harmonious and pleasant vestry meeting at St. Luke's, the members separating shortly after 10 o'clock.

The Female Congress.

On Wednesday afternoon the Board of Managers met in the School room of St. Paul's church, and in the afternoon the Society met in the same place. The buisness transacted was of merely a routine character, including the reading of letters from missionaries by Mrs. Harvel, an address by Mrs. Brusoke of Saginaw, Michigan, informal conversation and votes of thanks to the ladies of the Peterborough Auxiliary Society for the handsome manner in which the delegates had been entertained during their sojourn here. The meeting adjourned at an early hour, and the large majority of those from a distance left for their homes on the night trains.

Railway Notes.

Regarding the steam shovels which have arrived for work on the "Missing Link," the Mail says:—

"Mr. James R. Pemberthy, master mechanic for Wilcox & Stock, of Toledo, O., passed through Toronto on Saturday night on his way to Port Hope. He has sold to Mr. Beemer, a contractor for a section of the Midland Railway, one of the firm's patent mounted railroad excavators and wreckers for the work. As this is the first machine of the kind introduced into Canada, a brief description of it may be of interest. It consists of a crane and dipper, somewhat similar to those used on dredges, and mounted upon an eight wheeled flat car, which may be either propelled by the engine which works the machine or hauled on the train. It may be used for all kinds of railroad excavations, loading cars or ballasting, trestle filling, cutting down heavy grades, cleaning ditches, and other work usually performed by hand. It is capable of handling 1,000 to 1,500 yards a day, according to size, and is equivalent to the labour of about seventy-five men. When in working condition the excavator is 50 feet long over all, 10 feet wide, and cranes 19 feet high. It is worked by a forty horse-power horizontal duplex engine, with independent swinging and forcing engine. The machine can very readily be adapted for a dredging machine, and has power sufficient to handle one thousand yards per day; it may be used for a pile-driver; and with three or four days' labour, by taking out the crane and the drums, may be converted into a snow-plough. By unhitching the dipper it makes a first-class wrecking machine, which can lift and swing a weight of eighteen tons, place a car upon the track, or lower one car upon another, or turn the cars over, and clear the track in a quarter of the time of any ordinary wrecking machine. The car is prevented from upsetting by adjustable jack arms projecting on each side. The price of the machine is $8,000, and on the one purchased by Mr. Beemer a duty of twenty-five per cent. and ten off was paid. Mr. Pemberthy will sell two more shortly. A patent has been taken out for Canada, and the company propose erecting shops here for the construction of the excavators. Twenty-five have been sold within the last two years by the proprietors, Messrs. Wilcox & Stock, of Toledo, O."

Two more coal burners have arrived for the Midland. We understand that arrangements are at present being made to convert all the locomotives owned by the Midland railway into coal burners. The coal yards are to be at Belleville, Toronto, Port Hope and Peterborough.

A number of new cars and old ones repainted all of a uniform colour have been noticed here during the last few days. They present an attractive appearance.

Special trains now pass through the town daily, loaded with lumber from the Nassau mills.

The Intelligencer says that Mr. Wm. Gooderham, President of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway, has presented to Miss Lilian O'Flynn, of Madoc, who turned the first sod of the above named railway on the 19th of July last, the miniature spade with which the service was performed. The tool has been handsomely mounted in silver, and is inscribed as follows:—"Presented by Wm. Gooderham, President T. & O. Railway, to Miss Lilian O'Flynn. Used in turning the first sod T. & O. Railway July 19th, 1881."

The monster steam shovel, which occupies two cars, is now at the Union Station and the monster is of much interest to the hundreds that have visited it. The works are pretty much after the style of a dredge, but they are built far stronger. The bucket or scoop is of a very large size and will with ease carry off an ordinary cartload. The machine has no less than five engines and is a self propellor. Mr. Power informs us that the work of removal to the Tully cut will be commenced in a day or two. The machine will be run on the main line of the Midland as far as McDonnell Street, where the track will be taken up and the shovel moved out on a track built in sections, which will be taken up and re-laid as progress is made. The distance to be traversed is about five miles and it is expected to take about five days to reach their destination. Another similar machine is on its way to Omemee and will be placed in position at the other end of the line. Mr. Beemer paid Collector Burton of Port Hope $2,000 duty on this machine.

Surveyors are at work on Burlington heights laying out a line for the new Midland Railway line between Hamilton and Toronto. They are now locating the entrance to the city at the corner of York and Dundurn streets.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

Royal Hand Bell Ringers.

Our readers are again reminded that on Wednesday evening next the celebrated Royal Hand Bell Ringers and Gleemen, of London, England, give one of their grand performances in Bradburn's Hall. The plan of the seats is now open at Davidson's bookstore, and all should secure seats at once. Regarding this Company we publish the following:—

"I had the pleasure of hearing the Royal Hand Bell Ringers at one of their entertainments in the Crystal Palace, in 1879, before an immense audience. Their music exceeded anything of the kind I had ever heard before. Their singing was very good, and their humor and fun was irresistible. I never saw an audience more delighted and enthusiastic than on that occasion.

JOHN B. GOUGH.

The Weather.

The weather still remains cold and windy. The weather probablities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Moderate to fresh northerly to westerly winds, fair weather and slightly higher temperature.

The Cricket Club.

At a large meeting of the Cricket Club at the Oriental on Wednesday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

PRESIDENT.....R. A. Morrow, Esq.
1st VICE-PRESIDENT.....Rev. V. Clementi
2nd " PRESIDENT.....Hon. Robt. Hamilton
SEC'Y-TREAS.....C. A. Connolly

BUSINESS COMMITTEE—Messrs. Peck, Morris, Hamilton, Miles, Hallett and Hatton.

A discussion took place with regard to affiliation with the Ontario Association this year, owing to the fact that the Club believed they were unfairly treated by the Association last year, but on a vote being taken the majority of those present were in favor of continuing its membership. The Committee were instructed to take steps to meet the Boat Club Committee and arrange the annual sports.

P.B.C.

There was but a small attendance at the adjourned meeting of the Peterborough Boating Club. The President occupied the chair. The Treasurer's statement showed a balance in hand of $13.16. Messrs. R. A. Wood and E. J. Toker were appointed auditors. Committees were appointed to arrange for the annual sports on the 24th of May, and to select two delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Amateur Oarsmen's Association. The meeting adjourned until Monday evening next when the election of officers, etc., will take place.

Personals.

Among the names of those who have departed for Winnipeg during the last week, are Messrs. J. W. Johnston, W. Chrowe, Samuel Green and Robert Green.

Mr. Alf. Tate, late of the Midland Railway, has accepted a similar situation in Virginia, U. S., under Mr. Blackwell, late chief engineer of the Midland.

The Ottawa Free Press says:—

Dr. Alexander, formerly of Ottawa, but now of Peterborough is on a visit to this city, where he has many warm friends. Peterborough air seems to agree with Frank, for he is looking better than ever.

Midland Railway of Canada.

The Traffic of the above Railway for the week ending April 8th, 1882, was as follows:—Passengers and Mails, $6,441.76; Freight, $11,582.70; Total, $17,970.46 as compared with $11,779.53 for the corresponding week of 1881, being an increase of $6,191.28; and the aggregate traffic to date is $209,847.21, being an increase of $69,331.90 over 1881.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1882.

A DISTINGUISHED FOREIGNER.

"Jambo" Greeted by Immense Crowds at New York.

"Jumbo" the largest elephant in captivity in the world, and for fifteen years past the pride of the London Zoological Gardens, was landed at New York on Sunday from the steamship Assyrian Monarch. The vessel steamed up the harbour early on Sunday morning and was quickly boarded by P. T. Barnum, Messrs. Hutchinson and Bailey and a party of friends, with a large delegation of newspaper men, among them being special agents of the leading English journals. The announcement in the morning papers that "Jumbo" had arrived brought at an early hour a large crowd to the pier and to the dock of the Monarch line in Jersey City, but it was late in the evening before the huge animal was landed. A large throng also gathered at Madison Square garden and remained through all day. By the time "Jumbo" had reached the pier, the crowd had grown to enormous proportions. Barnum first greeted Mathew Scott, who has had charge of "Jumbo" since the elephant was four years old, and Newman, his own trainer, better known as Elephant Bill, whom he sent to London to accompany "Jumbo" on his voyage. Mr. Barnum said that, though he had paid £2,000 for the animal, as the English people had shown so much sentiment about letting him leave England, he would send him back there in November, and with him the smallest elephant in the world. A quart of whiskey was given to the elephant by his keeper, Scott, and swallowed, to the intense amusement of the spectators. Barnum remarked that if "Jumbo" had never been given whiskey or beer, he would now be three feet taller. The strong wooden casement in which "Jumbo" was confined is 15 feet high. Scott, his keeper, said that on the first day of the voyage "Jumbo" showed signs of discontent and on the second day refused to eat, but afterward took regularly his 200 pounds of hay per day besides other food. Scott conducted Baroness Burdett-Coutts to see "Jumbo" on board the steamer before departure, and the baroness sent a large present of bon bons for the animal.

CLOTURE.

LONDON, April 13.—Gladstone replying to a letter from Henry Broadhurst (Liberal), member of Parliament, making enquiries concerning the truth of the rumour that the Government were prepared to consider an amendment making a two-third majority necessary to close the debate, says:—"We have surrounded the closing power with strong safeguards, and we propose that when it has to be applied it shall be by a simple majority. This proposal we will to the best of our ability press upon the house."

FOR CANADA.

LONDON, April 13.—The Sarmation and Phœnician (extra steamer) have sailed with 700 and 1,100 passengers respectively, a large proportion with capital for Manitoba. Mr. Dyke has sent out a wealthy party of Lord Derby's tenants to visit Ontario and Manitoba at their own expense, with a view of selecting homes for themselves, friends, and others. Tenants on Lord Sudley's estate will follow in the course of a few weeks. The Allan, Beaver, Temperley and Dominion steamers are filled for the next few sailings. Mr. Dyke has proceeded to the Continent under Sir A. T. Galt's instructions with a view of securing a share of the enormous Continental emigration now going on.

CLERGY AND LAND-ACT.

DUBLIN, April 13.—The Catholic clergy of the diocese of Cashel and Emly have passed resolutions pledging themselves to exert all their influence to prevent outrages, demanding the cessation of coercion and eviction of tenants for arrears of rent, and pledging themselves to co-operate with the people's representive with the object of securing large amendments to the Land Act.

A MARITAL SEPARATION.

PARIS, April 13.—The Marquis of Anglesey, who married in 1880 the widow of Henry Wodehouse, daughter of J. P. King, of Georgia, U.S., has separated from his wife. The Marquis announces that he will not be responsible for her debts.

ST. PERERSBURG, April 13.—The Russian Minister of the Imperial Household has issued a circular announcing that the coronation of the Czar will take place in August, and by Imperial command all the dignitaries of the empire must attend the cermony in Moscow. The festivities will last a fortnight, and the expenses will amount to ten million roubles.

AMERICAN.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

COLOGNE April 13.—The boiler of the steamer Austria exploded at Magdeburg. Four person were killed and the vessel destroyed.

BOYCOTTED.

TURNER'S FALLS, April 13.—The Irish Catholics have banded together to boycott and have nothing to do with G. L. Rist, merchant, who was a member of the grand jury that indicted David McMillan, who killed Father McCarthy, for manslaughter. The boycotting is based upon the fact that a bill for murder was not found.

AIDING TRADE.

NEW ORLEANS, April 13.—The port of New Orleans has been designated as a port from which imported merchandise may be shipped in bond for transit through the United States to and from the British possessions in North America by such routes and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

NO SUNDAY DRINKING.

BALTIMORE, April 3.—The Ohio Senate on Wednesday passed the Smith bill closing all saloons and drinking places on Sunday. The Sunday bill becomes law as soon as the House confirms a few trifling Senate amendments. In In Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and other large cities, hundreds of thousands of dollars have been invested in Sunday resorts, and all these are wiped out by the Smith bill, to say nothing of the Sunday business of all the saloons.

THE GUITEAU CASE.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The counsel for Mrs. Scoville in the proceedings for the appointment of a conservator for the estate of Guiteau, says that Judge Loomis has not quashed the writ. If Loomis refuses the writ the case will be taken to the Appellate Court, where there will be a regular trial as to Guiteau's insanity. Most of the experts who testified at Washington and several others will be examined. If declared of unsound mind, as he doubtless will be, it will not be against the decision of the Guiteau trial. That decision was not as to perfect sanity, but as to the degree of responsibility. The decision is to be used only in obtaining a conservator. Guiteau has made $1,500 by the sale of autographs and photographs, which he is wasting. If Mrs. Scoville had the money, she could secure Ben. Butler to argue the case. The profit from Guiteau's book is expected to be between $5,000 and $6,00. The counsel say that Mrs. Scoville's motives are entirely unselfish.

LEAGUERS IN COUNCIL.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—At the National Land League convention this evening, Father Walsh, treasurer of the League, reported the receipts and remittances since the last convention. The total receipts since the formation of the League were $180,600; remitted to Mr. Egan, president of the Irish National Land League, and Miss Parnell, $169,000; balance on hand after payment of the expenses of the League, $7,000. The report was frequently interrupted by applause, and three cheers were given when a large contribution from Massachusetts was announced. Secretary Flatly of Boston, read a full statement of the number of branch leagues in each of the States, the amount contributed by each State, and the method of remittance pursued. Massachusetts headed the list with a total contrition of $82,000. New York next with a contribution of $60,000. The total acknowledged as having been sent to Ireland direct, and from the treasurer, was $273,000, from 940 branch leagues of good standing. The secretary said there were other sums to the credit of the League which had not been received. He believed the total receipts since the Buffalo convention were nearly $300,000. Both reports were unanimously accepted.

MIDDLE AGED MEN, often lack vigor, this can be restored by that great brain and nerve food, known as Mack's Magnetic Medicine. Read the advertisement in another column of to-days paper.

LYNCHED FOR MURDER.

SELIMA, Ala., April 14.—On March the 31st Bill Laidlaw and Al. Weismer were hanged for the murder of J. Messenger, a planter, near Brown station. The men protested their innocence. On Wednesday Henry Joy, colored, acknowledged that he committed the murder and implicated his brother Porter, who received a life sentence for his share in the crime, Samuel Acoff, colored, and both of the hanged men. Joy and Acoff were arrested on neighboring plantations. The neeroes were furiously excited and were with difficulty prevented from lynching the prisoners. Many of them declared that Joy and his brother swore away the lives of Laidlaw and Messenger. The prisoners were given in charge of three officers and taken to the school house for safe keeping. Early yesterday morning forty masked men, thought to be all whites, bound and gagged the guards and rode off with the negroes, who in vain pleaded for mercy. The body of Joy was found last evening hanging from a tree. The body of Acoff has not yet been found, but there is no doubt that he has been lynched.

A PLAIN DENIAL.

YANKTON, Dakota, April 14.—The Governor has stated that the Douglass Court Commissioners who issued the bogus securities were not his appointees. He denies that the county was organized with undue haste.

MORMONISM.

SIOUX CITY, April 14.—Three Mormon missionaries passed through this city yesterday on their way to Minnesota. The conferance recently held at Ogden appointed 43 missionaries of whom 22 are going to Europe. 200 more missionaries will soon be sent out.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 14.—The Mormon conference which has been in session here for nine days adjourned to meet at Lamont Iowa next autumn. Nothing was done towards carrying out the project to build a great temple here. The matter will be taken up at the Oct. meeting. The president and prophet Joseph Smith, delivered a farewell sermon to a large congregation.

LAWLESSNESS.

PARSONS, KANSAS, April 14.—Indians and others in the Indian Torritry continue their depredations along the lines of the Missouri Kansas and Texas Railway. It is believed that the sheriff, pursuing the parties who shot and killed two brakemen, has himself been murdered. An engine yesterday ran into a great stock of timbers on the track and the wreckers poured a volley into the engine and fled.

DAMAGES FOR LIBEL.

NEW YORK, April 14.—In the libel suit of the Rev. Mr. Hunan against Bishop Hare, the jury rendered a verdict of $10,000 for plaintiff.

A CANAL BREAK.

SYRACUSE, April 14.—A break occurred yesterday afternoon in the canal at Seneca Falls, threatening serious consequences. Engineer Whitfield went to the scene this afternoon.

ARTHUR HOME.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The President and party returned this morning.

Badly Burned.

TORONTO, April 13.—Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in Joselyn's planing mills on Bleecker street. An alarm was rung from box 82, and the hose reels were promptly on the spot, but the water pressure was low, and the building was soon destroyed, though a good deal of lumber lying outside was saved. John Noble, foreman of the Berkeley street section, carried a branch close up to the building, when the northern wall fell outwards, and he was enclosed between it and the fence, which was also in flames. With the assistance of a young man named David Bennie he was extricated from the burning timbers, his clothes, including his rubber coat, being all in a blaze. He then went into a neighbor's house, where the flames were extinguished, and shortly afterwards he was taken to his home, 155 Ontario street, where he now lies in a critical condition, though he is expected to recover. Another accident happened at the fire, Adam Pritchard, of Wilton avenue station, having his finger nearly cut off through being caught in the side chain of a reel.

The Star of England Case.

QUEBEC, April 13.—Richard Moore, accused of murder on the high seas, and whose case was decided upon by the full Court of Appeals as beyond the jurisdiction of the court sitting at Qnebec, was to have been tried this term on a new charge, which it would have been within the competency of the Court to have tried. In view of the length of time for which he had been detained in prison, however, the Crown did not wish to insist on a heavy sentence for Moore, and consequently the prisoner pleaded guilty to a charge of felonious assault upon the high seas, for which offence he was sentenced yesterday to six weeks longer imprisonment. This terminates the celebrated Star of England case.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Theatrical.

Our citizens in common with the rest of the country, are decidedly interested in the scheme which is now under consideration in Montreal for providing the public of Canada with regular metropolitan theatrical entertainments. Mr. Charles Frohman, of the Madison Square theatre, New York, is now at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, and he has acquainted the Herald with his intention upon this subject. He proposes to establish regular routes through Canada for playing "Hazel Kirke," "The Professor," "Esmeralda," and other Madison Square attractions, and thus breaking up the snap system of giving pirated copies of these plays by inferior companies, who obtain patronage on the credit and celebrity of the original work and the first class organization which produced it. The Madison Square management employs only artists of established reputation, and spare no expense in perfecting the arrangements. by which they place before the public the finest possible representations of celebrated plays. Consequently we may well wish them success in their new undertaking.

Personal.

The Winnipeg Times of the 6th of April says:—

"Brandon is to have another bank, Wallis, Ramsay & Co. being about to open out there in a few days. While Mr. Wallis is comparatively a new comer, his partner, Mr. Ramsay, is among the new-old residents in this country, having been connected with the Bank of Montreal here for some years. The firm is financially strong, and is in every way worthy of the confidence of the people. We anticipate for it a lengthy and prosperous career."

The Mr. Wallis referred to is Mr. J. M. Wallis, son of Mr. James Wallis, of Merino. He is an energetic young man and thoroughly understands his business, having been connected for some years with one of the leading monetary institutions of the Dominion. We wish the new firm every success.

Wanted.

During the last two or three days considerable telegraphing has been done between Belleville and Peterborough, regarding the arrest of one "Dr. Clarke," who is wanted by the police in connection with the recent burglary at Madoc. The individual in question took pretty good care to keep away from here, but dropped off at Hastings, Campbellford and Keene, on three different occasions, and when last heard of was rusticating in the latter village. He has rather a hard reputation according to the authorities, and is at present in the company of a young girl from El Dorado, who is possessed of some money. As soon as that gives out Clarke will probably seek fresh fields and pastures new. He is well known here.

The South Monaghan Trade.

The Port Hope Times says:—

"Bitter complaints are made by the farmers of Monaghan of the bad condition of the road from Rice Lake to Port Hope, and unless something is done speedily to remedy the evil, the trade of our town will suffer severely, as many farmers already prefer going to Peterborough, on account of the better roads and no toll-gates. As tolls are collected on the Rice Lake road, and considerable revenue derived from it, the road should be kept in good shape. Our merchants should lose no time in bringing the subject to the notice of the owners. Will some one of our readers who knows all about the road give us the particulars?"

We should follow up our advantage by bridging the River, and thus securing the trade of another section of South Monaghan.

New Hose.

As Peterborough is in need of a supply of fire hose it may be of interest to state that the Chief of the Kingston Fire Department has ordered 500 feet of linen covered hose from Mr. McCroby, of Montreal. The price is 67½c. per foot and it is guaranteed to stand a pressure of 600 pounds to the inch. A sample of American hose was forwarded to the Chief for inspection. It was $1.25 per foot and guaranteed to stand a pressure of only 450 pounds to the inch. The Canadian manufactured article is not only better but just about the half the price. This is a proof that Canada can compete with the United States in one manufacture at least.

Runaways.

We have noticed no less than four runaways within the last two days. Fortunately none of them amounted to anything.

Railway Notes.

Over a hundred men and thirty horses and carts are now at work between Peterborough and Omemee.

Colonal Deacon has been appointed Travelling Auditor of the Midland Railway.

The employees of the Midland are contributing to a purse for the mother of the young man Hurst, who was recently killed near Orillia.

Mr. H. J. Beemer has established an office on Hunter street in the Union Buildings. Messrs. Raphael and Powers have charge.

Messrs. Cox and White have been at Ottawa on railway business for several days.

The Steam "Shovel" is being fitted up for work and will soon be moved. It is still an object of much interest, being the first of the kind ever brought into the Province. Messrs. Pembertby, Stehlmann and Robinson are here with it and will start the work of digging.

At last advices the Millbrook excursion party had not reached Winnipeg. The death of a horse was the only casualty reported.

The trains are all making splendid time under the new time regulations, except when they are detained by reason of the Grand Trunk not being on time.

Peterborough is now the head quarters for all the railway men, and they are to be seen on the street every day, by the dozen.

Five vessels loaded with grain are now on the way from Chicago to Midland, where the grain will be elevated and shipped to Port Hope in cars. Preparations are completed for the running of the immense elevator and all is prepared for work.

On Thursday afternoon a large deputation comprising Messrs. G. Hilliard, M. P., Geo. A. Cox and the members and Senators of the district interested, waited upon the Dominion Government asking for a bonus for the Ontario and Sault Ste. Marie Railway. They ask for a subsidy of $5,000 per mile for 185 miles. The mat ter will be fully considered.

Sensible.

The following from the annual report of the retiring Secretary of the Cricket Club, may be read with interest and profit by members of other athletic clubs in town, as well as those of the first named organization, who are generally sadly deficient in this respect:—

"And with regard to the interest displayed by the members, there is comparatively none, I am sorry to say. And what is the use of trying to compete with first-class clubs, when everything is done in the half-hearted manner in which things are done here? It is evidenced by the sparse attendance at the meetings and at the practice grounds, and the careless way of handling and leaving about the cricketing material. But it is at the meetings that the lack of interest is particularly noticeable and blameable, even to impertinence. For it is impertinence for young men such as we are, to come here at the annual meeting and vote to the office of President a gentleman like the one who now now honors us in this way, expect him to come down town and attend meetings time and again, at perhaps personal inconvenience, there to find only that the attendance is not sufficient to form a quorum. Such has been and is the case, until I have positively been ashamed to send our President a notice of a meeting. If the interest is to be manifested in this way it will be far better to give up the game, and allow some club that will be an honor to the town, and deserve the support they get, to have our ground."

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

The Watering Cart.

After a long season of retirement the watering cart has again made its appearance on the streets, and is laying the dust effectually, to the great delight of our merchants and the citizens at large. The reason of the delay, was we understand, because the stand pipe from which the supply is taken was out of order, but the evil having been remedied any amount of the fluid can now be obtained, and the roads dampened.

Interesting discourse.

The Rev. Mr. Ford, a missionary in Algoma district, delivered an interesting address in St. John's Church chapel, on Thursday evening to a large audience. He had a small Indian boy who had been educated at the home and who appeared to be very intelligent.

Paying the Pensioners.

Major Milligan, of Toronto, Staff Officer of pensioners, paid the pensioners of this district to-day, for their services to the British crown. Judging from appearances, some of them will not have much of their stipend left by the morning.

Sale of Town Lots.

Mr. Dumble will offer for sale by public auction all the lots north of Smith street, between the Communication Road and the residence of James W. Fitzgerald, Esq. The time of sale will be shortly announced.

The Weather.

The weather probablities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Moderate to fresh winds from northward. Continued fair cool weather.

Police Court.

"Paddy" Handrigan and Adam Dobbin have been admitted to gaol as vagrants, the former for one month and the latter for three months.

The Pay List.

The fortnightly pay list for street and bridge work amounted to $47.70.

The Letter Boxes.

As the letter box placed at the corner of Perry and George Streets, was but very little used, it was deemed advisable to change its position, and such has accordingly been done. It is now at the corner of George and King Streets, in front of Mr. P. Hamilton's foundry, where it will doubtless be used more frequently than before.

A Change.

We learn from the Register that Mr. M. McGregor of this town, has leased the Beckett Hotel in Norword for a term of years. Mr. McGregor has had considerable experience in the business, and will doubtless conduct the house in a first class manner. We wish them success.

O. Y. B.

An effort is at present being made to recussitate the Orange Young Briton order, which recently merged into the Young Men's Protestant Benevolent Association. Among the lodges favorable to the proposition are those of Peterborough, Port Hope, Bethany, Omemee and Bobcaygeon.

Excitement in Oats.

MONTREAL, April 13.—The Gazette says when it became known that a Montreal firm had effected the sale of 50,000 bushels of oats to-day for shipment to Manitoba, the market became somewhat agitated, and oats were considered better property than ever. It is understood that the above sale was made to the agent of the Canada Pacific Railway Company, the terms being private, but we are enabled to state that the price was over 42c. per 32 lbs., delivery to commence at once. The aforesaid agent has also recently purchased in Ontario 100,000 bushels for the same destination. There are considerable quantities of oats still held at different points in the country for better figures. Besides the above sales we hear of another lot of 20,000 bushels changing hands on pit.

Waiting Anxiously.

The Toronto Telegram says:—People are waiting anxiously to hear what Mr. Blake has to say. He asked for a lot of returns, and may be waiting to get his ammunition before loading his gun. But there is a feeling among some of his supporters that he is holding off too long, and they begin to fear that even if he had the gun loaded he would be afraid to fire it. It is not to be expected that he will blow the head off the Government's policy and leave it for dead on the field, but it is expected that he will at least try to cripple a leg or two and blow off a wing.

THE CONTENTED MAN,

Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

POLICE COURT.

DRUNK.

SATURDAY, April 15.—Thomas McCormick, of Ennismore, laborer, was charged by P. C. McGhee with being found drunk on the streets on Friday night.

Mr. Thomas Menzies, J.P., presided, and this being his first case, he felt disposed to allow the prisoner to go, as he had spent the night in the cells. After giving him a warning, the J. P. discharged the prisoner.

STATUTE LABOR TAX.

The same prisoner was charged with non-payment of statute labor tax.

He was given a week to acquire the necessary funds.

Accident.

At an early hour this morning as Dr. Kincaid, M.P.P., was driving home from the back country, where he had been on a professional visit, he met with an accident that might have terminated far more seriously than it did. The doctor was driving down a small hill near Lakefield, when the reach of the buggy broke and, a portion of it sticking in the ground, the vehicle upset and the occupant was thrown out. He had his right shoulder dislocated, but fortunately was not otherwise injured. He made his way to a house in the vicinity and Dr. Armour of Lakefield was summoned and attended to the sufferer. We are glad to state that the accident will not interfere with the doctor's practice at all, as he was around as usual during the afternoon.

Just to hand, 3,189 yards of new Prints at 12½, worth 15 cents at Turnbull & Gray's.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

AIDING EMIGRANTS.

LONDON, April 14.—The question of assisting the unemployed workingmen of England, and more especially of the great metropolis, has awakened general interest. A number of meetings in connection with the matter have been held, and the question has now taken a practical turn by the issue by the Lord Mayor of an appeal to the public for assistance necessary to enable two hundred deserving families, numbering one thousand souls, to emigrate to Canada. He is assured that it is beneficial to the Mother Country as well as to the Colonies, that emigration, so long as it remains within reasonable limits, and is directed to retain emigrants beneath the British flag, should be encouraged, and that the emigrant is fairly hopeful of a better opportunity of success in a colony than he is at present at home. The sum asked for this purpose is $35,000; and of this sum a grant of $5,000 has been assured by the Canadian Government. If properly organized, His Lordship is confident that the scheme will be comparatively self-supporting in the future by the aid rendered by friends at home and by the emigrants themselves.

PROTECTION FOR FARMERS.

BERLIN, April 14.—The distress in the agricultural districts of Germany still continuing, Prince Bismarck has announced that he will, at an early day, as a measure of relief, offer a bill to the Reichstag having for its object an increase on the import duties on all agricultural products. He thinks that protection in this direction is greatly needed by the farmers throughout Germany to enable them to recuperate from the losses entailed by the unprofitable harvests of the last few years.

STRELNIKOFF'S ASSASSINS.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—The assassins of Gederal Strelnikoff have been arrested and identified. One proves to be Jelnykoff, a student at the St. Petersburg College, and the other Halturin, who was wanted for connection with the plot to blow up the Winter Palace.

TRANSFER OF SUSPECTS.

DOBLIN, April 14.—Twenty-five imprisoned suspects have been transferred to Limerick and Naas gaols on account of the bad sanitary condition of Clonmel prison.

NO THANKS DUE.

LONDON, April 14.—Mr. Joseph Cowan, member of Parliament, having been invited to preside at a Radical demonstration to thank the Government for the release of Mr. Parnell, refuses on the ground that no thanks are due. He says the Government deserve more censure than they receive for imprisoning an honourable political opponent.

DR. LAMSON'S PROSPECTS.

LONDON, April 14.—The Liverpool Courier's correspondent hears that there in not the smallest hope that Dr. Lamson's life will be spared. He says the interference of the American Government on the trivial ground revealed by the affidavits has created a very angry feeling.

AMERICAN.

AN INDIGNANT SENATOR.

WASAINGTON, April 14.—The resolutions adopted by the New York meeting, regarding the imprisonment was referred to in the Senate to-day. Senator Voorhees declared that the conduct of the State Department in relation to the imprisonment by the British authorities of American citizens is a violation of American law, inconsistent with the value of American citizenship, and derogatory to the honour of the United States.

FIREMAN ON STRIKE.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., April 13.—A fire at the Parshall house early this morning could easily have been subdued when the flames were first discovered, but the firemen refused to work under their newly-elected chief, and it was only when the mayor induced the ex-chief to superintend that they went to work. Firemen Hubbard was fatally hurt by a falling wall, and the coloured cook of the Parshall house is missing, and is believed to have perished. The loss on the Parshall house is $100,000, and the Hotel Brunswick was considerably damaged.

LATER.—The loss is estimated at $300,000. The body of the cook has been recovered. The Hotel Brunswick was owned by Senator Roberts.

MARTHA WHITLA'S MURDER.

DETROIT, April 14.—Hugh S. Peoples and Dr. James N. Hollywood were arraigned in the Recorder's Court yesterday charged with murdering Martha Whitla. The charge contains five counts, including administering a deadly poison, the attachment of a rope about her neck, and casting her into the river. Assistant prosecuting Attorney Robeson read the charge, and then asked Mr. Peoples what his plea was, guilty or not guilty. Mr. Peoples promptly replied "not guilty." In response Dr. Hollywood responded "Not guilty by any means." Edwin F. Conely, in behalf of Mr. Peoples, demanded a separate trial, and desired that the time be fixed for the first week in the May term. This was agreed to by the counsel for the people, and Judge Swift fixed the 8th day of May for the beginning of the trial. The attorneys announced that Peoples' case would probably occupy a full week. A motion to admit the prisoners to bail will be argued in Chambers at some date in the near future.

GUITEAU'S CASE.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Yesterday the District Attorney asked the court that the Guiteau case be assigned for the first day of the April term, the 24th inst. The court declined to do so, intimating however that it saw no reason why it should not be taken up on that day. Guiteau publishes a card abusing his relatives. He charges Mr. Scoville with desiring to get control of his book, and says he has already paid Mr. Scoville $275, which is more than his alleged services are worth. Guiteau continues very bitter against Mr. Scoville and declares that he shall not have any further connection with his case. He has written the following letter to Chas. H. Reed:—"Sir,—I hereby authorize you to push my book.

"Yours,
CHARLES J. GUITEAU."

Despite all of Guiteau's declarations, Mr. Scoville says he expects to argue the case in court, and will not be deterred by anything.

PANAMA MATTERS.

PANAMA, April 6.—Pierola arrived on the 1st of April from Lima en route to Paris. His inveterate enemy ex-President Prado arrived on the 30th of March and it is said will go to Lima and endeavor to get Peru out of its difficulties. Of the 9,000 Chilian troops in Lima 2,300 are sick. 600 died in a single month.

REDUCING THE TARIFF

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The Secretary Treasurer reports the amount of custon duties refunded for the year ending the 30th of June 1881 at $780,000. The explanation which accompanies the statement furnishes some of the strongest arguments for the immediate revision of the tariff.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 15.—Wm. T. Logan, formerly proprietor of the Liberty Register and inventor of a celebrated printing press, is dead.

HOWGATE AGAIN.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—It is said that Howgate will return for trial. His friends say that he is denied sufficient exercise and his confinement is too severe. The common belief, however, is that he has gone to stay. It is thought that Howgate went to Alexandria and caught a southern bound train. It is said that his daughter, who attends college here, is heartbroken with the conduct of her father.

INCREASED TRADE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 12.—The spring jobbing trade in the north-west is 50 per cent. greater than at this time last year. The increase is attributed to the increased advance in population.

It is stated that Irwin confessed at New York that Crowther and Cox stole the bonds and gave them to Fisk and Irwin to sell.

NATIONAL BANKS.

It was agreed that on Monday the Representatives shall lend their aid to pass the bill under the suspension of the rules.

RELIGION AND FROST.

A Man Inspired by God to Chase a Visionary Bride.

On Sunday evening a man named Anderson, of the Swede persuasion, arrived in town from Littleton, and put up at the Lorne House. There was no indications of anything being wrong with him when he went to bed, but in the morning he got up with his mental powers considerably deranged, and surprised the boarders by telling them that Christ came into his room during the night and lit his candle and gave him instructions to go out into the world and work for the Father. He said he had worked for the Father for a long time under direct orders from Heaven, and his reward was inexpressible joy and happiness. In the morning he witnessed the proprietor eject a woman of unexemplary character from the house. This seemed to effect his brain, worse than ever, and he suddenly left the house dressed as though he was going to drive a long distance. Nothing more was seen of him until he was brought into town about noon with both feet badly frozen. It appears that when he left the hotel he went out on the prairie, and when he got about a mile and a-half from town he divested himself of his clothing, and leaving it behind him started to run as though following someone. He would occasionally call and appeal to some vision to return, in a most pitiable manner. He was discovered by a farmer who immediately gave chase, but this only increased his excitement and he became wilder, and was only captured after a hard run. He was brought into town as above stated and placed under the medical treatment of Dr. Macklin. A reporter asked him what prompted his strange conduct. He said he was doing just as God told him, and was running to be married. His wife, he says, was running away from him, and he wanted her to come back. He also added that women could not be trusted, but his bride would come back to him when she knew that he loved her. He refused to tell why he took off his clothes, but said that God had put His heart into his, he had fought a terrible fight, but it was the fight of love, and God would reward him. The poor fellow's feet were terribly frozen, and will probably lose both of them. He will be sent to the Winnipeg hospital for care. He has friends in Winnipeg, but their address is not known.

A later despatch says:—Anderson, the crank, is recovering gradually from the consequences of his recent inspiration trip. His feet are not frozen as badly as at first expected, the frost only penetrating skin deep. One toe may probably have to be amputated. At times the unfortunate man speaks sensible enough, and then his mind wanders off on religious topics when he becomes very excitable. Anderson has lived for seven years in Winnipeg. During a conversation with a reporter yesterday he made enquiries for Rev. Mr. Robertson, whom he said first directed him to the path of righteousness. —Marquette Review of the 28th March.

STAVE BOLTS AND ELM LOGS.

DETROIT, April 13.—A meeting of the National Stave Exchange was held at Toledo yesterday, at which a large number of firms in the different States were represented. In addition to other business connected with the Association, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, on the 13th day of October, 1880, Mr. H. F. French, then Acting Secretary of the Treasury, on an appeal from a firm engaged in importing large quanties of cut barrel staves from Canada under the fraudulent name of "sugar cask staves," did issue an order red ucing the duty on barrel staves from 20 per cent. (which under the tariff of 1862 has been the rate for more than eighteen years) to 10 per cent., or one half.

Whereas, under the stimulus given to Canadian manufacturers by this large, sudden, and entirely unexpected reduction in duties and also by fraudulent invoices, reducing the duty actually paid to about 5 per cent. on the real value of the staves, a large number of stave mills were established in Canada, even some American capitalists, with indecent haste and questionable patriotism rushing into Canada to take advantage of the aforesaid erroneous and unjust decision.

Whereas, said decision threatened very serious and permanent injury to all stave manufacturers in the United States dependent on Canada for the whole or a portion of their timber supply, and those whose products came into competition with the products of Canada.

Whereas, the Hon. C. J. Folger, Secretary of the Treasurer, did on the 25th of February, 1882, render a decision restoring the former interpretation of the Act of 1862, and thereby the duty on barrel staves to 20 per cent.

Whereas, certain Canadian manufacturers are making extraordinary efforts to induce the Dominion Government to impose an export duty on stave bolts and heading bolts of $1 per cord, and on elm logs of $2 per thousand feet in retaliation, because the import duty on staves has been restored to the rate fixed by Act of Congress twenty years ago.

Therefore resolved, if the Dominion Government shall impose an export duty on staves, heading, and hoop timber, it will be the duty of the United States Congress to increase the import duty on these commodities sufficiently to more than offset the effect of said export duty, and fully protect the American manufacturers.

Resolved, that being engaged in an honourable and necessary business, having full faith in the disposition and power of our Government to strike blow for blow when necessary in order to protect and defend its citizens against injuries designed to be inflicted on them by foreign Governments in any form, and having also entire confidence in the zeal and fidelity of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, we will go on with our business, having no fears of any permanent injury from hostile legislation without or within.

FOR CANKER RASH.—Take one teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in hot water, sweetened with syrup or sugar, three times a day, every other day, and a dose of castor oil on the alternate days.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, KIDNEY, LIVER OR URINARY DISEASE.—Have no fear of any of these diseases if you use Hop Bitters, as they will prevent and cure the worst cases, even when you have been made worse by some great puffed up pretended cures.

A cough or cold contracted in the month of April if not speedily arrested is liable to stick to one during the whole summer. Dr. Carson's Pulmanary Cough Drops speedily cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain and oppression of the Chest, and all Throat, Chest and Lung Affections. In large bottles at 50 cents.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1882.

A FOOLISH ATTEMPT.

It is seldom that a more dishonest and at the same time ludicrous attempt to misrepresent public opinion, has even been made than that recently adopted by the Globe.

The readers of the Weekly Globe were called upon to send to the editor specific replies to the questions in the circular sent out by Dr. Orton's committee on the effect of the tariff on the agricultural interests. Some answers have been returned and the Globe hails them as an expression of public opinion against the tariff.

The circulation claimed for the Weekly Globe is 51,750; out of this number 256 reply, barely a third even of the odd hundreds, not one in two hundred of the whole circulation. And yet with the coolest effrontery the percentages of this mere handful are gravely tabulated we are asked to consider the result as an index of public opinion. It is of course apparent that the readers of the Globe, even if all of them answered, would not be a fair criterion of our general agricultural population. An overwhelming majority of them must sympathize with the politics of the organ they select for their information—a vast number of them read nothing but the Globe with its fallacious arguments against the tariff, and too often its wilful mistatement of facts in regard to it. Yet a considerable percentage of these prejudiced men are not deluded by the sophistries of their organ and disagree with it in this matter. But what of those who do not take the trouble to avail themselves of this favourable opportunity of stating their grievances and complaining of the heavy oppression to which we are told they are subjected. It is very evident that if there is any pressure at all, it is not very severe or very keenly felt.

The truth is that this new attempt of the Globe is a complete failure. The result shows that the farmers of the Reform party are in many cases openly favourable to the present tariff, and that the great majority of them have no complaints to make, even when implored to do so for the benefit of their party. They are well contented with the present state of affairs and they cannot be cajoled into stating otherwise. The facts have more weight with them than the sophistries of even their chosen journal.

DEARER OR CHEAPER.

The Lindsay Post has again half a column of abuse and misstatements in regard to the REVIEW, but still it cannot find space to explain why it insinuated that farmers have to pay more for their agricultural implements under the present tariff, when according to what we learn from Peterborough and other manufacturers, they pay less. This is of more interest to the farmers now than what either the REVIEW or Post may have said or not said twelve years ago.

PAID BY THE LAND.

We extract from Sir John Macdonald's speech in reply to Mr. Charlton's attack up the land policy of the Government, the following satisfactory statement showing how the receipts from land sales are paying the cost of the Canada Pacific Railway :—

"The hon. gentleman said it would be better for the Government to settle their lands and not sell them. The hon. gentleman forgot that it was the policy of the late Government, as well as of the present Government, to appropriate a certain portion of these lands for the purpose of meeting the expenditure necessary in the construction of the Canada Pacific. The hon. gentleman knew the burden was too great for a population of 4,000,000, and that this sale of lands was a political necessity. It was a part the policy of the present Government to make that country pay for its own railway. (Applause.) Why, in the name of Heaven, he asked with all reverence, should the people of Ont. of Quebec, of Nova Scotia, of New Brunswick and of Prince Edward Island be heavily taxed to open up that country to new settlers from all parts of the world? Why should they be ground down, not by the iron heel of the aristocrat, but by the relentless grip of the tax collector? (Cheers.) It was already provided by statute that 100,000 acres of land should be appropriated for the construction of this road, 75,000,000 of which were to be sold for the purpose of relieving the people of the older provinces, who, under that assurance, promised to accept the burden. He was glad to say that by the assistance of speculators, as the hon. gentleman termed them, or capitalists, as he himself would say, desirous of investing in Northwest lands, it had become certain that every dollar that had been expended in the construction of the railway and which would be expended, would be repaid from the proceeds of sales of land. From three sales which had taken place on the 23rd of last March and 1st of April, some $700,000 had been realized (applause); this would be invested at interest for the purpose of paying off the $16,000,000 subsidy to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. (Applause). The hon. gentleman was afraid the whole Northwest would be swallowed up. The hon. gentleman would not, perhaps, trust the Government, but the House would trust the Government in this matter. (Applause). They would not allow too much of this land to be taken up. When it was remembered that there were 250,000,000 acres of land in the north-west, that the whole amount of applications granted was only 7,000,000 of acres, and there was no prospect of claims to the extent of more than 3,000,000 additional being granted, making a total of 10,000,000 of acres, there was not much ground for apprehension. (Applause). This would put into the public treasury a sum of $10,000,000, (applause); this, together with the sale of railway lands, would give the Government, either in money or as good as money, an amount equal to $12,500,000. Thus, in one year they might fairly say they had got half the value of the whole $25,000,000 they were pledged to pay to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. (Loud applause.) If the hon. gentleman opposite could rise superior to their feelings of opposition and join the Government in rejoicing over this great change and wonderful prosperity, it would redound greatly to their credit, and they would be recorded in the political history of Canada as forgetting faction and opposition in patriotism. (Renewed applause.)

THE FARMERS AND THE N. P.

Effect of the Tariff on our Agricultural interests—In Favor of the Government Policy.

OTTAWA, April 12.—Dr. Orton's Committee on the operations of the tariff on agricultural interests met this morning, when Mr. Dawson, of Norfolk County, was examined, his evidence being to the effect that the tariff had greatly benefited farmers. He specially referred to corn, the product of which had increased from 25 to 50 per cent, in his county, and prices had been benefited by American corn being kept out. He also referred to the cheese trade, in which he is largely interested, and said that before the tariff he got better prices on cheese exported than in the home market. Now he got better prices in Toronto and Hamilton than he did on what he exported. Fruits of all kinds, but especially apples, had been benefited and the cultivation of fruit trees greatly increased.

Over 200 replies to questions sent out about the operations of the tariff have been received. The following synopsis of replies will show the feeling of the farming community on the subject. Nearly 300 more replies have been received, which have not yet been tabulated and summarized:—Shall American corn be admitted free? For, 50; against, 114. Shall all American farm produce be admitted free? 26; against, 139. Has the tariff raised the prices of corn coarse grains? Yes, 97; no, 26. Has the tariff raised the price of oats? Yes, 82; no, 12. Has the tariff raised the price of corn? Yes, 67; no, 2. Has the tariff raised the price of rye? Yes, 48; no, 8. Has the tariff raised the price of wheat or flour? Yes, 85; no, 41. Has the tariff raised the price of live hogs, hams, &c? Yes, 137; no, 19. Has the tariff improved the home market for live stock? Yes, 125; no, 46. Does horse-breeding compare with other stock? Yes 135; no, 17. Has the tariff improved the home market for vegetables, poultry, &c.? Yes, 102; no, 54. Reciprocity with the United States? For, 104; against 54. Is Canada in a better condition under the tariff to effect reciprocity with the United States than before the N. P.? Yes, 107: no, 25. Has the tariff raised the price of wool? Yes, 34; no, 78. Has the tariff raised the price of woollen goods? Yes, 35; no, 125. Has the tariff raised the price of cottons? Yes, 54; no, 108. Has the tariff raised the price of hardware? Yes, 42; no, 108. Has the tariff improved the home market generally for farm produce? Yes, 134; no, 43. Has the tariff increased employment, encouraged industries and discouraged migration? Yes, 133; no, 42. Has the tariff increased investments in farm property? Yes, 97; no, 49. Has the condition of formers and farm laborers improved since 1878? Yes, 165; no, 12.

A number of the returns are signed by farmers who state that they voted and worked against the National Policy in 1878, and are now convinced that they made a mistake.

Several advise that Parliament be dissolved that they may have a chance of voting for the National Policy.—London Free Press.

DISASTER ON LAKE HURON.

Two Schooners Collide and One Sinks.—Four Lives Lost.

DETROIT, April 12.—About three o'clock this morning the schooner Thomas Parsons upward bound, collided with the schooner Clayton Belle on the lake, ten miles north of Port Huron. The Belle sank in a few minutes. Second mate Dillon, William Sullivan, and Thomas Kirwin, of the Belle, were saved, but the Captain and three others were lost. The lost schooner was valued at $10,000, and insured for $6,000. The cargo was pig iron, and valued at $15,000: insured.

PARTICULARS OF THE ACCIDENT.

The schooner Thomas Parsons with a cargo of coal, bound up, collided with the schooner Clayton Belle, about fifteen miles from this city on Lake Huron, this morning at two o'clock. The following are some of the points in the statements of the crew:—The Belle took on 522 tons of pig iron at Port St. Ignace, and got down to the river somewhere about midnight last night. The wind was about south-west-by-west, blowing a nice working breeze, and when about fourteen miles from the light, the Belle was struck by the Parson and went down immediately. In fact she sank so rapidly that the men were obliged to leave without their clothes. One man, Thomas Irwin, lowered the boat, but the vessel sank so quickly that her main boom in going down got foul of the boat and capsized it. Chesebrough, Dillion, and one other jumped on the Parsons and were saved. Captain Fred. Cadwell, Samuel Brotherson, mate, Dell Brotherson, his son, and the steward, a woman, were left in the water. All perished from the extreme coldness of the wind and water. The tug Mocking Bird came along about three o'clock and found Thomas Irwin in the water half dead. Irwin says that the captain, mate, and his boy tried to keep up their spirits by shouting to each other, but they let go one by one, and sank from sight. Those people that were saved were brought to this city on the Parsons and Mocking Bird. After they had been looked after by our marine men, who supplied their wants, they were sent to Detroit on the 10.50 train, where they will remain for a few days. The Parsons is here at the dock with her stem gone and leaking badly. Her head gear is carried away. She will be placed on the dry dock for repairs. Captain Fred. Caldwell was well known on the lakes. He was a young man, and leaves a wife and one child living somewhere near Oswego. Sam Brotherson, the mate, was well-known also for many years. He was master of the barque Republic, of the Merrick fleet. The Belle was struck on the port bow, between her fore-rigging and cat-head. The crews of both vessels say that they would not believe that a vessel could be made to sink so fast. It seemed but seconds, then she was out of sight. Her cargo of pig iron was consigned to Erie. The Parsons is making three inches of water an hour. The crew of this vessel claim that the Belle was seen for some time before, and that she luffed up and ran into the Parsons.

LATER.

PORT HURON, April 12.—Up to a late hour there is no further news from the Clayton Belle. The Thos. Parsons is here at the dock with her jibboom, bowsprit, and stem gone. She is making three inches of water an hour. The crew of the Parsons claim that the Belle was seen, and that she luffed up and came into the Parsons.

Terrible Boiler Explosion.

BALTIMORE, April 13.—This afternoon an explosion occurred in the mill of A. H. Sibley & Co. A portion of the boiler was propelled northward, entirely demolishing two brick dwellings on King-street, and throwing down the wall of a building adjoining. At the time of the explosion John Addison, engineer; Harrison Waters (colored), fireman, Andrew Cooper, machinist, who had been making the repairs, and Frank Kranig, a boy, were in the engine-room. All were killed except Cooper, and he was so badly scalded that his life is despaired of. In one house on King-street George Pentz, aged nineteen, was killed, and Ida Rosenburgh, had a leg broken; Ellen Rawlings, a coloured servant, was severely hurt by falling walls. In the other King-street house Grace Gray, aged 20, was killed. In the yard adjoining the factory Abraham Hepbron (coloured), while unloading a wagon, was struck by a missile and his skull fractured; James Roden, aged 15, had his skull fractured; Edward Callahan had a leg broken; Mrs. Margaret Kauff, living on Pratt-street, adjoining the factory, was standing at a washtub when struck by bricks and killed; C. W. Gates, working in a granite yard a square distant, was struck in the face by a brick and severely hurt; Edward Kelley, an employee in the building, had a leg broken.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

LINDSAY.

PROPOSED SMELTING WORKS.—The Post says that considerable progress has been made during the past few months in developing the resources of the north country. We learn that the indications of iron ore are considered so satisfactory that Mr. S. C. Parry, resident in Lindsay, and Mr. J. G. Mills, of Chicago, have commenced the erection of a hot-blast charcoal furnace about six miles from Kinmount, on Myers' branch of the Victoria railway, and have purchased a water privilege on the Burnt River, conveniently situated for their purpose. The furnaces will smelt ore from the Snowden iron mines. The proprietors have leased some lots from Messrs. O'Brien, Shorties & Co., and from Irving & Co., for their ore supplies. The furnace is to be pushed forward with all possible despatch, and will probably be completed and in blast by next August. The capacity of the furnace will be 30 tons of pig iron per day, and will use 50 to 60 tons of ore daily. This will be of great advantage to the mining interests of the Snowden district, as it will create a home demand for the leaner ores which it will not pay to export. This furnace will give constant employment to nearly 200 men, as in addition to the mines and furnace men a large force will be required to furnish wood and convert it into charcoal. The establishedment of these works will be in many ways a benefit to this town.

SNEAK THIEVES.—It appears that during the last few months, before work was commenced at the paper mill, a system of barefaced pilfering has been going on around the premises. Everything that was not too weighty or firmly spiked down has been carried off and probably sold for scrap iron. The depredators even broke into the office and pried out or destroyed the artificial eyes which supplied the place of the original articles in a number of specimens which our local taxidermist, Mr. Charles Foley, had prepared. Mutilation such as this, Mr. Foley rightly thinks, an insult to the profession. Two of the old wash tubs have been rolled out on the bank of the river, and if they are not tethered in a secure way will be carried off by some enterprising lad for pigeon coops.

RIVER NOTES.—The settling of a portion of a wharf used as a piling ground for lumber in the rear of the woolen factory puts some thousands of feet of lumber under water. At the price materials are now it cannot afford to stay there long. General repairs on the steamer Victoria are giving the boat an improved appearance. Although the owners porpose using the boat to help deliver a large quantity of cordwood contracted for with the Midland, she is being fixed up with a view to engagements as an excursion boat. The untimely demise of the Vanderbilt last fall leaves the Victoria the only craft available for a large party. A new coat of paint is being liberally bestowed which will make her look trim and handsome.

A GOOD SIGN.—Some time ago Messrs. Needler & Sadler shipped several sample lots of new process flour to interested parties in Montreal and elsewhere. The flour was so favorably received that they have orders now on hand for all they can manufacture, with the machinery running at its best speed. Those of our local bakers who have tried the flour pronounce it of the best and giving the most favorable returns for bakers' use. It will soon supplant the imported grades of patent flour in all stores, and when made from Mariposa or Ops wheat we expect to see it carry off gold medals and diplomas without number.

PORT HOPE.

HORSE TRADES.—The News says that a town horse trade is worth recording. A gentleman traded away a favorite pony with the gipsies, giving seventeen dollars and fifty cents to boot. The horse he received was not worth driving home; in fact, there was not enough "go" in him to travel. The following day he re-traded with the gipsies again, getting a "forty-year-old" beast and fifty cents. That did not suit him, so next day he struck a bargain for his old horse, and gave seventeen dollars to boot. He has again got possession of the horse he had at first, is out of pocket thirty-four dollars on the three trades, and has the benefit of the experience.—A Hope farmer, after a few drinks, traded horses with the tinkers, and received $5 bonus. The next day he sold the horse back to them for $5 dollars. He is therefore minus his own beast that was worth $100, and has received $10 to hold.

WATERWORKS.—The by-law for the extension of the waterworks, it is proposes, to extend the pipes to the west as follows:—From Beamish's mill to Bedford, Seymour, North, Pine, Walton streets to Menhennit's corner, thence north on Bramley to Charles, and south on Bramley to Sullivan street. In the east part of the town, from Walton street to Mill, King, and Ward streets, across Bloomsgrove avenue to Ontario street. It is proposed to lay 8,000 feet of pipes the western section having a little more than half. The entire cost will not exceed $10,000. Such a system of protection from fire cannot but be appreciated by property owners.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday morning as Mr. Wm. Harris, jr., of the Lake Shore Road, was firing a breach-loading gun at a hawk, the cylinder exploded, a piece of the iron striking him with great force on the forehead, and the powder filling his eyes. Medical assistance was procured at once, but it is yet a serious question whether his eyes are not fatally injured. The gun was one of these old rifles that are being made into breach-loaders by a Toronto firm of gun makers.

BURNED.—Mr. Thos. D. Staples' mills, and premises owned by Mr. Jas. Morrow, at Fleetwood, were destroyed by fire last week. The loss is heavy, and the origin of the fire is a mystery.

OBIT.—The Times says that its readers will regret to learn of the sudden death of Mr. William Staples, of Millbrook, which took plaec at his residence in the village an Thursday morning. Mr. Staples was well known in the United Counties, and his family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large number of friends in their bereavement.

SENTENCED.—At the interim Sessions at Cobourg on Wednesday of last week, Judge Boswell sentenced John Forsyth to three months in goal, for the theft of a watch and chain from John Lee, of Newcastle.

CATTLE SHIPMENT.—Mr. Shaw, of Port Hope, intends, we are informed, to ship 100 head of cattle from Port Hope to St. Clair Flats, where he will pasture them for the summer.

ROBCAYGEON.

NAVIGATION.—The Independent says that on Saturday last Capt. Bottum had the Eva out for the first trip of the season. A run was made up Sturgeon Lake to see how the ice was. It was found at Jackson's Island. During the little outing a distance of three miles was covered in fifteen minutes, and the machinery was not fairly settled to work either. On Wednesday another trip was made, and Sturgeon Point was reached, but a field of ice from the Point to the mouth of the river blocked the passage to Lindsay. Pigeon Lake was cleared out on Monday, and the Eva made a trip to Bridgenorth on Thursday. Next week the Captain will run his regular daily trips to Lindsay, leaving here in the morning. In the busy season two trips will probably be made. A boat is to be placed on the Peterborough end.

TREES.—Would it not be well, in view of maing our village attractive for visitors, to plant trees along all our streets? The time is close at hand for such work. In the course of time fine avenues of trees would add wonderfully to the appearance of the place. Of course this is a most thriving spot, and particularly charming, but there is no reason why we should not add all the charms that nature affords.

LOCKS.—Mr. Wm. Kennedy is getting the new lock gates in shape. Ii is a fine piece of work and is being well put together.

FIRE.—An alarm of fire was raised on Monday, the roof of the planing mill by the canal having caught fire. No. 1 engine was promptly on the spot, but fortunately was not required. A few pails of water were sufficient to extinguish the fire.

COBOURG.

INGENIOUS.—The Sentinel-Star says the harbour master, Mr. A. A. Burnham has perfected a water guage to register the height of the water in the lake, and has placed it at the south end of the Customs Warehouse. The invention consists of a pipe placed in the sand through which the water drains and a float, being connected by a rod, rises and falls according to the height of the water. Two balls are allowed to rise and fall, respectively, with the indicator, but a spring makes them remain stationary when they have reached their greatest height or depth. Thus a record is kept of the high and low water mark. The contrivance is a very useful one.

RICE LAKE ICE.—A correspondent from Gore's Landing sends us in a statement of the day upon which the ice has left the lake for the last ten years, which will no doubt prove interesting to our readers. It is as follows: In 1872, April 30; 1873, no record; 1874, April 27; 1875, April 30; 1876, April 29; 1877, April 19; 1878, March 22; 1879, April 26; 1880, April 5; 1881, April 24; 1882, April 4. The earliest the lake was clear was in 1878, when the ice left it March 22, the latest was in 1872, and 1875, April 30th.

Forbearance.

The young are seldom forbearing, because they so little understand the frailties of human nature.

Oh! if you could only witness the terrible struggles passing in the heart of that friend whose vivacity annoys you, whose fickleness provokes you, whose faults even sometimes make you blush. Oh! if you saw the tears that are shed in secret; the vexation felt against self (perhaps on your account), you would indeed pity them. Love them! Make allowances for them! Never let them know that you know their failings. To make anyone believe himself morally good to is help him, almost in spite of himself, to do so.

Forbearance is even more than forgiveness; it excuses, putting always the best construction upon everything; above all, never showing that some proceeding has wounded us, speaking of anyone who has vexed us thus:

"She did not think, else she would have acted differently; she never meant to pain me, she loves me too much; she was perhaps unable to do otherwise, and yet suffers at the thought of having displeased me."

For a wounded heart no balm is so efficacious as forbearance. To forbear is to forget every night the little vexations of the past day; to say every morning, "To-day I shall be braver and calmer than yesterday." Forbearance even sometimes leads us to detect in ourselves a little want of good nature, condescension, and charity. To forbear is not only to forgive, but to meet half-way, with extended hand, those who timidly ask for pardon.

Essay on Spring.

Spring is the time for sowing. In the city women sew shirts at forty-five cents per dozen. In the city, also, the wicked sow tares and reap tears. And everywhere in the springtime men sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. Spring is a season much sung about by poets. It is a season that moves people—especially about the 1st of May.

It is the season for raising things. The first thing generally raised in the spring is—the rent. After that comes spring radishes and greens.

Insects also come in the spring. The mosquito consults his ledger and makes out his bill for the summer. Earwigs lay in a fresh supply of legs. Domestic and household insects resuscitate themselves and crawl and bite in their little beds. All nature stirs.

Spring also stirs up the theatrical combinations and menageries. The trained beasts and animals of all sorts prepare to take the road. The tramp dreams of fresh fields and pastures new, and lone farm houses where he may find the women unprotected making strawberry short cake.

Spring comes every year. It brings new clothes to some, and new fashions to all—if they can afford them. Usually it brings more clothes than people can afford to buy, and fashions than they can afford to follow. Yet spring brings with it the old clothes people have worn all last winter and possibly the winter previous. These can possibly be turned and dyed and made over, we will not say into the new clothes, but into the semblance of the new.

Who's the Best Physician.

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing where all other remedies failed. As a spring tonic and blood purifier they have no equal. They positively cure liver and kidney complaints. In the strongest sense of the term, they are the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by Taylor & McDonald, at 50 cents. (3)

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Geo. C. Clarke, of Port Dalhousie, Ontario, states that she had been confined to her room for a long time with that dreadful disease, Consumption. The doctors said she could not escape an early grave, but fortunately she began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and in a short time was completely cured. Doubting ones, please write Mrs. Clarke, and be convinced. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1. (3)

FROM ALL OVER.

THE Czar's motto, as he strings up a batch of conspirators: "A nihilo Nihilum, nihilo me poenit et unquam." When the late Czar was blown up, he remarked quietly: "Nihil-est"—Its nothing.

THE Rev. Canon Baldwin will succeed Dean Grassett as Dean of the Cathedral of Toronto. The salary is $9,000 per annum. Mr. Baldwin's relatives are largely in Toronto.

An Alabama negro offered to plunge into a lake and kill an aligator for fifty cents. He plunged, and if the alligator didn't eat him, he stuck in the mud at the bottom.

GOOD HEALTH.—Keep the Stomach, Liver and Bowels in good order by the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and perfact health will be the result.

THIS is the season when the Florida man, desiring to make a trip North, puts two strawberries in his trunk and on arriving here sells them for enough to pay all expenses.

JOHN Miller bought a planing mill at Dunkirk, Ohio, a month ago. He lost a finger the first week, two finger the second, and a whole hand the third. The mill is now for sale.

IT is remarkable that Bulwer, Dickens, and Thackeray were alike unhappy in marrige. Thackeray's wife was insane nearly all her married life. In all cases the wives survived the husbands.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't." This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

THE Nebraska woman couldn't scare a tramp by pointing an unloaded gun at him, but when she shouldered arms and brought the stock down on his head he walked off to the woods.

OTTAWA has a veritable Spartan as Police Magistrate, he having had a friend who had picked him up on the road, taken before his tribunal and fined for furious driving.

TOM SAYERS, jun., son of Tom Sayers, the famous pugilist, has achieved considerable fame in England as a fine baritone, singing much at social entertainments. It would pain the old man to see his family so degenerated.

POPULAR DEMAND.—The great superiority of Downs' Elixir, over all other cough remedies, is attested by the immense" popular demand for that old established remedy" for the cure of Coughs, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the throat, Chest and Lungs.

POPLAR will grow readily and rapidly on any moist soil, and perhaps would do well in portions of the West, where it is desirable to grow trees. As it is used largely in paper manufacture its production should be profitable.

THE marriage of Mr. Arthur Nicolson with Miss Hamilton, sister of the Countess of Dufferin, will take place on April 20th at Constantinople. The lady resembles her sister, and is bright, beautiful, vivacious and highly educated.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

KNOW-NOTHINGISM appears in the artistic atmosphere of Rome, where a host of foreign artists bring wealth and interest to the capital of Italy. It appears that twelve statues being needed for the church called "St. Paul Outside the Walls," the Academy of St. Luca has seen fit to open a competition, but only among Italians, and of the Italians only those born in Rome. Onerous conditions are also required. The move has created ill-feeling at Rome, and the International Society of Artists has entered a formal protest.

MY mother has been a sufferer with imflammatory rheumatism for the last fifteen years, writes Mr. J. J. Schubert, Kankakee, Ill., in which time she has tried numerous remedies without relief. At last her limbs became so swollen that she could not go about, and I gave up all hope of her recovery. As a final resort, she tried St. Jacobs Oil. The first application gave her rellef and the use of six bottles has performed a cure. She can go about as well as ever.

MAJOR John Herschel, son of the late Sir John Herschel, and grandson of Sir William, who discovered the planet Uranus (the first planet ever discovered), is in the United States, to make pendulum observations for the purpose of connecting the pendulum works of the Indian Trigonometrical Survey with that of the Coast Survey. He has brought with him pendulums which have been swung in India and at several points in England occupied by previous observers, so that his work will do a great deal to connect together the various results obtained by different observers in different parts of the world.

FOR WEAKNESS AND GENERAL DEBILITY.—From Itihel Pease, of North Searsment, Me.—"It gives me very great pleasure to inform you of the benefit received from the use of Peruvian Syrup in my own family. My wife, for the past ten years, has been in feeble health—very much debilitated generally. Last spring she concluded to try a bottle of Peruvian Syrnp, and was so well pleased with the result continued its use until three or four bottles had been used, and she is now in better health than at any time for ten years, and has increased in weight from 110 pounds to 126½. I have employed physicians and used a great variety of patent medicines, to the extent of hunderds of dollars, and I know she received more benefit from the Peruvian Syrup than all the rest together. My sales of the Syrup are very large and constantly increasing, and I do not hesitate to recommend and even warrant it to give satisfaction." Sold by all druggists.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS OF CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Starlin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its wildly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Ourselves.

The Meaford Mirror says:—

"The Peterborough DAILY REVIEW has enlarged a column per page. The REVIEW is a model of mechanical neatness, and better than that is chock full of good things, which furnish profitable and pleasant reading. We wish the spicest and best daily in Eastern Ontario a continuance of its well-deserved success."

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—

"Our contemporary, the EVENING REVIEW, of Peterborough, is now occasionally enlarged by four columns. It is a surprise to the profession, that so good a daily paper can be published in Peterborough. The REVIEW is perhaps the best toned and certainly one of the best generally conducted journals of the Conservative press."

The Orillia Packet says:—

"The DAILY REVIEW, of Peterborough, has been enlarged by the addition of four columns. It is a vigourous daily, ably edited, and quite a credit to the town in which it is issued."

The Port Hope News says:—

"The improved and enlarged appearance of the DAILY REVIEW is a credit to its publishers. The REVIEW is one of the best conducted local papers in the province."

The Kingston Whig says:—

"The Peterborough REVIEW comes out in fine form on Saturday—as a 24 column paper, filled with spicy news. The news editor is an old Kingstonian, and has the requisite push to make his department readable. Peterborough should be proud of its daily, which we admire, its politics excepted."

Railway Notes.

The Midland Railway generously granted return tickets at single fare to delegates to the recent convention of The Women's Foreign Missionary Society and is again doing the same for the approaching meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Toronto and Kingston, shortly to be held here. The Clerk of the Synod writes:—"The Grand Trunk Railway grants the double journey for a fare and a third, as does the Great Western. The Northern refuses any privileges, as it previously did to the Rev. Dr. Reid. The Midland Railway of Canada will not in the long run lose by its liberality." The Midland trains bring to our town many strangers, who generally go away with a very different idea of our "backwoods town" to that previously entertained.

The right of way of the Midland Railway between Bridgewater and Perth has been purchased, and the board of directors are now considering the tenders for construction.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

Aquatics.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen was held at Hamilton on Friday. Messrs. E. B. Edwards and A. J. Belcher represented the Peterborough Boating Club. It was decided to hold the next annual regatta at Ottawa, and if proper arrangements can not be made it will take place at Toronto. Mr. Belcher was elected a member of the Executive Committee.

Runaways.

Runaways are rapidly becoming epidemic, as no less than four are reported as having taken place to-day. In one instance the wagon was smashed to pieces, but in the others no damage worth mentioning is reported.

To Canoeists.

Thomas Wallace of Gore's Landing, is out with a challenge, offering to paddle any man, in best and best canoes, two or three miles, for from $20 to $50 a side. "Tom" knows how to handle a paddle.

THE RAILROAD EXCAVATOR.

An Immense Powerful Machine—A Short Description of it—A Handy Affair.

The fame of the great "steam shovel" preceded it and for weeks people have been as anxiously watching for it, as the average small boy awaits the advent of a circus. Although we published a short description of it the other day, we find that it contained several inaccuracies and as so much interest is evinced in it, if we are to judge from the crowds that have inspected it at the Union Station, a fuller and more complete description may not be out of place.

The patent mounted railroad excavator is manufactured at Toledo, Ohio, by Messrs. Wilcox and Stock and the one now here is the 25th that has been manufactured and sold by that firm, and is also the first that has ever been introduced into Canada, although all the large American roads employ them to facilitate operations.

When in working condition the Excavators are 50 feet long over all, 10 feet wide and cranes 19 feet high. When in condition for running over the road they are 52 feet long, 14 feet high and 10 feet wide. They are worked by 40-horse power Horizontal Duplex Hoisting Engines, with independant swinging and forcing engines, and with ample capacity. Upright boilers, being 8 feet 5 in. high and 52 in. diameter, with 150 2¼ in. tubes 3 feet long. The crane, swing circle and mast braces are all made of the best wrought iron; steel hoisting chains, shafting of the best hammered iron, and all the journals, bearings and boxes lined with No. 1 Babbit metal or Phosphor bronze. The car upon which the Excavator is mounted, is of extra heavy make all through. Axles are 5 in. with bearings 4½ in diameter by 8½ in. long. The Excavator is self-propelling, which enables the operator to handle it on any track with perfect ease. Its weight is about 37,000 pounds and it can lift fifteen tons and deposit it on the ground or car with the greatest of ease. The entire machinery being mounted upon an eight-wheel flat car of nearly double the strength of other cars, and being self-propelling, will run by its own power, or may be hauled in any train. It has adjustable jack arms and patent drop-crane, which enables us to readily adjust its parts to pass any low or narrow bridge where a passenger train can pass, and may be as readily moved from place to place as any other car. The machines are capable of handling from 1,000 to 1,500 yards per day, according to size, and in view of its being so easily and cheaply moved and quickly set to work again, doing away with the expense of large gangs of men, board ing cars, and also the expense of taking to pieces and loading and unloading, and setting up as in the old style of Excavators, occupying from 6 to 12 days' time. The capacity of this machine is 1,000 to 1,200 yards per day and it is claimed that it will work in any kind of ground. If large stones are encountered, such a perfect control has the operator of the arm, that by simply affixing a chain to to the shovel the stone can be raised and deposited wherever desired.

It may be used for all kinds of railroad excavations, loading cars or ballasting, trestle filling, cutting down heavy grades, cleaning ditches, and other work usually performed by hand.

This machine can very readily be adapted for a dredging machine, and has power sufficient to handle 1,000 yards per day, or it may be used for a pile driver, and with three or four days' labor by taking out the crane and the drums can be turned into a first-class snow plow. By unhitching the dipper it makes a first-class wrecking machine, of which there is nothing better in the country, as it can lift and swing a weight of fifteen tons, place a car upon the track, or lower one car upon another, or turn the cars over, and clear the track in a quarter of the time of any ordinary wrecking machine. The car is prevented from upsetting by adjustable jack arms projecting on each side. The price of a machine like the one here now, is $8,000. The same firm also manufacture a railway pile driver, which is said to perform its work in the most complete manner.

Mr. J. R. Pemberthy, the master mechanic of the manufacturers, is here at present, but will probably leave this evening and return when the machine is at the scene of operations, five miles from here, and will put it in successful operation. To him we are indebted for the above information. Another of the same make has also been purchased by Mr. Beemer and will soon arrive, and be placed at work on the Omemee end of the line. They will be in operation in a short time, and our citizens will then have a chance to witness its operations. If this machine gives satisfaction, and there is every prospect that it will, the enterprising manufactures will doubtless sell many in the Dominion.

Messrs. O'Brien, of Montreal, have also purchased one of these machines, and it is expected to pass over the line of the Grand Trunk in a few days.

We understand that the number who called on Mr. Pemberthy, to seek information regarding the machine, is almost incredible, and the gentleman has had his hands full ever since his arrival in answering questions.

Railway men in this vicinity speak highly of the machine and will doubtless be the cause of selling several.

Messrs. Wilcox and Stock have established a reputation that is excelled by no other firm in America for the manufacture of this class of machines, and Mr. Beemer is to be congratulated on securing such a labor saver.

Educational Note.

A., who for a number of years has occupied a prominent position on the editorial staff of the Toronto Globe, has resigned it to take charge of the Canada School Journal and to edit the educational publications of the well-known publishing House of W. J. Gage & Co., Toronto. Prof. R. M. Smith, M. A., B. Sc., has resigned the Principalship of St. Francis College, Richmond, P. Q., to accept a position in the same firm.

TWEEDS! TWEEDS!

The manufacture of Tweed originated at Galashiels, and early in the present century took root in the towns of the "Tweed" Valley, whence it is commonly supposed the name "Tweed" arose; but, in reality, the name is due to a mistaken reading of "Twel," under which term the fabric was originally known.—GLOBE ENCY.

THE CONTENTED MAN,
Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

OTTAWA.

Special to the Review April 17.

THE CHAUDIERE mills will commence running on the 24th. Many of the mill owners have already disposed of all the lumber they can cut during the season at an advance on last year's prices.

DR. HURLBERT of this city is about to publish a work on free trade and protection, which will prove an addition to the treatises on the subject. It will touch upon the following topics: England, first under protection for 150 years till 1846, and under free trade; England before 1846 and since; Russian free trade till 1882; the United States under high and low protective tariffs.

MRS. GRIFFITH, the first wife of the man now in custody on a charge of bigamy, arrived here yesterday and is staying at the Albion Hotel. She feels her position keenly, and in her true woman's action will do as little to prosecute her betrayer as possible.

A YOUNG GIRL 14 years of age residing on Dalhouse street with her grandparents is missing from home. From all that can be learned of the affair it would seem that she had neither father nor mother living, and for reasons best known to herself she desired to go to the States, where she has a sister living. The girl has, it is supposed, gone to the other side, after raising money for her fare by selling thing in the house to a second hand store.

A MAN named Geo. Hilliard, a native of Tralee, Kerry, Ireland, died a few days ago at his residence on Maria street in this city at the age of 110 years. His father, John Hilliard, at the time of his death, was 115 years old.

A cough or cold contracted in the month of April if not speedily arrested is liable to stick to one during the whole summer. Dr. Carson's Pulmanary Cough Drops speedily cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain and oppression of the Chest, and all Throat, Chest and Lung Affections. In large bottles at 50 cents.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

RUSSIAN RIOTS.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Anti-Jewish riots occured at Balta on the 11th instant. The troops suppressed the disturbance after some hours, but they were renewed during the night, and order was re-established on the 12th by reinforcements of troops. The public prosecutor had arrived at Balta from Letitzchule on the 12th. The houses of Jews were attacked. The ring-leaders were all arrested.

HOME RULER ELECTED.

DUBLIN, April 15.—Edward Shiel, Home Ruler, was elected to Parliament to-day for Meath.

RELIEF OF IRISH SUSPECTS.

DUBLIN, April 15.—Mr. O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, has been unconditionally released from prison, and Rev. Mr. Higgins has been liberated on bail.

ANOTHER NIHILIST PLOT.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—Trustworthy merchants from Moscow report that eighty workmen employed on the Uspanski cathedral were arrested on Holy Saturday in consequence of the discovery of a mine under the edifice, in which the coronation of the Czar takes place.

THE AUSTRIAN DELEGATION.

VIENNA, April 15.—At the opening of the Austrian delegation to-day the President expressed a hope that the last remnants of disorder would shortly be suppressed in the occupied provinces in preparation for the time when they shall be incorporated in the empire. A bill for a credit of 24,000,000 florins for defraying military expenses was referred to the Budget Committee.

AMERICAN BEEF FOR THE NAVY.

LONDON, April 15.—The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says the Conservatives are making political capital at all the naval ports of the acceptance of contracts for American beef for the navy. It is expected the subject will be raised in Parliament. There is a rumour, which is probably true, that the Government intends to abolish the curing establishment at Dertsord, and to favour the system of obtaining supplies from private firms.

A GRAND OPERA COMPANY.

LONDON, April 15.—The Royal Italian Opera Company of Convent Garden has been formed with a capital of £200,000. It will have virtual control of Italian opera in England and the United States.

A JEW RECTOR.

BERLIN, April 15.—The Prussian Minister of Worship has confirmed the election of Prof. Brendt as rector of the University of Greffswald, which the Reactionaries maintained was illegal because Herr Brendt is a Jew.

FISHERIES EXHIBITION.

EDINBURGH, April 15.—Lord Rosebery has opened the international fisheries exhibition, which is as interesting and complete as that to which reference has been made. It affords a complete insight into the ways and habits of big fish and little fish, and into the various methods of transferring them from their native waters to the frying pan. Among the specimens in the aquarium are those taken during the voyage of the Vega. A number of Pictuesque Newhaven fish wives occupied seats on the platform during the inauguration ceremony.

A RELEASE EXPECTED.

LONDON, April 16.—A Dublin correspondent believes that Mr. Parnell, on his return to Kilmainham gaol, will be unconditionally released.

THE ROYAL SNUB.

LONDON, April 15.—With the return of Queen Victoria from the Riviera to Windsor castle, and the termination of the Easter holiday, the season, social and political, will be renewed in full intensity. The Queen comes back to her loyal subjects having thoroughly enjoyed her stay on the lovely sun-bathed, mountain-fringed coast, and having administered a snub to the naughty establishment at Monte Carlo, the authorities of which humbly offered a magnificent basket of exotics. It was peremptorily refused, as though a deadly viper coiled beneath the beautiful blossoms.

A CRISIS THREATENED.

LONDON, April 15.—Cairo advices state that several native ladies accused of complicity in the conspiracy have been imprisoned by order of Arabi Bey. The Khedive shows great reluctance to take extreme measures against the accused. The situation is extremely critical. It is generally believed the conspiracy is a trumped-up affair. A cairo letter says that war is openly declared against all Europeans engaged in official functions in Egypt. The Arab papers advocate the absolute expulsion of Europeans from the public service.

AMERICAN TORPEDOES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 15.—The commission to examine proposals for supplying a torpedo has selected Gen. Burdan's. The Sultan has asked Gen. Burdan to state his conditions and the cost of manufacturing the torpedoes in America and Constantinople, the latter place being preferred. The commission will examine the conditions on Monday.

RAILWAY FUSION.

LONDON, April 15.—Mr. Abbott states that he has received promises of support of an arrangement between the Grand Trunk and Great Westery Railways from 1,340 shareholders of the latter railway, representing 115,000 shares. It is reported that the names of gentlemen well known in railway and financial circles will be submitted to the Western meeting as members of the new Board of Directors. These gentlemen will support plans for a cordial and amicable working of the two companies.

COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY.

LIMA, March 22.—A number of people connected with the counterfeit Peruvian paper currency have been arrested, including several influential persons. Nine million dollars in five hundred dollar notes have been circulated.

LORD BEACONSFIELD.

LONDON, April 15.—During the coming week will occur the anniversary of the death of Lord Beaconsfield. A pretty idea has occured to society to commemorate the day by wearing boutonnieres of primroses, the Earl's favorite flower. There is great demand already at the west end florists, for "Beaconsfield buttonholes." A writer in the Times claims that this does more honor to his memory than the proudest monument of bronze or marble.

LIVER, KIDNEY AND BRIGHT'S DISEASE.—A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Kidney and Liver Complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and possitive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

COMMANDER SELBY'S MURDER

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 17.—The trial of the Albanian who murdered Commander Selby, who was on a shooting excursion with some friends near Artaki, Asia Minor, has commenced. There are numerous arrests of suspected Nihilists occupying houses along the route. Russia is growing more discontented and the continually increasing troubles are growing more prevalent.

SERIOUSLY ILL.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Rear Admiral Rodgers is seriously ill.

THE JEANETTE SEARCH.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—A letter from Melville, dated Jan. 31st, and written 333 miles beyond Yakautsak en route for the mouth of the Lena, says:—"I have every reason to hope to find DeLong and his people, books and papers. I am confident that I can search all the coast with the force I have, between March 1st, and June, when the floods set in so badly that we cannot work.

INTERNATIONAL OUTRAGE.

NEW YORK, April 17.—A Yokohama letter has been received stating that the schooner Diana carrying the American flag, while returning from the north to Yokohama, put in at Copper Island, one of the Comondore group, belonging to Russia. She put in for wood and water. Peterson the captain is a German and the crew is composed of Germans, and colored seamen. As soon as members of the crew landed a fire was opened from under cover by 20 or 30 rifles. Several Europeans were severly wounded. The sailors retreated to the ship under full fire. Parties on shore also fired on the ship, which sailed out of range. The Diana went to Petropouloffski where the Government confiscated her cargo of seal skins on the grounds that they were taken on Russian territory. The captain vainly protested that no skins had been taken in Russian possessions. He was warned that even the vessel was liable to seizure. Our Consul has reported the affair to the Government.

An Answer to Prayer.

It was in winter. A poor and aged widow was living alone, and when she awoke in the morning she found that she was completely snowed in. She happened to have no coal or wood, for she was dependent upon exterior assistance, and when morning came, tardily she remained in her miserable bed, expecting assistance. But none came. She is a religious woman, and, although suffering from cold, she did not despair of relief, even though the snow was drifting high around her. For miles the snow quite impassable. But she did not despair. She began to pray, and ere long she heard men coming to her assistance. It had occurred to some influential personage in the district to send out his men to cut a way toward the cottage, and these ideas had been the means of saving the woman's life. The poor woman had prayed in faith, and had been rescued. "But would she not have been rescued in any case?" a doubter remarks. "Would not the men have come under any circumstances?" We venture to think not. We may not always receive what we ask for, but surely that is no proof that our requests are unheeded. A child is not always given what it thinks is best for it. But when a child asks, believing that it will receive what it wants, if the parent approves of the mode and object of the petition, then it will be sure of obtaining the boon, because it receives what it believes it will receive, and is contented, in faith. —Selected.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1882.

WHY DID THEY DO IT.

We are told that everybody wants a sound National Policy calculated to protect our own interests and that everybody is willing to encourage those disposed to engage or already engaged in the manufacture of articles for which the country is suited. We believe that the great majority of the people hold these correct views, but we doubt that all do. If these opinions are so universal why did the late administration maintain an anti-National Policy protecting foreign interests, and why did they discourage Canadian manufacturers and encourage those of the United States? It is because they did not see what nearly everybody wanted in this respect that the people dismissed them from power and secured the services of those who would carry out their wishes.

LET US HAVE FACTS.

Though there must always be differences of opinion there should be no difference as to facts. Let us have them, and others besides journalists can draw their own conclusions. Misrepresenting them can lead to no lasting advantage to any one.

The Examiner states that the Tilley tariff injures the farmer by adding to the cost of his living. Will our contemporary oblige us with a list, long or short, of articles that have risen in price since the change of tariff, giving the quotations now and then? If there has been any increase of prices, the figures can easily be procured from our store keepers. Let us for once have not theories as to what should be the effects of protection, but a statement of what a purchaser had to pay, then, and what he would have to pay now. If our contemporary cannot do this, it has no right to say that the farmers have to pay more for their living. Let us have the facts.

MR. HARDY'S OMISSIONS.

We have compared with some curiosity the report of Mr. John Smith, Immigration Agent at Hamilton, as published by the Dominion and Provincial Ministers. This year Mr. Hardy has been taught better than to lay himself open to the charge of misrepresenting Mr. Smith's report, as he professes only to give extracts from it. We venture to differ from Mr. Hardy, as to what parts of this report are of interest and utility to the public, so we will give a portion of what he omits. Mr. Smith writes as follows:

"The export of live stock is assuming large dimensions every year, and with the improvements in breeding and feeding, with the increasing capacity and the improvement in transport accommodation, the business is fast becoming one of the chief exports of the Dominion.

There has been a brisk demand for products of the forest, including all kinds of lumber, at advancing rates.

The demand for all kinds of improved stock for the Western States has been highly satisfactory to Canadian breeders. Large sales have been effected with high prices for all offerings of Short-horns, Herefords, Devons, and Ayrshires, also for Leicesters, Cotswolds, South Oxford and Shropshire Downs. For thoroughbred Clydesdales there has been a strong competion for export to the States by western breeders.

Canadian breeders have not only gained for themselves an American, but also an European reputation, not only for the purity of blood, but also for size and form, composed as they are of the best tribes and families in the world, as will be seen by reference by some of the principal herds established in this district and the Province of Ontario, and for which Canada has become justly and widely celebrated, possessing greater advantages than any other country, taking into consideration the rapid development of growth and the acclimatization of the animals for western purposes, and the contiguity to the breeding grounds of the western prairies and the facilties of easy and cheap transportation, avoiding the hazardous risk of debarkation. As an evidence of the high character which the Canadian herds have attained, the demand has not been confined to the States, but a keen competition has at times existed with dealers and breeders for the purpose of export to the Old Country.

The establishment of these herds has produced a marked influence upon the stock of the country, as evinced by the grade cattle exhibited at the different provincial, county and township shows, and to this improvement Canada is indebted for the high reputation that she occupies in the fat stock markets of the States and Britain, and which is fast developing the advantages of Canada as a stock-raising country.

At the great State Fair of Illinois, held in Chicago last year, Canadians were highly successful in carrying off prizes, the Wellington district contributing largely to the success, especially with long wool sheep; the Hood Brothers being very conspicuous with their Costwolds and Leicesters. * * * *

The whole of the United States Land Agencies have been withdrawn from this district, owing to the superior attractions of the North-West Territories and the active measures adopted by the Department.

The past year has been the most eventful in the history of Canada, in the development of the manufacturing industries; all branches of trade have been fully employed, the shops, factories and mills being taxed to their fullest capacity, a large number of them having been compelled to run overtime to keep their engagements, and large orders had to be refused owing to the manufacturers not being in a position to avail themselves of their several new factories; new mills have been erected during the year and new industries established, and those previously in existence have had to enlarge their works and increase their plant so as to be in a position to meet the continual and growing demand made upon them.

The Ontario Cotton Mill's Company, Hamilton, and the Hespeler Manufacturing Company, Hespeler, are just completing their mills, and will require 600 hands to run them.

Railways have also participated in the general prosperity of the country, their rolling stock being taxed to its utmost capacity to meet the demands made upon them for transportation, which has caused an increased activity in all the mechanical shops not only for repairs, but also for the construction of new plant; in addition, large orders have been given to the different rolling stock construction companies to meet the requirements of the different railways.

The mercantile business of the district has largely increased in all lines, and a profitable business has been transacted during the year. Confidence being fully established with the country dealers and the credits placed upon a safe basis, payments being promptly met with fewer failures than for years past.

The import and export trade for the year has been very active, and a large and profitable business transacted.

The building trade has been active during the past season, the buildings being of a more extensive and improved class."

This information is certainly interesting, and in our opinion it is useful in our official immigration report. Its truth cannot be denied, neither can it be said to be a political argument in favour of the Dominion Administration, as indeed was hardly to be expected from the Reform appointee of a reform ministry. Mr. Smith, however, tells inconvenient facts, so the facts must be suppressed.

It is the animus displayed by Mr. Hardy, as by too many of his party, that is so lamentable. The facts that show our prosperity would certainly be attractive to emigrants, and therefore it is most desirable that that they should be published as widely as possible by our Immigration Department. But they might and naturally would be used as an argument in favour of the tariff policy of Sir John Macdonald, so they could not be tolerated. In short, Mr. Hardy let his partisan feelings dominate him, instead of his sworn duty to the Province which has intrusted him with its interests. The truth would tend to promote immigration, which it is peculiarly his duty to foster, but it might also be thought to favour his political opponents, so he conceals the truth.

THE LARGEST CAVE ON EARTH.

The Newly-Found Kentucky Cave—Its Catacombs, Mummies, and Masonic Emblems.

The great cave lately discovered here has been visited by a multitude of people from various points of the United States. We think that Leitchfield is destined to become the great "Mecca" of the world—for the Masonic fraternity, and scientists generally.

For the last two weeks no one has been admitted to the cave except upon presenting a written permit from Mr. Rogers, and those who have been fortunate enough to obtain admission have been principally scientists from abroad, who journeyed here to see the great wonder for themselves. It was necessary to take this step, as the cave was rapidly being despoiled of its contents. Indeed, several of the mummies and some of the smaller Masonic emblems were carried off before Mr. Rogers—or, in fact, any of our citizens—realized the importance of the discovery, and of preserving the contents of the cave intact. The subterranean river has been so swollen from the excessive rains of the last month that no explorations have been made in the avenues beyond it. Excavations have been made, however, in the chambers or catacombs where the mummies and Mason emblems were found, and in the vicinity of the pyramid, and several tablets with queer heiroglyphics have been dug up, also some bronze and copper vases, and pieces of pottery. A mound was opened and found to contain six well-preserved mummies reposing in regular order with feet radiating from the centre.

In the discovery of this cave the key is undoubtedly found that will unlock the mystery of the pre-historic race of America, and also prove their identity with the ancient Egyptian race, who undoubtedly crossed over and peopled this continent, built temples and flourished in a high degree of civilization until wiped out of existence by the ruthless hand of the savage. The caves of Kentucky undoubtedly afforded them shelter and protection, and were used as a sort of catacomb for the storage of all that was near and dear to them, including their illustrious dead. Such at least seems to have been the case in this instance, whether this theory will apply to the other caves of Kentucky or not.

Many beautiful formations have been discovered during the last week. The stalactites and stalagmites glisten like so many million diamonds. The pillars and columns of alabaster are beautiful beyond description, and its wonders will have to be seen to be fully appreciated. —Grayson Advocate.

Leaguers in Council.

Washington, April 13.—At the National Land League convention this evening, Father Walsh, treasurer of the League, reported the receipts and remittances since the last convention. The total receipts since the formation of the League were $180,600; remitted to Mr. Egan, president of the Irish National Land League, and Miss Parnell, $169,000; balance on hand after payment of the expenses of the League, $7,000. The report was frequently interrupted by applause, and three cheers were given when a large contribution from Massachusetts was announced. Secretary Flatly of Boston, read a full statement of the number of branch leagues in each of the States, the amount contributed by each State, and the method of remittance pursued. Massachusetts headed the list with a total contrition of $82,000. New York next with a contribution of $60,000. The total acknowledged as having been sent to Ireland direct, and from the treasurer, was $273,000, from 940 branch leagues of good standing. The secretary said there were other sums to the credit of the League which had not been received. He believed the total receipts since the Buffalo convention were nearly $300,000. Both reports were unanimously accepted.

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I dare say many of your readers noticed, last night, the beautiful Auroral display presented by the Northern Lights, as they are popularly termed. On this occasion however, they were not confined to the north, but the streamers extended across the eastern sky, to the south, one of them terminating in the west, —a vast extent of "curtain."

For a long period this phenomenon was regarded as a profound mystery, but we are now informed by scientists, among others by the gentleman who gave us a most interesting lecture, last year, under the auspices of the Mechanics' Institute, Mr. Proctor, that, in all probability, the Aurora consists of "luminous vapour," and that the luminosity is occasioned by the passage of electric discharges through the vapour.

VINCENT CLEMENTI.

Peterborough, April 17, 1882.

Neglected Fruits.

An exchange calls attention to the fact that there are two old-fashioned fruits which are shamefully neglected in these days— the red cherry and the red currant. When grown to perfection, both of these are as handsome as pictures and as luscious and healthy as they are handsome. The cherry-pie which our mothers made was the very ideal of excellence between crusts, and the sauces which they produced from a cherry basis were enough to tempt the appetite of the daintiest of epicures. Nor was there anything which a will-ordered stomach welcomed more heartily, direct from the tree, than a large, perfect and thoroughly ripe cherry. And when it came to the currant bushes, what a grand crop they always bore! As soon as grown, before they begun to ripen, they made excellent sauce and pies, and from that time on until they came to perfect maturity, and were fit to be converted into the finest jellies that were found among the housewife's winter supplies, they were always ready to contribute a tempting dish to the table. But the fly came to sting fruit and the worm to gnaw foliage, The cherry trees were broken down, cut down, or went to decay and the old rows of currant-bushes disappeared. Then came the seductive tree agent, with his books stuffed with pictures of cherries big as pumpkins and of non-destructible currant-bushes, and sickly plants, representing these "improved" varieties, took the places of old standards, that had proved their excellence by years of acceptable service. In a word, between flies and worm and tree agents, the old-fashioned currant-bushes and cherry trees have in too many cases gone to the wall or under the wall and are seen no more, There is no cherry that can by grown with as little trouble as the old style red one that is any better; and certainly there is not and need not be anything in the shape of currants which are an improvement upon those that grew about the garden and upon the banking fifty years ago.

Fear Not.—All kidney and urinary complaints, especially Bright's Disease, Diabetes and liver troubles Hop Bitters will surely and lastingly cure. Cases exactly like your own have been cured in your own neighborhood, and you can find reliable proof at home of what Hop Bitters has and can do.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil will be found invaluable for all purposes of a family medicine. Immediate relief will follow its use. It relieves pain, cures chilblains, frost bites, scalds, burns, corns, rheumatism, neuralgia, &c. For internal use it is none the less wonderful. One or two doses frequently cure sore throat. It will cure croup in a few minutes. A few bottles has often cured asthma. Colic has been cured by a teaspoonful dose. It cures with the utmost rapidity. It is really a wonderful medicine.

Do not be Deceived.—In these times of quack medicine advertisements everywhere it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urniary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Taylor & McDonald.—No. 4

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—From the Kingston (Ont.) Daily Whig.—This old medicine, the ever-effective healer of ills that flesh is heir to, is still before the public in its full favor. It stated on its career of mercy (for a good medicine is a merciful agent), forty years ago, and is to-day sought after by the children of the men who first sought out its virtue and established its name. Were it not for its merits it would long since have "died and left no sign," like many a once popular curative has done even in the last five years. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is no artificial, deleterious compound, certain to afford temporary relief only by cutting its way by powerful agents through vitality, yet leaving a worse injury behind it. It is a vegetable, and by natural remedies works off complaints from a slight cold to a threatening consumption. 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

PORT HOPE.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Guide says:— we have to-day the melancholy duty to record the death, by accident, of a former resident of Port Hope, a son of our respected friend, Thos. Currelley, Esq., Canton. Mr. Charles Currelley went to the far west some five or six years ago and engaged in mining. He was a widower. His wife died about eight years since, and left him three children—boys—the eldest of whom is now about 15 years of age and the youngest 8. They are living with their mother's friends near Colborne. We give below the copy of a letter received by Mr. Currelley, giving an account of the accident and funeral, &c., Deceased was a member of I. O. O. F., of which he was Past Grand Master. He was also President of the Miners' Union, who passed resolutions of sympathy, which were published in the local paper:

Thos. Currelley, Esq., Canton.

DEAR SIR,—It is with the deepest regret that we are oblidged to pen to you the sad news of Charlie's death. Last Sunday morning while two young men (residents of Austin) were out taking a walk among the mines, one of them walking too close to an old shaft the ground caved with him, and he fell about 200 feet. Charlie upon hearing of the accident, and being particularly acquainted with the young man, immediately rushed to his assistance, little thinking he was only hurrying to his own grave. Eager to render what assistance laid in his power and not thinking of the danger his own life was in, he approached too near the mouth of the shaft, when the ground again caved, and the sad news was brought to us that this time poor Charlie was the victim. Everything possible for man to do to save his life was done by us and friends, but all in vain. We thought of taking his remains home to Canada, but he was bruised and cut so much that we conld not get him embalmed. He was buried yesterday under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. (in which order he held the office of Past Grand,) accompanied by the Miners' Union, of which he was president.

We remain, yours in sympathy.
ROBERT FOY.

BURLEIGH FALLS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SALMON FISHING.—The salmon are now ready for the angler. Those who are fond of the rod and line will get good sport for a week or ten days at Burleigh Falls. Mr. Holmes caught four very large fish on Friday last which would average 15 lbs. each. Live minnows are the only sure bait.

THE ROADS.—The roads are now in good condition for travelling. The last few days of dry weather have improved them very much.

OATHS OF ALL NATIONS.

The Forms of Oaths in Foreign Legislative Assemblies.

The following summary of the forms of oaths in use in foreign legislative assemblies is extracted from the reports received at the British Foreign Office in New York:

Bavaria—I swear * * * So help me God and his Holy Gospel.

Denmark—I promise and swear * * * So help me God and his Holy Word.

Greece—I swear in the name of the Holy and consubstantial and indivisible Trinity.

Hesse-Darmstadt—I swear * * * So help me God.

Saxe-Cobourg and Baden—I swear, so help me God.

Holland—I swear. So help me God.

Portugal—I swear on the Holy Gospel.

Prussia—I swear by God, the almighty and omniscient * * * So help me God.

Saxony—I swear by Almighty God.

Servia—I swear by one God and with all that is according to law most sacred and in this world dearest * * * So help me God in this and that other world.

Spain—After swearing the deputy on this Gospel, the President says: "Then may God repay you; but, if you fail, may he claim it from you."

Sweden and Norway—I (President or Vice-President only) swear before God and His Holy Gospel * * * I will be faithful to this oath as sure as God shall save my body and soul.

Switzerland—In the presence of Almighty God I swear * * * So help me God.

United States—I do solemnly swear * * * So help me God.

In Bavaria non-Christians omit the reference to the Gospel. In Holland and the United States affirmation is optional. In Prussia and Switzerland affirmation is permitted to those who object on religious grounds to the oath. In Austria a promise is in every case substituted for an oath. In Belgium and Italy the adjuration is used without any theistic reference, and in France and Roumania, the German Reichstag and for deputies in Sweden and Norway neither oath nor affirmation is demanded.

Preventing Bush Fires.

The Brock, Ontario, Township council have passed a by-law for regulating the burning of brush, stumps, etc. It provides that no stumps, wood, logs, trees, brush, straw, shavings or refuse shall be set on fire by any person or persons in the open air within the municipality in or during the months of July or August in any year; nor at other time or times during the year until after eight days' notice has been given to the owner or occupant of the adjoining property. Any person contravening the provisions of this by-law shall, in addition to any damages which may occur, be liable to a fine of not less than $2 or more than $50 upon conviction before a Justice of the Peace.

WEAK LUNGS AND HOW TO MAKE THEM STRONG. Breathe with the mouth closed, have access at all times to pure air exercise moderately, eat nourishing but simple food, and take that best of all cough remedies, Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, it speedily cures all throat and lung troubles of adults or children. Price 25 cents per bottle.

FROM ALL OVER.

LAW suits are not always expensive. About the cheapest a man can get into is the striped one worn in the penitentiary.

QUERY?—Have you seen that big fist, with streams of elictricity issuing from it, in another column?

"AN' that's the pillar of Hercules?" she said, adjusting her silver spectacles. "Gracious, what's the rest of his bed-clothes like, I wonder?"

"WILL Love Win?" is the title of a new novel. I feel authorized to say that love, properly backed with a bank account, will call the turn every time.

GOOD HEALTH.—Keep the Stomach, Liver and Bowels in good order by the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and perfact health will be the result.

SITTING BULL has named one of his twins "The-War-is-Over." His daughter, "She-Who-Glances-at-You-as-She-Walks," is 14 years old and a very nice girl.

THE first triumvirate, fromed 59 B. C. consisted of Cæsar, Pompey and Crassus, and the three leading business pens of Esterbrook's make are the Falcon, Bank and Easy Writer.

A CELEBRATED WRITER informs the world that "debt is a great stimulant," but Jinks says he prefers brandy. He has tried both and ought to be a competent judge.

"ARE you the chief engineer of this concern?" asked an excited individual of the new editor. "No Sir; I'm the boiler," and he proceeded to "boil down," six sheets of manifold into briefs.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

A BROTHER arose in a weekly prayer meeting in New Jersey and said:—"Brethren, when I consider the shortness of life, I feel as if I might be taken away suddenly, like a thief in the night."

THE chopping knife is used a great deal at a neighboring boarding house, and the landlady is getting rich—in point of fact, as a Cockney guest observed, she is rising, like the phœnix, from its ashes.

POPULAR DEMAND.—The great superiority of Downs' Elixir, over all other cough remedies, is attested by the immense" popular demand for that old established remedy" for the cure of Coughs, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the throat, Chest and Lungs.

THE nearer a man is to being a fool, the more absolutely certain he is that he is nothing of the kind. Wise men know that they are foolish sometimes, but your genuine fool believes that he and folly are divided by eternal barriers.

A RELIABLE FACT.—It is an established fact that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the best cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, croup, bronchitis, and all troubles arising from neglected colds. Price 25 cents.

"FATHER, did you ever have another wife beside mother?" "No, my boy; what possessed you to ask such a question?" "Because I saw in the old family Bible where you maried Anno Domino, in 1835. and that isn't mother, for her name was Sally Smith.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

SAID THE TEACHER:—"And it came to pass, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes. Now, what does that mean, children, 'he rent his clothes?" Up went a little hand, "Well, if you know, tell us." "Please ma'am, said the child, timidly, "I s'pose he hired 'em out."

INTERESTING to every one is the case lately referred to by the Brooklyn Eagle. It was told by Mr. W. A. Davenport, connected with the house of Messrs. Pitkin & Co., 476 Broadway, New York, and concerned the marvellous cure of Mr. Ezra D. Clarkson, near Newark, N. J., of a terrible case of rheumatism, which other remedies had failed even to alleviate. He was on his way to a hospital when Mr. Davenport met him and induced him to try St. Jacobs Oil, with the result named.

AN old gentleman, finding a couple of his nieces fencing with broomsticks, said; "Come, come, my dears, that kind of an accomplishment will not help you in getting husbands." I know it, uncle," responded one of the girls, as she gave a lunge, "but it will help us to keep our husbands in order when we have got 'em."

IRELAND.

ON March 18th, two sailors named John Brewer and James Campbell were found dead in the forecastle of a ship in which they were employed. They were employed on board the schooner Woodlock, which arrived in Belfast from Ayr. They went to sleep in the forecastle, a small compartment in which there was a stove burning, and were suffocated by the fumes from the stove.

BARON CARLINGFORD, Lord Privy Seal, was installed as a knight of the Order of St. Patrick at the vice-regal lodge, Dublin. At a banquet Earl Cowper, Grand Master of the Order of St. Patrick and Lord-Lieutenant, said the Government was determined to perform its duties without being deterred by obloquy or disheartened by occasional failure. Lord Carlingford said there was no reason to despair. The Government had resolved to do its best, and would not lose heart.

AT daybreak on March 22nd, the county subsheriff, protected by a detachment consisting of sixty men of the 7th Regiment, and a force of twenty police, from Ennis, under the charge of Mr. Wilfred Lloyd, arrived at Kildysart. The object of their mission was to effect twenty seizures at the suit of Colonel Lloyd, which was effected amidst great excitement. Fifty head of cattle were seized. Mr. Walsh, one of the tenants, complained of the ill-treatment given to the cattle by the bailiffs. Mr. Lloyd assured Mr. Walsh that the cattle would be well treated. Mr. Lloyd addressed the people.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1882.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Entertainment.

The last of a series of concerts under the auspices of the Orange District Lodge of Peterborough, for the improvement and beautifying of their hall, was held on Thursday evening, the 13th inst., and was well attended, about 400 persons being present. At half past eight Mr. Weir, County Master, opened the proceedings with an address, in which he stated the object of the entertainment and gave a short description of the workings of the Orange Association, and thanked the audience for their liberal support during the season. The following programme was then gone through :—Duet by the Misses Rickey; Scotch reading, Mr. Ballantyne; song, Mrs. Sheppard; recitation, Miss Hamilton; solo, Miss Rickey; reading, Mr. Strain; duet, the Misses Rickey; grand dialogue, in which several took part; recitation by Miss Russell; recitation, by Master Brown; duet, the Misses Rickey; Scotch reading, Mr. Ballantyne; reading, Mr. Hope. The audience then rose and sang "God Save the Queen," and then dispersed. The pieces were all well rendered and brought forth a good deal of applause. A noticeable feature was the number of ladies in the audience, which speaks well for the Orange Associationa nd their entertainments.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

Rubbish.

We hear several complaints of the want of a place for depositing rubbish, such as must accumulate in a town. Some of the store-keepers make rubbish heaps on the streets and says that they are compelled to do so for want of any other place for it. There is abundant room in Spaulding's Bay to receive any refuse, which would be of service there, though a nuisance elsewhere. We believe that the health officers have suggested opening an approach to Spaulding's Bay for this purpose, but the Council have not acted upon this sensible recommendation.

P.B.C.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Boating Club, which had to be adjourned on account of the small attendance, will be held this evening at the Club Boat House. It is to be hoped that those members who take an interest in the welfare of the Club, and all should do so, will make it a point to be present. The election of officers which take place, and the selection of a zealous and capable executive is all important to such organizations.

The Weather.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes—Fresh westerly backing to southerly winds. Fine, warm weather.

Yesterday the Rev. Principal Cavan preached to two large congregations, both morning and evening in St. Paul's Church.

Another Old Resident Gone.

Under the proper heading will be found a notice of the death, in Ashburnham, of George Buck, Esq., one of the early pioneers of the adjoining township of Otonabee. Mr. Buck came to Canada in 1825, when he was only ten years of age, and resided in the township of Otonabee, from that time until last year, when he gave up farming, and moved into Ashburnham, with the view of enjoying during his declining years that ease and comfort which he had so well earned by his quieter and industrious life. He leaves behind him a wife and only daughter (unmarried,) to mourn his somewhat premature death.

A Cool Proceeding.

Mr. Alexander, of Monaghan, finding the Church shed full when he came out for the service, took his horse and buggie to an hotel yard. After the service was over he found that someone had taken the horse for a drive and ultimately he discovered it in another hotel yard where it had been left, with marks of having been furiously driven. We shall probably hear more of this, as the party is known.

Fall Wheat.

We are glad to learn from gentleman from various parts of the country that the fall wheat in their respective townships has not been damaged by the recent cold nights, as it was feared might be the case, and that this important crop is looking well.

Town Council Committees.

Two of the standing committees of the Town Council will meet this evening, namely the Charity committee and the Fire, Water and Gas committee.

The Steam Excavator.

They have got the steam up this afternoon in the new steam excavator, and it will make a start this evening for the scene of operations.

The Norseman.

We learn that the Norseman has commenced running her regular trips.

AN EXPLANATION.

To the Editor of the Review :

SIR,—At the risk of giving the matter publicity, I would like to refer to a paragraph in the last issue of the Times, in which it is stated that I had apprenticed myself to that office, and I then absconded without a moment's notice. I wish to say that I did not engage to stay there any length of time, that I was simply hired by the week, and that I gave notice amounting to a great many moments that I was going to leave. I do not know why the manager of that paper should publish false statements intended to injure me, unless it was that his ire was aroused because I managed, after considerable trouble, to get the amount of wages due me from him, as I am informed that few of his employees have been so fortunate. I might state the reasons why I left that office, (and they would not reflect any credit on it), and I might give some instances of the meaness of the manager of that concern, but as both that individual and the paper are generally looked upon as being too insignificat to notice, I will refrain. I have no fear that the paragraph in question will injure me. In fact, I intend to place it among my testimonials, as I believe the fact of being denounced by the Peterborough Times will be accepted as a recommend in any respectable printing office.

Yours truly,
S. R. ARMSTRONG.

KINGSTON.

FATHER BRETTARGH'S CASE.—The Whig of the 14th says: "Bishop Cleary, with several priests, arrived at Trenton yesterday morning, and stopped at the parsonage with Father Brettargh, where they held a conference on the difficulty recently alluded to. At 1 o'clock p. m., a meeting, which was largely attended by both Protestants and Catholics, was held in the church. After an exhortation on the obedience due to the higher dignitaries of the church, the Bishop read a written acknowledgment of his authority from Father Brettargh. The Bishop then declared the difficulty to be at an end, which greatly relieved the audience. Bishop Cleary and Father Brettargh are to be congratulated on the manner in which they acted during the misunderstanding. The Bishop will pay Trent on another visit next Saturday."

DURING the illuminations at Roscommon in honour of the release of Mr. Parnell the windows of houses not illuminated were smashed. The house of Major Waring was attacked and the windows broken. Serious rioting ensued, and the military were called to assist the police. Three of the rioters were seriously injured.

NINE PHYSICIANS OUTDONE.—It is generally considered a pertty difficult task to outdo a physician, but the following will conclusively prove where nine were completely outdone. Mrs. Helen Pharviz, 331 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill., was treated for Consumption by nine physicians, and all pronounced her case incurable. Seven bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones please drop her a postal and convince yourselves. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.00.

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE, WHO SHALL DECIDE?—Nothing is more variable than the different opinions of medical men; but when they fail to agree, or to preform a cure in a chronic disease, the patients often decides for themselves, and take Burdock Blood Bitters, and speedily recover. It is the grand key to health that unlocks all the secretions, and liberates the slave from the captivity of disease.

As calorie, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL is at the head of the list for all purposes of a family medicine. It is used with unprecedented success, both internally and externally. It cures sore throat, burns, scalds, frost bites; relieves, and often cures asthma.

MANUFACTURING NOTES.

THE Kingston Knitting Mill Company have ordered an 80 horse power Corliss engine at Toronto. All the machinery will be ready to ship by the 15th of June.

CORRIVEAU'S new silk factory at Montreal, costing $100,000, will be ready to commence work on 1st May, and will give profitable employment to 300 operatives.

MARKED progress is now being made in the work at the St. Croix Cotton Mill. The machinery is rapidly arriving and being put in place. It is stated by the managers that the mill will commence operations by the first of May.

THE Ontario Toy Company is the name of a new industrial enterprise recently started at London. The Company has erected a large brick factory on King-street, and is employing fifty hands, who are working night and day to fill orders. They manufacture children's carriages, swings, etc.

A COMPANY is being formed in Winnipeg for the purpose of building a large dam across the Little Saskatchewan at Rapid City, the cost of which is estimated at $50,000. The object the company has in view is to lease water power to parties who wish to erect mills in Rapid City. It is said that the dam will have sufficient head to run 50 mills with six run of stones each.

DURING the past week fifteen car loads of machinery have been delivered at the Thorold Knitting Factory, and there are four or five car loads yet to be delivered. The freight alone on the machinery amounted to $1,600. The machinery is being rapidly put up under the superintendence of a machinest from the works where it was made—Tathams, of Rochdale, England.—Thorold Post.

MR. E. G. WOODS, formerly of Sherbrooke, but late of Cornwall, has leased the interest of Mr. Fletcher Thompson (of Thompson Bros.) and will engage in the manufacture of bobbins, spools, &c., such as they have been doing, the firm's name not to be changed. Mr. F. Thompson is compelled by poor health to give up, for a time at least, indoor imployment. This firm have been doing a good business, and we hope will continue to do so.

MR. RUFUS STEPHENSON received the othe day a telegram to the effect that a large manufacturer of stave bolts hitherto carrying on his works on the American side of the river, had removed his entire stock and machinery to the Canadian side with the intention of establishing his factory at Wallaceburgh. He has taken this step in the anticipation of an export duty being placed on elm logs, as requeted by the Canadian manufactuaers.

THE Maritime Draw Cut Mower Company has leased for a term of years a building near the Amherst(N. S.) Railway station, for a factory, and purchased nearly $3,000 worth of machinery, which is expected here in a few days. A manager for the works, who is well recommended for experience and skill, has also been engaged in the United States, and every preparation is being made for manufacturing the mowers.—Amherst Gazette.

THE Thorold Pulp Mill is having certain improvements and additions made to it, to meet the largely increased demand for its commodity. The first is the insertion of another water wheel, 12 feet in diameter, which will give 20 feet head additional of water. The two sets of stones in the mill, which were recently broken, are to be replaced by stones of the latest improved kind. These improvements, it is claimed, will almost double the capacity of the mill.

THE Perth car shops, the Expositor says, are progressing rapidly. About 50 men are employed on them. The third building, 140 x 100 feet, is about completed. On the fourth building 240 x 65 feet, the sills are laid and a large portion of the heavy frame erected. The engine house, a separate building, will be built thirty feet west of No. 3. It will be 31x42 feet, and will contain four boilers and an engine 120 horse-power. A dry-kiln house, 22x68 feet, will be placed near the river, and there will also be a building between the paint shop and No. 2, 30x45 feet, for storing iron, &c. The buildings are being roofed with Sharham's cement roofing, which is made with two layers of thick felt, covered with a composition of coal tar, mixed with ground mica, soapstone and plumbago, with a light top dressing of sand. It is claimed that this roofing is superior to gravel roofing, as it will not run or crack with the heat of the sun. A second siding has been laid down on the south side of the building.—Canadian Manufacturer.

THE CONTENTED MAN,
Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

MARINE ENGINEERING.

LONDON, April 17.—A most interesting exhibition of naval and submarine engineering has been opened at the Agricultural hall, the chief feature of which—after many fears that the pressure of the water could not be overcome—is a glass tank sixty feet in circumference, and wherein divers can be seen working clad in grotesque submarine armor. The exhibition contains a vast number of models and patents, all deeply instructive. There are life rafts, sea messengers, lighthouses, engines, boat-lowering and ship-raising apparatus, and thousands of other objects. The visitor can compare the lines of a Chinese junk with the latest Atlantic steamship, or that imperial failure, the Livadia, with the latest racing cutter on the Mississippi, a three-decker with a steel clipper tea-ship. Interesting also are the marine relics:—A pulley block from the Mary Rose, sunk in the year 1545; a carpenter's plane from the flagship of the Spanish Armada, sunk off Vigo; a midshipman's dagger from the Royal George, and a portion of the stern of the Eurydice.

DR. LAMSON.

LONDON, April 17.—The solicitor of Lamson has made affidavits that the prisoner's relatives informed him prior to the trial that Lamson's mind had been destroyed by morphine. The above line of defence he says, however, was not adopted at the trial because the prisoner's counsel were misled by the statements of medical experts, and it was decided that the actual defence was good and sufficient without touching upon the mental condition of the prisoner. The Times says unhesitatingly that a few more postponements would make Dr. Lamson's execution shocking to the public sense of humanity. It cannot be admitted that because Lamson seems sometimes to be nervous and disconnected in his ideas and aimlessly untruthful that he was not responsible for a crime towards which he had never before exhibited the least tendency.

RUSSIA AND THE PORTE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 17.—The Russian Ambassador recently announced that he intended to go on furlough for several months. This is considered as a warning to the Porte that Russia's patience is nearly exhausted by the indemnity negociations. The Sultan is making efforts at conciliation.

TORPEDO MANUFACTURE.

LONDON, April 17.—A Times despatch from Constantinople says that Gen. Burdan's proposals for manufacturing his torpedoes were examined on Monday, when it was found that he raised insurmountable objections to their manufacture in Constantinople.

THE VATICAN AND IRELAND.

ROME, April 17.—Cardinal McCabe, of Dublin, on Sunday, at Rome, in the presence of a large assemblage, took possession of his titular Church of Santa Sabina. In his homily he especially referred to the bonds connecting the Vatican and Ireland.

REGISTERED LETTERS STOLEN.

PARIS, April 17.—One hundred and eighty registered letters have been stolen from the post-office somewhere from abroad. The value of the contents is estimated at 1,000,000 francs. The thieves broke open the iron safe. No arrests have been made.

THE GUITEAU CASE.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The District Attorney has received a note from Guiteau stating that Scoville has nothing to do with his affairs, and that Charles H. Reed has entire charge of his case in banc. He has also received notice from Scoville that he will be ready to argue the case on May 15th. The District Attorney told Reed that when the case was called in general term whoever is present will be recognized.

SPANISH AFFAIRS.

MADRID, April 17.—It is stated that the authorities on the frontier in Catalonia fear an attempt at a rising, a quantity of arms having been landed on the coast. Alarmist reports, however, are not credited in official circles. The prolonged drought is causing great distress among the working classes. The Government has consigned large sums to the authorities of Andalusia to give employment to the people. Andrieux, the new French Ambassador, presented his credentials to King Alfonso on Monday. Both delivered cordial speeches.

IRISH AFFAIRS.

LONDON, April 17.—It is stated that the expense of administering the Land Act thus far has been £90,000. The reductions in rent by the Land Commissioners are estimated at £30,000.

THE RECORD.

DUBLIN, April 17.—531 agrarian outrages were reported in Ireland during the month of March, including two murders, twelve firing at persons, seven aggravated assaults, and thirty arsons. 237 outrages were committed in Munster, 124 in Leinster, 122 in Connaught, and forty-eight in Ulster.

AMERICAN.

PUDDLERS' STRIKE.

PITTSBURG, April 17.—It is thought that the iron manufacturers will not grant the puddlers' demand for an increase of wages and a strike is apprehended which will render 4,000 employees and $30,000,000 of capital idle.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.

NIAGARA FALLS, April 17.—Another accident is added to the already long chapter of Niagara's casualties. At about one o'clock this afternoon a row-boat containing two men came down the river through the rapids and over the falls. The indications are that they attempted to row across the river from the Canadian shore above the rapids, and after finding themselves in a swift current, lost their oars in their efforts to reach the American shore. Who they are or where they came from is unknown at present.

THE JESSE JAMES MURDER.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—It is reported that the Grand Jury at St. Joseph indicted the Ford brothers, who killed Jesse James, for murder in the first degree. The boys were brought into court an hour later, pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to be hanged on the 19th of May.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 17.—The Governor has granted an unconditional pardon to the Ford brothers, sentenced to death to-day for killing Jesse James.

ELECTRICAL INFLUENCE.

CLEVELAND, April 17.—The electrical condition which produced the extraordinary auroral display on Sunday night affected a great many persons here, particularly those troubled with nervous disorders. C. L. Binkly, pastor of the Prospect street M. R. Church, was prostrated in the pulpit while praying by what was at first supposed to be paralysis. Ladies fainted in the churches during service. People who were out of doors, as well as in, complain generally of strangely oppressive sensations, similar to those attendant upon an earthquake.

NO YANKEE "SUSPECTS."

DUBLIN, April 18.—The officials say that not a single suspect who has the slightest claim to American citizenship, now remains in any Irish prison. Several of the suspects in jail claim to be citizens of the United States, but they are not supported by the American Minister.

PARNELL.

DUBLIN, April 18.—There is much doubt as to the whereabouts of Parnell. It is supposed that he intends to surrender in order to avoid a demonstration by his friends, some of whom argue the warrant on which he was arrested is legally condemned, and he is not bound to return at all. The first supposition is apparently the best founded. Leave of absence was granted to Parnell for the purpose of attending the funeral of his nephew, but he did not mention any day for his return.

RAILWAY FUSION.

LONDON, April 18.—The report of the Great Western Company has been issued. It is impossible to mistake the attitude of the directors towards the agitation for fusion, and their suspicions of Mr. Tyler's proposal. They have resolved to resign if the shareholders agree to accept Mr. Tyler's indefinite offer. The report says that the Western has been asked to agree to-day to lease its road in a year or two, supposing that the Dominion Government meanwhile sanctions the agreement, and the Grand Trunk feels disposed then to ratify the arrangement. In other words, to give the Grand Trunk a valuable option over an indefinite period without a semblance of equivalent therefor. Meantime what would be the condition of the Western? It would have sold its independence without receiving payment for it. It would be estranged from and mistrusted by those with whom it does its main business and from whom it derives the bulk of its income. Herein probably lies the whole secret of the renewed agitation for arrangements with the Ontario and Quebec. So far from getting aid from the Grand Trunk, it would of necessity be the policy of that Company to starve the Western that they might eventually secure it on terms very different from those now so ostentatiously paraded. It is impossible to believe that the shareholders will for a moment seriously contemplate taking so hazardous a step as the acceptance of this proposition. Should they determine to incur the risks and face the dangers pointed out, the directors must ask to be relieved of the responsibility which must attach to conduct and policy their experience of the Company's affairs oblige them unreservedly to condemn.

AMERICAN.

A BLACK SHEPHERD.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 18.—The Governor has commuted to five years the 18 years' sentence of the Rev. J. Keebaugh, convicted of forging $5,000 of Howard County bonds, and also the names of wealthy friends to notes. Keebaugh professes repentence.

U. S. BONDS.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—A decision of the United States Supreme Court yesterday favours the consolidated bonds and adverse is to the premium bonds. This caused the former to advance and the latter to decline 12 per cent. in an hour. Further decline is inevitable. Several failures on the Stock Exchange are predicted. The decision makes necessary the entire revision of the municipal finances and changes the basis and increases largely the amount of taxation.

BLOWN UP.

POUKEEPSIE, April 18.—The explosion heard at midnight is explained by the blowing up of the steel drill and boiler on Mahoney's contract on the west Shore road near West Port. Four boxes of cartridges were placed under them. The shock was felt ten miles. Nobody was hurt, the damage is $15,000

DOCTORS DISAGREE.

FEW YORK, April 18.—Several professors of the medical Department of the University of the City of New York, including Doctors Ross, Hammond, and McDonald have resigned on account of a disagreement and they intend to form a new medical school.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

NEW YORK, Apail 18.—The Times says that among the appointments expected to be sent in are those of Nicholas Fish to be minister to Belgium and John Francis Train, Charge d' Affaires to Portugal.

NAVAL BILLS.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Herald says that the naval construction and 25 million steamship subsidy Bills will not be reached this session. The general opinion is that the Bills are dead.

FIRE.

RYE BEACH, N. H., April 18.—The Farranga House, the largest hotel here, and all the buildings east of it, were burned this morning.

WHEN you see a promising colt with a splint, curb or spavin forming, thus spoiling its sale, go at once and procure a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. One dollar invested in this great remedy will save you hundreds of dollars. It has no equal as a liniment for man or beast.

LIVER, KIDNEY AND BRIGHT'S DISEASE.—A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Kidney and Liver Complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

THROWING FILTH.

THE last number of Grip has a good cartoon, which in jest tells an undeniable truth. Sir Charles Tupper is depicted in the Globe pillory, while Mr. Gordon Brown, in the guise of a dirty little boy, throws filth at him after the nature of his kind. Sir Charles suggests that he should "be tried and convicted before this thing goes any further." Mr. Blake looks on with a smile of pleasure at the maltreatment of his opponent, thus tacitly countenancing the outrage. The scene is appropriately entitled, "Magna Charta Suspended; or, Punishment Before Trial."

MUCH OBLIGED.

WE are much obliged to the Globe for preparing and furnishing us with the following comparative statements of the wages paid in Toronto in January 1872, 1878 and 1882, because it proves beyond dispute that the working men in that city received higher wages under both the past and present reigns of Sir John Macdonald, than they did under that of Mr. Mackenzie. It is true that the Globe claims that the tariffs of 1872 and 1878 were practically the same, but the Globe and its confreres should remember that one of the most serious charges brought against the Mackenzie Government in 1878 was that they were "flys on the wheel" unable to frame a policy adopted to the changed circumstances in which we found ourselves in 1878 as compared with 1872, and that it was to their inability to do this that their opponents largely attributed the decreased wages paid in 1878. That they were not far wrong in this conclusion is evident by the Globe's own figures proving that under the N. P. the working man had his former rate of wages restored to him by January 1882—which is the best possible proof that the present policy is the best for the country at the present time. The following are the Globe's figures:—

	Jan. 1872.	Jan. 1878.	Jan. 1882.
Bricklayers	$2 75	$2 00	$2 50
Carpenters & stair builders	2 00	1 50	2 00
Gas and steam-fitters and plumbers	1 75	1 60	1 75
Hod-carriers, &c.	1 50	1 25	1 50
Stone-cutters	3 00	3 00	3 00
Masons	2 50	1 75	2 25
Painters	1 75	1 50	1 75
Plasterers	2 50	1 75	2 50
Moulders	2 25	1 75	2 50
Cigar-makers	1 65	1 20	1 60

NOT TO BE HOODWINKED.

The Paris Review a Reform paper says:—"The opposition press brings daily to its readers the sad intelligence of the discontent and ruin that has come over the country as a result of the N. P. And yet somehow it is not generally believed even by Reformers. We have not had the opportunity which the Globe has had of a general enquiry of the manufacturers, but as far as we have inquired—it has been among the readers of the Globe and the liberal party—there is no complaint of damage done by the tariff. There may not be any great advance in wages, but there are few now out of employ, almost everyone willing to work can get it to do and the tramps are spoken of as the things that were. The expense of living, with the exception of coal, is not much different from former years. In fact this has been increasing gradually for years, but as all kinds of farm products have brought a good price, the farmers, so proverbial for grumbling, are now cheerful with the feeling that there is money in everything that the raise, and most of them have lifted their old time mortgages, and laid up a little pile in the banks, to be now transferred to the pockets of the speculators in the North West.

Farmers, in fact, have been getting a good price for everything they have had to sell. Mechanics and factory hands have full employment, and with the exception of here and there a case, such as will be found in the best of times men are contented. The North West craze and the hope of sudden wealth, have turned the heads of a good many, but this will have an end, it has nothing to do with the tariff. In general terms we should say the country is prosperous and the people happy, and it is not fair,—which ever party is in power—to play the demagogue, and try to foster discontent among the people. It is questionable policy for the Liberals, and is certainly alienating some of their warm friends. If we make a bid for discontents we can always find them, in any times, and in any country, but we must not from our estimate of the state of feeling in a country by these exceptional cases. It would be better in view of the coming elections—whether they come this year or the year following—to come with fair issues before the people, and give them a reason for voting that commands itself to their judgment, and common sense, for there are after all a good many people that will not be hoodwinked."

THE PETERBOROUGH BOATING CLUB.

Election of Officers—An Interesting Report from the Captain.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Peterborough Boating Club was held in the Club House on Monday evening, Mr. F. J. Lewis, President, in the chair.

The Auditors having reported, the Treasurer's accounts were adopted.

Captain E. B. Edwards read the following report as Captain of the Club, and it was adopted:—

To the President and members of the Peterborough Boating Club:

I beg to submit the following report as Captain of the Club for the year 1881:—

There was a fair amount of rowing done during the year, especially by the younger members of the Club. There were three races held on the Little Lake, in some of which close and interesting contests took place. In view, however, of the fact that some of the older members are beginning to lose their interest in these Club races it will be advisable that the Club should consider what means had better be adopted to keep up the interest in them, by prizes or otherwise, as they serve to bring about a great deal of useful practice. A Club regatta was, later in the season, arranged to be held near Hale's Bridge on the river. Owing to the failure of some of the competitors to put in an appearance the programme was not as fully carried out as it should have been, the events being confined to a four-oar race, double sculls, and a canoe race. The double sculls was well contested and was the best Club race of the season.

It being absolutely impossible to get even a single member of the four-oar crew of 1879 and 1880 to pull during the last year on account of their private engagements, a senior four could not be found to compete in any of the great matches. The junior four consisting of G. C. Lech, (bow,) N. D. Beck, (No.2), A. Elliott, (No. 3,) and C. S. Shaw, (stroke,) took part in the Hamilton regatta. They had the misfortune to be heavily handicapped drawing the extreme outside position on a day when there was half a gale blowing across the beach. Notwithstanding this, they held an even position with the foremost at the end of the first mile, and finished but a few boat lengths behind the winners, all the crews coming in in a bunch. They rowed a game race and won favourable opinions from the spectators.

In August, a party of seven, representatives of the club, visited the camp of the American Canoe Association, at Lake George, and received a very cordial welcome from the American "Knights of the paddle." I trust that the members of our club, which numbers on its roll more active canoemen than any other club on the continent, will see to it that the visit is repeated during the present year, and that an effort will be made to bring the camp of the association to Canada for 1883. The party who went last year went solely for pleasure. It would be well if this year some of our good paddlers would endeavour to go, so as to give our American friends, who are addicted almost exclusively to the use of the double blade, some idea of what the single bladed paddle can do. To compete successfully at Lake George, both sailing and paddling should be practised beforehand, and I should strongly recommend that an effort be made to revive these sports which have been somewhat crowded out of our regatta programmes of late. The establishment of a suitable challenge cup, or other prize, such as that competed for half a dozen or more years ago, would furnish a powerful stimulus. As is well-known the Americans differ from us both in build of canoe and in the paddle used. Their canoes are decked over, with the exception of a small well at the centre, and the eastern builders, such as Rushton and Stephens, prefer the clinker build. This is contrary to our ideas, accustomed as we are to use canoes as comfortable pleasure boats, capable of carrying at least from one to three besides the paddler, and furnishing the most desirable boat for the use of ladies. The question of the superiority of the double or single bladed paddle is yet to be decided.

A number of American canoeists, chiefly from New York, and including Commodore Alden, Colonel Norton, editor of the American Canoeist, (a publication which I heartily recommend) Captain Kendall and others have announced their intention of visiting our Peterborough waters in their canoes next July. I need hardly bespeak for them a hearty welcome.

For the coming year the Club will probably find it necessary to provide some more accommodation in the way of boats. In any event, to make the season a success, all the members must work heartily and vigorously together, and I call upon all whether oarsmen or canoemen to endeavor to make the year 1882 a memorable and successful one in the annals of the Club.

E. B. EDWARDS,
Captain P.B.C.

Several new members were elected by ballot.

The following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT—Mr. F. J. Lewis.

VICE-PRESIDENT—Rev. V. Clementi.

CAPTAIN—Capt. E. B. Edwards.

SECRETARY-TREASURER—Mr. W. H. Budden.

COMMITTEE—Messrs. G. C. Rogers, R. M. Orr, R. E. Wood, John McClelland.

Some other business was transacted, and the meeting adjourned.

No Case.

The Canadian Spectator says:—The Boundary question is held to be an important matter by the Ontario people. For the present it is more thought of than the N.P., or anything else which affects the interests of the country. Mr. Mowat and his followers were driven, certainly to frenzy, and almost to rebellion, about it in the Local House; they promised that it should be the subject of a fierce debate at Ottawa, all seemed to feel that it would govern the voting when the elections come around again. The matter was brought forward at Ottawa by Mr. Plumb in a resolution to refer the question to the highest judicial court of Canada, or the Privy Council. Mr. Plumb was asked to move the resolution, probably because Sir John Macdonald wanted the chance to answer Mr. Blake, but the chance never came. This great matter which had almost un-Christianised Mr. Mowat, and had quite uncivilized Mr. Frazer, could not draw a speech from Mr. Blake. The debate, in fact, at no time had life and real interest in it for the Opposition, most of the leaders deeming it not worth while to speak, and less worth while to vote. There is only one solution of this enigma: Mr. Blake must have felt that he had no case against the Government, and could not, or would not, manufacture sophistries, or set up mimic storms at the bidding of Messrs. Mowat and Frazer.

Unpatriotic Rejoicing.

The Hamilton Spectator says:—

"In these days, when a Grit newspaper rejoices over the prospects of a good crop it is a genuine suprise to its readers. Our local contemporary was guilty in this respect yesterday. But it was the prospective good crop in England that was being rejoiced over, and the reason alleged for the chuckling was that a good crop in England makes poor prices for Canadian grain, a circumstance which our contemporary thinks would be rough on the tories."

MURDER DISCOVERED.

The Victim a Wealthy Englishman. His Body Found After Six Months.

RICHFORD, Vt., April 15.—Yesterday the decomposed body of a man was found in a deep ravine on the mountains at Sutton, Que., about five miles from here, by some children at play. The body lay in a brook with a large stone on the head. A letter was found dated Brighton, Eng., June 29, 1881, and signed by M. H. Jackson, evidently a sister of the dead man, and written from where he started to come to Canada. From the contents of the letter it is believed that he possessed a large sum of money, as he was warned not to take much money with him, but draw drafts as he needed it. The letter also spoke of his good habits, and indicated that he was a gentleman of wealth and high social position. The body had probably been in the brook all winter. It was taken to Sutton to-day, and an inquest was held this evening. Two servant girls who were employed in a hotel in Sweetsburg, Que., last fall testified that they heard cries of "murder" there one night. Then they heard a window raised upstairs and a man thrown to the ground, picked up, and carried away quickly. They tried to raise the window of their room, but could not do so, and were so frightened that dared not leave the room until morning. They then related the circumstance to a lawyer, who advised them to keep silent for fear of their lives, and to quietly leave the hotel, which they did. About the same time a man was missing. It is supposed that the man was murdered for his money, thrown from the window, and carried to the place where he was found. The authorities have employed detectives to hunt up the perpetrators.

BOSTON, April 16.—There are strong grounds for believing that the body, supposed to be that of a murdered man, found near Sutton, Que., is that of Capt. Pilkerton Jackson, well known in this city. He was a skilful draughtsman and took great interest in industrial art, upon which he lectured in various parts of the country. Jackson was formerly a captain of the English Royal Artillery at Gibraltar. He came to this country fifteen years ago. He claimed to be the inventor of the post library system of the English army, and that in establishing it he spent the bulk of his fortune. Last summer he went to Maine, where he delivered lectures, and was to go through New Hampshire. He left several trunks here, and no one seems to have heard from him since autumn.

FENELON FALLS.

ACCIDENT.—The Gazette says that Mr. Wm. Swanton, of Fenelon, met with a very serious accident on Wednesday morning last. The branches of a tree which he had felled on his own farm struck him on the head and shoulders; and, though the blow itself inflicted no injury, he was thrown with such force across a fallen log that two of his left ribs were broken and another partially detached from the breast bone. Dr. Lowe, who is attending him, does not think his patient is hurt internally, but of course he will be laid up for some time. The accident could hardly have happened at a worse time than just at the commencement of spring work.

BELLEVILLE.

BONUSING A FURNACE COMPANY.—At a meeting on Friday night of the general committee in relation to the iron industry it was resolved to offer the New York and Ontario Furnace Company a site of fifteen acres with right of way thereto, water frontage, an exemption from taxes for ten years of all their buildings, except dwelling-houses erected on said site, provided that the Company will erect an iron smelting furnace with a capacity of forty tons per day, and a rolling mill with a capacity of twenty tons per day.

HORSE owners can not afford to overlook the wonderful success of Kendall's Spavin Cure.

FEAR NOT.—All kidney and urinary complaints, especially Bright's Disease, Diabetes and liver troubles Hop Bitters will surely and lastingly cure. Cases exactly like your own have been cured in your own neighborhood, and you can find reliable proof at home of what Hop Bitters has and can do.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.—In these times of quack medicine advertisements everywhere it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urniary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Taylor & McDonald.—No. 4

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—From the Kingston (Ont.) Daily Whig.—This old medicine, the ever-effective healer of ills that flesh is heir to, is still before the public in its full favor. It stated on its career of mercy (for a good medicine is a merciful agent), forty years ago, and is to-day sought after by the children of the men who first sought out its virtue and established its name. Were it not for its merits it would long since have "died and left no sign," like many a once popular curative has done even in the last five years. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is no artificial, deleterious compound, certain to afford temporary relief only by cutting its way by powerful agents through vitality, yet leaving a worse injury behind it. It is a vegetable, and by natural remedies works off complaints from a slight cold to a threatening consumption. 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

HENRY, JOHNSONS & LORD, PROPS., MONTREAL.

SOMEBODY'S MOTHER.

The woman was old, and ragged and gray,
And bent with the chill of the winter's day;

The street was wet with a recent snow,
And the woman's feet were aged and slow.

She stood at the crossing and waited long,
Alone, uncared-for, amid the throng

Of human beings who passed her by,
Nor heeded the glance of her anxious eye.

Down the street with laughter and shout,
Glad in the freedom of "school let out,"

Came the boys like a flock of sheep,
Hailing the snow piled white and deep.

Past the woman so old and gray
Hastened the children on their way,

Nor offered a helping hand to her,
So meek, so timid, afraid to stir

Lest the carriage wheels of the horses' feet
Should crowd her down in the slippery street.

At last came one of the merry troop—
The gayest laddie of all the group;

He paused beside her, and whispered low,
"I'll help you across if you wish to go."

Her aged hand on his strong young arm
She placed, and so, without hurt or harm,

He guided the trembling feet along,
Proud that his own were firm and strong.

Then back again to his friends he went,
His young heart happy and well content.

"She's somebody's mother, boys, you know
For all she's aged and poor and slow;

And I hope some fellow will lend a hand
To help my mother, you understand,

If ever she's poor and old and gray,
When her own dear boy is far away."

And "somebody's mother" bowed low her head
In her home that night, and the prayer she said

Was "God be kind to the noble boy,
Who is somebody's son and pride and joy!"

FORT EDMONTON.

Description of the Rocky Mountain City—How the Place was Settled.

Fort Edmonton is the centre of the settlement of the same name, and the chief post of the Hudson Bay Company, which includes the Upper Saskatchewan country. It is situated on the north side of the Saskatchewan river, a few miles north east of the point of the beaver hill, which lie on the south side of the river, and which is called by the Indians "Beaver Hills House." It is hard to say at what time the first fort was built here, but it is certain that in the days of the two companies—the Hudson Bay and the Northwest—each had an important post at this place, the Hudson Bay on the flat below the present fort and the Northwest on the flat above, near the residence of the late Dr. Very.

Since the present fort was built it has been, until the last few years, the most important of the interior posts. Here the inland boats, in which the supplies were brought from York factory, and from here every spring supplied and men were sent across the mountains for the trade of what is now British Columbia, and at one time the principal trade of three Indian nations—Crees, Stoneys and Blackfeet—were done here. Of course a large force of men had to be kept, and as these left the service a great many of them remained in the neighbourhood, and thus the settlement began. Gold miners came from across the mountains and whisky trade came in from Manitoba; and whilst most of them went away again a few remained. Buffalo were plentiful, work was to be had, and gold dust was not scarce; and so the settlement grew. The Roman Catholic Church established a mission at St. Albert, on Big Lake, nine miles away, gathered a considerable settlement around, and made that place the head of a diocese. A Methodist mission was established near the fort, and the claims in the vicinity began to be taken up, and shortly afterwards a Church of England mission was established. When the Canadian Government began to survey for a railroad across the mountains, Edmonton was made the base of operations on the east side. When the mounted police were being sent into the country an important post was established in the vicinity; and when the government buildings were to be erected at Battleford the lumber had to be procured near Edmonton. These operations all brought money to the settler and trader here, tended to increase the number of people and added to the importance of the place. The telegraph line was also built to near this place, and when a mail was granted Edmonton was made the terminus of the route. Steamers were put on the route and Edmonton became the head of navigation. The meridian line and base line surveys for the Upper Saskatchewan was placed here, the timber agency for a still larger district has been established, and now it appears that other important government officials are to be appointed who will also reside here and help to add importance to the place.

While these things have been going on, settlement has increased more rapidly each year. The older settlers have improved their condition and increased their acreage, and the newer ones have gone to work with a vigor that gives a certainty of good results. The past two seasons have been somewhat unfavourable; but still, although the population has more than doubled during the last four years, the home supply of food will be much greater than it was four years ago. At that time there was no grist mill here, and the agricultural machinery composed one broken-down two-horse thresher, an old reaper, and one or two mowers, with perhaps two dozen plows. Now there are two grist mills running and another being prepared, two saw-mills running, and last fall four large machines were required to thrash out the crop, while in the one season eight reapers and twenty mowers were brought in for sale. Of course this is not a large number; but when the price is considered—at least double that in Winnipeg—and it is remembered that the settlers here all started without capital, it is not a bad showing.

None of this settlement has been made on speculation. The natural advantages of the country are the only inducements that any man has had in view, and railroad or no railroad each and all are prepared to stick by what they have got. The announcement that the railroad would be built to Calgarry instead of Edmonton has not shaken the confidence of a single man, although the road was expected to come here. In fact property never went at such high figures before that announcement was made as it has done since. The people here rest their hopes on the country and on themselves, not on the railroad or government. While the Saskatchewan runs down hill; while gold is money; while coal will burn or timber grow, or the seed produce seed after its kind, they ask no favors from any one, but with their own hands will build up this country the best province of the Dominion of Canada, and all the assistance they ask is that they be given a "fair shake."—Edmonton Bulletin.

The Almonte Gazette says our reporter paid a visit to Wylie & Co.'s mill, which has been running for several weeks. We found the old furniture factory transformed into a neat one-set woollen factory, and fitted with the most improved machinery for the manufacture of shawls. The machinery is run by steam, a first class 40-horse-power engine and boiler filling the engine room. The shawls manufactured by this firm are of excellent quality, and are in good demand. About thirty hands are employed, the sum paid out in wages amounting to between $350 and $400 per month. We understand that Messrs. Wylie & Co. intend adding more machinery in the course of a month or two, and will make it a two-set mill.

SOME sage has observed that "It was better to have lived and been old when the world was young than to live now, though young, when the world is old." Be that as it may, we would not care to live in either age without being insured against rheumatism, unless we had a supply of that never failing remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. Mr. Joseph Fihe, No. 230 Preston street, corner of Walnut, Louisville, Ky., says:—"I have used St. Jacobs Oil in my family for two past, and have never found anything that it would not cure; there must, of course, be some limit to its powers, but I have not reached it yet, and I can say that I do not believe there are any muscular ailments, nervousness or inflammation that it will fail to cure. My boy, Theodore, fell down and sprained his foot; it swelled to two or three times its usual size. I applied St. Jacobs Oil and in half a day he was well as ever. It cured me of rheumatism and my wife of neuralgia.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

Photographic.

In the window of J. I. Davidson's bookstore there are exhibited two enlarged photographs from the studio of Mr. G. B. Sproule, which have deservedly attracted much attention and admiration. One is a life like portrait of the late Mr. G. E. Shaw, manager of the Ontario Bank, and so well known as a zealous and efficient supporter of the most useful institutions of the town. His many friends as they regard this portrait may almost fancy they see him before them again. The other is the portrait of a young lady, seated in a swing, in a graceful attitude and making a very charming picture. The photograph from which this enlargement is taken is also shown, so as to afford means of judging of the fidelity with which it is executed.

Railway Notes.

The Belleville Ontario says that Mr. Geo. A. Cox has expressed his willingness to build a branch railway from the main line of the Grand Junction to the blast furnace, should such an industry be established there.

A force of men is now at work on the G.J.R. turn-table switch near the wharf, at Belleville. It is said that if the proposed elevator is erected there, a high stone wall will be constructed around the turn-table.

New sign-boards for the Midland Railway are being erected in the Union Station, Toronto.

A train despatcher's office for the Midland Railway is being fitted up with instruments, &c., at the Union Station, Toronto.

The Post Office.

The flooring at the entrance of the post office has been relaid with hardwood. The building has been in use for only three years and three months, and the fact that the floor at the door has been completely worn away by the footsteps of those using the office, shows how great has been the traffic.

The Bell Ringers.

Our readers are again reminded that the celebrated Royal Hand Bell Ringers, of London, England, appear here to-morrow evening. This Company is undoubtedly the best in the world, and their performance is said by all to be a regular treat. Every person who possibly can should be present.

The Weather.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes—Winds backing to south-east and east, continued warm weather, increasing cloudiness to-morrow.

Royal Arch Masonry.

The installation of the officers of Corinthian R. A. Chapter No. 36, will take place this evening at the Masonic Hall. The Grand Superintendent of Ontario District will be present and conduct the ceremony. Some degrees will also be conferred.

Portage La Prairie.

We have received a very interesting book, "Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, and her Industries" published by Messrs. Steen and Boyce of the Prairie City. It contains a large amount of matter valuable to intending settlers.

The Excavator.

The Excavator still remains at the corner of Bethune and McDonald streets. It is now standing on a section of rails occupying nearly the whole of the street. The task of taking it to the scene of the work will be a very difficult one, there being several heavy grades to be gone up. Mr. Wilcox, one of the firm that manufacture the machines, is in town, as is Mr. H. J. Beemer who has the contract for the "Missing Link." The work is watched with interest by a large number of people.

"Hazel Kirke."

A letter informs us that Mr. R. S. Wires, of the Madison Square Theatre, will be in Peterborough shortly to arrange for the appearance of Hazel Kirke, by a company from this theatre. Hazel Kirke is a play of most remarkable record, having now been presented nearly 1,500 times, while the reputation of the theatre is a sufficient guarantee of the character of the company.

Telephonic.

Connection has been made between Port Hope and Cobourg and for a small sum persons in both places can communicate with one another. Connection between our town and Port Hope, Cobourg and Lindsay would be convenient.

Ducked.

This afternoon a lady who was standing on the crossing at the corner of Hunter and George streets was wet through by the watering cart. The driver should be more careful as people are not desirous of a free bath so early in the season.

The Registrar.

A return of the fees and emoluments of the Country Registrars of Ontario for the year 1881 shows that our Registrar received over $2,500, and under $3,000.

Home.

Mr. Wm. Lasher who has been in the North-west for a month or two has returned home. Like all the rest he talks "mud".

St. George's Society.

The quarterly meeting of the St. George's Society has been called for to-morrow evening at half-past seven o'clock at Mr. Ames' store.

THE DUST.

To the Editor of the Review :

SIR,—Permit me to direct the attention of the authorities to the clouds of dust on Charlotte street. Particularly from the Midland station to Fitzgerald's corner, almost every day, blinding and choking citizens, and strangers passing to and from the station. I am surprised and astonished to see that the authorities allow such an intolerable nuisance to exist in such an enterprising business place as Peterborough, on this particular street, where the traffic is so great and where almost every citizen has occasion to pass sometime going to and from the railway station, it is not a good argument to say other streets are equally as bad, and the people living on them are suffering from the same nuisance, because the number going to and from the railway is much greater. I am quite sure the slight additional trouble and expense of directing the water cart to go on down Aylmer street from Simcoe, (which is regularly sprinkled now), to Charlotte, and up to the Midland station, or say to Dr. King's residence, would not be very great, and if called upon the residents and property owners would cheerfully bear the expense. The first impression a stranger receives after his arrival, on leaving the the elegant station, is what a dusty place Peterborough is. I think the Midland railway people should cordially assist with their influence, and if necessary means to make their beautiful station and grounds more attractive and agreeable to passengers, to have the drive in rear of the station sprinkled as well as Charlotte street from either Mr. McKee's residence or Dr. King's residence down to say Fitzgerald's corner, would be a very decided improvement, and certainly very acceptable to the many who have occasion to pass that way. I trust Mr. Editor you will take a favourable view of this matter, thanking you for the valuable space allowed me.

Yours &c.,
IMPROVEMENT.

Peterborough, April 17th, 1882.

A Horrible Office.

From records in the State archives of Hesse-Darmstadt, dating back to the thirteenth century, it appears that the public executioner's fee for boiling a criminal in oil was twenty-four florins; for decapitating with the sword, fifteen florins and a half; for quartering, the same; for breaking on the wheel, five florins thirty kreuzers; for tearing a man to pieces, eighteen florins. Ten florins per head was his charge for hanging, and he burned delinquents alive at the rate of fourteen florins apiece. For applying the "Spanish boot" his fee was only two florins Five florins were paid to him every time he subjected a refractory witness to the torture of the rack. The same amount was his due for "branding the sign of the gallows with a red-hot iron upon the back, forehead, or cheek of a thief," as well as for "cutting off the nose and ears of a slanderer or blasphemer." Flogging with rods was a cheap punishment, its remuneration being fixed at three florins thirty kreuzers.

Aiding Emigrants.

LONDON, April 14.—The question of assisting the unemployed workingmen of England, and more especially of the great metropolis, has awakened general interest. A number of meetings in connection with the matter have been held, and the question has now taken a practical turn by the issue by the Lord Mayor of an appeal to the public for assistance necessary to enable two hundred deserving families, numbering one thousand souls, to emigrate to Canada. He is assured that it is beneficial to the Mother Country as well as to the Colonies, that emigration, so long as it remains within reasonable limits, and is directed to retain emigrants beneath the British flag, should be encouraged, and that the emigrant is fairly hopeful of a better opportunity of success in a colony than he is at present at home. The sum asked for this purpose is $35,000; and of this sum a grant of $5,000 has been assured by the Canadian Government. If properly organized, His Lordship is confident that the scheme will be comparatively self-supporting in the future by the aid rendered by friends at home and by the emigrants themselves.

The Murder Case.

LONDON, April 17.—The coroner's inquest today in the Delargey murder case developed very few new facts. Mrs. Delargey testified that though her husband had been drinking a little, yet he was not intoxicated, and that he had always been a good friend to the prisoner Code and his mother. The testimony went to show that there was but one shot fired, and that the fatal bullet fitted Code's pistol and corresponded with cartridges in his possession. The prisoner had no questions to ask the witness, and volunteered no explanation. The medical testimony showed that the wound was necessarily a fatal one. The jury took an hour and a half to deliberate, and then returned a a verdict of wilful murder against George Code.

PERE HYACINTHE and his successor in the pulpit at Notre Dame de Paris, Pere Montsabre, are having a wordy warfare over a challenge issued by the former, and declined by the latter, for a public meeting for the discussion of controversial subjects.

RUMOURS of Minister Lowell's early recall from London continue, and the name of Secretary Lincoln is mentioned as that of his probable successor. The Secretary, however, denies that there is any truth in the report, and it is understood that the matter has not so far even been discussed by the Cabinet.

NINE PHYSICIANS OUTDONE.—It is generally considered a pertty difficult task to outdo a physician, but the following will conclusively prove where nine were completely outdone. Mrs. Helen Pharviz, 331 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill., was treated for Consumption by nine physicians, and all pronounced her case incurable. Seven bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones please drop her a postal and convince yourselves. Trial bottles free at Taylor & McDonald's Drug Store. Large size $1.00.

DO YOUR CHILDREN HAVE fits or convulsions, grind their teeth, pick their nose, have a bad breath, or a changeable appetite? Are they restless or feverish at night? If so, ask your druggist for Dr. Smith's German Worm Remedy (take no other), it only costs 25 cents. It is simple safe, and pleasant to take. If there are no worms, it removes the slime and bile that breeds them, tones up the system, and will save many a doctor's bill. A word to the wise, etc. Thousands of testimonials.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE CONTENTED MAN,
Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

Serious Accident at Gananoque.

On Monday afternoon last Fred. Skinner, 18 years of age, second son of Mr. C. S. Skinner, in company with one or two other young men, was at the store of Messrs. Brough & Son. One of the employees at the store was taking goods up to the third flat on the elevator, and the young men went up with him. After the goods had been unloaded they all jumped on the elevator to come down, but as it got running very fast Fred. Skinner became alarmed and endeavored to jump off as they were passing the second floor and in doing so his head was caught between the floor and the upper part of the elevator frame. He was taken out insensible, his face covered with blood. A doctor was at once sent for, and within a few minutes Dr. Giles was making an examination of the injury. He found that the right jaw bone had been broken so badly as to displace one of the double teeth, and there were several bruises upon other parts of the face and upon the left shoulder. Under the doctor's care Fred. soon recovered consciousness, and was able to tell how the accident happened. He was taken home, and is in a fair way to recover, but will probably be some time in regaining his former soundness. The other young men were uninjured as they stuck to the elevator. Those who have examined the place and circumstances of the accident were astonished that the injured man was not killed.—Reporter.

Wit and Beauty Win the Millions.

The marriage of Sir Sidney Waterlow and Miss Margaret Hamilton was announced recently in a cable despatch from Paris. The bridegroom is a wealthy printer of London, formerly a member of Parliament, and in 187 Lord Mayor of the metropolis. As evidence of his immense wealth it is mentioned that he has 25,000 tenants in London, and that he once spent $250,000 from his private purse for the entertainment of the Shah of Persia. He passed some time in Philadelphia as one of the British Centennial Commissioners and afterwards came to America to visit General Williams, Charles Crocker and other friends in California. While approaching Mr. Crocker's house he met a young woman with whom he fell in love at first sight. The young woman proved to be Miss Hamilton, the daughter of a widow in comfortable circumstances and at that time a guest at the Crocker mansion. Miss Hamilton was witty as well as handsome. She went horseback riding with the baronet and beat him at billiards evey time. Her charming manners and other excellent qualities so impressed Sir Sidney that at a dinner party shortly after the first meeting he proposed marriage. Miss Hamilton, accompanied by Mrs. Hearst, of San Francisco, went to Europe and lived for some months with the various members of the Waterlow family, so that they might become acquainted with her, and journeying to Paris the other day, married her millionaire lover.

POLAR COMMISSION.

BERLIN, April 17.—The Polar Commission have resolved to equip a supplementary expedition to go to Labrador to assist in the observations already commenced by the missionary station there.

A BETTER FEELING.

LONDON, April 18.—The report of the release of a large number of suspects has caused a more hopeful feeling to be experienced.

THE JEANNETTE.

IRKUTSK, Siberia, April 18.—This morning startling news was received from Mr. Jackson, the commissioner who was sent in search of the Jeannette survivors. He apparently forwarded the despatch by courier. It ran as follows:—"From the banks of the Aldan river, April 6,

"I have just met a courier bearing despatches from W. H. Gilder, the Herald correspondent with the Rodgers, whom the courier had accompanied from Kolymsk, on the Kolima river, to Verkohyansk, 400 miles north of Yakutsk. Gilder had made a journey of 2,000 versts among the Chukches. He was sent forward with the news that the Rodgers had been burned and sunk: that Lieut. Brary with the officers and crew, thirty-six in number, are at Tiapka, near Cape Serdeze; that a vessel should be sent or them as early as possible."

A JEWISH EXODUS.

ODESSA, April 18.—The Jews are flocking to Odessa from Balta and the vicinity of that town. All their houses are said to have been wrecked and their property destroyed. The number of families ruined is very large. Two hundred Jewish refugees have passed through Lemberg on their way to America, and 200 more are expected from Brody.

THE KHEDIVE'S SUCCESSOR.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18.—It is said that France has made overtures to the Porte with a view to the appointment of Halim Pasha as Khedive of Egypt.

DR. LAMSON'S CASE.

MANCHESTER, April 18.—The Guardian says regarding Dr. Lamson:—"Enough has been shown to prepare us to hear that Sir William Harcourt and the authorities do not see their way towards authorizing the execution of a man concerning whose moral responsibility so great a doubt has been shown."

A FENIAN THREAT.

WINDSOR, April 18.—The colonel of the Life Guards at Windsor has received an anonymous letter threatening to blow up the cavalry barracks.

EXTRAORDINARY RUMOUR.

DUBLIN, April 18.—The Press Association says an extraordinary rumor is current at Dungarvon to-day that Mr. Parnell was shot on his way from London to Kilmainham. The rumor is not entitled to the slightest credit. According to the best information Mr. Parnell is still in France. Mr. Sexton so stated in conversation last evening.

AGRARIAN MURDER.

DUBLIN, Abril 18.—Roche, a bailiff in the service of the Emergency Committee, was shot dead to-day while returning home from Limerick.

BRITISH NEGOTIATIONS.

LONDON, April 18.—In the House of Commons a motion of Sir Henry Wolff (Conservative), censuring the Government for clandestine proceedings relative to the visit of Viscount Errington to the Vatican, was negatived without a division. Mr. Gladstone admitted that Earl Granville had availed himself of Viscount Errington's visit to convey to the Pope certain communications relative to the state of affairs in Ireland, but the communications were not accompanied by any request.

WITHDRAWN.

LONDON, April 18.—The charge of fraud against the Marquis of Huntly has been withdrawn, the prosecutors and the director of the public prosecution having become satisfied with his lordship's explanation that he had no intention to act dishonourably.

MR. PARNELL'S INTENTIONS.

London, April 18.—There is doubt as to the whereabouts of Mr. Parnell. It is supposed he intends to surrender in a manner to avoid any demonstrations by his friends. Some of his friends argue that as his warrant of arrest is legally cancelled by the release, he is not bound to return at all. The first supposition is apparently the best founded. Mr. Forster granted Mr. Parnell parole for the purpose of attending the funeral of his nephew, but did not mention the day for his return. In the House of Commons to-day the Attorney-General for Ireland said when Mr. Parnell presents himself at Kilmainham, he will be legally detained under the old warrant. An order has been signed for the release of Mr. Rourke, Mr. Egan's partner. It is stated that Mr. Parnell will return to Kilmainham on Monday.

COLLIERY DISASTERS.

LONDON, April 18.—Tudhoe colliery, in the county of Durham, is on fire, and one hundred men are imprisoned in the mine. A Sunderland despatch says there has been an explosion in the Black Horse colliery, and it is feared twenty-three persons are killed. Seven have been rescued badly burned. Four bodies have been recovered from the Black Horse colliery. Fourteen persons are still missing.

LATER.—Thirty-five persons were killed by the colliery explosion.

Would Like a Chance.

Mr. Thomas Tapping, Reeve of the township of Barrie, expresses himself as follows:—"I hope at the rising of the House of Commons, at the end of the present session, it will be dissolved. I went very strongly against the National Policy in 1878, and should like a chance to make all the amends in my power by voting and working in favor of it as soon as possible. Seeing the immense good it has done to every class of the community, it should be sustained, and the sooner it is confirmed by the voice of the people the better."

Their First Duty.

Mr. John Foote, Secretery of the East Durham Agricultural Society, a gentleman identified with the reform party, says: "It was my opinion for some time previous to 1878 that Mr. Mackenzie would not return to power unless he adopted some measure of relief to the agricultural and manufacturing classes. I believe it to be the duty of all Governments to foster and protect home industries and home productions."

Heavy timbers were carried several hundred yards through the air and falling end downward stuck several feet into the ground. The storm lasted less than twenty minutes, but 20 business houses and dwellings were leveled. Aiding Emigrants.

LONDON, April 16.—The question of assisting the unemployed workingmen of England, and more especially of the great metropolis, has awakened general interest. A number of meetings in connection with the matter have been held, and the question has now taken a practical turn by the issue by the Lord Mayor of an appeal to the public for assistance necessary to enable two hundred deserving families, numbering one thousand souls, to emigrate to Canada. He is assured that it is beneficial to the Mother Country as well as to the Colonies, that emigration, so long as it remains within reasonable limits, and is directed to retain emigrants beneath the British flag, should be encouraged, and that the emigrant is fairly hopeful of a better opportunity of success in a colony than he is at present at home. The sum asked for this purpose is $35,000; and of this sum a grant of $5,000 has been assured by the Canadian Government. If properly organized, His Lordship is confident that the scheme will be comparatively self-supporting in the future by the aid rendered by friends at home and by the emigrants themselves.

FLYS ON THE WHEEL.

No better proof could be afforded of the "fly on the wheel" character of our political opponents than the course which they have and are pursuing with regard to what they are pleased to call the "celebrated" article which appeared in these columns in 1870.

To such "flys on the wheel" it is useless to point out that circumstances alter cases, and that which may be the best policy to day may have been a bad policy a year ago or may be a bad one a year hence. It seems to be utterly beyond their comprehension that anything like a change should ever be required to meet changed circumstances. Sir Richard Cartwright found a certain tariff in force when he came into power in 1873 and although he was most anxious to strike out a new line for himself, yet after much "mixing and muddling" he had to accept the tariff which he found ready to his hand and content himself with increasing the rates of duty all around and imposing a duty on tea, which had previously been admitted free, as a means of lightening the burdens of the poor man.

It mattered not then nor does it now to these flies on the wheel that the relative positions of the United States and Canada had undergone a great change in their trade relations during the years 1874-5-6-7 as compared with a few years before and that these changed relations called for a change in our fiscal policy in the interests of our own people. And it is just at this point that the vital difference between the flies on the wheel and the supporters of the National Policy comes in. While the flies on the wheel claim that it is impossible for our rulers to promote the prosperity of the people whom they govern, and that our tariff should be framed not in the interests of Canada but of the world, the National Policyists claim that our rulers can promote the prosperity of the people whom they govern and that it is their duty to frame our tariff in the intrests of Canada and not of the world—at least until the millennium arrives. They contend, and we believe rightly contend, that the true test to apply to any tariff is; is it the one best calculated to promote the interests of the country by which it is framed under existing circumstances? If it is, then it should be maintained. If not then it should be amended so as to meet the circumstances of the day, whatever they may be.

Free trade is very fine in theory, and no doubt would be in practice were all the world to adopt it. But the world will not adopt it, and until it does those who ask one country to adopt it while others refuse to do so, are acting much the same part as the peace at any price party in England a few years ago, did when they advocated the disbanding of the British Army and Navy without reference to the armaments of other European nations. In theory they were all right but in practice they were not only all wrong but the adoption of their policy under existing circumstances would mean neither more or less than the destruction of the Kingdom—just as the adoption of a free trade tariff—that is a tariff framed on free trade principles—would mean the destruction of Canada under existing circumstances.

WHAT'S THE MATTER!

THERE is being issued just now from Ottawa as a supplement to the papers supporting Mr. Blake a campaign sheet purporting to be a "record of Tory administration since 1878," and strange to say throughout its entire length and breadth, not one word is to be found with reference to what we understood were to be the chief issues of the coming campaign, viz: the National Policy; the boundary question, and the disallowance of the streams bill. Instead of dealing with these "burning questions," the result of Mr. Charlton, chairman's, appeal to the faithful for the sinews of war, is a campaign sheet teaming with gross, or rather malicious personal abuse and misrepresentation, among the large typed headings the words "swindles" and "scandals" being the most conspicuous.

As, no doubt, in due time the readers of the Examiner will be favoured with one of these supplements, we shall refrain from noticing some of its statements until those of our readers who see the Examiner have an opportunity of seeing it. Our only regret is that we cannot obtain such a supply of this delectable sheet, as would enable us to place a copy of it in the hands of every one of our readers, as we have not the slightest doubt but that it will prove an excellent campaign sheet for the Government. The day has gone by when personal abuse and misrepresentation can be used successfully in Canada as a stepping stone to political power.

AT REST.

Death of the Archbishop of Halifax—Close of a Long and Useful Career.

HALIFAX, April 17.—The public were no less pained than surprised on learning this morning of the very serious illness of his Grace the Archbishop of Halifax, and when about eleven o'clock it was announced that that respected prelate had breathed his last, consternation and sorrow were everywhere visible. All classes and creeds united in expressions of sincere regret at the loss which the Church and country had sustained by the sudden bereavement. His eminent position in the Catholic Church, his long residence and active career of usefulness in this city, had made the deceased prelate's name a household word throughout the city and surrounding country. Mr Michael Hannan was born in Kilmallock, Limerick, Ireland, on the 21st July, 1821, and was therefore within three months of being 61 years of age. In 1840 he came to Nova Scotia and was appointed teacher in St. Mary's College, which had just previously been established by Dean O'Brien. Five years later he was ordained to the priesthood. Since 1852 he has been senior priest in the archdiocese of Halifax, and has laboured among his people with quiet but none the less marked success. He filled various positions in the Church, among others those of Administrator, Vicar-General and Archbishop. On the death of Archbishop Connolly, in 1876, Dr. Hannan was unanimously recommended to the Pope for appointment to the Sea of Halifax. The appointment was made about March, 1877, and on the 20th of May following his Grace was consecrated. The consecration ceremony was performed in St. Mary's Cathedral by Most Rev. Dr. Couroy, Bishop of Ardagh and Papal ab-legate, in presence of over 2,000 people. Archbishop Hannan immediately set to work to build up and extend the Catholic Church in the province. New mission fields were occupied and congregations organized. He also devoted himself to the work of completing a cathedral begun by Archbishop Connolly, and arranging the financial affairs of the diocese. He founded the society of St. Vincent de Paul thirty years ago, and has exercised a close personal supervision over it from that time to the present. He established Catechistical societies, and was patron and took deep interest in various total abstinence societies and other organizations connected with the Church. About eighteen months ago he went to Rome, and spent the winter there. On his return he was presented with an address, and received an enthusiastic ovation. Archbishop has been failing in health for some time past, but has been able to attend to his duties. On Thursday evening he attended the service held by the Redemptorist Fathers in St. Joseph, and caught more cold. The next day he was confined to bed. Medical aid was summoned but was powerless to relieve the general prostration with the complication of diseases that set in. On Saturday night he was prepared for death. He lingured until about half-past ten this morning, when death relieved his sufferings. His Grace had taken great interest in the services held in the Catholic churches durthe past few weeks by the Redemptorist Fathers, and it is a singularly striking coincidence that almost the same moment that their mission was brought to a close by solemn requiem high mass in St. Mary's also closed the mission of that worthy and good prelate the Archbishop of Halifax. The remains will lie in state at the Globe house probably on Wednesday, and the funeral will take place on Friday.

A WOMAN'S JAW.

Removed to Preserve Her Life and Beauty—Remarkable Surgery.

On Thursday morning a reporter of the Miner was permitted, through the courtesy of Dr. F. Hartman, to witness a remarkable and difficult surgical operation, consisting of the removal of the entire lower jaw. The patient is Miss G. Hickman, daughter of Mr. Hickman, of Silver Plume. On November 27th, 188, while the family were living in Deadville, the extraction of a tooth caused some inconvenience afterward and an incompetent medical attendant administered mercury, which produced salivation and eventually resulted in necrosis of the whole lower jaw, attended with terrible suffering and a reduction in the weight of the patient from ninety-eight to thirty-three pounds.

Having had charge of the case several weeks, Dr. Hartman decided on the course mentioned, and secured the services of Dr. Bradley as assistant. At the time set for the operation one table was completely covered with differently shaped and cruel-looking lances, pincers, scissors and other surgical instruments, supplemented by numerous materials and appliances intended to meet any emergency that could possibly arise, and another stood ready for the patient when the anæsthetic being administered in another room had kindly produced insensibility. When this was accomplished the unconscious girl was placed on the table, the adhesions between the jaw bone and the muscular tissue were severed with the lancet and the jaw was broken at the chin. The left half, clear of the articulation, was first extracted with comparative ease, and afterward with a little more difficulty, owing to the hemorrhage proceeding from the disrupted blood vessels, and the right side also. The application of cold water by means of a syringe at once cleansed the parts and stopped the bleeding, and in sixteen minutes from the time she was laid on the table the patient was carried back to bed, where she almost immediately recovered consciousness, so nicely had Dr. Bradley guaged the application of the chloroform, and informed her delighted but trembling parents that the operation that they had so much dreaded had been skilfully and expeditiously performed. She speedily recovered from the effects of the anæsthetic and a marked improvement is already apparent. Dr. Hartman is confident that a plate and a set of teeth may supply the place of the extracted jaw. This is the first time this operation has been performed in the State. Strange to say the operation will cause no permanent disfigurement.—Colorado Miner.

WHY waste time in bemoaning the hard fate that has rendered you a confirmed rheumatic, when any druggist will sell you a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil? Mr. Wright, of Blair, Neb., connected with the Commercial House, a hostelrie, which the people of Blair justly consider one of the best in this part of the State says the Great German Remedy, St Jacobs Oil, goes ahead of anything else as a pain reliever. Mr. Wright has frequently heard the good remedy praised by guests at the Commercial, and when the lumbago seized his back, it was the first thing he bought. Purchasing a bottle at one of our drug stores he just went for that pain without ceremony. To say that it benefitted him is not enough. The Great German Remedy just grappled with that pain and made it vacate the premises in two applications. He concludes his eloquent panegyric on the efficacy of St. Jacobs Oil by saying that he had only used one-fourth its contents and there was yet enough remaining to cure two more cases of lumbago.

THE AURORAL LIGHTS.

Theories Respecting Them—How They Are Created, and What They Consist Of.

The beautiful auroral display witnessed in the heavens Sunday night is attributed to magnetic disturbances, which are caused by changes in the sun affecting the earth's magnetism. These are matters outside of our planet altogether, and with the exception of the fact that the strange dissolving and reappearing lights known as the aurora borealis are nothing more or less than currents of electricity of lesser power than lightning, all other theories respecting them may be considered as problematical. It was commonly taught in the schools, not very long ago, that the "northern lights" were the reflection of the sun's rays upon the masses of ice in the Arctic regions. This idea, never entertained by scientific men, is thoroughly exploded by the knowledge that they are electrical currents. The upper air, being very rare, is a conductor in itself, and when ever the current is complete

A FLOW OF ELECTRICITY IS OBTAINED.

It is said that the upward flow of electricity from the earth in the north is what is seen as the auroral light. This is not absolutely known but it has recently been suggested as an explanation of the phenomenon by one of the most eminent of the scientific men of the day, Prof. Stokes, of Cambridge, England. It has, however, been satisfactorly determined that the lights are currents of electricity, because whenever there has been a display of aurora it has always been followed by great magnetic disturbances. At the Meteorological office last night the magnetic needle commenced to dance about in a very lively manner shortly after six o'clock, and its vagaries continued until morning. It is estimated that within a few minutes it changed fully three degrees. The movements of the needles were so exceedingly rapid that the photographic instruments used in connection with them were hardly equal to the occasion, and could scarcely rise to meet the emergency. It was said at the office that so great a magnetic disturbance had not been observed for twenty-five years.

THESE MAGNETIC STORMS

occur regularly, with gradually increasing or gradually decreasing power. It is probable that the maximum force will be reached next year—at least scientific men would appear to think so, as preparations are being made to then take polar observations. After the maximum has been reached, the strength of the magnetic storms gradually decrease until the minimun is once more obtained. It may relieve a good many to learn that the approaching comet has had nothing to do with the auroral display. As before stated, it was probably caused by changes in the sun affecting the earth's magnetism, but these changes were in turn probably caused by the regularly recurring changed relations of the planets with that orb.

THE TRIANGLE AND CAT.

Flogging No. 2 of Jack Coulter of Kingston—The Stroke that Did not Count.

TORONTO, April 18.—The notorious Jack Coulter, of Kingston, received the other 24 lashes as part of his sentence by the Kingston Magistrate, for an indecent assault on a young girl, yesterday at the Central Prison. Coulter's crime can be easily recalled. On Sept. 15 last, he met the young girl in a place near Kingston and so violently attempted his crime that the girl's clothes were torn to shreds. A passer-by, however, scared him off. For his dastardly act he was sentenced to one year in the prison and to receive forty-eight lashes. He received the first twenty-four six months ago. The first stroke of the cat yesterday fell upon the waist canvas. The prisoner laughed and remarked to Dr. Aikens, "That will count one out of the twenty-four, doctor." But it did not. The canvas was properly adjusted, and the "one" was repeated the second time. After the descent of the fifth stroke Coulter swore and squirmed. As the strokes fell in regular succession the skin changed from red to livid, and finally became almost black. No blood, however, was drawn, and only in one little spot was there any sign of an abrasion of the cuticle. After the flogging he was sent back to work.—World.

For the Review.

WHO ARE THE CRAMMERS?

A long time I've waited, but time hurries by,
To see if some person more gifted than I
Would rise and explain,
As many could do, if they did but so choose,
To enlighten the public regarding their views
Of cramming the brain.

The subject is one that has lately evoked
Much discussion, and has with good reason provoked
The public's just ire,
And the power of the press, but light may be thrown
On the subject by those who a long time have known
The evils so dire.

Here is one who has been an instructor who says,
The evils of cramming he has tried all his days
To withstand; but behold,
He tells us, to give longer lessons and more
To the children at night he has times o'er and o'er
By the parents been told.

In substance one says, "Mr. A., I desire
My children shall quickly great learning acquire,
So wish you would see
More difficult lessons to them be assigned,
Their talents improved, so with culture of mind
Endowed they may be.

In my boyish days, when I went to school,
The lessons were long, so was the ferule
Now most obsolete.
If not sure of the former, the latter was sure
To leave an impression that long would endure
With warnings replete."

Mr. B. says, "I am sorry indeed that my son
Has left your instructions, for nothing is done
By him home at night,
Save sometimes a lesson to read or to spell,
But the home work you gave him he always did well
And with great delight."

Says a poor worried one, to her friend Mrs. F.,
"Can you tell the reason, for I cannot see
Why teacher's don't give
To the children more tasks, 'twould help keep them quiet
In the evening, for, dear me, they make such a riot
I scarcely can live."

Because that O's children are gifted at seven,
Stand higher than P.'s at ten or eleven,
The teacher by P.
Is requested to use higher pressure, that so
His children along with the children of O.
Promoted may be.

To lessen the evils that so much abound
In the system of cramming, their source should be found,
And therefore the view
Of all sides of the question first be obtained,
That judgments be formed, through the knowledge thus gained,
Unbiased and true.

ANTI-CRAM.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

ENNISMORE.

From Our Own Correspondent,

INTERESTING LAW SUIT.—The case of Norris vs. Meadows, in which Mr. Daniel Costello, as executor of his brother Michael, was one of the defendants, has been disposed of finally in favor of Mr. Costello by the Court of Appeal sustaining the judgment of Vice-Chancellor Blake. The case was an important one, involving several new points, and has been fought for nearly two years. Mr. W. McDonnell, of Lindsay, acted for the plaintiff and Mr. H. H. Smith, of Peterborough, for Mr. Costello throughout the suit.

YOUNG'S POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

FALL WHEAT.—The fall wheat in this section looks well, and a good warm April shower would make the fields look verdant.

SAW LOGS.—Mr. Geo. Chalmers' drive of saw logs, P. Phalen, jr., foreman, is making very good progress down Jack's Creek; he expects to be in Stoney Lake in about 10 days. Mr. Chalmers' other drive, which started last week from Mud Lake, under the foremanship of Mr. A. Wynn, will not reach here for about two months, as they have a long road to travel; still they will be among the first drives of the season.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. W. McGregor, of this place, has purchased from Widow Young the acre lot next to Kearney's property, and intends fencing and building a house on it this summer, to reside in.

THE LAKES.—The water on the Upper Lakes is now clear of ice. We expect the steamer Cruiser up here some day soon, to commence taking down cordwood, etc., to Lakefield.

LUMBER.—Mr. Chalmers is making a good many sales of lumber to farmers and carpenters from Lakefield and other places, for building purposes. There is evidently a boom in the lumber line.

HOTEL IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Kearney, of the Lakeview House, is going to build a large addition to his present hotel premises. He has not got room enough for his increasing business. He expects a great rush this summer.

THE WATER.—The water this spring so far is much lower here than in former seasons.

PILING GROUND.—Mr. McGregor is having his men laying down the slabs from the saw mill on a rough part next the lake, and levelling it up, which will make a good piling ground for lumber, and will look very much better. The place was an eyesore to look at before this improvement.

PORT HOPE.

A DISHONEST BUTCHER.—The Guide says that on Monday morning Mr. Chas. Fallis, the most efficient Chief of Police of the village of Millbrook, accompanied by Mr. James Corbett, county counstable, made a raid on the premises of James Alexander, butcher, Garden Hill, Hope, and arrested him on the charge of stealing a heifer from some one in the vicinity of Springville. When arrested the butcher was in the act of skinning two sheep in his cellar. They it is supposed, had also been stolen. The constables in charge of the prisoner then started for Port Hope, and somewhere between Garden Hill and Canton the nimble butcher, who was sitting between the Chief and the other constable driving his own buggy, gave a spring out of the vehicle and took to his heels across the fields. It was fun to see Charlie's coattails flying in the air behind while in persuit, but it was soon evident that the fleet-footed butcher had better wind and was much better bred for running than either of the custodians of the peace. The Chief with his associate came on to Port Hope to relate their deeds of valor and to engage the services of Chief Marshall, but up to the time of writing this the thieving butcher has not been found. We don't know how Charlie will account for this mishap. Of course no one can for a moment imagine that any blame can be attached to the Chief Constable of Millbrook.

CATTLE SHIPPED.—Mr. James Eakins sold to Mr. W. J. Shaw and shipped on Tuesday one hundred head of steers. They were sent to Mr. Shaw's grazing farm near Chatham. He has four hundred acres in one farm on the banks of Lake St. Clair. Those just sent west are said to be one of the finest droves of store cattle ever shipped from Port Hope. He will put some three or four hundred head of cattle on it the present season.

THE celebrated Dr. Jenner gravely says that many of the ills of life which are readily attributed to alcohol are caused by defective drainage.

MANY of the old names in Dickens' stories came from Kent, where a man who was recently arrested gave his name as Judas Maccabeus Alive.

THERE is a rumor in England that the Princess Beatrice is to be married to the Earl of Fife, who is a handsome, clever, and unusually agreeable young man.

GOOD HEALTH.—Keep the Stomach, Liver and Bowels in good order by the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and perfact health will be the result.

AT a donkey show lately held in Winter Palace, Botrnemouth, England, the animal which played a part in the Ober-Ammergan play was the centre of attraction.

THE poet Browning is referred to as one of the most agreeable companions at the dinner table in England. He is full of fun and anecdote, and is the first poet on record whose raiment is always in fashion and in the best taste.

QUEEN SOPHIA, of Naples, the heroine of Gaeta, is as accomplished a horsewoman as her sister, the Empress of Austria. She passed all last winter at Paris breaking horses and ponies at the hippodrome, which was closed against the public for the season.

A MAN in Florida hired a negro to eat a thousand oranges, saving the seeds for the purpose of planting. The negro thought he had an easy thing, but at the end of the first day succumbed. His score was 93.

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

AN army of blackbirds completely destroyed a twenty-acre field of corn, at Sumter Ga., a few days ago, taking only one afternoon to complete their work of destruction. It was impossible to drive them off, as they would fly from one section of the field to another.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL is at the head of the list for all purposes of a family medicine. It is used with unprecedented success, both internally and externally. It cures sore throat, burns, scalds, frost bites; relieves, and often cures asthma.

MISS CONSTANCE F. WOOLSON'S novelette, "The Street of Hyacinth," which will be published in the May and June numbers of the Century, is said to treat of the life of an American girl abroad, but in the author's own original way, and not at all as any writer has pictured her.

FEAR NOT.—All kidney and urinary complaints, especially Bright's Disease, Diabetes and liver troubles Hop Bitters will surely and lastingly cure. Cases exactly like your own have been cured in your own neighborhood, and you can find reliable proof at home of what Hop Bitters has and can do.

POSTMASTER General Howe, has removed from employment in the money order bureau at Washington Mrs. Wilcox, a daughter of Andrew Jackson Donelson and a grandneice of President Jackson. She was born in the white house while her father was the President's private secretary.

POPULAR DEMAND.—The great superiority of Downs' Elixir, over all other cough remedies, is attested by the immense" popular demand for that old established remedy" for the cure of Coughs, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the throat, Chest and Lungs.

FIRING the canes is a revenge adopted by vindictive negroes in the Antilles, and it is very difficult to detect the guilty. This happened in Santa Cruz in 1877. A map marked with red spots showed the destroyed estates. Scarce one escaped, and the island has not yet recovered from the calamity.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

In the month of April almost everyone requires a good and reliable Blood Purifier. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kinneys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, Agent for Peterborough.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.—In these times of quack medicine advertisements everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urniary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Taylor & McDonald.—No. 4

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma and lung disease by Dr. M. Souvielle's Spirometer, an instrument which conveys medicinal properties direct to the parts affected. Souvielle, ex-Aide Surgeon of the French Army, 13 Phillips Square, Montreal, and branch office 75 Yonge Street, 1 door north of King, Toronto. All letters must contain stamp for reply. d64-w11

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—From the Kingston (Ont.) Daily Whig.—This old medicine, the ever-effective healer of ills that flesh is heir to, is still before the public in its full favor. It stated on its career of mercy (for a good medicine is a merciful agent), forty years ago, and is to-day sought after by the children of the men who first sought out its virtue and established its name. Were it not for its merits it would long since have "died and left no sign," like many a once popular curative has done even in the last five years. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is no artificial, deleterious compound, certain to afford temporary relief only by cutting its way by powerful agents through vitality, yet leaving a worse injury behind it. It is a vegetable, and by natural remedies works off complaints from a slight cold to a threatening consumption. 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Sneak Thieves.

Periodically we are called on to chronicle the depredations of petty or sneak thieves, but in the present instance the thieves managed to carry off articles of considerable value, instead of the saws, axes, etc., that generally constitute the proceeds of their hauls. In the first place the butcher shop of Mr. James Howden, George Street, Wainwright's old stand, was entered and a round of prime beef carried off and has doubtless done good service in helping to fatten up some family. It is supposed that the premises were entered from the rear. There is not the slightest clue. The second case occurred at the stable of a citizen, from which building was carried away a valuable set of harness. As in the other instance there is not the slightest clue as to the perpetrator or perpetrators. There are also several other cases of a minor nature reported, so that our citizens who are accustomed to keep valuable property in outbuildings or in unoccupied premises had better keep a sharp outlook or they may be out of pocket, when they least expect it.

The Madoc Burglars.

The Belleville Ontario says that at noon on Tuesday Daylor and Fox, the Madoc burglars, were arraigned before Judge T. Lazier at the Court House for sentence. The latter acted as spokesman, and pleaded hard for mercy. He stated that they were both well known in Portland, Maine, where their wives and families were living, and that they had been working in the lumber shanties back north for a time. Further, he stated that if necessary they could furnish plenty of evidence as to their previous good character, and he was fearful lest their relatives on the other side should learn of this disgrace. Their present position was attributed to strong drink. The judge, after hearing what the prisoners had to say, remanded them again until Thursday. These individuals are supposed to be "pals" of "Dr." Clarke for whom the officers are now on the lookout with a good prospect of capturing their man.

Projecting Signs.

We read that the other day, in San Francisco a Mrs. Andrews was instantly killed while walking on a prominent street in company with her husband, upon whose arm she was leaning at the time of the fatal accident. A business sign, twenty-five feet long and eight feet wide, fell from a considerable height, striking the unfortunate lady and crushing her to the ground. Mr. Andrews escaped with a few severe bruises. The accident was the outcome of a violation of the city ordnance, which had become a dead letter. Thanks to the rigid enforcement of our by-law, such an accident is not likely to occur here, but it should serve as a warning to some towns that we know of to take pattern after us and order all the signs to be removed.

A Remedy for the Pea Bug.

Mr. Lewis Coryell writes to the Oshawa Vindicator in reference to the above pest, and prescribes a remedy. He says:—"Now is the time to settle his hash for this year, and if every farmer will unite with me in a war of extermination we would not hear so much from some sections as we do, although there are some so foolish as to think that they will not do much harm. My secret is this: Mix one gallon of coal oil with twenty-five bushels of peas one month before seed time, and the object is accomplished. I have already doctored 1,600 bushels for this season, and will get all my stock oiled this week."

Rain.

The long expected and welcome rain has at last come, but not in the quantity desired. A good heavy shower lasting for twenty-four hours or even less, would greatly benefit the farming community and open up spring, things greatly to be desired by all.

St. George's Society.

There should be a full attendance of the members of the St. George's Society at their quarterly meeting at Mr. Ames' store this evening. When so many emigrants are coming out it is desirable that these national societies should be well organized.

Railway Notes.

In the course of an article on railway matters the Perth Courier says that if any doubt has existed heretofore of the building of the Ontario and Quebec railway, there is now room for misgiving no longer. The immediate construction of the road is a fixed fact, and for proof we have only to point to the letter published by Mr. Osler, and to the advertisement of Mr. Robert Meighen asking for two hundred teams to work on the section between Perth and Sharbot Lake, after the 1st of May. We are assured that one thousand men are to be put on the work of construction by that date, also, and the work in all branches to be hastened on through the summer as fast as money and energy can effect it. Mr. Meighen is in charge of this preliminary work and arrangements, and is displaying his usual energy in getting everything ready for work by the time appointed. A large number of ties have been brought through Bathurst and Sherbrooke, and are along the line ready for putting down. These townships will therefore very soon witness busy times in their borders. Mr. Ross, C.E., is the engineer in charge of construction.

Among the railway magnates here to-day are Messrs. Hickson, G.T.R., Montreal, Bell, G. T.R., Belleville, Jaffray, Gooderham and Dwight, Midland, Toronto, and Edgar, Ontario and Sault Ste. Marie, Toronto.

The Globe says that it seems probable that the amalgamation of the Great Western and Grand Trunk will not take place. It is strongly resisted by the directors of the former. The true mission of the Great Western Railway Company is to aid the construction of a new line from Toronto to Montreal, and thus make itself a truly Canadian Road, able to deal on independent terms with connecting American lines.

One of the largest mortgages ever executed in Ontario has just been made by the Central Ontario Railway to the Toronto General Trust Company to secure $2,200,000 of mortgage bonds, for which the latter company is acting as trustee. The railway has been hitherto known as the Prince Edward County Railway, but is now extending into the heart of the Hastings mining region.

A meeting of the directors of the Midland Railway is in progress to-day at the Board room.

Mr. R. Jaffray, of Toronto, has been in town for two or three days on railway business.

The excavator had not been moved from the corner of Bethune and McDonnel Streets at 2 o'clock. It is intended to replace the ties at present used, with good solid timbers on which steel rails will be run lengthways. Those engaged in the work think they will experience but little trouble after the turn is made off McDonnel street. It is intended to take the machine up Stewart street, straight over the hill.

Lacrosse Notes,

Our club has received a challenge from a Brampton club to play at the latter place. It is not probable that it will be accepted as the distance is rather great.

The boys are anxiously waiting until the ground drys to commence the summer campaign as they expect to play quite a number of matches here this summer. Lindsay, Omemee, Port Hope, Orillia, Cobourg, and Millbrook, all boast of clubs now.

We notice that at least half a dozen former members of the Peterborough club have joined the Garry, and Winnipeg lacrosse clubs. Winnipeg has now within its limits many of the best players in the world and a team from there proposes to play for the championship during the coming season. They should be able to muster a strong twelve.

A Fall in Wood.

A team of horses drawing a load of wood ran away this morning on Water Street and the precious contents of the wagon were spread along the road for a considerable distance. The driver, as soon as he got control of his animals, returned along the line and picked up every stick, appearing very solicitous that some evil disposed person might in the meantime carry off a few sticks, or rather in this particular case, knots would be more appropriate. Persons who have had wood for sale this year have received exhorbitant prices and unless we are greatly mistaken there will be a regular boom in coal stoves and coal next winter, as people cannot afford to pay for wood at so much per stick.

Telephonic.

The Winnipeg Times of a recent date says that Frank Walsh the telephone king, has just returned from a "helo" trip to Emerson. He anticipates a harvest at the International boundary, where he has corralled some seventy-five subscribers between the four corners. In addition to its use in business the telephone will serve as a source of amusement to people upon whose hands time hangs heavily. Frank is an old Peterborough boy, and his many friends here will be pleased to hear that he has assumed a high position in the Prairie Province.

Police Affairs.

Matters in the police circles are remarkably quiet at present, the great majority of the vags having left town, many of them at work to a considerable distance.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. "THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS, I'LL NONE OF IT."—We do not feel like blaming Macbeth for this expression of disgust. Even nowadays most of the cathartics are great repulsive pills enough to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets" he would not have uttered those words of contempt. By druggists.

Railway Time Table.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

GRAND JUNCTION TRAINS DEPART at 6.45 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

The Weather.

The weather yesterday was really enjoyable, although perhaps a little too warm. The evening was very fine, but during the night a rain, not very heavy, but welcome, set in and if it continues for any length of time it will greatly benefit vegetation. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Winds shifting through south to west and north-west, and increasing to a moderate gale. Cloudy weather with rain to-day, clearing to-night.

The Bell Ringers.

The English Hume Bell Ringers are registered at the Caisse House and will give a performance to night, at Bradburn's Hall. As a large number of seats have been sold, we fully expect to see the Hall filled. All those who are lovers of first class music should make it a point to be on hand. From all accounts, it will be one of the grandest musical treats ever given in Peterborough.

Court Notes.

The sittings of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, open here to-morrow and the Assizes on Monday May 8th.

For Table Linens go to Turnbull & Gray's.

THE "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" of Dr. Pierce cures "female weakness" and kindred affections. By druggists.

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE, WHO SHALL DECIDE?—Nothing is more variable than the different opinions of medical men; but when they fail to agree, or to preform a cure in a chronic disease, the patients often decides for themselves, and take Burdock Blood Bitters, and speedily recover. It is the grand key to health that unlocks all the secretions, and liberates the slave from the captivity of disease.

DO YOUR CHILDREN HAVE fits or convulsions, grind their teeth, pick their nose, have a bad breath, or a changeable appetite? Are they restless or feverish at night? If so, ask your druggist for Dr. Smith's German Worm Remedy (take no other), it only costs 25 cents. It is simple safe, and pleasant to take. If there are no worms, it removes the slime and bile that breeds them, tones up the system, and will save many a doctor's bill. A word to the wise, etc. Thousands of testimonials.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE CONTENTED MAN,
Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on accountof the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

MELANCHONY SUICIDE.

Mr. Alex. Fisher, Manager of the Ontario Bank, Takes His Own Life.

TORONTO, April 20.—Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Alex. Fisher, local manager of the Ontario Band, committed suicide in a stable in the rear of his residence in the bank building, by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver. Mr. Fisher was at his post in the bank at the customary hour in the morning, and nothing unusual in his appearance or actions was noticed He left in a little time. Some hours passing without his again coming into the office, fears were aroused, and a search was instituted, it being known that the old gentleman was subject to epilepsy, and had frequently taken fits while away by himself. The search resulted in finding the body of the unfortunate gentleman lying in a corner of the stable, a pistol clutched in the right hand, and blood oozing from the mouth, at which he had evidently placed the weapon in discharging it. A coroner, Dr. D. La Hooke; was notified, but on enquiring into the circumstances surrounding the sad occurrence he deemed it unnecessary to hold an inquest. What motive could of prompted the rash act can only be said to have been continued ill-health, Mr. Fisher having for the last two years been a victim of epilepsy, a disease which has the effect of weakening the mental powers, and frequently superinducing a suicidal mania. The deceased gentleman, who was sixty-five years of age, was a resident of this city, in which he was held in universal esteem. His melancholy end is the subject of general regret.

THE DUNDAS TRAGEDY.

Conclusion of the Coroner's Inquest in the Poole Case—A Verdict of Murder.

HAMILTON, April 20.—The adjourned inquest on the body of Joseph H. Poole was held last night in the Town hall, Dundas. The only new fact brought forward was that William Johnston, father of Johnston, who was Poole's chief companion, sold a bag of rags to Wm. Grubb, and that the bag of rags contained a dark lantern rolled up in a horse blanket. There was also an old grey coat in the bag with faint stains of what Dr. Perks testified was blood. The jury returned a verdict of murder.

THE PEREIRE PRIZES.

PARIS, April 19.—The prizes offered by the late Isaac Pereire for essays on social questions have been awarded. The second prize for an essay on education was awarded to a competitor in Boston, Mass., who, however, omitted to forward his address—the only case in which a prize was secured by a foreigner. There were four hundred papers on pauperism, fifty-one on education, and fifty-five on taxation.

THE JEWISH PERSECUTION.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 19.—The persecution of the Jews continues. Entire villages in Southern Russia have been destroyed, and 17,000 Jews rendered houseless.

TURKISH MOVEMENTS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—It is asserted that the movements of Turkish troops in Tripoli have prevented the submission of certain Tunisian insurgents. The French are greatly irritated, and regard the occupation of certain points on the frontier of Tripoli as indispensable.

THE SAHARA.

PARIS, April 19.—A Cabinet Council has approved the scheme of M. de Lesseps for a canal through the neck of land dividing the Gulf of Gabes from the salt marshes and low lying parts of the desert of Sahara south of Tunia. It is expected that the sea will, in virtue of the cutting, once more fill up the Sahara. The political advantage of the scheme will be the insulation of Tunis and Algeria by creating a water barrier between them and Tripoli. The cost of the canal is estimated at 65,000,000 francs.

THE PRESS IN GERMANY

BERLIN, April 19.—The editor of the Tagsblatt, who was lately sentenced to three months' imprisonment for libelling Prince Bismarck, has been sentenced to another week's confinement for publishing a letter about M. Gambetta which the court considered blasphemous. At the instance of Prince Bismarck the circulation of a comic paper has been prohibited for two years.

RIOTOUS SUSPECTS.

DUBLIN, April 19.—The suspects in Naas gaol raised a disturbance yesterday, alleging that fever was imported into the prison by the suspects recently brought from Clonmel. The police and military compelled them to return to their cells.

THE INSURRECTION.

VIENNA, April 19.—There was great excitement yesterday in the Hungarian Delegation. Count Andrassy violently opposed the Government, complaining of the application of military law in Bosnia and the Herzegovina, and attacking the administration of the occupied provinces. The Delegation adopted a credit of 23,733,000 florins for the pacification of the provinces.

INSANE McLEAN.

LONDON, April 19.—At Reading to-day the Grand Jury returned a true bill for high treason against the prisoner McLean, charged with shooting at Queen Victoria, who was placed in the dock. He looked pale and haggard and pleaded not guilty. The Attorney-General opened the case for the prosecution. He said it was a very aggravated one. The jury had a grave responsibility in determining the condition of the prisoner's mind at the time he committed the crime. The evidence for the prosecution went simply to prove that McLean fired the shot. the witnesses were not cross examined. Mr. Montague Williams on opening for the prisoner made insanity the grounds of defence. He said it could be shown that Mclean had been a homicidal maniac for years, and had imagined the English people were against him, and also that it could be proved McLean had been confined in an asylum. The Superintendents of Salisbury and Broadmoor Asylum testified to McLean's insanity. They said they believed him incapable of appreciating the nature or quality of any of his acts. Mr. Williams asked for the acquital of the prisoner on the ground of insanity, and Lord Chief Justice Coleridge summed up the case. Chief Justice Coleridge charged the Grand Jury in the case of McLean, who attempted to shoot Queen Victoria at Windsor. Lord Coleridge said that such cases in England had been rare, but the law bearing on the case, though over 500 years old, was undoubted. The facts as narrated in the depositions of the witnesses clearly supported the charge. The Jury returned a verdict of not guilty on the ground of insanity. Lord Chief Justice Coleridge's summing up was completely colourless, merely pointing out the law in such cases. The prisoner manifested no emotion. In his charge to the jury the Lord Chief Justice said no head of any State was entirely free from the danger of regicidal attacks, neither the chief of a military empire nor the president of a great republic.

SUFFERING IN LABRADOR.

The Inhabitants in Danger of Dying of Starvation.

QUEBEC, April 17.—Information has just been received here of intense suffering on the Labrador coast. A letter to the Marine Department here from Pointe des Monts states that the inhabitants are without food, except seals, seal-oil, and crustaceous fish, and that two or three people have died of starvation, including two men named Laurent and Pierre Crepeau, and some of their children. Unless navigation opens soon other deaths from starvation are expected. The misery has been heightened by the burning in December last of an establishment at Pentecote belonging Ouellette & Croteau, and containing stores. The Indians from the woods, having no means of subsistence, are also reported to have swarmed down upon the settlers.

BELLEVILLE.

CHILD DESERTION.—At about 8:30 o'clock on Monday night a male infant, enclosed in a basket, was left at the door of the Loretto Convent here. Some of the Sisters saw the man deposit the basket and run off, as soon as he returned to the sidewalk. The Chief of Police was sent for, and placed the infant in charge of a family living near the convent.

SUDDEN DEATH.—An 3ld woman named Jessup, whilst walking homeward on Wednesday afternoon, fell on the road near Campton, and was carried into a house near by, where she expired in a few minutes.

WINNIPEG.

GREAT FLOOD.—On Wednesday afternoon the Red River rose greatly and carried down immense quantities of ice which struck and carried away the Broadway Bridge. Two of the spans were carried down the river, and the third lies on the bottom. The Louise bridge was also damaged badly, but still stands. The scene was one of great brilliancy, and was witnessed by immense throngs of people.

PREPARING FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

We are authorized to state that a meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association for the West Riding of Peterborough has been called for Wednesday the 3rd day of May next at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a person to contest the Riding in the interests of the Liberal Conservative party at the next election for the House of Commons. We need scarcely say that it is desirable that each polling division should be represented by a full delegation on that occasion.

INFORMATION WANTED.

The Globe in its issue of the 17th inst. asserts that "the average prices received by the farmer under the two Governments" for wheat has been as follows :—

FALL WHEAT.

Under old tariff	$1.21½
Under new tariff	1.15
Decrease under new tariff	6½

SPRING WHEAT.

Under old tariff	$1.11
Under new tariff	1.18
Increase under new tariff	7

That is, while the value of fall wheat has decreased 6½ cents per bushel that of spring wheat has increased 7 cents per bushel.

Now, what we want to know, and what the farmer wants to know, and what everybody who takes an interest in the wheat question wants to know is: what is the cause which has produced this effect? The Globe declares that the effect of the new tariff has been to make spring wheat on the average worth three cents per bushel more than fall, whereas under the old it was worth ten and a half cents less—or a change in relative values of thirteen and a half cents per bushel. For such a change there must be a reason. Will the Globe give us the information, or shall we have to look for it elsewhere? We pause for a reply.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

On Friday on the motion to go into Committee of Supply Mr. Cameron (Huron) moved an amendment condemning the disallowance of the Streams Bill, contending that only unconstitutional measures could be disallowed.

Mr. McCarthy gave the facts of the case, that Mr. McLaren having spent large sums in making navigable an unnavigable stream, his property was protected by the law courts from being appropriated by Mr. Caldwell, who then got his friends in the Ontario Legislature to give it to him. As an act of spoliation it was very properly disallowed.

After much discussion Mr. Blake, who had waited till past one in the morning, made a two hours' speech in support of the motion. He showed the badness of his case by declining to discuss the merits of the act in question, though he said in the course of his arguments that under our constitution local legislation, of whatever nature, may be disallowed. He filled up the time with talk about reserved bills, English and Canadian history, &c., &c. He concluded by appealing to sectional feelings.

Sir John Macdonald made a complete reply showing that the power of disallowance had been implicitly vested in the Dominion Government, and that every ministry since confederation had exercised it, Mr. Blake himself having recommended it while Minister of Justice in a case within provincial jurisdiction. He completely turned the tables upon Mr. Blake as to the Goodhue will case and the Orange Bills, which he had had the effrontery to mention. He showed the iniquitous nature of the bill in question and the propriety of disallowing it.

There was some further discussion, when the amendment was negatived by 110 to 50.

Some items were then passed in supply amidst disgraceful organized uproar from the Opposition.

Monday being a private day the whole session was taken up with the Montreal Telegraph Co, Bill, which after much discussion was read a third time.

On Tuesday Sir Charles Tupper made his Canada Pacific Railway statement, which was most satisfactory. He showed that the changes of location at both ends, though costing the Company more, would shorten and improve the route. Very good progress had been made, and in the parts to be constructed by the government a large saving had been effected. He eloquently depicted the benefits that were accruing to the country, and showed the fallacy of all the opposition objections to the bargain with the syndicate.

Mr. Blake gave a rehash of the old opposition criticism, advancing nothing new and giving no broad view of the subject. Again he was suffering from a bad case, though he did his best as a special pleader.

On Wednesday he resumed the debate. He owned to mistakes, but threw the responsibility upon Mr. Sandford Fleming, the Chief Engineer. He had to cut short his remarks from his voice failing him.

The debate was continued by Sir R. Cartwright, Sir C. Tupper, Messrs. Dawson, Mills, DeCosmos, Ross, and Patterson.

The bill was read a second time and passed through Committee.

Four members, Messrs. Hector Cameron, Tasse, Currier and Hesson, had occasion to refute wilful and cowardly slanders of the Toronto Globe, Ottawa Free Press and London Advertiser, which can find no better means of attacking their opponents.

The House went into Committee of Supply and passed many items, sitting till a late or rather an early hour.

MIDLAND.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Farewell Supper.—Our leading citizens to the number of over fifty assembled at Rogers' Hotel on Friday evening last to partake of a bounteous repast prepared by mine host and hostess in their usual excellent style. The occasion of the gathering was to bid farewell to our respected townsman Mr. Harry Nichols, for some time past station agent here for the Midland Railway, who is leaving we understand for a more lucrative office in the far west. Mr. Nichols during his residence here has made friends by his courteous manner and the many excellent business qualities he possesses and which will win him respect and success wherever he may be situated. By his removal the Midland Railway will lose an efficient officer. After the good things had been disposed of, Mr. E. Peplow was called upon to take the chair, ably supported in the vice-chair by Mr. H. S. Ruby, whose ready wit is a guarantee of a pleasant evening. The first toast was the Queen followed by "God Save the Queen," rendered as only loyal Britons can give it. Mr. H. F. Switzer made a few happy remarks on his acquaintance with Mr. Nichols which excited the risabilities of the guests while paying a high tribute to the business and social qualifications of Mr. Nichols. Mr. Weston favored the company with the good old song "Tom Bowline." The usual toasts were given. Then followed the "Guest of the evening," responded to by Mr. Nichols, who in a feeling manner expressed his regret at leaving his many friends in Midland, and he assured them that when far away his thoughts would often turn to his Midland home, and the pleasant memories of his friendships here would tend to make his days brighter in his new home. "The Midland Railway Officials" was the next and was responded to by Mr. Tate, who hoped his efforts here would be as pleasing to the residents as those of his predecessor have been. He spoke of his acquaintance with Mr. Nichols in very high terms. Then followed "The Representatives of the Midland Elevator Co." Mr. E. Peplow replied. He remarked on the sorry appearance Midland presented five years ago when it was only a swamp with a few houses, and he predicted that the advance from that to a village of thirteen hundred inhabitants would appear slow in comparison with its progress during the next five years. Song by Mr. Collin Harris, "This Canada of Ours." "The Village of Midland" coupled with the name of the vice-chairman followed. Mr. H. S. Ruby replied in his witty style, mingling jokes and facts and calling forth laughter and applause by turns. Then followed Mr. John White, who called the attention of the guests to the changes in our village since his residence here, only a few years. Comparing the dozen or so small houses then here to the numbers now built, showing nearly half a hundred now in course of construction and as many more plans being prepared; the magnificent stores and bank building now to be erected, work for which is already commenced; the planing mills already hard at work with orders beyond their capacity: the large saw mills of McLeod and Cameron, Dollar's mills, Chew Bros.; the British Canadian, formerly Cook's mill, and the large mill now building on Hugel Point with a cutting capacity of forty or fifty million feet annually; Chew and Weeks' shingle mill; Cameron & McLeod's shingle mill; Chew and Week's large flouring mills, and the magnificent grain elevator, none finer in Ontario, and he believed the only one of the kind in the Dominion, being so arranged as to load and discharge from vessels to cars and also to load and discharge from cars to vessels. He spoke also of our harbour as the finest on the shores of Lake Huron or Georgian Bay. "The ladies" was replied to by Messrs. Hall and Strachan, of Toronto, who remarked that they were constantly reminded of their homes in the city by the beauty of the fair ones they met here, and stating that Midland ladies had no rivals even in the city of Toronto, which as all know is famous throughout the Dominion for its many beautiful ladies. A song by Mr. Anderson followed. The evening being far advanced "Auld Lang Syne" and the national anthem were given, thus ending a very enjoyable meeting of friends.

Notes.—Burton Bros., have commenced work on their new block, for bank and stores, the estimated cost being $15,000....The harbour is all clear....The tug Superior was in the harbour on Saturday....The Jane Woodruff with a cargo of coal arrived on Sunday, being the first of the season....The Cherokee came in for supplies....Marine business has now fairly commenced....Mr. Allen Jeffrey, officer of the American Customs, who was stationed here last year, has returned and is now again attending to his duties here....The Police Magistrate is kept busy....Who owns the horses?....Lennox and Lennox, solicitors of Barrie, have opened an office here—we have law now....Dr. Kidd has his drug store in Hurdon's old stand—Mr. Hall, of Toronto, has charge of the business....Two new jewellers' stores, began business here last week—we don't wear any more jewels than we did—"they sell for cash"....Mr. H. S. Ruby will be in his new store shortly.

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondence.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.

It is now about time that the necessary improvements including of course repairs of our streets, should receive due consideration and attention from the people and Council of the Village. Lakefield has now several miles of sidewalks, in fact, we believe, more than any other village of its size in Ontario. For the last seven years we have through our Municipal Council been continuously building new sidewalks, and the demand has not lessened but has been rather on the increase. It is now about time in the interests of the general ratepayers that the brakes should be shut down firmly. The sidewalks already laid down will have to be kept in good repair, and replaced by new material when necessary by the Corporation. The Corporation is responsible for any accident occuring through any defect in the sidewalks, and that responsibility is worthy of serious consideration. No new sidewalk should be constructed unless it be found to be absolutely necessary in the interests of the public with a view to the future. To build a sidewalk to every man's door would entail a responsibility that this village is not nor will be able to bear. The sidewalks already built will require a large expenditure every year for repairs and removals. Bridge street is an illustration of this point. In 1875 a new sidewalk was constructed on Bridge street, and last year it was found necessary to put down an entirely new one, and so it will be this year, the sidewalks first built after incorporation will have to be replaced at once by new ones. Other matters should not be neglected in favor of a superfluity of sidewalks, as some of our ratepayers seem to think. If we wish the village to thrive and prosper we must have our principal streets put into better condition. Our main street from Sutton's to Strickland's should be thoroughly graded and gravelled, as also the river road from Galvin's to Bridge street. This street or road is a disgrace to the village. These streets are the main avenues through which trade (which is wealth) enters our village. We want not only good sidewalks for our own convenience and pleasure, but good roads into our village to induce farmers and others to come here to trade and to make the village a centre of attraction. Latterly, the people of Lakefield have had almost their undivided attention confined to sidewalks, now let us leave the sidewalks partially and devote a large energy to our streets. The resources of the village this year will certainly be limited, this being the last year of the school debentures or debt, and a rather severe economy will have to be practised all round in order to make both ends meet and at the same time not increase the rate 11 mills. At the same time a sum of $400 could safely be spent on the streets and walks, and at least $300 should be devoted to the improvements of the main thoroughfares. This money or whatever money is to be spent should be laid out at once, promptly and sharply. All the necessary improvements on streets and walks should be completed by the first of July at least. A great deal is wasted by dibbling and dabbling at the streets all the season. This is a very important subject and the more the people of Lakefield pay attention to it the better it will be for the village and themselves.

RETURNED.

Mr. Le Fevre who has been on a visit to the old country returned to Lakefield on Saturday looking hale and hearty. Welcome home.

LARGE INCREASE.

Mr. Abbott who lives about two miles north-east of Lakefield has 13 fine large lambs all thriving excellently, from six ewes, four of which had two lambs each and two three each, making fourteen lambs. One only died, leaving the thirteen as above.

ACCIDENTS.

Accidents seldomly occur singly was illustrated on Friday evening last the 14th inst. On that evening Dr. Kincaid, M. P. P., passed through Lakefield on his return from a trip north without stopping in the village, and when about a mile from Lakefield something went wrong with his buggy, the Dr. was thrown violently to the earth, dislocating his shoulder, he made his way to Mr. Amos' house near by and Mr. Amos went at once for a doctor. Shortly after the accident, Messrs. George McIlmoyl and Jerry Moore returning from Peterborough found the horses entangled with part of the rig, harness, etc., in the culvert at Rags, and not finding the Dr. brought the horses and remnants to Lakefield where they found Amos hunting for a doctor. Well Dr. Armour was soon found and McIlmoyl turned round his horse and buggy to take the Dr. out in a hurry, and on the point of starting, down went the rig but happily no one was hurt this time. Dr. Caldwell happened to come along at the time of the second accident, and Dr. Armour jumped into the buggy with him and both Doctors went in a hurry to attend to the victim of the first accident. The doctor's dislocated shoulder was soon properly located, but the buggy was still very much disjointed some days after when last seen in the village.

FALL WHEAT.

Fall wheat in this part of the country looks splendid. The frost of last week had but very little injurious effect, the weather at the same time being cloudy. The warm weather on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday followed by rain on Wednesday last has had a wonderful effect on fall wheat, giving it a sound and healthy appearance. It is the general opinion here that fall wheat is now comparatively safe.

FORESTERS' MEETING.

Court Lakefield No. 43 will meet in Union Hall on Queen street on Tuesday evening the 27th inst. at 8 o'clock sharp. The nomination and election of officers for the ensuing term will be the order of the day.

LAKES OPEN.

Stoney and Clear Lakes are both completely open at present. The ice went out on Monday last the 17th inst., caused by the high westerly winds blowing on that day. So navigation will now be open between Lakefield, Burleigh and Julien's Landing.

BRALLIGAN TO O'GRADY.

DEAR DAN,—I arrived safe here and am stayen at Tads, as fine an Irish man as iver charged thripence for a glass av mountain due. Accorden to my promise I send a few notes on occasions forninst me, and my trip to the front for work. I need not tell yez the road down, as yez know it by experience. I spint the first furnoon in this place lookin for Barney Morrow's, wonderin what was wrong with the signs at all, at all, till I perceived they kept thim in the back shops, for fear they would pervent the sun from drying the mud av the toe paths. The lion was the only one that was not afraid av the Hebrew giant, for every one knows the lion is backed up with more than ordinary stringth, but even it has to give away to the decision av an outraged justice. I was goin' to call at the Times for a job at shop clanin', but on lookin' ovar his last copy I parcaved he gives too prominint a set off to his byes on lavin', and yez know, Dan, the modesty av the Bralligans, besides I would not like to damane myself to work for a man who knew so little about the use av a car factory. I suppose you are aware the man from No. 1 market block, has moved down beside his hotel, sure it is a long chat I had wid him, about business, and educational matters, and the like.

Shure an "Dadd" too has migrated across the sthrate, and the "fagan" also. 'Tis a fine glass av beer I had there. "John," says I "will yez play a game of checkers," "Mickey," says he, "What day is it?" "Sunday," says I by the same tokin, "sthop it at once," says he, "for my double blinds are down in the wash." Shure I often used to wonder how the people of Peterborough were so athletic, but my first Saturday night in town enlightened me av the whole sacrate, for every boy and girl goes so many rounds on the mane sthreet, by the way for exercise, now and then brakin' the monotony av the thing, by an occasional "ketch on." 'Tis easy for a man to get a job at that here on Saturday night, all that is required is a little chake, and by the same token, this is not a scarce article here. I wonder if this is what they call road work here, if it is there is more av it done than is done on the Government road to Apsley.

Sure an who should I meet but the "Rambler?" Could yez guess how I knowed him, well twas by the cooxin look he gave at a glass av whiskey. "Mickey" sez he will yez do me a favor that I will sez I "is it to shew yez a barber shop."

"No" sez he not a hair of my head will I allow to be sheared till the "suspects" of my native country are free. What is it then, sez I (frightend wid the look av disgust that floated over his classic mug.) "Well thin," sez he, "who is the most truthful man in town. "Pate Simonds," sez I "to be shure for ivery one knows that but Tom Dolan. Does yez know Dan, but I findes great comfort in spakin to Tad, for he has none of that tony style of spakin, but a foine open Irish manner av spakin, like our selves. Arah, but t'is the truth I tell yex that it is Tad who can give yez the Cead Mille Faltie, while a quarter remains in your pocket, but if no quarter is there, he gives a reception of fourteen inches of leather by the same token. Now, Dan, I hope yez will be no ways back ward in lettin me know the news from that vicinity. How is H.R.H., the Black Prince, and has Pate Windsor got enough av morality instilled into his thick cranium, to play a game av cards thrue widout chatin? Din'nt I hear yez say, that some av the boys were bound to the pace, but shure I did'nt think there was enough av that article left there to bind one to. But, no doubt, His Honor has a few broken parts kept some whare for emergencies. I must close, Dan, but before doen so I have a sacrat to tell yez, I am goin to be made first mate on the stame shovel, and whisper agra, yez ned'nt let on, for fear the contractor might find out I was'nt a Grit.

Your affectionate chum.

TWO CENTRAL PRISON CONVICTS ESCAPE.

A Number of Shots Fired at the Fugitives—Not Caught.

TORONTO, April 16.—A short time before the usual hour for stopping work, two of the convicts employed at the brick yard at the Central Prison, dropped their implements of labour and started off at a run. The guard on duty hailing ordered them to stop, and their continuing their headlong course he fired. As it was impossible for the guard to leave the convicts under his charge, the fugitives had succed in passing over a considerable space of ground before two guards started in pursuit. Numerous shots were fired, but without the desired effect, as the runaways, apparently untouched, continued their mad career over the asylum farm until they reached Dufferin street, and then up that until King street had been reached, then west along King street through Parkdale in the direction of the Humber. While passing through Parkdale the convicts were about fifteen minutes' run in advance of the two pursuing guards. They were running abreast and appeared to be straining every nerve in their race for liberty. As night was rapidly approaching, the probabilities of the escaped convicts being captured were exceedingly slight. The two runaways had only two months more to serve, but it reappears that the anticipation of their approaching liberation rendered the period intervening one of such torture, that in order to end it they were willing to stand the chance of being shot.

Mr. Massey, the Warden of the prison, telegraphed to various stations a description of the escaped prisoners. It is only a month since that another convict succeeded in effecting his escape.—Globe.

Philadelphia Non-Plused Over the Story of a Boy from that City found in Florida.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—Secretary Crew of the S.P.C.C., has received a letter from the Superintendent of the New York Society, enclosing a communication from a lady at Hart's Road, Florida, calling attention to a boy brought to that place by a couple of men on March 29. The lady's letter goes on to state that the child was brought from this city by an old man and a younger one calling themselves Husten. That the latter, who claimed to be the boy's father, left Florida immediately, leaving the child with the elder man, whom he calls "granpa," and that the boy is neglected, abused and sent out to beg in order to maintain his custodian in idleness. When questioned as to his past life, the little one trembled, as if in fear, and refused to speak. The matter will be investigated.

RECENT cases are noted in the medical journals of tetanus, or "lockjaw," having occured in infants on account of being bathed in too hot water. A single nurse reports several cases of the kind.

THE religious revival in Kentucky has been so thorough and general that the fashionable young women use note paper bearing the legend "Praise the Lord."

LADIES ARE THE BEST JUDGES.—On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that sozodont is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, so there's an end on't.', This accounts for the popularity of sozodont.

ARCHBISHOP MCCABE, of Dublin, who has been made a Cardinal by Pope Leo XIII, is sixty-six years old, and succeeded Cardinal Paul Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

Mr. W. E. Griffiths has presented the Methodist Episcopal Conference, in session at Newark, N. J., with some original manuscript letters of John Wesley, Asbury and Dr. Crooke.

The following is the common sense treatment for a horse out of condition (in fact all horses require like treatment this time of year) a good Purging Ball followed by a course of strong tonic powder. These are both to be had in Zock's Tonic Compound and Blood Mixture, as each package contains a thoroughly good purging ball and over a pound of strong Tonic Powder. Ask your druggist about it.

In the month of April almost everyone requires a good and reliable Blood Purifier. We know of none so safe and effectual as Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. They act directly on all the secretions, their purgative action carrying off all impurities from the system, they invigorate the Liver and Kinneys, purify the Stomach, cleanse the Bowels, and give strength and tone to the whole system. Try a course of this valuable, safe and reliable vegetable preparation, Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, Agent for Peterborough.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.—In these times of quack medicine advertisements everywhere' it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urniary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Taylor & McDonald.—No. 4

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma and lung disease by Dr. M. Souvielle's Spirometer, an instrument which conveys medicinal properties direct to the parts affected. These wonderful instruments are used in all first-class hospitals, and prescribed by leading physicians. Full directions, for treatment sent by letter, and instruments expressed to any address. It is only since Souvielle's invention that lung disease are no longer feared until their very last stage. Write for particulars to Dr. M. Souvielle, ex-Aide Surgeon of the French Army, 13 Phillips Square, Montreal, and branch office 75 Yonge Street, 1 door north of King, Toronto. All letters must contain stamp for reply. d64-w11

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—From the Kingston (Ont.) Daily Whig.—This old medicine, the ever-effective healer of ills that flesh is heir to, is still before the public in its full favor. It stated on its career of mercy (for a good medicine is a merciful agent), forty years ago, and is to-day sought after by the children of the men who first sought out its virtue and established its name. Were it not for its merits it would long since have "died and left no sign," like many a once popular curative has done even in the last five years. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is no artificial, deleterious compound, certain to afford temporary relief only by cutting its way by powerful agents through vitality, yet leaving a worse injury behind it. It is a vegetable, and by natural remedies works off complaints from a slight cold to a threatening consumption. 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

Guiteau in Sacket's Harbor.

Sacket's Harbor, it seems, has been the home of Guiteau as well as Grant. Mrs. Mary Sammis of Minneapolis was a member of the Guiteau family when residing at Sacket's Harbor. The assassin and Mary were the same age and attended school together. She says he was constantly writing religious essays and preaching, and time and again declared he could walk on the water as Christ did. At last Guiteau appointed a time, after school hours, when he would demonstrate his faith on the waters of Ontario. All the school children and many of the grown people of the town assembled on the shore, and Guiteau speedily put in an appearance. He passed through the crowd without a word, and stood by the water on a small dock. After waving his hands about several times he stepped off the dock into the water, and, of course, went down. The crowd hooted and yelled, and were merry over the failure. It was only by the greatest exertions the boy—then aged about eighteen years—was saved from drowning. The next day he explained his failure by saying that among the crowd were a number of unbelievers, and he chould do nothing in their presence.—Palladium.

WHEN druggists, lawyers and doctors, and even preachers occasionally, besides many others of various professions too numerious to mention, manifest a special interest in any one article we very naturally conclude it has some healthy bearing on their lives, or they would scarcely lift their voices with accord to extol its virtues and place it before those going through life burdened with rheumatism. Filled with rapture over immediate relief, the sufferer ever after refers to St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy, as the most surprisingly efficacious of all remedial agents. We recently observed in a New Jersey exchange the following item in support of the above: Mr. Isaac Correy, manager Salem, N.J., Glass Works, remarks: I am pleased to say that I have used the Great Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, for rheumatism with excellent results: other members of my family have also been greatly benefited by it.

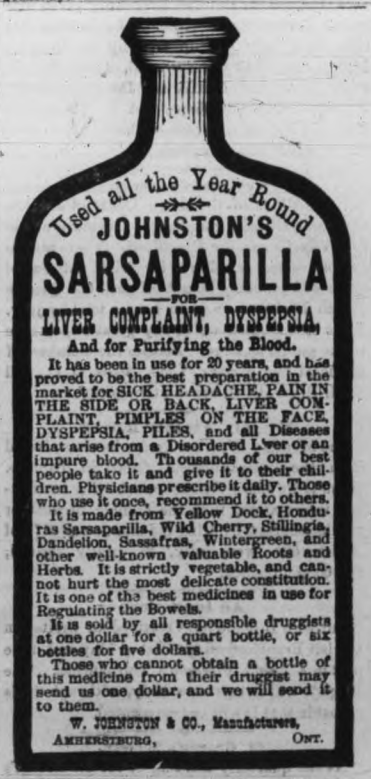
SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.



SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

On and after the 1st of April, trains will arrive and depart from the Union Station as follows :—

MIDLAND RAILWAY TRAINS DEPART at 7 and 10.10 a.m., 12.05, 4.45, 6.45 and 7.40 p.m.

ARRIVE at 8.25 and 11.50 a.m., 6.20, 9.00 and 9.55,

ARRIVE at 10.35 a.m. and 6.30 p.m.

Travellers should note the fact that those who leave Peterborough at 4.45 o'clock p.m. cannot get through to Port Hope any quicker than if they do not leave here until 6.45 p.m. Those who do not desire to remain in Port Hope to wait for the express going east, on the Grand Trunk, can leave here at 7.40 and arrive at Port Hope in time to catch it.

Telephonic.

There has been a regular boom in telephones during the last week, and quite a number of those handy affairs have been placed in position. We learn that Mr. Smith, late of Hamilton, the general agent for Peterborough, Port Hope, Cobourg and Lindsay, intends to settle here permanently. Since his arrival in town he has increased the business of his company largely. Being a practical man he understands his business thoroughly. and has invariably given universal satisfaction. Among the instruments that have been put up recently are those at Messrs. A. Hall's store, Hall, Innes & Co's. store, Hall's mill, McKee and Davidson's store, J. M. Irwin's residence and P. Hamilton's foundry, and we understand that quite a number of others have been ordered.

Court of Chancery.

The sittings of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division commenced this morning before Vice-Chancellor Proudfood. There are only four cases set down for trial, and one of them will probably be put off until the Queen's Bench Division, so as to have a trial by jury. None of the cases are of any great importance to the public at large. Besides the members of the local bar, Messrs. Chas. Moss, Q. C., and S. H. Blake, Q. C. are in attendance.

Monthly Weather Review.

The Monthly Weather Review has been issued from the Meteorological Office in Toronto. From it we learn, besides much other interesting information, that the number of weather predictions issued during the month was 617; of which 520 were fully, 31 partly verified, and 66 not verified.

An Invitation.

Our Fire Brigade have received an invitation to visit Brantford on the 31st of May and take part in a grand Firemen's tournament. The Brigade will not go as a body, although it is probable that it will be represented.

OFFICES.

A by-law was passed fixing the chief office at Peterborough with a branch office in Toronto for the transaction of business. It was also decided to hold monthly meetings of the Directors in Peterborough.

The Bell Ringers.

The Royal Hand Bell Ringers and Gleemen, of London, England, appeared at Bradburn's Hall on Wednesday evening to one of the best houses we have ever seen in town. The fame of the troupe had preceded them and all were on the tiptoe of expectation until the performance commenced. The bell ringing was indeed grand, and well deserved the encomiums that have been passed on it by many of the leading men of the old and new worlds. Never before have the people of Peterborough had an opportunity of listening to such sweet music produced by the "tinkling of bells." The selections embraced old English, Irish and Scotch airs, such as "Home Sweet Home," "The last Rose of Summer," "Rory O'Moore," and others, besides "The Feast of the Lantern's," a Chinese air, a beautiful selection from the "Chimes of Normandy," and imitations of bands and various chimes of bells. Interspersed were old English Glees which were only fairly rendered. Between each piece on the programme (of which none were distributed among the audience) the manager, we suppose, addressed the audience, telling old stories, making atrocious puns, some of which were very vulgar, murdering the Queen's English, and talking of the evil effects of the N.P., all of which fell exceedingly "flat" with the intelligent audience. We believe it is the intention of the Company to again visit Peterborough in the fall, and if they ever return we would advise them to confine themselves to bell ringing, of which they are undoubtedly most thorough masters.

The Weather.

Disagreeable is a very appropriate word to apply to the present state of the weather. The rain of yesterday continued through the night, and to-day has fallen at intervals. Overcoats, waterproofs and umbrellas are in good demand, but still the people, knowing that the rain is neccessary don't growl to any great extent. The outlook is still rainy. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, are as follows :—Lakes—Westerly to northerly winds decreasing in force to night. Cooler, cloudy to fair weather with showers in some localities.

The Excavator.

The remarkable slow progress made in moving the steam excavator, still attracts much attention. Notwithstanding all the efforts that were made to move the machine yesterday, it backed off the temporary track and a portion of it ran on the street, breaking a part of the machine underneath used for holding water. The damage however was very slight and was soon repaired, and to-day with an increased force of men and better facilities good progress has been made and the length of a block has been traversed.

Scraping the Streets.

The Street Inspector has taken time by the forelock and has a large force of men at work scraping the deep mud off Hunter street. The others will be treated in the same manner in their turns. Perhaps it might be well to express the regular half yearly hope that the mud heaps will be carted away before they are again converted into dust by the sun's rays and blown in the eyes of the pedestrians. We have been asked how the mud is to be disposed of, but we cannot answer. It might be used with advantage to help fill up Spaulding's Bay.

The New Post Cards.

The new Canadian postal card has been issued. The card is somewhat longer and scarcely as wide as the original, being more after the American pattern, and made of better quality of paper. There is no ruling upon the face of the card, and it bears the words, "the address to be written on this side," instead of "the address only to be written on this side." The stamp is an oval shape, and the card has no border. The card is very neat.

Town Council Meeting.

The regular meeting of the town council takes place on Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock. At present there is no very important business on the boards, but it is extremely difficult to say what may turn up in the meantime.

POLICE COURT.

FOUND DRUNK.

THURSDAY, April 20.—A rather hard looking customer giving the name of Charles Monaghan who was roped in last night by P. C. McGhee made his appearance in the dock this morning to answer to a charge of being found drunk in the streets on Wednesday evening.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty, and said it was his first offence, promised not to repeat the dose and asked for leniency.

The Mogistrate cautioned him and as the prisoner had passed the night in the cells he was allowed to go, which he did with alacrity.

Known Here.

Mr. Alexander Fisher, Manager of the Ontario Bank, Toronto, who shot and killed himself at Toronto on Wednesday, while suffering from epileptic fits, was well known and respected here. His many friends are exceedingly grieved to hear of his rash act. At one time the deceased was a resident of Port Hope.

For Manitoba.

Mr. Adam Hall has shipped to Winnipeg four of his celebrated wrought iron cook stoves, which he is just introducing into the Prairie Province. This is but the pioneer shipment and a large number are to follow. The are just the thing for Manitobs.

Auction Sale at the 8 Cent Store.

Don't fail to be present at the auction sale which takes place on Saturday afternoon and evening at the 8 cent store. Sale to commence at 1.30 and 7 p, m.

At the Horse Repository.

An auction sale of horses, cattle, &c., will take place on Saturday, the 22nd instant, commencing at noon, at Stapleton's Horse Repository, Simcoe Street.

In Town.

We notice as many as a dozen of the leading citizens of Port Hope in town this afternoon. They were here on private business.

PORT HOPE.

WAS IT AN ACCIDENT?—While E. Farquharson, H. Laird and one of Mr. Shaw's son's were going up John street, on Saturday evening last, some person threw the leg or arm of an old chair at the young man. The missive struck Farquharson on the side of the head, knocking him senseless. He was carried into Mr. Marshall's clothing store, and a physician sent for. The young man was soon restored to consciousness apparently none the worse of the mishap. It was fortunate he was not killed. Who it was that threw the club has not yet been found out.

SHEEP STEALING.—On Thursday last Mr. T. Pearce, lot No. 14, 1st con., Hope, came into our office and advertised two sheep as stolen or strayed a few days previously. The same night two more sheep were stolen out of the pen. There were two men engaged in the work, for they were tracked and the foot marks were quite distinct, and wool from the sheep left on the barbed wire fence where they had been taken over. The sheep were valued at ten dollars each. There are evidently sheep thieves in our midst, and it is hoped they will be caught.

DO YOUR CHILDREN HAVE fits or convulsions, grind their teeth, pick their nose, have a bad breath, or a changeable appetite? Are they restless or feverish at night? If so, ask your druggist for Dr. Smith's German Worm Remedy (take no other), it only costs 25 cents. It is simple safe, and pleasant to take. If there are no worms, it removes the slime and bile that breeds them, tones up the system, and will save many a doctor's bill. A word to the wise, etc. Thousands of testimonials.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

EMBROIDERIES!

AGAIN.

Nothing in the trade to compare with our embroideries of 28 and 30 inches in width. Selling at $2.00 and $2.25.

AS A PROOF.

The ladies of the Boston Opera Company purchased some of this class of EMBROIDERIES during their stay in town. Since then they have repeated the order and have pronounced them to be the finest they had seen on their operatic tour.

THE CONTENTED MAN,
Who is He?

The discussion of this question by an able lecturer was listened to a few evenings ago with interest by a large audience.

We venture to think that one of this class may be represented by the head of a family, who has been instructed to purchase a supply of that essential commodity for the table—TEA.

He has an indefinite idea that the article ought to be cheaper on account of the removal of the duty, but when he finds that he can save 10 cents per lb., instead of 5 he is jubilant.

THE CONTENTED MAN is he who gets the full benefit of the reduction of the duty on his tea for this year by making a saving of, say $3.00 on a purchase of 30 lbs.

Prove it by inspecting my stock of JAPANS AND YOUNG HYSONS.

A leading line of sweet and good drawing JAPAN offering at 35 cents, formerly sold at 45 cents.

BRUTAL MURDER.

An Old Woman Killed in Bed at Quebec—The Murderer Arrested.

QUEBEC, April 29.—A murder was committed in St. Sauveur, last night. At about 10 o'clock an old woman named Anger, proprietor of a small grocery at the corner of St. Ambrose and Parent streets, St. Sauveur, retired to bed with a young girl who had for some time past been staying with her. Shortly after retiring loud knocks were heard at the front door. Madame Anger called out, "Who is there? and received in answer, "Metivier, I want a pound of butter, and a small loaf." The old woman refused to open the door, and the knocks were renewed. She then said to the the young girl, her companion, "Run away, there are robbers here save yourself." The girl ran to the back window, opened it, sprang to the ground and knocked at a neighbor's door. Receiving no answer she returned to Mrs. Anger's and requested her to accompany her. This the old woman refused to do. The girl then went to a neighbor named Rousselle, entering the house. Presently the knocks at Mrs. Anger's door were resumed, and Mr. Rousselle put his head out of a window and said. "Metivier, you had better go home; you have no business, here." Metivier then asked Rousselle if he was a policemen, and receiving a reply in the affirmative he ceased knocking. Rousselle and his family went to bed at 12 o'clock as no further disturbance occurred, Mrs. Anger's companion staying with them for the night. Between six and seven o'clock this morning the girl went to Mrs. Anger's store, and when she arrived there found the front door burst open, the shop ransacked, and Mrs. Anger lying on the bed. Thinking she was dead, the girl feared to enter the bed-room, and so went back to Rousselle's and got one of them to accompany her to the scene of the robbery. On returning, the old woman was found to be stone dead, having bruises on her chest, and a bruise on her left cheek below the eye. A small quantity of blood had fallen on the bedclothes. The murderer has been arrested, and confessed his crime.

A BAD CASE.

The Toronto Telegram says:—Mr. Blake made a vigorous speech on the disallowance of provincial legislation by the Dominion Government. But it was seen from the outset that in defending the Stream Bill he had a bad case. His speech was more like the argument of a special pleader than like the protest of a citizen of Ontario. The truth about the Stream Bill is that while it was within the power and the right of the Ontario Legislature to pass it, the fact that it interfered with a case then before the courts and upset the decision rendered by the judges, condemned it in the eyes of all non-partizan people.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

ARRESTS OF NIHILISTS.

ST PETERSBURG, april 20.—Owing to intelligence furnished at the recent trials a nest of Nihilists belonging to secondary organizations has been discovered, and arrests have commenced on all sides. About five hundred persons among the Demimonde and a number of young men of good family have already been apprehended.

MILITARY MEN MUZZLED.

ST PETERSBURG, April 20.—General Skobeleff has returned. An imperial order has been promulgated prohibiting military men from publicly delivering political speeches or expressing political opinions. War Department officials are prohibited from publishing without sanction their superiors' documents referring to the internal and external affairs of foreign countries.

THE JEWS IN RUSSIA.

VIENNA, April 20.—Allegemeine Zeitung publishes an account from the frontier stating that the troops, previous to the arrival of the Governor of Podolia, at Balta, aided in plundering the Jews. Forty persons were seriously injured during the riots, and some have died. Thousands of houses were destroyed and the damage is estimated at four and a half million roubles.

ON STRIKE.

DUBLIN, April 20.—The laborers of the county of Waterford held a meeting to-day and fixed a schedule of higher wages, and claimed half an acre from the farmers and their rent. The farmers have conceded these demands.

MASSACRES IN MANDALAY.

CALCUTTA, April 20.—Political massacres have recommenced in Mandalay. King Thebaw has put to death an inferior wife and two half-sisters, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and fifty of their relatives.

FISHERIES EXHIBITION.

LONDON, April 20.—An invitation has been sent to the United States Government to participate in the international fishery exhibition in London in 1883.

CATTLE SHIPMENT.

LONDON, April 20.—The largest shipment of thoroughbred cattle ever made, which sailed on Saturday by the Dominion steamer Texas, consists of two hundred and five head, comprising seventy Herefords, purchased by Mr. Simpson from noted breeders, the remainder Polled Angus cattle, for Senator Cochrane. Mr. Simpson's is the finest herd ever shipped.

HANLAN'S WORK.

LONDON, April 20.—Hanlan is doing good and steady work, and keeps his spirits up by frequent recreation. Yesterday might be taken as a specimen. In the morning he rowed to Hammersmith against the tide, and went to Epsom in the afternoon to witness the City and Suburban, where he saw the American horse win. Trickett was out twice.

DEATH OF DARWIN.

LONDON, Eng., April 20.—Charles Robert Darwin, the distinguished naturalist, died to-day at his residence, Down House, near Orpington. He had been suffering for some time from weakness of the heart, but continued to work to the last. He was taken ill on Tuesday night with pains in the chest, faintness, and nausea. The nausea lasted more or less during Wednesday, and culminated in his death in the afternoon. Darwin remained fully conscious until within a quarter of an hour of his death.

THE AMERICAN SUSPECTS.

LONDON, April 20.—Sir Charles Dilke, replying to Mr. Sexton, said it would be inconvenient to make a statement regarding the correspondence with America as to the release of the American suspects. A circular was issued by Mr. Smith, Inspector of Police. It declares that as there was good reason to believe that every means would be used to assassinate Mr. Lloyd, it is to be hoped it will be prevented. The inspector promises to produce the circular to exonerate any escort of the person on an erroneous suspicion of his being about to commit murder. Mr. Sexton complained that Mr. Lloyd had interfered with the huts erected to shelter people at Tulla. Mr. Forster replied that the huts were erected for the purpose of intimidation. The Irish members seemed to be anxious to drive the Government to arrest the members of the Ladies' League as suspects. The Government had a right to do so, but they would use their discretion. Mr. Forster admitted that the last two paragraphs of the circular ought not to have been written. The circular was issued on the 4th of March. Its effects had been to prevent murder. The cowardly ruffians who were likely to shoot from behind a hedge would abstain if they thought themselves in danger. It is understood that the Cabinet to-day arrived at no decision indicating a change of policy in Ireland.

"SELF-PROTECTION" IN IRELAND.

LONDON, April 20,—In the House of Commons, Mr. Sexton moved the adjournment of the House, in order to call attention to the recent circular of Mr. Clifford Lloyd concerning the duty of self-protection. Mr. Sexton said the circular was a gross and barbarous incitement to murder. He called upon Mr. Forster to insist upon its withdrawal. Mr. Lloyd, he said, by nature a tyrant, had done everything to inflame the passions of the people in his district. Mr. Sexton warned the Government that if they carried force too far poverty and despair might prove stronger. Mr. Forster said he believed a price had been put on Mr. Lloyd's head, and a conspiracy existed to assassinate the man who had done more than anybody to defeat the "no rent" movement. Mr. Redmond having persisted in denouncing Mr. Forster as dishonest, the Speaker named him and his suspension was voted. Mr. Shaw denounced the circular. Sir Stafford Northcote hoped the Government would continue to protect Mr. Lloyd, and the Opposition would do nothing to weaken their action. Mr. Sexton withdrew his motion, but will repeat it on Monday.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

RUNNING ITS COURSE.

The Cyclone Strikes the Quaker City and Sweeps Things before It—Great Damage.

Special to the Review.

PENNSYLVANIA, Pa., April 21.—A cyclone last evening levelled the Mennonite church, a splendid brick building. A boy was blown from the back of a horse fifty feet into the middle of a field. A horse was pierced with a flying scantling blown from the church. A stone barn was blown to pieces. The air is filled with flying fence rails, parts of roofs, bricks, timbers and debris of all kinds. Another stone barn was moved from its foundation several feet. The cyclone left hardly a vestige of Mrs. Miller's cottage and orchards. Wm. Ryan's house was relieved of its porch as neatly as if it had been taken off with a saw. James Atkinson's house was gutted, his orchards were uprooted, his barns unroofed and he narrowly escaped death. John Burdorf was lifted from his feet and carried a long distance, and impaled on a fence rail. His injuries are fatal. A large house was blown away like a pile of matches, and the inmates were severely bruised. At Laurel Ridge, John Winegrove was hurled from his wagon and badly bruised against trees and his horses killed by falling timber. He found his house in ruins and his wife dead fifty feet from the house, with her babe clasped in her arms. The infant was unhurt. The clothing of four other children was on fire and they were frightfully burned. Two of them will die. A hole was blown through a large distillery at Bradford, ruining the building which cost over $50,000, and spilling into the river 600 barrels of whiskey. Three persons were killed and six fatally injured.

AMERICAN.

IT WAS LOADED.

DENVERS, Ill, April 21.—Henry Dubois placed the muzzle of a supposed unloaded pistol in his mouth and pulled the trigger. He was instantly killed.

POLYGAMY AGAIN.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 21.—In the draft constitution that will be submitted by the revising committee to the convention on Tuesday, is a clause making polygamy illegal. It coincides with Edmund's Bill, except that the children of penal wives now married are declared legitimate. There is a chance of the convention accepting this compromise.

TROTTING DATES.

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK, April 21.—The Stewarts' grand Circuit trotting association meeting, held here yesterday, arranged to open at Pittsburg, on July 11th; Cleveland, July 25; Buffalo, August 2; Rochester, August 9; Utica August 16; and Hartford, August 30.

The Water Boom.

WINNIPEG, April 20.—The Louise bridge is safe, though the break-water is badly broken. The river is rising slightly, and heavy packs of ice are descending. The worst is believed to be passed. The remaining arches stand firm on Broadway bridge.

LATER.—The river is still rising and the ice jam unmoved for a mile and a half below Louise bridge and as far above Broadway as can be seen. The portion of the city at the foot of Notre Dame street is submerged, and household effects are being moved by boats. There are six feet of water in the grist mill. The water is surrounding the shipyards. The bridges are still standing, but the danger is not past. A portion of St. Boniface is under water. No lives are lost. The main street of Emerson is under water. The river is still rising on the upper reaches. The water here is higher than ever known before.

The Price of Beef.

Numerous complaints are heard in all directions of the advance in the price of beef. Meat which sold for 10 cents a pound is scarcely retailed at 15 cents, an advance of 50 per cent on the cost of a first necessity.

Is there and understanding somewhere to increase without sufficient reason the price of meat?

This is what the working classes, the class most directly interested, have a right to know.

We purpose to make the necessary researches and to publish some days hence a statement of the real facts.—La Patrie of Montreal.

A Cow For the Minister.

A pleasant little social occured at the Batteau on Easter Monday, in the form of a "surprise party" at the parsonage, which a number of the parishioners took by storm—a storm of hearty congratulations and numerous baskets laden with the good things. About 6 a. m. the friendly assault was made, and when Rev. John Farncomb opened the door he was greeted by a crowd of happy faces, and the appearance of a very fine white cow—(gaily decorated with ribbons)—a load of hay, a cheese, and sundry other articles needed for the dairy.—Collingwood Enterprise.

☞LIVER, KIDNEY AND BRIGHT'S DISEASE.—A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Kidney and Liver Complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and posotive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

As caloric, electricity and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

THE PILL BOX.—This familiar little receptacle often contains, under the guise of medicine, cheap mineral compounds the most dangerous. Before you take a remedy for cough or cold, or pain, or ache, etc., make inquiry regarding the virtues of Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills.

FOR CANKER RASH.—Take one teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in hot water, sweetened with syrup or sugar, three times a day, every other day, and a dose of castor oil on the alternate days.

BABY CARRIAGES.

When we sell a CARRIAGE the price is guaranteed; that is, should you find after purchasing that as good value can be bought for less money, come in, and we will make it all right and satisfactory.

WILFUL MISREPRESENTATION.

ANOTHER dishonest attempt has been made by the Globe to deceive its readers as to the boundary question. To catch the eye of the unwary and to suggest a falsehood it publishes a map of Ontario, showing the extent of territory as laid down by the notorious award, and as it falsely asserts it would be if Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues refuse to confirm the award.

The truth, as the Globe well knows, is that the course recommended by Sir John would be likely to give a larger territory to Ontario than the award does, and to give it in a regular manner. It is Mr. Mowat and his friends who are willing to sacrifice territory which rightfully belongs to this province, and which the award does not give us, because he hopes to embarrass his political opponent by this recreant abandonment of his sworn duty to Ontario—thus selling her territory for a partizan advantage.

Mr. Mowat himself claims that the award does not do justice to Ontario, and he has put this claim into the statute book of the Province. In the preamble of an act respecting the northerly and westerly boundaries of Ontario passed in 1879, he says:—

"And whereas the effect of the said award is to give to this Province less territory than had been claimed on behalf of the Province, and more territory than the Government of Canada had contended to be within the limits of the Province, or than was contained within the provisional boundary lines aforesaid."

Sir Francis Hincks, one of the arbitrators, in a book published by him, also admits that the award did not do justice to Ontario. He says:—

"The only questions of doubt were decided in favour of the Dominion. Both on the west and north, the doubts were whether Ontario should not have had more territory."

"The fact is that the language would have justified the arbitrators in extending the boundaries of Ontario very considerably. They were strongly urged by Col. Dennis, one of the permanent staff of the Department of the Interior, after their decision as to the south-westerly and north-westerly boundaries became known, to connect the two points with a natural boundary, and, being aware of the fact that the Albany River had been formerly suggested by the Hudson Bay Company as a satisfactory southern boundary, they adopted it."

Mr. Laurier, a member of the Mackenzie cabinet and the leader of the Quebec Reformers in the Dominion Parliament, goes even further. He actually recommended and voted for the acceptance of the award because it does not do Ontario justice, and because he feared that our Province would obtain a greater extent of country by the decision of the highest court of the Empire, if the matter goes before them. According to the official report he said:—

"Now let us suppose that the question is opened anew. The award may be set aside, and it may be that Ontario will be increased to the extent claimed as her right by the Dominion Government, or it may be that the territory of Ontario will be increased to the extent claimed by Ontario, and granted by Sir George Cartier; namely to Red River—what then? You will have the Province of Ontario made greater than it is by the award."

Mr. Mowat would give up rights he claims in the statute book to make political capital for his friends at Ottawa, who endorse his dereliction of duty. Mr. Laurier would confirm the award to prevent Ontario from obtaining her proper territory. Yet we are told that these men are the friends of Ontario, and the Conservatives, who would carry the matter to a court which would give us every acre that is our due are said to be the foes of Ontario.

A more dishonest, a more dastardly attempt to injure political opponents could hardly be conceived. But the attempt will fail, for the people of Ontario will judge who are their true friends, those who maintain her rights, or those who would thus barter them for place and power.

ANYTHING BUT FACTS.

The following letter to the Guelph Herald affords another instance of the dishonesty with which the Globe's discontent hunter misrepresents facts and opinions as to the National Policy:—

SIR,—As we notice that in your issue of the 18th inst. you refer to an interview between a Globe reporter and ourselves—with said reporter's version as to how we feel on the subject of the N. P.—we would ask space in your valuable columns for our own version of the same, seeing that the reporter gave jottings from a verbal conversation, and has it put in a form that for purposes of ventilating the question before the public we would not endorse.

Well, then, our works (as all our readers may not be aware) are iron foundry and machine shops, and our special line of manufactures, wood working machinery, in which we have been engaged for the past ten years, and have now worked up the largest business in that line in the Dominion. As to the effects of the N.P. on this business we have no hesitation in giving it as our unqualified opinion that not only are ourselves and other manufacturers in a better position, and feeling their business stimulated by the present tariff, but our conviction is that most—if not all of the purchasers of such manufactures in the Dominion—will admit that they, too, are in a better position, and are in process of being still better, by being able to buy machinery, more conveniently, of better quality, and cheaper. The Globe reporter's memory seemed to be at fault as regards the circumstances mentioned to him that we are now extending our foundry business into another line, viz.:—that of loom building, a business which in the past seems never to have taken a firm foot-hold in the Province, which we would not have felt warranted in touching under the old tariff, and the encouragement given to which under the N. P. we confidently anticipate will be equally satisfactory to manufacturers and purchasers. We judge of this by the anxiety manifested by many manufacturers that they could procure a good loom of Canadian manufacture. This we are now laying out to give them.

Hoping that we have not transgressed too far on our space, we are

THE CADET CORPS.

To the Editor of the Review:

SIR,—I have been asked several times "What about the Cadet Corps?" and I should like through your columns, to explain the position of affairs, so far at least as I myself am concerned. In the first place I have no personal ends to serve in the matter, and I do not want to take it upon myself to keep up the corps, if the trustees, and the teachers, and the parents, and the boys of the school, and their sisters and their grandmothers, are all opposed to it, as the published accounts of the late meeting of the school board would almost make us believe. When I saw the corps about to be finally broken up, simply because there was no one to take any interest in it, I took it upon myself to call attention to the matter in the hope that the good sense of parents and trustees would be brought to bear upon a question, which in these days of cramming and excessive metal training, affects the well-being of the youth of the country. At the suggestion of the Chairman of the Board of Education, a gentleman who takes some interest in the matter, I went to the school in the early part of March, and took down the names of 24 boys who wished to be enrolled, and I then saw enough to convince me that so far as the boys were concerned, there was not only no objection to the movement, but rather a strong feeling in favour of it, and that a full corps of forty could easily be obtained if the question of uniform could be satisfactorily arranged. Being in Ottawa a few days after, I had an interview with the Hon. Mr. Caron, Minister of Militia, who expressed himself as much interested in the question of the school corps. I asked him if the Government could not provide uniforms free of charge, as for the volunteers. This he said could not be done with the funds at their disposal, but he said that he would recommend that the Government should supply to the school board suitable uniforms at cost price, which would be much cheaper than they could be obtained otherwise, and that he would endeavour to have a sum placed in the supplementary estimates for the purpose of at once procuring a supply of the uniforms. Nothing has been done since, because the supplementary estimates have not yet been brought down, and I must have something definite to propose, about the uniforms, before again bringing the matter before the trustees, or the boys. My idea is that if suitable and durable uniforms can be got from the Government, at a low price, they should be bought by the trustees and kept on hand for the purpose of drill only. They will thus last for from five to ten years, and will always be on hand as new boys take the place of the old. It might, perhaps, be advisable, only to procure the coats or tunics, and let the boys wear their own trousers of a dark color and their own "Scotch" caps. In this way the whole expense, for scarlet or black cloth tunics such as supplied to the volunteers, would only be $160, and for the boys they would probably be less. Surely the Board can afford $160, to run over a period of ten years, towards assisting in the physical education of the pupils, when so many thousands are spent every year on mental education. If the Board will not do this how many men are there in town, public spirited enough, to contribute each the price of a tunic, say $4.00. I believe there are some at least who will do so. I will be one. If the corps were reorganized the members could, I believe, make up the amount by giving a public entertainment at midsummer. This is all of course based on the assumption that there is not that organized opposition to all idea of drilling referred to above. I can understand that there may be indifference, but I can hardly understand that parents and teachers are opposed to it, or that it can be in any sense detrimental to the interests of the school. There must be some misunderstanding somewhere. The Principal of the Collegiate Institute and the Principal of the Common Schools, expressed themselves in favor of it, before I enrolled the boys. I should like, Mr. Editor, to hear from others their views on this question. If others are interested in it let them say so and help it along. If no one else agrees with me then I had better drop it too, and let it go to the wall as many another good cause has fared.

Yours &c.,
E. B. EDWARDS.

Pocket Pistols.

To those who are inclined to believe in the efficacy of the ordinary pocket pistol as a means of defence, the N. Y. Herald has this to say: "Not long since a man in Williamsburg was moved to indulge in some pistol practice, and used his room-mate as a target. As the two men were in a small room all the bullets in the marksmans' six-shooter took effect, yet it is probable that the victim will recover. Had the living target been clad in overcoat and slouch hat, as a rowdy or burglar would probably be during the late hours in which some respectable citizens consider it proper to be ready to shoot, the chances are that he would not have been hurt at all. Pistol shooting out of doors is frequently heard, but not once in a hundred times is any injury reported, for between bad aim, unsteady hands, slightly charged cartridges and weapons of small calibre the likelihood of physical damage is extremely small. During the early days of the late civil war, when every volunteer considered it the proper thing to reinforce the musket on his shoulder by a pistol in his pocket, a veteran shot, who was also a tramp, allowed recruits to fire pistols at him at ten paces for a dollar a shot, and although he got a scratch or two he earned money enough to go to the Nevada mines, and he lived to be lynched for stealing a mule. Unless a man is a crack shot and carries a very large pistol, which on any except extraordinary occasions no man does, he will do far better to buy a stout cane for purposes of self-defence, for in case of a fight he can raise it quicker than a ruffian can draw a pistol, and a blow or two from it will demoralize a rowdy who is an expert with his fists.
